The clerk reports that the Chase National Bank returned water bond and semi-annual interest coupons duly cancelled, and on motion he was authorized to destroy the same.

Street commissioner's report submitted, showing work done on village from Feb. 23 to March 23:

Wm. Cassel, labor, 10 hours	$1 50
Edgar Packard, labor, 4 hours	60

On motion the report was accepted and clerk instructed to draw orders for the labor account.

On motion the clerk was instructed to draw an order in favor of Tecumseh state savings bank for $3.60, there being an error of that amount in assessment of taxes to Mr. VanDeventer, a stockholder in the Tecumseh state savings bank.

On motion the following resolution was adopted: "Whereas, Tecumseh school district No. 7, has received an offer from Mr. Andrew Carnegie to donate $8,000 for a public library building in Tecumseh; and whereas, said school district did, at a special meeting of the district called for that purpose, accept the same by a unanimous vote; therefore, resolved, that this council does unanimously endorse the action of said school district in accepting the generous offer of Mr. Carnegie.

The following bill of C. W. Hall for rope, was allowed:

C. W. Hall	$6 50

On motion the council adjourned.

HARRY C. MOORE,
Village Clerk.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic and effective nervine and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

FOUL BREATH?

DID YOU EVER MEET
A PERSON WITH A FOUL BREATH?

and have them get close to you while relating some good joke? and although you wanted to escape the breath, you could not?

THE CAUSE

is a disordered stomach and a general bad condition of the blood, possibly a torpid liver was the primary cause. Would you not advise them to do something to get rid

OF THAT BREATH?

Reader, if you are one of those unfortunates with a foul breath, why do you not take action? why do you not see that your stomach is put in order? There is no excuse for it when there is a remedy at hand.

Kinyon's Blood AND Kidney Remedy

Strengthens the kidneys, enabling these important organs to carry off the impurities. Regulates the liver so that it may aid in the digestive operation and keep the bowels active. Tones up the stomach and enables it to properly digest the food so that the body may be nourished and become strong. With these organs all active and strong the system becomes cleansed and the foul breath will leave as if by magic. Do not delay. Act at once.

Loss of Flesh

When you can't eat breakfast, take Scott's Emulsion. When you can't eat bread and butter, take Scott's Emulsion. When you have been living on a milk diet and want something a little more nourishing, take Scott's Emulsion.

To get fat you must eat fat. Scott's Emulsion is a great fattener, a great strength giver.

Those who have lost flesh want to increase all body tissues, not only fat. Scott's Emulsion increases them all, bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

For invalids, for convalescents, for consumptives, for weak children, for all who need flesh, Scott's Emulsion is a rich and comfortable food, and a natural tonic.

We will send you a free sample.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

HOME WEDDING

Mr. F. D. Avery and Mrs. Anna Mead were

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

At 8 O'clock Wednesday Evening Rev. L. Bower Officiated

Mr. F. D. Avery and Mrs. Anna Mead were united in holy wedlock at eight o'clock Wednesday evening at the Avery residence on Pottawatamie street. The impressive words were spoken by Rev. L. Bower, pastor of the Baptist church, only immediate relatives of the contracting parties witnessed the marriage.

Mr. Avery is one of Tecumseh's most prominent business men having conducted a grocery business here for a number of years. Mrs. Mead is well and favorably known in Tecumseh and the happy couple have the best wishes and respect of their many friends in Tecumseh and vicinity.

Miller Bryan Co.

One of the many features of the Miller Bryan Co. which opens a three nights engagement at the New Bradley opera house Thursday, March 19, is that there will be no long tiresome waits between the acts as the time is filled in with polite and refined specialties. Thursday evening they will present the strong society comedy drama "A Hero in Rags."

Thursday evening a free reserve seat will be given to each lady when accompanied by one paid 30 cent seat purchased prior to 6 p. m. of opening night.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound and well. Everybody ought to know it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

ALL OVER TOWN.

Mud, Yes, Mud is Not Only All Over Town But

ALL OVER THE COUNTY

At the Present Time.

This portion of Lenawee county is not usually very muddy at this or any other season of the year, but just now it is simply rotten. Something unusual about the spring rains and the thawing has happened this year to make the roads much worse than usual. Street Commissioner Hyde says that in his experience the streets of Tecumseh were never as bad as now and the rural delivery mail carriers both west and east of town, have been almost unable to get around with the mail.

Jesse Coller has had his whole family and all the horses in the town at work for several days and James Updike says that the only way to get over the town line is to go down and up on the other side. If some of our good church people would set in and pray for a little sunshine and March wind it would certainly be appreciated by these poor devils who have to carry the rural mail routes.

Speaking about mud. One day last week Yankee Tom Boyd came to town and he looked for all the world as if he had been clear through one of Cunningham Patterson's cock fights. His face was all scratched up, clothes covered with mud, one glove gone, whip broken in the middle and generally in a disabled and broken condition. A little talk with our friend, Thomas, disclosed the fact that he was not exactly broken but badly bent.

The day before he had journeyed to Sloan's after a load of hay and when returning one of the hind wheels of the wagon took a little excursion on its own account, toward China and dumped the whole load of hay, not first inquiring as to the geographical location of Thomas, hence the above result.

The effect was more noticeable as Thomas is usually a slick looking farmer when he comes to town. It was a pretty bad spill over but he is now all right, as good natured as ever and to use his own words "I am tough as ever and they could not kill me with an ax."

Thinking of well preserved people reminds me of a telegram that Joe Keensy showed me the other day from his uncle, now 83 years old, asking him to come to Chicago to help him to buy a car load of mules. He says this uncle is as well and smart as ever and has already bought and disposed of three car loads of horses this year.

Another instance is that of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Zeluff who celebrated their 66th anniversary yesterday. In another column of the HERALD can be seen their pictures and an account of the celebration.

The HERALD is deeply indebted to Miss Helen Anderson for transcribing the notes so that it was possible to print the very interesting article read by her before the Monday club this week. The article is printed on the second page of this issue of the paper.

GEORGE N. STACY.

THE CHURCHES.

Morning subject at Presbyterian church next Sunday will be "Peter's Lifting" evening subject, "Repentance."

Rev. S. Louisa Haight will preach next Sunday morning in the Universalist church subject of Sermon, "The Man Rich in Faith".

The subject of the sermon Sunday morning at the M. E. church will be, "The Folly of Rejecting Christ." The evening subject will be, "The great reason why men are not Christians."

Sunday afternoon services at St. Peter's during Lent. Special course of sermons. General subject—"The Way of Salvation."

March 15th "The Way of Salvation."

The Rector would earnestly commend this course of sermons. It is not more to be lamented than it is true that the great majority of Christian people have no proper understanding whatever of the Way of Salvation.

SNOW STORM.

One Visits our Town and was Witnessed by Many

LAST NIGHT

Prof. Sturgis Harnessed the Northern Elements and Used Them at His Final Dance at the Armory.

Prof. Sturgis brought to a close, last night, his series of dancing lessons. The armory was the scene of merry dancers and enthusiastic spectators. The pleasing manner in which Prof. Sturgis has conducted each and every dance has won for him the highest admiration of all his pupils and it was with much regret that both instructor and pupils bid farewell to each other.

The hall was a grand creation in itself and decorated in an appropriate manner. Prof. Sturgis announced a Snowflake Party and the decorations were in keeping with the name, in fact it looked very wintery to see the overhanging festoons of ground-pine covered with cotton batton representing the snow. The side walls were likewise decorated with evergreen, and the artificial snow, further carrying out the winter scene. At the north side of the hall an artistically arranged booth was prominient, here it was that refreshments were served. At the opposite side of the hall was erected a simular booth from which floated the strains of a two step, waltz, etc.

In the center of the hall at the ceiling was fastened a huge bell, surrouned by many artificual snow balls and covered with the same. It was from this large bell that the storm originated, and the way in which it fell would almost rival some of our heaviest snow storms.

In all about sixty-five couples and a number of spectators participated in the evening's storms, and all declare it to be the most novel and original dance of the season. Those from out of town to attend the party were; Misses Jennie Gilkey, Hallie Snell, Messers. Elmer Riley, Lawerence Boyd, Ernest Gregg, Clarence Rude, Mat Snell, Charles Mudge, of Adrian; Miss Cynthia Bailey, of Manchester, and Miss Nora Lauer, of Monroe.

Perhaps the most radical and original article in the current issue of The Critic is Mr. Moncure D. Conway's "Mary Magdalene." Mr. Conway traces the Magdalene myth back to its inception and follows its development through centuries of distortion. He finds the accepted bibical version entirely unsupported by fact, and, in the course of an extended paper, makes an absorbing case for the true Mary—for the alluring creature who has so stimulated the fancy of ages.

Paine's Celery Compound CURES RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatism, which does its terrible work in the muscles, joints, and tissues, is caused by uric acid which gathers in the blood. To get rid of this poisonous acid which produces the irritations, pains, agonies, inflammations, and swellings peculiar to rheumatism, Paine's Celery Compound should be used without delay. No other medicine gives such prompt, cheering, and happy results. It is the only medicine that prevents a return of the dreaded disease. Paine's Celery Compound braces the nerves, the blood is quickly cleared of all irritating poisons, tissue, and muscle are built up, and the digestive organs perfectly toned. Do not treat with indifference the slightest rheumatic symptoms; the early use of Paine's Celery Compound will save you weeks and months of suffering. Mr. S. D. Conway, St. Louis, Mo., was permanently cured by Paine's Celery Compound after repeated failures with other medicines and physicians; he says:—

"I am 64 years of age, and have lived in St. Louis 27 years, and all this time with the exception of three years, I have served in the Engineers' Department as Inspector. Last winter I contracted rheumatism and was laid up. I tried all remedies and doctors, but all failed until I struck Paine's Celery Compound, which has made a permanent cure in my case. I have recommended it to many, and they have used it with the same result."

A FITTING TRIBUTE.

The following public statement of a respected citizen adds one more emphatic endorsement of merit to the scores that have appeared before

Mrs. E. D. Fryer, who lives in the northwestern section of Tecumseh, says: "I suffered from my kidneys off and on for about two years. During an attack the pain was worse along in the afternoon and I often felt like giving up but I kept on working in misery, for stooping or straightening made my back feel as if it were breaking in two. If I took a slight cold it always settled in my back and in spite of all the remedies I used I could not get relief. Procuring Doan's Kidney Pills at C. A. Wright's drug store I took a course of the treatment. It did more good than all the other medicine I ever used. The pain in my back was quickly relieved. I take pleasure in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

A GRAND JURY

Summoned at Saginaw to Investigate Bribery Charges.

Saginaw, Mich., March 12.—Excitement regarding bridge affairs reached a climax last night, when it became known that a grand jury had been summoned to investigate the bribery charges. Judge Beach of the circuit court has issued an order, returnable March 23, criminal cases taking the time of the court to that day.

On Monday night the council appointed a committee to investigate the charges, in accordance with the recommendation of the mayor. Wednesday this committee subpoenaed Chas. L. Benjamin, the man who made the charge that Thomas Nickels, a member of last year's board of public works, had been approached with an offer of $5,000 to sign a contract for the National Bridge company, as ordered by the council. To the surprise of the committee, Benjamin intimated that his business might detain him from attending its sessions. In the meantime citizens have insistently demanded a grand jury, hence the call.

Cow Had Hydrophobia.

Michigan Agricultural College, March 12.—Drs. Muir and Elzinga, veterinarians of Grand Rapids, suspected a cow of having hydrophobia. Wishing to be substantiated in their belief, they sent its head to the bacteriology department here to be tested. Dr. Marshall made the test by inoculating a rabbit, which showed extreme symptoms of hydrophobia at the end of ten days. The case was doubtless a severe one, as from previous tests it has taken all the way from fifteen to eighteen days for the first symptoms to appear after inoculation.

A KICKER ON THE ROUTE.

Pa used to take the wagon
An' just put in one seat;
An' then hitch up the old bay mare
What has them two white feet,

An' say, "You get away, you kids,
You can't go along with me;
I'm goin' to town to get the mail,
I'm busy, don't you see."

When he was gone, the hired man
Would go off for a smoke
An' tell us that he stopped his work
Because his tools were broke.

Then I'd go off fishin'
'Stid of choppin' that old wood,
An' stop away for several hours
When the fish was bitin' good.

But now it's all so different;
The hired man doesn't shirk,
An' before I go afishin'
I have to do my work.

Now what's the reason of it?
Why, anyone can see,
Pa doesn't go to town for mail,
We've got the R. F. D.

Headache

kills, not necessarily suddenly, but SURELY. It preys upon the intellectual powers more than we realize. It consumes the vitality faster than nature can replenish it, and we cannot tell just what moment a temporary or complete aberration of the mind will result. Headache and pain should be promptly removed—but properly. Many pain cures are more harmful than the pain. Beware. If you would be safe, take

Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

"As a result of neuralgia I lost the sight of my right eye, and the pain I have suffered is incomprehensible, being obliged to take opiates almost continually. A friend gave me one of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and it promptly relieved me. I then purchased a box and now my trouble is gone. They have also cured my daughter of nervous headache, and I heartily recommend them to others."—W. J. CORLEY, Bremond, Texas.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

Rev. Kooiker was called to Cone last Monday morning to conduct the funeral services of Mrs. Joe Wright. The services were held at the house and she was buried at Ridgeway. Mrs. Wright is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Craig, was 45 years of age and had been married to Mr. Wright for nearly twenty years. They had no children.

Rev. Kooiker of the Reformed church announced last Sunday morning that he had accepted the call from the Reformed church at Centerville and he expects to leave here the last of the month. The Classis will meet at Centerville next week to disolve the pastoral relation between Rev. Kooiker and the church here and make arrangements for the installation there.

SAMUEL GIBSON.

The funeral services of Mr. Samuel Gibson were held last Saturday noon at the house. The services were conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. Kooiker, who spoke on the words found in John 14:3. Rev. Foltz offered prayer.

Mr. Gibson was born in Antrim county, Ireland March 17, 1823. He was married to Mary Darragh August 5, 1850. To them eleven children were born, one dying in infancy and their oldest daughter five years ago.

Mr. Gibson came to America in 1879 and settled at Britton, Mich. Having joined the Presbyterian church in his youth, he brought his letter from that church and at the time the Reformed church was organized here, joined the same by letter.

Two of his sons, being in California, were not present at the funeral.

The church looses in Mr. Gibson a praying member, the community, a happy and cheerful man. Lacking only thirteen days of being eighty years of age he lived to the end of a strong life, when Jesus came to take him home that he might be there where He is also.

Found Baby's Body in Box.

Port Huron, Mich., March 12.—As William Kessel was walking along Lincoln avenue Wednesday morning his attention was called to some dogs dragging a shoe box about, from which there protruded what seemed to be a piece of human flesh. Taking the box away from the dogs, he opened it and was horrified to find the remains of a new-born babe, with all evidence of having been murdered. The police were notified and an investigation is being made. The child had been dead more than twenty-four hours.

Sad Story of Love.

Owosso, Mich., March 12.—The last act in a sad little love tragedy was enacted Wednesday, when Probate Judge Matthew Bush declared Miss Hattie E. Wilkinson of Owosso township insane and made an order admitting her to the asylum at Pontiac. One year ago Miss Wilkinson, bright, happy and winsome, was engaged to a young farmer at North Star. Within two weeks of the wedding he fell sick and died. Since then the girl has acted very queer.

Woman Deserted Little Boy.

Menominee, Mich., March 12.—A little boy, apparently about five years old, was left at the restaurant of Miss McGillis at Powers, a small village north of Menominee, Tuesday by two stylishly dressed women. The child is still there and the police are looking for the women.

Now He Is Crazy.

Mendon, Mich., March 12.—The case of Oscar Newasaky, the young Polish farmer who was bitten by the winter bug, is still puzzling the doctors. Newasaky remained in a semi-conscious state for two days and then became a raving maniac from blood poison, the hair from his head and body falling out.

Aged Couple to Wed.

Lapeer, Mich., March 12.—The Lapeer county clerk has just issued a marriage license on application of Lucinda Withey, a widow in Imlay City, who swears she was 88 last birthday, and knows no reason why she should not be united in marriage to Joshua Cline, aged 92, living at Capac.

"Get-Rich-Quick" Man Sentenced.

New York, March 12.—T. Byrnes, one of the men arrested in the recent raid on "get-rich-quick" concerns, was Wednesday sentenced to a year's imprisonment. As the police could not get any of Byrnes' alleged victims to appear against him, he was charged with doing business under an assumed name, pleaded guilty and was sentenced. Byrnes' business was one of the smaller ones broken up by the police.

CARS RAN WILD

FOUR MEN WERE INJURED

Battle Creek, Mich., March 16.—Another serious accident on the Grand Trunk happened at 5 o'clock Sunday morning at Marcellus. Four men were injured. The two who live here and are perhaps fatally hurt are John DeFrance, conductor, and William Hack, rear brakeman.

Extra westbound freight No. 896 was coming down the steep grade east of the station and a heavy fog was prevailing. Attached to the train was a regular caboose behind a deadhead caboose and crew going to Chicago. When near Summit grade both way cars became detached. The engineer, not noticing this, kept on to Marcellus and stopped. Conductor DeFrance stepped onto the platform to see that the order board was clear, and in a second the two wild cabooses crashed into the rear of the train.

DeFrance is suffering from concussion of the brain and also internal injuries. Hack was thrown heavily against a stove, receiving internal injuries. Both men were brought to Battle Creek.

Conductor DeFrance was taken to his home and Hack to Nichols hospital. Both are in precarious condition. The injuries of the others are not serious.

SUDDENLY NOTORIOUS.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 16.—Claimed by three wives and alleged to be an embezzler in the sum of $600, Cashier Arthur S. Chisholm of the United States Express company, has become suddenly notorious. Chisholm is 28 years old and came here last June from Fort Wayne, Ind., to enter the employ of the express company.

He soon impressed the local officers of the company with his polished manners and refined appearance and his advance was rapid. During the past few months losses have been noticed daily at the local office, but the leak could not be traced. Suspicion at last pointed toward Chisholm and a warrant for his arrest followed an examination of his books. He was arrested Saturday night.

Investigation only added to his difficulties, and before he was in jail twelve hours the officers discovered that he had two women living within three blocks of each other who claimed to be his wife and that a divorced wife is living in Indiana. It was also learned that he was keeping company with another woman here who expected to become his wife.

Boosted the Bonus.

Owosso, Mich., March 16.—The sugar factories of central Michigan have been compelled to adopt defensive measures against foxy farmers who were overreaching them. The farmers held off so late in signing contracts, the sugar companies became alarmed and sent out agents to solicit acreage. The agents allowed the farmers $1 per acre bonus for signing. This worked well until the farmers got agents for rival factories bidding against each other for contracts, sending the bonus up to $2 per acre and beyond. The operators soon tired of this and have signed an agreement which defines the limits of each factory's natural territory, making certain towns boundary lines. Farmers who intend raising beets and have signed no contracts see that they have lost their good thing and are affixing their signatures.

Flagman Struck by a Train.

Ypsilanti, Mich., March 16.—Milton Pearson, an old resident of this city, and a temporary flagman at the Cross street crossing of the Michigan Central railroad, was struck last evening by an eastbound freight train. A train was going west at the time, and it was the old story of one train drowning the noise of the other. Pearson was carried a quarter of a mile on the engine and when taken off was still living. He was carried to the home of a relative, where he died soon after.

Peninsular Oratorical Contest.

Pontiac, Mich., March 16.—The state contest of the Peninsular Oratorical league will be held in this city May 8. Representatives of Ann Arbor, Grand Rapids, Saginaw, Kalamazoo, Bay City and Pontiac high schools will compete. Pontiac's record in oratorical work has been very successful, and the contest here is expected to be of a high order.

Knocked Down and Robbed.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 16.—Henry Frickey, an old soldier, was knocked down in Kent alley and robbed of his watch and $8 in cash. Ned Sandler, a professional tough, was arrested on suspicion. Robberies of this character have been frequent lately, several cases occurring in the past month.

Farmer's Mysterious Death.

Owosso, Mich., March 16.—James Ryan, a farmer living west of Oakley, died Sunday morning of a mysterious illness lasting only one day. Ryan complained of being extremely drowsy and never awakened from a deep sleep which immediately overcame him. Ryan was 39 years old and unmarried. There will be no inquest.

Burglars Scared Away.

Coopersville, Mich., March 16.—Burglars blew open the postoffice safe here but before they could get at the inner vault were frightened away by passers. They escaped with a stolen rig.

Every man should know something of law. If he knows enough to keep out of it he is a pretty good lawyer.

A fast man is very slow when it comes to paying his debts.—Philadelphia Record.

It Saved his Leg.

P. A. Danforth of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg, but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For ulcers, wounds, piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cts. Sold by C. A. Wright druggist.

BOLD ROBBERIES

BOUND THEM HAND AND FOOT

Then Proceeded to Loot the House—Stole $8,000—Robbers Hold Up Patrons of Pueblo, Col., Restaurant—One Man Killed.

Wapakoneta, O., March 16.—A bold robbery took place Saturday night near Cridersville, six miles north of here. Fourteen masked men entered the house of Mrs. Jacob Reischelderfer, an aged and wealthy widow, and took possession. Mrs. Mrs. Reischelderfer are living her granddaughter Blanche, aged 12 years, George James and his wife and their son, Joseph James, a young man. Mrs. Reischelderfer was known to be afraid to trust her money to the banks.

The robbers first knocked down the elder James and bound him and the two women hand and foot with ropes and tied them to beds in separate rooms. When Joseph James returned from town the robbers seized and bound him in the kitchen. At the point of a shotgun they made him tell where the money was to be found. They secured $1,200 in cash and $7,000 worth of notes and securities from an old chest and proceeded to ransack the house. They took possession of all the jewelry and silverware and secured a month's wages from the elder James. They blindfolded all but the little girl. After dividing the money some of the robbers left at midnight and the others stayed until 2 o'clock, helping themselves to wine and eatables. They called all their victims by their first names and are supposed to have come from Cridersville and vicinity, as they appeared to be familiar with the house.

Pueblo, Col., March 16.—A daring attempt at robbery, with a tragic ending, occurred in one of the most fashionable restaurants in this city last night. Two masked robbers entered Loestaus by the front door. One went to the cashier's desk and the other attempted to rob the guests at the tables. The second robber pointed a revolver at Dr. J. F. Turner, who was sitting at a table, and ordered him to throw up his hands. The doctor hesitated and the robber fired full in his face, killing him instantly. Then the men attacked other guests. C. B. Bishop was shot in the left side. Without securing any booty, the robbers fled. Bishop is in a critical condition.

There is no clue to the identity of the robbers.

Light That Failed.

Evansville, Ind., March 16.—Mayor Charles G. Covert and several members of his cabinet find themselves compelled to discontinue the use of gas in their homes. This comes as a result of their being members of labor unions. Mayor Covert and other city officials had the gas turned off in their homes Saturday and will use other material for lighting and fuel. All were notified by the Central Labor union, which has placed a boycott against the Evansville Gas & Electric Light Co., either to discontinue the use of gas or be suspended by the unions.

Vandals' Work.

Princeton, N. J., March 16.—One of the big bronze lions which guard the entrance of historic Nassau hall was so badly disfigured Saturday night by a crowd of young alumni and upper classmen that it cannot be satisfactorily repaired. The lions were presented to the university by the class of 1879, of which President Wilson is a member. An act of vandalism was committed on the new gymnasium last night, the damage being estimated at $200.

Snowbound Thirty Days.

St. Johns, N. F., March 16.—A working train, with a crew of sixty men, has been dispatched to attempt to clear the railway line across the country, cut out the express train, which has been snowbound in the interior for the past thirty days, and enable traffic over the railway along the western slope of the island, which has been abandoned for a month. The working train previously operating in the interior, derailed some time ago, has since been helpless in the midst of the snowdrifts.

To Invade California.

San Francisco, March 16.—James J. Hill, president of the Northern Securities company, is planning to invade California by way of the north with lines of the Great Northern railroad, according to the Call. It is stated that two surveys have been along the California and Oregon coast between Portland and San Francisco, and that those interested in the surveys have already submitted to Mr. Hill two routes, by which he can reach San Francisco.

Killed by a Rejected Lover.

Providence, R. I., March 16.—Miss Julia Toombs, a 23-year-old girl, was shot and killed Sunday by William Stevens Morse, a rejected lover, who during the past three months has been twice in an insane asylum. Morse fired four shots at her while she was on her way to church, and every shot took effect. When 10 years of age, Morse made a desperate attempt to kill his 11-year-old sister with a butcher knife and served several years in the Connecticut state reformatory in consequence.

Germany's Money Awaits Her.

Caracas, March 16.—The amount of the first payment due to Germany, under the Washington agreement, was deposited in a safe at the treasury Sunday and will be paid on the order of the German minister, Herr von Pilldram, who is expected to arrive here next Tuesday.

Varnish From Seaweed.

A kind of seaweed which is plentiful on the coast of China furnishes an admirable glue and varnish. When dried, it is waterproof, and it is employed to fill up the interstices in bamboo network, of which windows are frequently constructed in that country. It is also utilised to strengthen and varnish paper lanterns.

A Cheerful Proposal.

A Scottish beadle one day led the manse housemaid to the churchyard and, pointing with his finger, stammered:

"My folk lie there, Jenny. Wad ye like to lie there too?"

It was his way of popping the question.

LEVEE OVERTOPPED

Jefferson County, Miss., Residents Getting Ready to Move.

FLOOD SITUATION IS WORSE

Heavy Rains Continue in the South—Several Fine Plantations Submerged—Merrimac River Is Also on a Rampage—Trouble in Massachusetts.

Natchez, Miss., March 14.—It will be impossible to secure further news from Ashland, where the levee is overtopped by the river. The relief boat St. Joseph is there now. Everybody in the southeastern section of Jefferson county is ready to move.

The protection levee in front of the Texas & Pacific embankment at Bougere has been torn away by the water, which is now pouring against the embankment. The railroad has a large force of men and a work train raising its roadbed, which is protecting a part of Concordia parish, La.

The steamer Betsy Ann arrived yesterday afternoon from Bayou Sara with many flood refugees and carrying stock and cotton. Rain has been falling since early Thursday night. The gauge is 47.5, rising. The danger line is 44 feet.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 14.—The flood situation in this section is steadily growing worse. It is intensified by continued heavy rains. While the engineers are keeping up a brave front, it is plain that they fear the worst.

The gauge here at 7 p. m. last night read 48.1 feet. A new short levee north of Lake Providence is causing the most concern. In the lower Yazoo several of the finest plantations in Warren county are submerged.

Specials from Donaldson and Baton Rouge tell of great excitement at those points, as Arlington levee, near the Louisiana capital, is thought to be in grave danger. Every ablebodied man, white or black, is being pressed into service and rushed to the danger point.

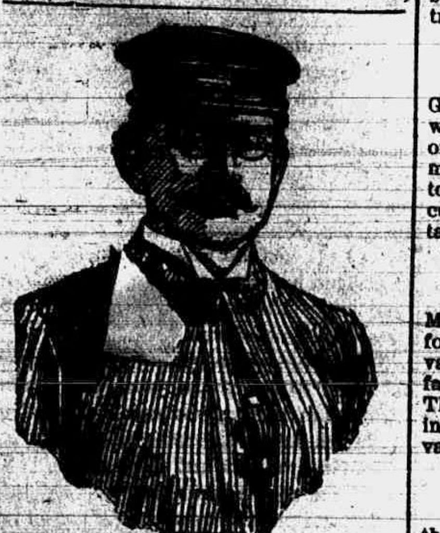
Boston, March 14.—The flood situation in the parts of Massachusetts and New Hampshire traversed by the Merrimac river again has become dangerous. At Haverhill and Lowell, this state, and Concord, N. H., the river is running at flood height and still rising. At Nashua, N. H., the Nashua river is threatening damage to property along its banks.

ORDERED TO HONDURAS.

Caribbean Squadron Goes to Protect American Interests.

Washington, March 14.—The Caribbean squadron, under command of Admiral Coghlan, has been ordered to Honduras, where the revolution is assuming serious proportions, to protect American interests. Late Friday afternoon Acting Secretary of the Navy Darling sent the following cable instructions to Admiral Coghlan at San Juan:

"Proceed with squadron, Olympia, Panther, Marietta, Vixen (and Brutus, collier) protection American interests Porto Cortez and Ceiba, Honduras. Communicate with minister. Authorized to leave Vixen (tender) under commandant at San Juan."



ADMIRAL COGHLAN,
Commander of the Caribbean Fleet, Who Is Ordered to Honduras.

The navy department decided to send Admiral Coghlan to Honduras on the theory that a flag officer present on the scene would be in a position to take such steps as may be necessary for the protection of American interests without constant reference to the department here. The presence of a squadron instead of a single ship, it was thought, also would have a salutary effect.

Young Vanderbilt to Wed.

New York, March 14.—Harold S. Vanderbilt, youngest son of William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., and the last of the bachelor Vanderbilts, has chosen as his future wife 19-year-old Violet D. Cruger, the belle of the present New York season. Harold S. Vanderbilt is now at St. Mark's school, South Bridge, Mass., but is likely to abandon his proposed Harvard career to marry Miss Cruger.

Three Killed in Mine Accident.

Pontiac, Ill., March 14.—Three men were killed and fourteen were severely injured Thursday night by an explosion of fire damp in the mine of the Cardiff Coal company. Miners at the mouth of the shaft were awakened by the explosion and rescued the injured and removed the dead bodies from the mine. Some of the injured may die.

Buildings Were Shaken.

Olympia, Wash., March 14.—An unusually perceptible earthquake was felt in this city at 6:25 o'clock last night. Buildings were shaken so that the occupants ran into the streets

LIQUOR FIGHT BEGINS.

Holmes' Liquor Bond Bill Becomes Special Order.

Lansing, Mich., March 14.—Representative Paddock began the liquor fight Friday morning, when he moved to take the Holmes bill from the general order and make it a special order, without any date set. Holmes is a prohibitionist, and his bill governs liquor bonds, so that brewing companies cannot go on retail dealers' bonds. Holmes kicked. Speaker Carton ruled that a two-thirds vote was not necessary to pass the motion. During the turmoil Representative William Kirk got through a motion to adjourn.

Representative Ferry's bill to resubmit to the people the proposition to bond Detroit for $600,000 for a new Belle Isle bridge was reported out by the city corporations committee and placed on the general order.

The house passed Representative Ferry's bill, designed to prevent incorporated companies from issuing fraudulent stock, by extending the time for filing annual reports so as to include January and February, and by compelling companies to file stockholders' postoffice addresses with the secretary of state, so they can be found if necessary.

Representative Byrns got through his bill to establish in Michigan prisons the Bertillon system for measuring and describing criminals. The house amended the measure so as to limit the cost of the proposed system to $500 a year.

The senate held a fifteen-minute session, with eighteen senators present, at 8:30, and corrected the reading of a couple of bills.

General Encampment Likely.

Lansing, Mich., March 14.—Quartermaster-General Kidd says there is little prospect of a general encampment of the state troops with the regulars this year. The Dick bill is not in shape to be carried out so soon. General Kidd has received a letter from Quartermaster-General Patton stating that the new service uniforms, requisition for 3,000 of which have been made, would not be issued until the present supply is exhausted.

Crushed Fellow-Worker's Skull.

Jackson, Mich., March 14.—A quarrel between two Michigan Central employes at the locomotive shops last evening ended in one hitting the other on the head with a handle punch, which is in the nature of a hammer, and the injured man is at the city hospital with a fractured skull and will probably die. Fred Bergmann is the assaulter and William Nicolay the injured man.

Wants $5,000 For Alleged Assault.

Lapeer, Mich., March 14.—Henry H. Smith, a North Branch attorney, is plaintiff in a damage suit in which he asks $5,000 from Adam Hunt, claiming that defendant hired his son-in-law, Charles Hallock, to "lick" him. Last October, during the fair at North Branch, Smith claims he was assaulted by Hallock on the fair grounds.

Threw Herself in the River.

Chesaning, Mich., March 14.—About 9:30 o'clock Friday morning some fishermen discovered the body of a woma in the mill pond. It proved to be tha of Mrs. E. A. Ferguson, who had lef the home of her sister, Mrs. M. I. Bennett, some time early in the morning and committed suicide. Mrs. Ferguson had been suffering from a mental trouble.

May End in Death.

Morrice, Mich., March 14.—Charles Goldwood, a prominent local capitalist, while standing on a landing at the second story of a business place Friday morning, fainted and fell fifteen feet to the walk below. He has been unconscious since, and it is feared is fatally injured.

Gone to Claim Fortune.

Traverse City, Mich., March 14.—Mrs. Ida Glasby left Friday morning for the east to secure her share in a valuable English estate left to her father, Ichabod Howe, now deceased. The estate is said to be held in trust in the Bank of England and to be very valuable.

Fatally Kicked by a Horse.

Royal Oak, Mich., March 14.—Peter, the 12-year-old son of Mrs. Paul Schroff, a widow living one mile east, was kicked in the head last night by a horse owned by Henry Collins, a neighbor, and frightfully injured. The doctors entertain little hope of the lad's recovery.

Was Walking on the Track.

Monroe, Mich., March 14.—Charles Valade, a farmer of LaSalle township, was walking on the Lake Shore track Friday morning when the fast northbound passenger train struck him, killing him instantly.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

Children Poisoned.

Many children are poisoned and made nervous and weak, if not killed outright by mothers giving them cough syrups containing opiates. More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic and effective nervine and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

Checking a Hemorrhage.

Even a very slight hemorrhage is always startling, but it does not necessarily mean anything dangerous. It may be caused by a slight disarrangement of the stomach as well as by a disease of the lungs or heart. No one but an experienced physician should decide this question, however. Let the patient lie quietly and give him cold drinks until a physician comes. A little salted water is a simple, familiar household remedy for such cases. Quiet and rest are positively essential if the cause is a serious one.

Turkish Cemeteries.

Upon the graves of the dead in the Turkish cemeteries little vessels of water are placed for the benefit of the birds; and some of the marble tombs have basins chiseled out for the same purpose, the superstition being that birds carry messages about the living to the dead and, like everybody else in Turkey, are suspected of being spiteful unless something is done to curry their favor.

The period of deepest sleep varies from 3 o'clock to 5. An hour or two after going to bed you sleep very soundly; then your slumber grows gradually lighter, and it is easy enough to waken you at 1 or 2 o'clock, but when 4 o'clock comes you are in such a state of somnolence that it would take a great deal to waken you.

SETH BULLOCK,

Formerly Sheriff of DEADWOOD,

Visits and is Entertained by President Roosevelt.

Herald Bureau,
744 Fifteenth street, N W.,
Washington, D. C., Saturday.

"Have you met Seth Bullock yet?" asked President Roosevelt of a caller the other day. "If you have not met him you ought to do so. He comes from Deadwood, and he is about as fine a type of real man as you will find in the Western country. I know him well because he used to be a neighbor of mine."

Seth Bullock, of Deadwood, has been a guest in the White House several times during the last week at luncheons and once or twice at dinner. He has had a horseback ride or two with the president and last Thursday, mounted on one of the best horses in the White House stables, he and little "Archie" Roosevelt, mounted on his spotted pony, took a long ride over the country roads of Maryland.

Mr. Bullock, or "Captain" Bullock, as he is called, is the supervisor of the National Forest Reserve in the Black Hills, which comprises a stretch of woodland 100 miles long and 50 wide. He is the commanding officer of 20 or 30 forest rangers who protect the trees against fire and thieves, and the game against pot hunters during the close season.

STRAIGHT AS A PINE.

This friend of the president is as straight as one of the pines in his native state of Michigan. He is six feet tall and as spare as a trained runner. He has the eagle nose of the fighter, and the eagle eye of the man who does not know what it is to flinch. He has a sandy mustache and a full head of hair that has dodged the Indian scalping knife half a dozen times. He was a born adventurer, because when 14 years old he followed his five older brothers into the army and enlisted as a drummer boy. He is as tender as a woman, as refined in his manner as a college graduate, and possesses all the candor of expression and breeze of manner of a Wyoming cowboy.

"I came East on business and pleasure," said Mr. Bullock today. "My business was with the Interior Department, where I had to consult regarding the affairs of the National Forest Reserve. My pleasure has been to meet the president, who does me the honor to call me his friend, and to renew acquaintances with members of congress whom I have not seen since I was East a year ago.

"I have known the president for a good many years. I knew him first when he took up his ranch on the Little Missouri. I had a ranch that was a good many miles away, but you see out in that country the right sort of people feel they are near neighbors though they may be separated by 75 or 100 miles.

PRESIDENT ASKS NO ODDS.

"It didn't take the neighbors of Mr. Roosevelt very long to find out that, although he was from the East and a bit near sighted, he was just as able to take care of himself as any of us who had been out there since the first stampede to the Black Hills, and he was ready to do his part, too. When the cattle thieves came out of the Black Hole he took his share of the work of bringing them to justice. And when he had to be made a deputy sheriff and was asked to go after a couple of desperadoes down in the river bottom, he always went, and he always brought them back.

"He is pretty much the same sort of man now as he was then, this Theodore Roosevelt. He is president, but he hasn't changed much. He can ride just as well as he ever could, but he don't get out as much as he ought. He is tied down too much by people who are always bothering him about petty offices. They remind me of a lot of steers hanging around a feed yard bawling their heads off. That horse Bleistine of his is a pretty good one, but I'll bet you the president has ridden many a pony over the Northwest plains a good deal farther in a day than Bleistine can go. However, you see, Mr. Roosevelt is a good deal heavier now than he used to be and it takes a good sized animal to carry him."

"Your country looks to see him elected president?"

KNOWS THE WEST

"Yes, I think pretty nearly everybody does out our way. You see, there is one thing about Mr. Roosevelt that we have never had in a Psesident before. He not only knows the East, but he knows the West. He knows what that country needs and he has an idea of its resources The trouble with so many of you gentlemen in the East is that you think the United States ends about the Mississippi River. Why, when you get to the Mississippi you have only got fairly started toward God's country.

"Things have changed a good deal out West. To-day you will find Deadwood a much more law abiding place than the Bowery, or even the most orderly part of Chicago. I remember the time when there was a good deal of shooting in Deadwood. The old time gun fighters were a great feature. The friends of two men who were handy with their weapons would egg them on, and finally they would meet and then it would be a good time to take to cover. Those fights always differed from some of the fights you have had in the East lately—they were never "thrown."

"That reminds me of a story of two chaps who were out in the bush and ran across a bear. One of them made his tree all right and kept yelling to the other, 'Run, Jake, run, you blankety blank! Run faster, Jake, faster!' Jake finally made his tree just in time to escape the bear and when he had recovered his breath shouted across to his friend, 'Say Bill, what did you keep yelling to me to run for? Did you suppose I was going to throw that race?'

PREACHER AND AUCTIONEER

"When Deadwood was first established we had queer doings there. We had a preacher who was afterward scalped and killed by the Indians. He didn't have a church. Land in Deadwood was too valuable to be used for church purposes, so he would preach every Sunday standing on a dry goods box. The preacher would come out with his dry goods box ready to begin, and across the street would be Travers, the auctioneer, selling a cayuse. The dominee would wait until Travers was through, then Travers would call across, 'Now Dominee, it's your turn.' Then the service would be held and when the dominee was through he would call across to Travers, 'Go ahead, Mr. Auctioneer! It's your turn next and Travers would complete the sale of his ponies.

"I am going to New York to-morrow to spend a few days, and while there I shall see my old friend Jim Sherwood, who is now treasurer of the New York and New England road. He was West with me and made some money. Then he came East and made a lot more. If you could be with us when we get together you'd hear some good stories of the old days of the Deadwood coach.

"Sherwood tells one of a fellow named Meade, who kept an eating house about forty miles out. Mead had some chickens, and on Thanksgiving Day his wife made him kill them and serve them up for dinner. There were six white men at dinner and one Chinaman The Chinaman had a table by himself. Possibly this was from choice.

ALL WANTED CHICKEN

"Mead went among the the white men and took their orders. To the first one he would say, 'Nice pork or chicken?' To the next he would say, 'Chicken or nice pork?' Then he went over to the Chinaman, 'John, said he, 'nice pig, nice sucky pork.' Of course John said 'Chickee.'

"Mead called out the orders to his wife in a voice of despair and added, 'That's the way it goes. If pork was a dollar a pound and chicken ten cents a pound every blamed son of a gun of you would want pork.' And there is a good bit of philosophy in that."—New York Herald, Sunday, March 1st.

A number of years ago Seth Bullock was married up in Battle Creek to Miss Mattie Eccles, oldest daughter of our J. C. Eccles, of Tecumseh, who then lived at Battle Creek. She went west to the Black Hills. At that time Deadwood was in the "wild and wooley" west to a certainty.

Afterward J. C. Eccles moved to Charlotte and then on to Tecumseh. For a number of years he was cutter for Strong & McNair and it was during this time that Mrs. Bullock visited her people here and became quite well acquainted. She was a most beautiful, delightful and accomplished lady, a beautiful singer. I remember her singing at band concerts and other entertainments here and her willingness to assist in whatever was going on for amusement in the little old fashioned town.

I remember meeting Seth Bullock here at one time, he came on to accompany Mrs. Bullock home. Now Seth Bullock is a "big" man but when one meets him he is the same chap "common as an old shoe" and when I read the article in the New York Herald I could not but well remember Seth Bullock, the Deadwood sheriff, and his delightful wife I used to know so many years ago.

Aching Joints

In the fingers, toes, arms, and other parts of the body, are joints that are inflamed and swollen by rheumatism—that acid condition of the blood which affects the muscles also.

Sufferers dread to move, especially after sitting or lying long, and their condition is commonly worse in wet weather.

"It has been a long time since we have been without Hood's Sarsaparilla. My father thinks he could not do without it. He has been troubled with rheumatism since he was a boy, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine he can take that will enable him to take his place in the field." MISS ADA DOTY, Sidney, Iowa.

What Carlyle Wrote of Tennyson.

Tennyson in his prime was thus described by Thomas Carlyle to Ralph Waldo Emerson on Aug. 5, 1844: "One of the finest looking men in the world. A great shock of rough, dusty dark hair; bright, laughing, hazel eyes; massive aquiline face—most massive, yet most delicate, of sallow brown complexion, almost Indian looking; clothes cynically loose, free and easy; smokes infinite tobacco. His voice is musically metallic, fit for loud laughter and piercing wail and all that may lie between; speech and speculation free and plenteous. I do not meet in these late decades such company over a pipe."

When the Cat Was Sacred.

In the middle ages brute animals formed as prominent a part in the devotional ceremonies of the time as they had in the old religion of Egypt. The cat Ælurus was embalmed after death and buried in the city of Bubastis because, according to Herodotus, Diana Bubastis, the chief diety of the place, was said to have transformed herself into a cat when the gods fled into Egypt.

Watch Owner's Pride.

"Then you do not regard him as trustworthy?"

"I should not go so far as to say he is not trustworthy, but he is the kind of man who will set his watch at 11:30 o'clock and then call your attention to the manner in which it keeps time when the 12 o'clock whistle blows."—Washington Star.

Would Prefer It Otherwise.

Lady—Ain't you ashamed to be begging on the street?

Beggar—Well, yes. I'd sooner do it in de pulpit or at a church fair, but fate is ag'in me.—Judge.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, March 16, 1903.

The special session of the Senate is rapidly drawing to a close. The leaders of both parties have agreed to vote on the Colombian treaty tomorrow and a vote of the Cuban treaty will follow as soon as practicable. That both conventions will be ratified is the belief of all well informed senators. The democrats will, it is understood, vote unanimously for two amendments to the Panama canal treaty, one providing that the United States shall exercise absolute sovereignty over the strip of land through which the canal will pass, the other eliminating that article of the treaty which says that under no circumstances will the United States increase its territory at the expense of Colombia or any other South American republic. It has been decided by the republican steering committee to reject both of these amendments and it is understood that the democrats will permit the approval of the treaty even though their amendments fail.

A material concession has been made to the democrats and the republican enemies of the Cuban treaty by the determination to accept an amendment, already reported by the committee on Foreign Relations, which provides that the provisions of the treaty shall not go into effect until they are approved by both houses of Congress. This, of course, prevent actual reciprocity with Cuba until after Congress meets next winter.

The amendment to the Cuban treaty above referred to was the occasion of much disappointment to the President and he is seriously contemplating calling an extra session of Congress to meet some time in the fall to pass such legislation as will be necessary to put the treaty into effect. The President considers that such a course would be entirely justified as, in his estimation, the friends of the treaty in the Senate have yielded to the importunities of its enemies. It is not believed, however, that there will be any extra session until November, and if called at all it will be about Nov. 15th.

The early adjournment of the Senate will permit the President to begin his contemplated western trip earlier than expected, although he has recently postponed his departure until April 6th, and it is not probable that he will again change his plans.

Five irrigation project have been decided upon under the provisions of the Hansbrough-Newlands irrigation act. They will be located at the Sweetwater dam, Wyoming, on the Milk River, Nevada, and at the Salt River Reservoir, Arizona. The total cost of these projects is estimated at $7,000,000 and it is believed that when completed they will irrigate a total area of 600,000 acres. While the decision is as definite as can be made it still remains subject to the feasibility of obtaining the necessary rights and adjusting the existing private claims. The Secretary of the Interior has designated the sum of $450,000 to be expended during the ensuing year for further investigation which have already been considered and it is expected that several will receive approval during the next year. The first to do so will probably be the Gray Bull reservoir project.

Secretary Cortelyou, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, is rapidly perfecting the organization of his department. He has rented and is fitting up offices and has just appointed Frank H. Hitchcock chief clerk and William L. Soleau disbursing officer, two of the most important positions in the department. The Secretary is in receipt of an enormous mail, most of which consists of applications for employment. An applicant who requested that he be awarded a very humble position on the force recently remarked that he presumed his was the first application Mr. Cortelyou had received for the position and was told that instead of being the first applicant he was the 300th.

The President has just issued a circular letter to five of the youngest heads of bureaus in the government of service asking them to cooperate with him in eliminating redundant work in the Federal departments and the systemizing of the work of their own and the new Department of Commerce and Labor. The men to whom the letter was addressed are Charles D. Walcott, representing the Interior Department, General William Crozier, representing the War Department, Admiral Francis T. Bowles, representing the Navy Department, Gifford Pinchot, representing the Agricultural Department and James R. Garfield, representing the Department of Commerce and Labor. The personnel of this committee, composed of young and energetic men, indicates that the President proposes to secure thorough work and it is more than probable that the results of their labors will add materially to the economy and efficiency of the Government service. By the application of business methods, expenses can be reduced one-half, but not without the slaughter of hundreds of clerical figure heads, male and female.

The five women immigrant inspectors who were appointed at the behest of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union have not thus far proved a success and the Civil Service Commission has been instructed not to examine any more candidates for the positions. It was maintained that by having incoming vessels inspected by moral young women the importation of girls for immoral purposes could be stopped, that class usually coming first or second class instead of in the steerage which would have subjected them to the usual inspection to which immigrants are subjected. With some difficulty the Civil Service Commission secured the services of five young women whose qualifications extended from an ability to scale the high sides of the ocean liners to speaking several foreign languages. After thirty days service it has been ascertained that the young women coming to this country resent being singled out by the women inspectors, regarding the latters' examination as indicating that they are regarded as suspicious characters, etc. The experiment will be continued for ninety days but with little prospect of success.

"Chronic cases" that's what the doctors call them, which in common English means—long sickness.

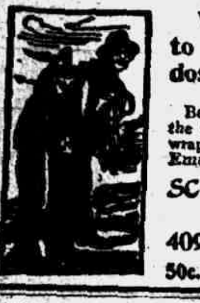
To stop the continued loss of flesh they need Scott's Emulsion. For the feeling of weakness they need Scott's Emulsion.

It makes new flesh and gives new life to the weak system.

Scott's Emulsion gets thin and weak persons out of the rut. It makes new, rich blood, strengthens the nerves and gives appetite for ordinary food.

Scott's Emulsion can be taken as long as sickness lasts and do good all the time.

There's new strength and flesh in every dose.



We will be glad to send you a few doses free.

Charley Bidwell having been appointed postmaster at Tecumseh, resigns his position as deputy sheriff. Mr. Shepherd considered that he was under obligations to appoint Ed Brown, a good democrat, though an excellent officer and G. A. R. man and staunch republican, Capt. Henry Stevens, would have accepted the position, and in fact desired it. We do not object to a democrat being recognized, and it is very likely Mr. Shepherd believes he has named the best man. However, a number of his party friends are doing considerable kicking, and think the position should have gone to an old vet and a republican.—Adrian Press.

ROUND ABOUT US.

James Hogan brought a car of mules here Saturday night from St. Louis, Mo., and by the crowd that congregated at the depot to see them unloaded one would think a circus had come to town.—Clinton Local.

A Salem farmer went to village with a supposed pail of eggs which he left for the clerk to count while he went elsewhere. The young salesman took the cover off the pail in a dark corner of the store, plunged in his hand and withdrew it dripping with pancake batter. The farmer had brought the wrong pail, but it isn't yet settled who the joke was on.—Ex.

An exchange says that newspaper subscribers often wonder why a publisher will continue to send his paper, when the subscription has expired. The reason is, when a subscription is paid to a certain time, and is then discontinued, many a subscriber lets his angry passions rise and curses the publisher for insinuating that his credit is not good. That would make the average man mad. Rather than cast any reflections as to the subscribers honesty to pay a small debt it has become customary for county newspapers to continue the paper after the subscription expires, although the large dailies do not generally follow this rule, as a rule, as their subscribers live at a distance. One should deem it an honor to know that his credit is not doubted when the publisher continues to send the paper, and pay up promptly.

An Ypsilanti business man went to dinner last week. His wife is a prominent member of the Women's Club, and the hired girl having left, she was forced to prepare the meals. And she acted. The meal was ready and such a meal! The celery had been boiled with the onions and some bacon, and flavored with cocoa and catsup. The boiled potatoes were garnished with apple sauce. The steak was fried and "smothered" with bananas." Some oat meal had been mixed with small cakes, and baked and in the center was a hop, set in honey. She said it was "hop scotch." She explained that she had no time to devote to scientific cooking, and that though the dinner might not be exactly "au fait," she assured hubby that it was the best her short study of the cook book would warrant but that if he cared for it, she could read him a delightful paper on "Mazzini," the "Pope and his wives," "Savonarola" or "Maccaroni" as "Italy," was their topic for that week. Hubby went down to a restaurant and got his dinner.

A good story is being told about Admiral Evans, who is better known as "Fighting Bob." The admiral is not a church-goer, so the story runs, but recently while in New York he decided to attend services at the Holy Trinity church. He went early, selected a pew that suited him, and seated himself comfortably for the morning. Presently a plutocratic individual came down the aisle and entered the same pew. He gave the intruder the icy gaze and endeavored to let him know by signs that he was not wanted. "Fighting Bob" was not phased. He absolutely and serenely ignored the pew owner. Presently the latter drew an elaborate card from his pocket and taking out his pencil wrote on it: "I pay [illegible] a year for the exclusive use of this pew." He read it carefully, then taking his own pencil he wrote under the statement on the card: "You pay too much." The [illegible] without doing any damage, and the sailor remained where he was until the conclusion of the service.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

A COLD PLUNGE.

Two Duck Hunters Go Ducking and Get it in Every Sense of the Word.

Floyd Williamson and Richard Mead started bright and early Wednesday morning on a duck hunt. They got as far as the Quaker mill, where they secured a boat and started down stream. They had been aboard but a short time when they ran into a snag and capsized and both were thrown into the raging Raisin. "Foggie" Williamson, in his scramble to get out of the water, missed connections with his new shot gun and was obliged to go away and leave it in the water. "Dinkie" Mead had the good fortune to be in a position to catch hold of the branches of an overhanging tree and got out, saving his gun. Floyd and Harry Backus went down in the afternoon to see if they could find the gun, and both of them were thrown into the water by a second upsetting of the boat.

Prof. Claude VanTyne Comes to Ann Arbor Next Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence VanTyne are in receipt of a letter from their son Claude now professor of American history at the Carnegie Institute at Washington, informing them that he has accepted a like position at the U. of M.

Mr. VanTyne was for some time associate professor of American history at the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. He has long desired to be nearer home and has now so arranged it that he will take Prof. McLaughlin's place at the U. of M. while the latter will fill the vacancy made by Mr. VanTyne, the U. of M. faculty having given Prof. McLaughlin a leave of absence of one year. Should he at the end of this time desire to return to the U. of M., he can have his position back, in which case Mr. VanTyne would, no doubt, return to the University of Pennsylvania and take his old position.

Mr. VanTyne is an old Tecumseh boy and all his Tecumseh friends are much interested in his successful career.

Eightieth Birthday.

Yesterday, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson was the scene of a delightful surprise for Mrs. Rosella Bradley, mother of Mrs. Wilson, the occasion being that lady's eightieth birthday. A three-course dinner was served, covers being laid for twenty. The guests were served by Dr. Pauline Wilson and the Misses Christine and Anna Wilson.

Mrs. Bradley was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents, among them a diamond ring from her children. After dinner the remainder of the day was spent in social converse and then the guests departed, wishing that Mrs. Bradley may see many more such pleasant birthdays.

Those present were: Mrs. Abbie North, Mrs. E. B. Wood, Mrs. Wm. McCowen, Mrs. Marie Bryan, Mrs. Eusebia Burtless, Dr. and Mrs. North, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson, Mrs. Franc Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bradley, of Ypsilanti; Mr. and Mrs. S. Aten, of Cambridge; and Arthur Bradley, of Jackson.

Knowles-Willett.

The wedding of Miss Ella Knowles, daughter of Cullen Knowles, of 180 North Main street, and Fred Willett, son of the late W. J. Willett, is announced to have occurred November 12, 1902, at Windsor, the ceremony having been performed by Rev. Brown, an M. E. divine. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Willett, though they were not taken into the confidence of the couple, will wish them a happy married life.—Adrian Telegram.

Both young people are well known in Tecumseh, Mr. Willetts having played in the opera house orchestra and their Tecumseh friends unite with those in Adrian and wish them every joy.

Miller-Bryan Co.

The plays to be presented by the Miller-Bryan Co. which opens a three nights engagement at the New Bradley opera house starting Thursday, March 19, are all new ones and the patrons of our opera house can expect a rare treat to be furnished by this popular company. Thursday evening they will present that beautiful society comedy drama "A Hero in Rags."

Thursday evening a free reserve seat will be given to each lady when accompanied by one paid 30 cent seat purchased prior to 6 p. m. of opening night.

A very painful accident occured just north of here at what is called Pelham's corners. Mrs. Redcliff and son were crossing the railroad when they saw the train approaching them. They whipped up the horse and tried to cross in front of the train. The horse simply stopped and began kicking. The engine struck the back part of the buggy, throwing Mrs. Redcliff into a wire fence and broke her hip and badly injured her otherwise. The young man had both arms and both legs broken, but the horse was not harmed.—Devil's Lake Cor. Onsted News.

THE OLD RELIABLE
ROYAL
POWDER
Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

Forty Years Ago.

A photograph of S. E. Wishard D. D. and the following sketch appears in this week's Interior. Dr. Wishard built the Presbyterian church during his pastorate here in the sixties and it is hoped he will be able to be here for the 75th anniversary exercises April 6th. Mrs. Maria Hixon, of Clinton, is the only charter member of the church living.

No nobler brotherhood of toilsome heroes ever captained the advance of Christ's crusaders in any time or place than the corps of synodical home mission superintendents beneath whose faithful overseeing the Presbyterian church is being planted throughout the newer states of the West. And in that goodly company the paragon of courage, activity and endurance for all his colleagues, as certainly the one who has the hardest task of them all, is the dean of the corps,—the superintendent for the Synod of Utah. As a marvel of the preserving power of hard work and sublime faith, Dr. Wishard is at the age of 77 both amazing and inspiring, for his trim for work is like that of an athletic youth and his cheer of heart is as fresh as a child's. It is now 13 years since the Board of Home Missions sent him to Utah to fight the Mormons octopus in close set-to, and from that time until now he has raveled in the bounds of his synod over 250,000 miles and preached 2,500 times. He has not asked for a respite yet. The physique which has lasted thus wonderfully took its first accumulation of strength out of the Hoosier farm on which Dr. Wishard was born. He paid for a full course at Wabash College with a woodsaw and a hoe, and then went to Lane Seminary at Cincinnati. His first installation was over the church at Rushville, Ill. Happy and prosperous pastorates in Chicago, in Michigan and in Indiana led up to 1883, when he was made synodical superintendent of Kentucky. The Central church of DesMoines called him from there, but the Board of Home Missions was unwilling to lose him and finally recaptured the energetic doctor for its work in Utah. There he has done the crowning service of his life, and when Mormonism finally dies, it will be found that many of its unhealed wounds bear the marks of his blade.

Moving Pictures.

Howe's moving picture show which exhibited at the New Bradley last Friday evening was very instructive and entertaining. The pictures shown were very clear and distinct and were undoubtedly the best ever seen in Tecumseh.

A fair sized crowd attended the entertainment and showed their hearty appreciation by continual rounds of applause.

MOST BEYOND BELIEF.

If It Were not for Tecumseh Indorsement People might be Skeptical.

Tecumseh people want local proof.

That's what we have here.

It's not beyond belief because it can be proved.

Read a local citizen's testimony.

Mr. W. C. Witherell, agent for buggies, harnesses and other machinery, place of business southwestern section of Tecumseh, says: "I cannot praise Doan's Kidney Pills highly enough for they have been a great friend to me. Some years ago I was an expert at sheep shearing and did a lot of that work. Everybody knows it is very hard on the back and it finally brought on a severe pain across the loins. Nothing did any good until a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box and the treatment gave immediate relief. When I finished the box the trouble was entirely removed. If I feel any symtoms of a return a resort to Doan's Kidney Pills quickly ward off the attack. They are a reliable remedy and I consistently recommend them." Just such emphatic endorsement is plentiful in Tecumseh. Call at C. A. Wright's drug store and ask him what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

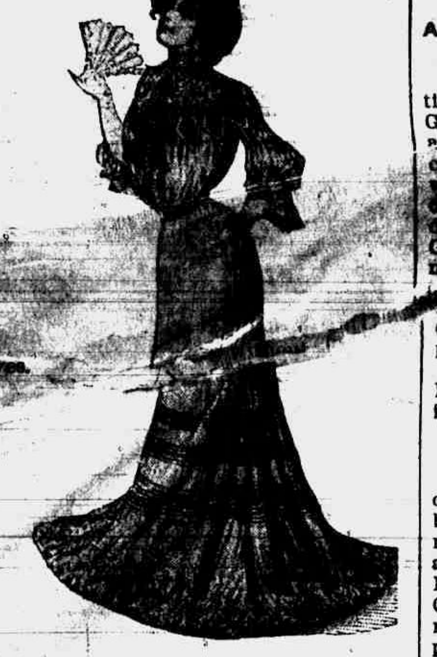
LATEST FASHION NOTES.

Dinner Gown of Blue Voile.

Every woman admires pretty dinner gowns, and every woman should make it a point to look as charming as possible on such occasions as call for a gathering around the festive board. Our illustration shows a dinner gown fashioned of pastel-blue voile. The blouse waist is gathered to a deep yoke, embroidered with Corticelli filo silk in a spreading flower design, and the odd garniture that frames the yoke and extends down the front consists of black velvet diamonds edged with narrow silver braid. The vest is made of narrow folds of voile and the tucked sleeves spring out into puffs ending in ruffles.



The skirt is adorned with clusters of horizontal tucks and completed with a Vandyck-pointed flounce handsomely embroidered with Corticelli filo silk to match the yoke, falling over a gathered under-flounce of pastel-blue chiffon. The belt is of black velvet fastening with a silver buckle in front.

Entire lace blouses are still fashionable, though some models show a lustrous cloth or silk combined, this being noticeable when the blouse is to be worn with a skirt made of the same material as that used with the lace. Long basques or skirts of the lace, having the edges finished with the cloth or silk, are an innovation on some of these models.

MAGNIFICENT EARNINGS.

Recorded by Bradstreet For This Season of Year With Railroads.

New York, March 14.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says:

Demand is active, with staple prices strong at close to record levels, despite drawbacks in the shape of bad roads, labor troubles east and west, and heavy rains, overflowing rivers and backward farm preparations at the south. The continued reports of slow and even poor collections noted for some time past are accentuated by, perhaps partly the result of, the bad condition of the country roads consequent upon the change in the season.

Labor troubles, present and prospective, especially harrass building trades consuming iron and steel in the metropolis. The traffic congestion, though improved, still affects the transportation of coke, lumber, flour and grain. Railroad earnings are simply magnificent for this season of the year, the country's railroads in February showing gains of 14 per cent in gross receipts, and the early March returns are fully as favorable. Export trade showed a very notable gain in February in many lines, but particularly in the shipment of corn and cotton.

Retail business generally has been checked by weather conditions, but this has not militated against business with jobbers. The lumber trade continues active the country over. Prices are firmer at close to the top quotations. The only complaint is that congested railways render quick deliveries impossible.

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week ending March 12 aggregate 3,866,746 bu, against 3,491,486 last week, 2,906,250 in this week a year ago and 4,690,939 in 1901. Wheat exports since July 1 aggregate 167,650,930 bu, against 187,168,293 last season and 143,216,419 in 1900. Corn exports aggregate 3,257,999 bu, against 3,817,609 last week, 182,414 a year ago and 3,246,675 in 1901. For the fiscal year exports are 37,815,190 bu, against 23,654,810 last season and 138,983 036 in 1901.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending with March 12 number 176, against 171 last week, 224 in the like week of 1902, 207 in 1901, 190 in 1900 and 205 in 1899.

HE TALKED TO FREELY.

Consul-General at Montreal Invited to Resign.

Washington, March 14.—United States Consul John L. Bittinger at Montreal has been invited to resign. He will be succeeded by Major A. W. Edwards, a North Dakota newspaper man. Consul Bittinger, while on leave of absence at his home in St. Louis, talked very freely of the relations between the United States and Canada. This was ill-received in Washington.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 14.—A private dispatch from Washington, received late last night, says Major Bittinger is recalled as consul-general to Montreal, directly due to an interview advocating annexation of Canada to the United States, which he recently gave to a Montreal newspaper. The interview was based on utterances in congress by Mr. De Armond of Missouri, who is strongly in favor of a union. Great Britain, according to this dispatch, entered a protest, and the remarks of the consul-general were considered of sufficient importance for his recall.

FOUGHT FOR THREE DAYS.

A Thousand Venezuelan Revolutionists Met Defeat at Camarebo.

Coro, Vez., March 14.—The revolutionary forces under General Riera and General Juan Penaloza, numbering about [illegible] men, which during the course of the Anglo-German blockade were reorganized in the neighborhood of this city, were attacked last Monday by the government [illegible] General [illegible] at [illegible] troops under [illegible] Cumarebo, 180 miles northwest of Caracas, and after fighting lasting three days were defeated and their entrenched and fortified positions was captured.

Gold Medal For a Life-Saver.

Washington, March 14.—On the recommendation of Superintendent Kimball of the life-saving service, the secretary of the treasury has forwarded a gold life-saving medal to Keeper G. N. Gray of the life-saving station at Charlotte, N. Y., for "extreme and heroic daring in saving life from the perils of the sea." On Dec. 15, 1902, Gray with his crew, in the face of extreme personal danger and great suffering, effected the rescue of four men and one woman from the schooner John R. Noyes, which was wrecked on Lake Ontario on that date.

Cortelyou Is Modest.

Washington, March 14.—The new offices of the department of commerce and labor, which until the next fiscal year are to be located in a large office building at 719 and 721 Thirteenth street N. W., are being put in shape and Mr. Cortelyou will move into them the early part of next week. The secretary is following out modest ideas in getting his department into running order. His own office and that of the force immediately connected with the secretary's office will be housed in a single room.

Theaters In Receiver's Hands.

Denver, March 14.—Denver's two largest theaters, the Broadway and the Tabor, were turned over to a receiver, appointed by Judge Hallett in the federal court yesterday, pending the settlement of a suit brought by Mrs. Marie Antoinette Singer-Bigger of England, daughter of the late William H. Bush, who was formerly in partnership with Peter McCourt in the management of the two theaters.

Threaten a Sympathetic Strike.

Toledo, March 14.—Officers of the teamsters' union announce that unless a settlement is effected with the Toledo Cartage association, a sympathetic strike will be called and every teamster in the city called out. Members of the union in other cities will be requested to refrain from handling freight sent out of Toledo.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

Frightened to Death.

Detroit, Mich., March 16.—Extreme excitement and fright subsequent to the discovery that the basement of her home was in flames were directly responsible Saturday night for the death of Mrs. Aaron Solomon, whose husband keeps a dry goods store at 410 Hastings street. The home in over the store.

Because She Jilted Him.

Attica, Mich., March 16.—Glen Park, 17 years old, shot himself through the head at the residence of Mabel Reed, dying from the wound. The tragedy is the result of jealousy. Young Park had paid the girl attentions for a number of years, but of late had manifested a bitterness that made her fear him.

Carelessness Cost Him an Eye.

Lawton, Mich., March 16.—While Abe Johnson, an 8-year-old lad, and a companion were throwing a jackknife back and forth, the point of the blade entered young Johnson's eye, destroying the sight.

Smallpox Stamped Out.

Carleton, Mich., March 16.—No more new cases of smallpox are reported at New Boston and Willow, and the last quarantine has been raised. The disease is now believed to be stamped out at those places.

A Professional Shoplifter.

Van Wert, O., March 16.—An alleged professional shoplifter, aged 63 years, who gives her name as Mary Frazier, but whose real name, from papers and letters found, is thought to be Mrs. E. L. Moran, was captured by officers here Saturday evening with four trunks full of goods, claimed to be stolen.

Marriage Without Money.

The poet and divine, John Donne, who became dean of St. Paul's in 1621, married a daughter of Sir George More without the consent of her parents. He was told [illegible] from him. The bridegroom went home and wrote this witty note, "John Donne, Anne Donne, undone," which he sent to the angry father, and this had the effect of restoring them to favor. They were very poor at first, but things soon got brighter, and they lived most happily together.

Sir Joshua Reynolds after Flaxman had married told him that this would ruin him as an artist. When the husband related this to his wife, she resolved that marriage should make and not mar her husband and to this end further resolved that he should study at Rome and do everything that he might have done without matrimonial responsibilities. "But how?" asked Flaxman. "Work and economize," rejoined the brave woman. So well did they do this that he found that "wedlock is for an artist's good, rather than his harm," and they both discovered that they were made for each other.

A Dumas Story.

The younger Dumas once went to Villers Cotterets, his father's native village, to the unveiling of a statue to the creator of "The Three Musketeers." At the banquet in the evening the younger Dumas sat next to one of the oldest inhabitants who, in perfect good nature, but without any tact, began to tell a story of Dumas pere.

"Ah," said he, "he was a gay soul, your father! How we loved him. He was so kind hearted and generous. The last time he came to Villers Cotterets he gave a banquet in the Hotel de Ville. He forgot for some time after to pay the bill. See that fat man over there? He was the butcher who furnished the feast. I should not be surprised if the meat were still owing to him. But that is nothing. He is proud to this day of being the purveyor to Alexandre Dumas."

The story was an ironical commentary on the set speeches of the afternoon. The son was anxious then and there to settle his father's score.—Pall Mall Gazette.

It's Never Given Away.

"Pa," said Johnny, who is a persistent knowledge seeker, "what is a lawgiver?"

"There isn't any such thing, Johnny," replied the old gentleman, who had been involved in considerable litigation in his time.

"But this book says that somebody was a great lawgiver," persisted the youngster.

"Then it's a mistake," rejoined his father. "Law is never given; it's retailed in very small quantities at very high figures."

MICHIGAN CORPORATIONS.

Week's List of New Ones Filing Articles at Lansing.

Lansing, Mich., March 16.—The following corporations filed articles of association with the secretary of state during the past week: Hillsdale Fence and Post Co., Hillsdale, $20,000; F. B. Colonel Baldwin Is Dead.

Battle Creek, Mich., March 16.—Colonel John A. Baldwin of the Sixteenth infantry, stationed at Fort McPherson, Georgia, died at his residence here at 3 o'clock Sunday morning from disease contracted in the Philippines two years ago. He leaves a widow and two sons. He was appointed second lieutenant of the Ninth infantry in July, 1872, and has seen continuous service. Baldwin was breveted for distinguished bravery. He led the Ninth infantry through a muddy canal at Paranague, saving the Colorado volunteers from annihilation at Gaudeloupe Ridge June 17, 1899. He was an intimate friend of Generals Funston and Otis. A military and Masonic funeral will be held from the Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon. The remains will be taken to Washington that evening, accompanied by army officers, for burial in Arlington cemetery.

Meets In Detroit.

New York, March 16.—The annual conference of the National Congress of Mothers will be held this year at Detroit, Mich., May 5 to 8. To the board of management the congress has entrusted the conduct of its business for three years, giving more time for conferences, lectures and discussions. An important feature of the work of the congress is to secure the co-operation of home and school, which has been effected in hundreds of schools on plans outlined by the congress.

Preferred Death to Separation.

Detroit, Mich., March 16.—Despondency over separation from his wife induced Theodore Rauete of 1124 Scotten avenue to take his own life yesterday by swallowing a quantity of arnica. Last November Rauete, who was employed as cabinet maker for D. M. Ferry & Co., was divorced from his wife, Rnnie Rauete, and has been paying her $10 a month alimony. [illegible] letter addressed to her, asking [illegible] ness and that his body be cremated.

[illegible] Detroit, Mich., March 16.—Two [illegible] counterfeiters [illegible] by the police connected with the Grand River avenue police station [illegible] who says that until recently he was a conductor on the Fourteenth avenue car line, and Maude Weber.

Died Suddenly During Night.

Big Rapids, Mich., March 16.—The community was startled Sunday morning by the death of George W. Crawford, a prominent citizen, who went home at the usual hour Saturday night apparently in the best of health. He was awakened at midnight by illness, and in less than an hour was dead. He had been in active business for over thirty years.

Ann Arbor Student Drowned.

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 16.—Ernest Zimmerscheid, a freshman literary student, was drowned Saturday afternoon in the Huron river, near Comwell's mill, while out canoeing with his brother Carl, who is a senior in the literary department, and who narrowly escaped death himself. Their canoe struck a stone pier in the river and was capsized.

No Time to Lose

You cannot afford to disregard the warnings of a weak and diseased heart and put off taking the prescription of the world's greatest authority on heart and nervous disorders—

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

If your heart palpitates, flutters, or you are short of breath, have smothering spells, pain in left side, shoulder or arm, you have heart trouble and are liable to drop dead any moment.

Major J. W. Woodcock, one of the best known oil operators in the country dropped dead from heart disease recently, at his home in Portland, Ind., while mowing his lawn.—The Press.

Mrs. M. A. Birdsall, Watkins, N. Y., whose portrait heads this advertisement, says: "I write this through gratitude for benefits I received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I had palpitation of the heart, severe pains under the left shoulder, and my general health was miserable. A few bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me entirely.

Poker Friends.

"No, I am not popular any more with the gang," moaned a business man who used to entertain largely at poker. "I haven't touched a card in seven years. The friends I made at the poker table were near and dear to me. When I lived on the seventh floor of a tenement, they flocked to see me nightly, climbing the stairs without a murmur. When I moved to the Bronx, they followed me. When I settled in Jamaica, the ride to my house did not seem too long for them, nor did they mind the journey home at 3 or 4 in the morning. When I realized that I was supporting them with my losses, I tore up the cards and cracked the chips with a hammer. When, lo, behold, every mother's son of them knew me no more! I lived so far away that it was impossible to find time to come to visit me. I am sure that if I had opened a poker game in the darkest cell in the bottom of the bottomless pit they would have come to play with me. To regain their friendship it is only necessary to announce a reopening of the game."—New York Press.

The Etiquette of Cues.

In China the men take as much pride in their hair as women, and the "pigtail" is a thing of no little moment. In making the cue the whole head is shaved except a circular patch upon the crown. The hair from this is braided, and strands of silk are added, which end in a tassel reaching to the heels. In full mourning the black strands are replaced by white ones and in second mourning by light blue or green.

It is an unpardonable breach of etiquette for an inferior to enter the presence of a superior with his cue wound round his neck or head, as it is frequently disposed of during work, and the greatest insult one man can offer another is to pull his cue. It seems very odd to see sailors and soldiers on ship or in barracks combing each other's long tresses or coolies at the street corners performing the same friendly office. Custom forbids a man to wear a beard and mustache until he becomes a grandfather.

He Got Up.

There is a keen knowledge of human nature in the following bit of fun from the Lewiston Journal, but no more than might be expected from a down east tavern keeper who has had a long experience with autumnal sportsmen, of whom many are called, but few get up:

A mighty hunter from Boston "put up" at a quaint little Maine hostelry and left word in the office that he wished to be called at half past 4 in the morning. Sharp at that time the next morning came a thundering rap at his door.

"All right! I'll be down in a minute!" called a muffled voice from under the quilts.

"You get up here now and sign this [illegible]," commanded Uncle Cy.

"[illegible] What receipt?" demanded a very wideawake voice, and the bed [illegible].

"[illegible]," grunted Uncle Cy, "I don't [illegible] have ye bumping down to the office at 8 o'clock declaring that ye hadn't been called."

Sand Swept Asia.

In the arid lands of central Asia the air is reported as often laden with fine detritus, which drifts like snow around conspicuous objects and tends to bury them in a dust drift. Even when there is no apparent wind the air is described as thick with fine dust, and a yellow sediment covers everything. In Khotan this dust sometimes so obscures the sun that at midday one cannot see to read fine print without a lamp.

RATIFIED AT LAST

Senate Casts Almost Unanimous Vote For Canal Measure.

DAY GIVEN OVER TO DEBATE

Senators Hopeful of an Immediate Adjournment—Bright Outlook For Favorable Action on Cuban Treaty—Carried Over to Next Session.

Washington, March 18.—Without dotting an "i" or crossing a "t," even without changing a single punctuation mark, the senate Tuesday voted to ratify the treaty with the republic of Colombia for the construction of an isthmian canal. The vote for ratification was 73 in the affirmative to 5 in the negative. The senate was in executive session when the result was announced, so that only the senators themselves and a few confidential employes were present. All the senators announced themselves as gratified to have the long struggle terminated.

The day was given up almost entirely to general debate on the treaty, and in addition to the set speeches made under the general agreement by Senators Morgan and Cullom there were many short addresses and a rather long speech by Senator Daniel of Virginia.

Most of the senators in the city left the capital at 7 o'clock last night in the firm conviction that it would be possible to conclude the called session today and that when the senate should next adjourn, the adjournment would be sine die.

This conclusion involved quite a general understanding that the Cuban reciprocity treaty could be much more speedily disposed of than has been considered possible heretofore. There was some senators who expressed the opinion that more than one day's time would be found necessary for the presentation of arguments for and against the agreement, but a canvass of the senate soon developed the fact that only the two Louisiana senators desired to be heard on the treaty at length at this time, and that they would not now say so much as they would have said if the committee on foreign relations had not agreed to recommend that the treaty be submitted to congress for its approval.

This submission will be in the shape of a joint resolution at the next session of congress, and as this can be discussed in open session, all those who opposed the treaty consider that that time would be more opportune for argument than the present, as they then will be able to appeal to the country at large as well as to the senate.

It is the general opinion that the treaty will be ratified by a safe majority.

Brothers Committed Suicide.

St. Louis, March 18.—Dr. A. B. McKee was found dead and his twin brother and comrade, Charles McKee, dying in the stable of Dr. McKee, at Edwardsville, Ill., yesterday under circumstances that indicate dual suicide, to escape a disgrace that threatened the physician and which his brother dreaded as much as if it were his own. This explanation grows out of the arrest of Dr. McKee on a charge of criminal assault a few days ago. He was known to have been greatly worried over the case. Death came from the administration of morphine. Dr. McKee was 40 years of age and had an excellent practice. He leaves a widow and one child.

Invited to Hawaiian Islands.

Honolulu, March 18.—The people of Hawaiian islands are very much interested in the western trip of President Roosevelt and for some time past leading citizens have been discussing the matter with a view to asking the president to extend his trip beyond San Francisco and come here. An urgent invitation has been forwarded to the president, inviting him to visit the Hawaiian islands.

President Awards a Life-Saver.

Washington, March 18.—The president has sent to the United States consul at Glasgow a beautiful gold watch suitably inscribed, for delivery to Captain Morgan of the British steamship Westhall, in recognition of his humane services in effecting the rescue of the captain and crew of the American steamer Anna T. Mulford, abandoned at sea Jan. 25 last.

An Anarchist Conspiracy.

London, March 18.—According to the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, rumors are current there of the discovery of a widespread anarchist conspiracy with ramifications among the workingmen in the industrial districts. Many arrests have been made in Galicia of Russians concerned in smuggling anarchist literature into Russia.

Heavy Damages Against N. Y. C.

White Plains, N. Y., March 18.—A verdict for $70,000 damages against the New York Central railroad was awarded by a jury in the supreme court yesterday for the death of E. F. Walton of New Rochelle, a victim of the Park-avenue tunnel accident. Walton was a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Cold Snap Killed the Fish.

Lakeland, Mich., March 18.—Hundreds of fish are dead in the smaller lakes and marshes in the vicinity of this place. A thaw permitted the fish to go into the shallows in search of food, and a severe cold snap froze them fast.

Barn and Twelve Cows Burned.

Grand Haven, Mich., March 18.—The large dairy barns of Fred Warber burned early Tuesday morning, together with twelve cows, a large amount of hay and dairy utensils.

Wronged.

Lucile—But he has no imagination.
Hortense—He hasn't? That's where you wrong him. Why, he thinks there are fully a dozen girls in this town who have hearts that he broke all to pieces.—Chicago Record-Herald.

It Saved his Leg.

P. A. Danforth of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg, but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For ulcers, wounds, piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cts. Sold by C. A. Wright, druggist.

STRIKE VERDICT

Opinion of the Commission Hande to the President.

THE REPORT IS UNANIMOUS

Will Be Made Public on Saturday—News That the Decision Has Been Reached Caused Much Anxiety—Miners' Leaders Are Hopeful.

Washington, March 19.—Judge Gray, chairman, and Carroll D. Wright, recorder of the anthracite strike commission, called on the president Wednesday and presented to him the report of the commission. It is a voluminous document, covering fully all phases of the controversy between the operators and the miners. Both sides have promised to abide by the decision of the tribunal created by President Roosevelt. Details of the report will be awaited with great interest not only by the operators and the miners, but also by the people of the country generally.

At the conclusion of the interview with the president, Colonel Wright announced that the report would be made public at his office on Saturday morning. About the same time it will be placed in the hands of the representatives of the operators and miners, the parties directly in interest.

The report of the strike commission is unanimous. The members of the commission discussed the report with the president at a dinner given in the White House last night, but their hands are tied so far as concerns any public disclosures of any features of the report.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 19.—The formal announcement made yesterday that the strike commission will make known its award on Saturday next has caused much anxiety among the miners and laborers in Wyoming valley coal fields. The leading officers of the United Mineworkers who were seen today feel satisfied that there will be a substantial reward for the long struggle of last year. Some of the leading miners believe that they will receive an increase of at least 10 per cent, eighty hours a day for steam men and nine hours a day for company hands. They will not prophesy on the disposition the commission has made of the demand for the weighing of coal.

Car Fell Ten Feet.

Guelph, Ont., March 19.—A serious accident occurred on the Wellington, Grey & Bruce branch of the Grand Trunk Wednesday seven miles north of here. One of the trucks of a passenger car jumped the track and all the cars of the train, consisting of baggage car, combination mail and smoker and first-class cars, left the track. The last car went over a trestle above a creek, taking a drop of ten feet into the water, which was swollen by the spring thaw. A two-year-old baby got caught under the seats and before the badly injured parents could acquaint anyone with the fact that there was a little one missing, it was drowned.

Found the Treasure Ship.

San Francisco, March 19.—Among the passengers of the steamer Newport, which arrived from Central American ports Wednesday, were Captain F. Johnstone and a party of treasure hunters, who left here last November with the hope of locating the wreck of the sidewheel steamer Golden Gate, which was burned off the Mexican coast in 1862. The Golden Gate carried much treasure. Captain Johnstone reports that the vessel, submerged in eight feet of water, has been located and the treasure, or some of it, found.

One Man Perished.

Spring Valley, Wis., March 19.—Very heavy rains last night caused floods on all the smaller rivers. At Martel, on the Rush river, a mill dam went out, taking three men, two of whom were rescued. Leon Gasman was drowned and Henry Gasman is badly hurt. Five railroad bridges are out between here and Elmwood, a distance of eight miles. The roads are almost impassable.

Teamsters Won Strike.

Toledo, March 19.—Through the efforts of Joseph Bishop, secretary of the Ohio state board of arbitration, the strike of the local teamsters has been settled, and the men have returned to work. The employes have agreed to recognize the union; to employ none but union teamsters, and not to discriminate against unions. The strikers made slight concessions.

"Golden Rule" Jones For Himself.

Toledo, March 19.—On the first ballot in the Republican convention yesterday, John W. Dowd was nominated for mayor. Coincident with the nomination comes the announcement from Mayor Samuel M. (Golden Rule) Jones that he, Jones, will be an independent candidate for his fourth term. The Democratic nominee is Charles M. Edson.

Carupano Bombarded.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, March 19.—According to advices received here from revolutionary sources the Venezuelan gunboat Restaurador bombarded the seaport town of Carupano, state of Bermudes, and destroyed many of the houses there. The troops of the Venezuelan government, it is added, are holding Cumana, about fifty-five miles from Carupano.

Snow Storms in Utah.

Salt Lake, March 19.—The severest snowstorm of the winter is prevailing here. More than four inches of snow has fallen, accompanied by a thirty-mile wind, and street car traffic is seriously interfered with. The storm is general throughout southern Idaho, northern Utah and western Wyoming and is working westward rapidly.

He Had.

"Have you ever written anything," said his cynical friend, "to make the world happier or better?"

"Rather," quoth the insurance agent who sometimes dabbled in verse. "I have written $400,000 worth of life insurance within the last year."

What Did He Mean?

He—What lovely flowers! Do you know, they remind me of you.
She—Why, they are artificial.
He—Yes, I know, but it requires close examination to detect it.

Talking your enthusiasm to some people is like holding it under the pump.—Atchison Globe.

ON CUBAN TREATY

Senate Unanimously Decides to Take Immediate Vote.

A PLEA FOR ANNEXATION

Made by Senator Newlands—Sharp Work Necessary to Save the Treaty From Failure—Race Question Again Comes Up in the Senate.

Washington, March 19.—Before adjourning at 7 o'clock last night the senate entered into a unanimous agreement to vote on the Cuban reciprocity treaty at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The hope of securing a vote yesterday was dissipated by the discovery that there were more speeches to be made in opposition to the treaty than had been counted upon. Indeed, it was difficult to secure an agreement to vote even today, and it was evident that this result could not have been accomplished but for the anxiety of senators to secure a final adjournment of the session.

The executive session covered six hours and was devoted largely to adverse criticism of the treaty. During the day Senator Newlands made a plea for the annexation of Cuba and presented an amendment to the treaty, tendering an invitation to that island to become a state of the American union.

It is said at the state department that the sharpest kind of work will be required to save the Cuban treaty from total failure if it is ratified by the senate, with amendments as proposed. The slightest amendments will require the convention again to be ratified by the Cuban congress, and while there is little doubt that small opposition will be offered there, it is pointed out that the period allowed for the exchange of ratifications expires on the 31st inst. This is a very short space of time in which to complete formalities in Washington and have the treaty acted on by the Cuban congress.

The race question again was discussed in the senate Wednesday. Mr. Money spoke for two hours, his remarks having direct reference to the action of the president in closing the Indianola, Miss., postoffice. Mr. Money explained at the outset of his remarks that if he could secure unanimous consent for leave to print, he would not take up the time of the senate. The sentiment of the senate seemed to be that remarks not delivered should not be spread in the Record. He thereupon proceeded, and delivered himself of some severe strictures of the president, stating in the course of his remarks that Mr. Roosevelt was not the president of America, but the president of the "black belt." At times he was closely interrogated by Messrs. Foraker and Spooner.

Ex-Detroiter Indicted.

New York, March 19.—Indictments charging attempted extortion have been returned by the grand jury against Dr. Benjamin Thomas Whitmore, once prominent in St. Louis medical circles and for years head of the scientific department of Parke, Davis & Co. of Detroit, Mich., and this city, and Henry C. Wilson, a civil engineer, for many years a chief clerk in the ordnance department in the army building. The two men were arrested last summer charged with demanding $4,500 from the Water Front Improvement company, a contracting firm of Jersey City, under threats to withdraw the assistance of certain government tugs which had been loaned to the company to facilitate the reclaiming of portions of Rikers' island, in the Sound.

Town of Santa Barbara Taken.

Panama, March 19.—According to advices received here from Honduras by way of San Salvador, the forces of General Bonilla, the president-elect of Honduras, who is fighting against General Sierra, the retiring president, who refused to hand over the post to Bonilla, have captured the town of Santa Barbara, while his generals, Miguel and Davilla, with 1,200 men, and Generals Carlos and Alverado, with 2,000 men, are now threatening Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras.

Was Grant's Classmate.

New York, March 19.—General Schuyler Hamilton, a classmate of General Grant at West Point and a distinguished veteran of the Mexican and civil wars, died Wednesday at his home here in his 83d year. General Hamilton was the father of Robert Ray Hamilton, who was mysteriously killed some years ago in the Snake River country in the northwest. Another son, Schuyler Hamilton, Jr., survives him.

Drydock Employes Strike.

Buffalo, March 19.—Five hundred employes of the drydock company are out on strike, and double the number may be out within the next few days unless the question at issue is settled. There is no question of wages involved. The men demand the reinstatement of a member of the union who, it is alleged, was discharged because he headed a grievance committee.

Ames' Bail Fixed at $18,000.

Minneapolis, March 19.—Dr. A. A. Ames, former mayor of Minneapolis, pleaded not guilty to all seven indictments against him charging bribery, conspiracy and extortion, in the district court Wednesday and bail was fixed at $18,000. He has four days in which to secure bondsmen.

Guatemala Withdraws Troops.

Washington, March 19.—United States Minister Combs at Guatemala City has cabled the state department that the president of Guatemala was withdrawing his troops from the frontier. It is believed that this action removes the danger of war between Guatemala and Honduras.

Unappreciated Lavishness.

"Whenebber a man gibs me a whole lot o' advice," said Uncle Eben, "I can't help s'picionin' dat if his opinions was so valuable he'd be busy somewha' else countin' money."—Washington Star.

EXEMPT FROM TAX

Kelly Bill Makes It Easy For Mortgages and Contracts.

PASSED BY THE SENATE

Moriarty's Felony Bill Reported Out by Committee on State Affairs—Legislators Had Their Pictures Taken—Town Named After Wells.

Lansing, Mich., March 19.—The senate Wednesday afternoon passed the Kelly bill, providing for the exemption of real estate mortgages and land contracts from taxation. The bill was passed by a vote of 17 to 10, after a hard fight by the opponents of the measure to amend it, both in committee of the whole and on third reading.

The senate committee on state affairs reported out favorably the bill providing for a state architects' commission for the examination and licensing of architects.

The judiciary committee of the senate reported out favorably Senator Moriarty's bill making it a felony for a convict of a penal institution to escape, or attempt to escape. The bill provides for a sentence of not less than two years or more than five, which sentence shall commence at the expiration of the regular sentence for which the convict is committed.

Other bills passed by the senate were: Authorizing the city of Detroit to vote upon the proposition to build a bridge to Belle Isle; to amend the charter of the city of Mt. Clemens, regulating taxation in said city; authorizing the township of Gratiot, Wayne county, to submit to the electors the question of raising by taxation the sum of $4,700 to reimburse the township treasurer for the money lost in the City Savings bank of Detroit.

The honorable members of the legislature had their pictures taken yesterday. The senate warmed up somewhat in a tax debate before their flashlight was taken and they were smoked out. The lower house had already been smoked out, after fifteen minutes had been spent in getting the legislature facial appurtenances into advantageous position.

Wells of Marquette county laid hold of a rickety rung in the steep ladder of fame yesterday afternoon when, suffused in maiden-like blushes, he listened to his name being attached to a new town, cut out of the township of Marquette. Wells had his bill passed under suspension of the rules. He had called the town "Edwards," but his deskmate, Seeley of Oakland, with apparent guilelessness, moved to amend by changing the name to "Wells." Wells took the floor and declared he did not know what to say. "Then sit down," said the house unanimously. Wells looked wise and his friends are now assiduously explaining that he didn't know it was going to happen at all, at all. The same bill passed the senate with the same reading.

The Neal bill, increasing the salary of the Wayne county school commissioner from $1,500 to $2,000 also passed the house. The bill gives the commissioner power to appoint a clerk whose salary shall be fixed by the county auditors. At present the commissioner retains a clerk only as a favor from the auditors. The bill also passed the senate.

Ferry's tontine and foreign corporation bills also passed.

Sixth District W. C. T. U.

Mason, Mich., March 19.—The twenty-sixth annual convention of the W. C. T. U. for the sixth district is in session here. In the gold medal contest, Thomas Hartwick of Royal Oak was successful against six others. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Dora Bliss, Lansing; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lina Knapp, Oxford; recording secretary, Lucy Hayes, Highland; treasurer, Mrs. O. J. Roberts, Davisburg.

Shot His Employer's Wife.

Milan, Mich., March 19.—Tuesday night Frank Wald, employed on the farm of Thomas Wilson, near here, came home in an intoxicated condition and threatened Mrs. Wilson with a shotgun. She ran out of the house and started for the home of a neighbor, the drunken man following. During the chase the gun was discharged, the load striking the woman in the leg. She reached the neighbor's in an exhausted condition from loss of blood. Wald was arrested.

Found Body In River.

Detroit, Mich., March 19.—Jerry Champagne of Grosse Pointe found a body floating in the river opposite the Lathrop farm, in Grosse Pointe township, early Wednesday morning. The body was that of a young man about 22 years old, 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighing about 160 pounds. It had evidently been in the water all winter.

Pope Again Prostrated.

Rome, March 19.—The pope is again prostrated and the reception of even his most intimate associates has been suspended until his holiness recovers. The prelate's physician will not specify what his patient's trouble is. Great alarm is felt at the Vatican as to the effect of the reported collapse.

Guilty of Criminal Assault.

Ionia, Mich., March 19.—Charles Pugh was found guilty yesterday in circuit court of criminally assaulting the 10-year-old child of Jesse Long of Campbell township. The jury disagreed on a former trial. This is the second conviction of the kind this term. The jury was out four hours.

Took Laudanum to Kill Herself.

Battle Creek, Mich., March 19.—Disappointed in her husband's affection soon after their marriage, Mrs. Nellie Woods made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide by taking laudanum. Heroic measures have probably saved her life.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

Children Poisoned.

Many children are poisoned and made nervous and weak, if not killed outright by mothers giving them cough syrups containing opiates. Foley's Honey and Tar is a safe and certain remedy for coughs, croup and lung trouble, and is the only prominent cough medicine that contains no opiates or other poisons. J. J. Orr.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic and effective nervine and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

Statesman and Gambler.

Charles James Fox, the English statesman, was even more notorious in the gaming world than he was famous in the world of politics. He had squandered $250,000 before coming of age. He became one of the most profligate gamesters of the vicious days in which he lived. Some of his finest displays in debate were sandwiched between excitement such as would unnerve most men who had no serious business on hand. Walpole has given a glimpse of a typical passage in this extraordinary man's life. He had to take part in the discussion on the thirty-nine articles in parliament on a certain Thursday. He had sat up playing hazard from Tuesday evening until 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. An hour before he had recovered $60,000 that he had lost and by dinner time, which was 5 o'clock, ended losing $55,000. On Thursday he spoke in the debate, went to dinner at past 11 at night; thence to a club, where he drank till 7 the next morning; thence to a gambling house, where he won $30,000, and between 3 and 4 in the afternoon he set out on a journey to Newmarket.

Itching Skin

Distress by day and night—

That's the complaint of those who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum—and outward applications do not cure. They can't.

The source of the trouble is in the blood—make that pure and this scaling, burning, itching skin disease will disappear.

"I was taken with an itching on my arms which proved very disagreeable. I concluded it was salt rheum and bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In two days after I began taking it I felt better and it was not long before I was cured. Have never had any skin disease since." MRS. IDA E. WARD, Cove Point, Md.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

rid the blood of all impurities and cure all eruptions.

Another Good Letter from

GEORGE TIFFANY.

He is having a Good Time. There are

ABOUT 20 YOUNG LADIES NOW

In the Klondike Town where He is.

Rampart, Jan. 30, 1902

DEAR PARENTS:

The mail service has been so miserable this year and I have had so much more work to do than ever before, that you have not had the letters you should have had from your boy.

Rampart has been decidedly different this winter from last. Last winter it was quite hard to have a social dance and have several white women present, but this year it has been quite different as we have had a number of pretty parties with 30 white women present. The camp is blessed with two young ladies, one with auburn hair and one with dark hair, and when I state they have a host of admirers I do not half express it.

I know that on Christmas Day one young lady got about twenty pounds of Lowney's candy from her admirers, besides a number of little gifts of nugget jewelry. My but how the spinsters of Tecumseh would shine up here. Just at present it looks pretty blue for the place as there is a big stampede on and about half of the men of the camp have gone to it, and as it is reported to be nearly as big a thing as Dawson was it will no doubt kill this place for business as well as pleasures of life.

The new strike is near the Tanana river about 200 miles from here, near a river called the Chena. It is not rich ground but the dirt averages well and is in immense quantities, so that it is still better than rich pockets. A large lot of stuff left the other day on sleds (about twenty horses) and a great many dog teams have gone. Stories are in the air of how many have struck a big thing.

The camp over there at present is occupied by only Rampart and Circle people. Some town lots are said to be held at $5000, and a city of tents is growing rapidly. A number of friends of mine have gone over there, and I hope will strike it so rich that they will give me a show at something good. We do not know very much about it, but as no one has returned from there we believe that it is as rich as it is reputed to be.

We have a better restaurant here this winter than last, and so much more of a variety in the meat line. One of my favorite meats of late has been reindeer. It is delicious. A whole drove of them was brought from way down river and were slaughtered out on the ice and meat sold to residents of the town. It seemed cruel to see the poor things shot. The other night three of us gave a dinner to the two couple who invited us to their house Christmas Day. The first course was oysters, consomme, baked salmon, turkey, plum pudding, mince pie, nuts etc. It was a fine little dinner, and we did the thing up brown. It cost $2.50 a plate but we wished to impress upon our friends that we knew a thing or two and appreciated their kindness in inviting orphans to their home on a holiday.

This winter has so far gone quite quickly and I do not think that this is such a bad country to spend the winters in. It is true that the days are long and dark, and even up to the present time the sun has not shown upon this place, it being hid by the high mountains back of the town. But we have a good time and live quite a free and easy life.

Working pretty hard at certian seasons, but at this time there is not much going on. People do not get up until noon and dont go to bed until twelve. They come to buy things at the store from 12 till 4 then they enjoy themselves the balance of the day. On the creeks of course they work regular hours. At Glen Gulch the principal mining camp near here, which is about 30 miles, they have the sun for a few hours each day and it seems very pleasant.

Well, I must close as tomorrow is the last of the month, and I have a good deal of work to do. Never was better in my life, and hope you are all the same.

Your loving son,
GEO.

Trouble will come without our call; true joy will not spring up without ourselves.

"BEN HUR" COMING TO TOLEDO.

The Famous Spectacle will Play One Week at the Valentine Theatre.

Klaw & Erlanger's stupendous spectacle, "Ben Hur," which has been touring the South for a limited engagement, comes to the Valentine theatre, Toledo, almost direct from its recent Madri Gras triumph in New Orleans, for a single week, commencing Monday, March 30th, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. The coming of this great spectacle is an event of greatest importance, as everyone in this community has long wished to witness the stage presentation of General Wallace's famous novel. Special accommodations and reduced rates will be offered on all roads between here and Toledo during the engagement of "Ben Hur."

Although "Ben Hur" is already well known here, a word regarding its massiveness will be of interest. The production which comes to Toledo is the same original Klaw & Erlanger organization which was seen in Chicago and St. Louis last year with the same cast, scenery, equipment, horses, camels and ornate electrical effects. There are a few bars of music—serving the same purpose as a voluntary before divine service—and when the curtain rises, it discloses the illimitable waste of desert; the tired camels; the three wise men gathered from Greece, from Egypt, from Hindustan, to greet the appearance of the star, a "focus of dazzling lustre." His star proclaims His birth. The play opens with His birth and closes with hosannas and rejoicings over the last miracle He was to perform before His appointed end.

Following the prelude comes the brilliantly colored picture of the house tops of Jerusalem, the terrace of the palace of Hur. Next is one of the greatest scenes of the play—the dim interior of the Roman galley ship—the muscular, grim visaged slaves tugging in rythmic motion at the oars. Then the wreck, with Ben Hur and his captain struggling in the waves.

Then comes the most thrilling and realistic effect ever presented on the stage—the great chariot race. A rumble is heard in the background, the hurrying clatter of horses' hoofs and then the race is disclosed. Two Roman chariots, each drawn by four horses, form the centre of the marvellous picture. The animals with far stretched necks and dilated nostrils run like mad, urged on by the whips of the charioteers—Ben Hur and his enemy, Messala. The wheels of the chariots rumble and sway, now Ben Hur is ahead, now Messala, then Ben Hur and the race is ended.

To present the marvellous spectacle, no less than 350 people are required. In the chariot race eight horses are used while four more are kept in training for emergencies.

The advance sale of seats opens Thursday morning, March 26th, at 9 o'clock. Manager Otto Klives, of the Valentine, announces that all out-of-town orders, if accompanied by cash or money order, will be filled before the regular box office sale opens.

Want Summer Boarders?

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Ry. will issue a resort book early this season to provide information about summer hotels etc. If you wish summer boarders take matter up with nearest Lake Shore ticket agent, advising about rates, number of people you can accommodate, post office address, how your place is reached from nearest station on Lake Shore, etc., or write to A. J. Smith, G. P. and T. A., Cleveland, O., for blank to fill out. If you have any suitable cottages advise about them.

Several months ago Anderson & Rosacrans sold a dry goods box to a man residing near Cone. About this time they were expecting a shipment of furs for which they waited in vain. After a little investigation, the firm found that the railroad company had delivered the box of furs to the drayman who distinctly remembers hauling the box to the store. The matter has been kept quiet until a few days ago when the purchaser of the dry goods box sold a fine fur. An officer was at once sent to Cone to look into the matter and found in the possession of this man, furs to the amount of about $100. No arrests have as yet been made.

BIG MASONIC EVENT

Took Place in Tecumseh Yesterday

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

Called by Lou B. Winsor, Grand Lecturer of Masons of Michigan. Lodges from Many Different Towns were in Attendance.

Yesterday was truly a Masonic day for Tecumseh. The occasion was a school of instruction, called by Lou B. Winsor, grand lecturer of Masons of Michigan. The following lodges were represented: Adrian, Blissfield, Palmyra, Deerfield, Petersburg, Monroe, Lambertville, Dundee, Manchester, Clinton, Onsted and Tecumseh.

The work in the afternoon was the first and second degrees which were conferred by Deerfield and Manchester lodges respectively. In the evening the third degree was conferred by Tecumseh lodge.

A banquet, at which 325 were seated, was served at the armory after the close of the work. The program of music was good and highly appreciated by all present, as was the address of Grand Lecturer Winsor. Ladies of the Eastern Star had charge of the banquet which was very nicely served. All present report a good time. Following is the banquet menu:

24 Inch Gauge Oysters
Rough Ashler Cream Potatoes
Perfect Ashler Veal Loaf
Tressel Board Ham
Brazen Pillar Rolls Three Step Pickles
Five Step Doughnuts
Seven Step Celery
Corn, Wine and Oil Coffee
The Last Three Emblems of Mortality—
Ice Cream Cake Cigars

At the New Bradley Opera House.

The Miller Bryan Co. presented the sensational comedy drama "A Hero in Rags" to a good house last night. The play is one that brings out both pathos and humor and it is not often that Tecumseh theatre goers have an opportunity of witnessing such well staged productions at popular prices. One of the features was the specialties by Mr. Green, Miss Mack, Miss Star and "Miller Bryan," all artists capable of holding a metropolitan engagement. To-night they will present Mr. Hall Reed's great masterpiece "Roanoke" with Miss Bryan in the title role and Mr. Miller in his great character of Aunt Dinah. Although this is a very expensive production, there will be no advance in prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Saturday night "Happy Hooligan and his Brother Gloo Gus."

THE CHURCHES.

The morning subject at the Presbyterian church next Sunday will be "The Sower." The evening subject will be "But Grow."

Sunday afternoon services during Lent. Special course of sermons, general subject "The Way of Salvation."

March 22nd—"The Necessity of the Sacraments."

The Rector would earnestly commend this course of sermons. It is not more to be lamented than it is true that the great majority of Christian people have no proper understanding whatever of the Way of Salvation.

Big Drop on Coal.

BERT GILLEN,

Of Adrian, a Former Tecumseh Boy,

WAS STABBED

In the Abdomen as the Result of a Melee in a Toledo Restaurant.

George Watson returned from Toledo last night and makes the following statement in regard to the trouble at Toledo, which resulted in Bert Gillen being badly slashed with a knife:

"Gillen and I entered the restaurant at about 8:55 o'clock Monday evening. We had just five minutes to catch the Adrian car. We ordered two pork sandwiches in a hurry. The sandwiches were paid for in advance. I walked up to the cigar case and bought three cigars, where an insult was thrown at me by VanBloom. I paid no attention as he was drunk and walked away. Turning around a moment later I saw VanBloom strike Gillen, who instantly clinched with him, and in the scuffle the cigar case was broken. After pushing them both out doors, I went back to get the sandwiches. I got them, intending to take them with us and eat them on the way. As I came out of the door I saw Gillen staggering across the street, saying 'I have been stabbed! For God's sake, get a doctor.' What happened across the street, while I was getting the sandwiches, and when he was stabbed, I do not know. No one but VanBloom's friends seem to have seen Gillen strike him in rapid succession as reported yesterday, while other bystanders state willingly that Gillen did not strike 'him.'"

Speaking of the condition of Bert Gillen this morning's Toledo Times says:

Bert Gillen, the young man who was seriously wounded in a cutting affray on Superior street Monday night, is getting along nicely at St. Vincent's hospital and suffers but little pain. It is likely that a charge of cutting with intent to wound or kill will be preferred against VanBloom, his alleged assailant, some time today.

COCKER PROPERTY.

To be Presented to the City of Adrian

FOR A LIBRARY,

Provided Certain Conditions are Complied With.

Benjamin C. Cocker is home from Flint for a few days, in order to determine just what he wants done with the old homestead. Alanson Bennett, who has charge of the estate, said to-day that Ben favored the plan of turning the elegant home into a library, as by so doing the home could be used just as it is.

Mr. Cocker stated that he was very sorry that some things had been published that were not true, regarding the property, and the disposition of it. He wished it emphatically stated that his father left no will. He stated that through his attorney, A. Bennett, the property, as it stands would be presented to the city of Adrian to be used as a public library, providing certain conditions were complied with. These condition he did not wish to make public, but stated they would be brought before the school board for their consideration by Mr. Bennett at a public meeting to be held soon. Adrian is to be given the property as a gift from Mr. Cocker, as his father left no will. Consequently all the estate belongs to Mr. Cocker and he can do with it as he sees fit.

Adrian citizens are certainly fortunate in securing such a valuable property, and Mr. Cocker has conferred a rich legacy to the city.—Extracts from Adrian Times and Telegram.

Eightieth Birthday.

The old warriors of the civil war and their ladies were called out in lively skirmish on the battlefield of Miles Baldwin, Wednesday evening. Several regiments were represented, but the 18th Michigan infantry, commanded by Captain Henry Stevens, was the first to make the attack. He marshaled his forces in a gallant manner, and took possession of the house.

Mr. Baldwin was 80 years old that day, and not prepared for the attack. Capt. Stevens, in encouraging words, supported by his regiment, and the G. A. R., gave the veteran a fine cane to defend and support himself. After the field was captured, the commander of the army, Wm. Smalledge, issued rations of oysters, coffee and cake, and the company cooks, James Ingersoll and Hiram Westgate, gave royal feast.

Mrs. Hanley, president of the commissary department, gave the enfeebled captive and weary marchers a lovely cake, marked "80," to remind the boys of home. Then Mr. Baldwin, in grateful remembrance of his defenders, sent the sutler's wagon in with a load of oranges. Twenty nine were in this engagement, eight braves of the 18th Michigan. When order was restored, no lives had been lost, no one wounded, and no one missing.

Then came the banquet, and in double quick march to the table, each soldier found he had another man's wife.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound and well." Everybody ought to know it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

BEEVERS-YOUNG.

Miss Rosa Young and Mr. Charles Beevers, of Ridgeway,

WERE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Wednesday Afternoon at the Home of the Bride's Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Young.

A pretty home wedding occurred Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Young, it being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rosa Young to Charles Beevers, of Ridgeway.

Promptly at two o'clock the bride and groom entered the parlor took their place in an embowered corner of the room distinguished by its decoration of white. The impressive words were spoken by Rev. Mott in the presence of about forty relatives and friends.

After the happy couple had received congratulations a wedding supper was served. The guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. T. G Mead, of Sutton; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Linton; Mrs. Irvin Luce and son, of Tipton; Mrs. Wm. Button, of Hudson; Blanch Oram and Earl Beevers, of Ridgeway.

Mrs. Samuel Shutt.

Mrs. Nancy Conklin Shutt was born in Connesus, Livingston county, N. Y., April 19, 1840. She was the fifth child of Samuel and Lucetta Conklin, was married to Samuel Shutt March 13, 1862, in Scottsburg, N. Y., and lived in that village until 1873 when they came to Tecumseh; To them was born one daughter, who died April 5, 1891.

During the last 23 years Mrs. Shutt has been an invalid, much of the time confined to her home. She united with the Presbyterian church during the pastorate of Rev. C. M. Brown and was deeply interested in church life, attending the services whenever her health permitted.

She was a loving wife and a mother to the motherless children left in her care. No sacrifice was too great for her loved ones. Never did a burdened heart enter her home that did not go away comforted. During her last hours she called each one of the family to her bedside, giving them her parting blessing and advice. With a prayer on her lips for those she loved, she entered the haven of rest.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Does a Wondrous Work for a Lady Who Was Almost Crazed with Pain and Suffering.

It is well known that terrible rheumatism, sciatica, and neuralgia cause more helplessness, acute suffering, and agony, than any of the other diseases that afflict humanity. The great medicinal virtues of Paine's Celery Compound make it the only trustworthy specific for the cure of all forms of rheumatism and neuralgia. Thousands of strong testimonial letters from the most prominent people of the land, prove that Paine's Celery Compound has banished these terribly fatal troubles when all other treatment has failed. Mrs. Margaret Bethel, of Brainerd, Minn., after thirty years of agonizing tortures had a desire to end her life, if it was the will of Heaven; she almost prayed for the time to lay it down. Heaven-directed, she made use of Paine's Celery Compound, and is enjoying true life once more. She says:—

"For thirty years I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia in the head, and also with rheumatism in the whole body. I began taking Paine's Celery Compound and soon found I was much better. Before taking the Compound, my life was such a burden that I almost prayed to lay it down. I was bedfast every two weeks with horrible pain in the head, back, and neck, until I was almost crazed. I am able to do harder work and more of it today than for twenty-five years. I am really enjoying life again, thanks to Paine's Celery Compound. I am satisfied that my life has been prolonged many years by its use."

MOST BEYOND BELIEF.

If It Were not for Tecumseh Indorsement People might be Skeptical.

Tecumseh people want local proof.

That's what we have here.

It's not beyond belief because it can be proved.

Read a local citizen's testimony.

Mr. W. C. Witherell, agent for buggies, harnesses and other machinery, place of business southwestern section of Tecumseh, says: "I cannot praise Doan's Kidney Pills highly enough for they have been a great friend to me. Some years ago I was an expert at sheep shearing and did a lot of that work. Everybody knows it is very hard on the back and it finally brought on a severe pain across the loins. Nothing did any good until a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box and the treatment gave immediate relief. When I finished the box the trouble was entirely removed. If I feel any symtoms of a return a resort to Doan's Kidney Pills quickly ward off the attack. They are a reliable remedy and I consistently recommend them." Just such emphatic endorsement is plentiful in Tecumseh. Call at C. A. Wright's drug store and ask him what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

TOOK LAUDANUM.

Stopped Man on Street and Told Him What He Had Done.

Charlotte, Mich., March 19.—While going home last night, County Clerk Moyer was stopped by a stranger, who handed him a book, requesting him to notify his mother in Flint that he intended ending his life. Moyer, himself a stranger in town, accepted the book thinking the man, who had been drinking, was a resident and would call for his property in the morning. The man told Moyer he had already taken three ounces of laudanum and a quantity of morphine and that his advice not to do anything rash had come too late.

Arriving home, Moyer found the book to be a card issued to Walter Ephraim by Cigarmakers' union No. 186 of Flint. He promptly notified Sheriff Halladay and the man was taken into custody.

Dr. Leroy F. Weaver was called and at midnight the man was still alive, but with no hopes for his recovery.

Two Shot In Drunken Row.

Detroit, Mich., March 19.—As the result of a drunken row Tuesday afternoon, a colored man and a white woman are at St. Mary's hospital severely wounded, with the chances greatly against their recovery, while another colored man is locked up and will be charged with murder in the event of either or both of his victims dying. The wounded man is Richard Jackson and the white woman was his mistress, Mrs. Jessie Hood. The assailant is William Brown. The shooting occurred in what is known as the "Tin Can Alley" district, for years a notorious locality. Jackson had accused Brown of intimacy with his mistress. Brown resented by pulling out a revolver and shooting Jackson on the spot. Mrs. Hood, hearing the noise, appeared on the scene and Brown, in his excitement, turned and shot her. The assailant, in an effort to get away, took the suburban car to Pontiac, but was subsequently caught and brought back.

Mechem Goes to Chicago.

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 19.—Professor Floyd R. Mechem, Tappan professor of law at the university, has at last accepted the long-standing offer from Chicago university. He will take up the new position next September. For several years Professor Mechem has been sought by other schools, but to all a negative answer has been given. Last winter President Harper offered him $5,000 and a professorship. This spring President Harper repeated the invitation to join the Midway university.

Furnished a Good Alibi.

St. Joseph. Mich., March 19.—William Finch, an old man with numerous aliases and several wives, who is charged with horse stealing, was on trial Wednesday in circuit court and furnished considerable amusement for attorneys and spectators. Finch has been trying the insanity dodge like Mason, and his replies to the attorneys' questions were ridiculous. Attorney Shauman sprang a surprise on the court by producing papers to prove an alibi, claiming Finch was serving time at Jackson for bigamy.

The man who starts out to be a reformer had better be well prepared for all kinds of roads and weather.

To Build Shops In Saginaw.

Saginaw, Mich., March 19.—It is learned here, on excellent authority, that the new management of the Pere Marquette railroad has virtually decided to double the capacity of the company's shops, and that the new shops will be built in this city. The plans for this important improvement and addition have not yet been entirely completed, but it has been decided that the improvement shall be made in Saginaw, where the nucleus for the shops is now located.

Preacher Reconciled Them.

Jackson, Mich., March 19.—The present prospect is for the full recovery of William Nicolay, the Michigan Central employe whose skull was fractured by a blow from a handle punch in the hands of Fred Bergman last Friday. More than that, the latter is not to be prosecuted for the assault. This is the result of the intervention of Rev. Mr. Spiegel, who brought the men together at the hospital, where they were reconciled.

Charity Ball a Success.

Benton Harbor, Mich., March 19.—The charity ball given at the armory under the auspices of the ladies' board of the rescue mission netted over $100 for the institution, which conducts a mission school and cares for the poor of the city, expending thousands of dollars annually.

Wants $10,000 For Lost Affections.

Ionia, Mich., March 19.—The historical breach of promise case of Emma O. Jameson of Grand Rapids against Samuel J. Rumsey of Portland is again on trial here. Mrs. Jameson asks $10,000 as a proper reward for her alleged injured affections.

Poultry and Pet Stock Exhibit.

Traverse City, Mich., March 19.—The first annual poultry show of the Northern Michigan Poultry and Pet Stock association is being held here. Over 300 specimens of poultry and pet stock, including game birds and Belgian hares, are on exhibition.

Protestants and Catholics at War.

Victoria, B. C., March 19.—The steamer Moana, which arrived Wednesday, brought news from Fiji that trouble has arisen between the Protestants and Roman Catholics there, as the result of the burning of 300 bibles by the Catholics. The natives of the section had changed their religion and, according to letters from Rev. Mr. Burns, a Protestant missionary at Rewa, a public gathering was held and the bibles burned. The incident has caused much friction between the two bodies.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

Mr. Wilson was in Milan attending a Knight Templars lodge. Mrs. Wilson and daughter, aged ten, and Miss Ada Scoulton, a school teacher boarding with the Wilson's, ran for Ed Anten, a neighbor, Frank after them, shooting Mrs. Wilson in the back. Dr. Patton was called and dressed the wound. After the shooting Frank Walters gave himself up and waited for the sheriff to take him to Adrian on the midnight train. Mrs Wilson is doing nicely and there are hopes of her recovery.

A Miraculous Feat.

"It seemed that nothing short of a miracle could save my little daughter from an untimely death," says City Marshall A. H. Malcolm, of Cherokee, Kan. "When two years old she was taken with stomach and bowel trouble and despite the efforts of the best physicians we could procure, she grew gradually worse and was pronounced incurable. A friend advised Dr. Miles' Nervine and after giving it a few days she began to improve and finally fully recovered. She is now past five years of age and the very picture of health."

HEAD BLOWN OFF

Insane Man Shot the Gun With His Foot.

THIRD SUICIDE IN THE FAMILY

Man Crushed Beneath Car Wheels at Kalamazoo While Crossing Track—Father and Son Stabbed by Quarrelsome Neighbor While Driving Home.

Galesburg, Mich., March 23.—Edwin Stocking, aged 50, a well-to-do retired farmer, living in this village, committed suicide Sunday morning by blowing the top of his head off with a shot gun while temporarily insane. Stocking made two attempts before he was successful. The first charge just grazed his head. He then placed the muzzle of the gun under his chin and released the trigger with his foot, the charge completely blowing off the upper part of his head. He was found a few minutes later by his son, in the driveway of the barn. A widow and three children survive him. This makes the third in one family to commit suicide.

Kalamazoo, Mich., March 23.—John Deplanche, an unmarried laborer, 45 years of age, was killed by a northbound Lake Shore train while attempting to cross the track. His body was ground to pieces under the wheels.

Port Huron, Mich., March 23.—Wes and Lou Streeter, father and son, of Fort Gratiot town, were the victims of a dastardly stabbing affray on the Gratiot road while driving home Saturday evening, their assailant being Jay Shaw, a neighbor, and a man with a reputation as a bad character. The men had quarreled in a saloon in the city in the afternoon, but finally came to an understanding. The Streeters supposed the affair would then be dropped, until assailed by Shaw on the road home. The men were badly wounded, but are still alive.

Aged Couple to Separate.

Detroit, Mich., March 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burr Crosby, two centenarians who have made Detroit their home, are about to separate forever, after a wedded life of over three-quarters of a century. Mr. Burr claims to have been born at Liverpool, England, March 12, 1794, while his wife is two years his senior and says she was born at Elizabethtown, N. J., in 1792. Therefore the couple are 109 and 111 years respectively. The remarkable longevity, however, is only of secondary interest, as Mr. Crosby offers documentary evidence that he is the son of Aaron Burr, the hot-headed vice president of the United States under Thomas Jefferson. Mr. Crosby will go to Virginia this week to live. His aged wife refuses to go with him, and they will likely separate forever.

Injured by Dynamite.

Owosso, Mich., March 23.—Ernest Olney, who lives near Elsie, was probably fatally injured by a premature explosion of a dynamite cartridge, with which he was blasting through rock in a well. His left eye was injured and the scalp partially blown away by the force of the explosion. Olney is a middle-aged man and is married.

Judge Fishback Is Dead.

Howell, Mich., March 23.—Judge Charles Fishback, who was stricken with paralysis about eight days ago, is dead. He was one of the founders of the First State Savings bank of that place in 1891, and had since been its president. Four years ago he ran against Sam W. Smith for congress in the Sixth district.

Noted Detroit Citizen Dead.

New York, March 23.—C. J. Whitney, the veteran Detroit theatrical manager and music publisher, died at the home of his son, Fred C. Whitney, 315 West One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street, at 5:30 Saturday afternoon.

Inspection of State Troops.

Lansing, Mich., March 23.—Each company of the Michigan National guard is under orders to be in readiness for inspection by a regular army officer, preliminary to the equipment of the troops with Krag-Jorgensen rifles.

Aged Detroit Citizen Dead.

Detroit, Mich., March 23.—The Hon. Patrick Stuart, one of the oldest pioneers of the city of Detroit, died Sunday at his home, 356 Fort street west, at the advanced age of 83 years. Death was due to old age. He came to Detroit fifty-four years ago.

Big Fire at Jennison.

Jennison, Mich., March 23.—The entire plant of the Jennison Iron and Engine works was burned late Saturday night. Loss, $50,000; fully insured. Sixty men are thrown out of employment. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Reward For the Gold Brick.

Detroit, Mich., March 23.—The Pacific Express company offer $2,000 for information leading to the recovery of the gold brick stolen from them last week Wednesday night at the Fort street depot.

Failed to Reach an Agreement.

Bay City, Mich., March 23.—The conference of Michigan miners and operators here ended in a disagreement. The mines will close April 1 unless the differences are adjusted in the meantime.

$200 For Wounded Heart.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 23.—The breach of promise case of Emma O. Jameson vs. Samuel J. Ramsey resulted in a judgment for the plaintiff in the sum of $200. The case has been in progress since 1898.

Saw Entered His Head.

Cadillac, Mich., March 21.—Fred Budget was killed Friday morning in Charles Reese's sawmill, nine miles north of town. He fell head foremost on a circular saw.

It Saved his Leg.

P. A. Danforth of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg, but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For ulcers, wounds, piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cts. Sold by C. A. Wright, druggist.

FOILED A HOLD-UP

FATAL DUEL TOOK PLACE

Three Masked Men Attempted to Rob Passengers—Would-Be Victim Began Firing—Robbers Returned It, Killing One Man, Wounding Others.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 23.—Three masked robbers attempted to hold up a car on the Los Angeles-Pacific electric line running between Los Angeles and Santa Monica, about a mile west of the city limits, Saturday night, and after a pistol duel between G. W. Henderson, one of the passengers, and one of the robbers the other two highwaymen began shooting right and left through the crowded car. One passenger was killed and three wounded.

The hold-up occurred at the head of a deep cut. The robbers had placed a steel rail, a large bench and a cement barrel on the track.

Charles Curry, the motorman, saw the obstruction when the car was several hundred yards from it and at once turned off the current and ran slowly to the place. The moment the car struck three men, wearing masks over their faces, sprang from the weeds alongside the track. One boarded the front end of the car and the other two the rear end. The first man commanded the passengers to put up their hands, and when one of them did not comply he fired a shot. Henderson then opened fire on the robber. The robber turned his gun upon Henderson, but as he did so he was seen to bend over and cry out as if in pain. Then, straightening up, he began shooting at the passengers on the front seats. Henderson continued firing and the robber was seen to fall. The two robbers who had entered the rear door commanded the passengers to put up their hands, and most of them did so. Before the robbers could search the passengers the shooting began on the outside of the car. Then the other two robbers began shooting right and left among the passengers.

Griswold was seated about the middle of the car, with his back toward the robbers. At the command "Hands up," he tried to hide his watch, and one of the robbers, thinking he was about to draw a gun, fired point blank at him. The bullet struck him in the back of the neck and he fell over into the lap of his aged mother, who was at his side.

Officers were sent to the scene, but no trace of the robbers was found. Owing to the confusion, practically no description of the men was secured.

A MYSTERIOUS TRAGEDY.

Man Preferred to Die Upon Finding His Wife and Child Dead.

Cincinnati, March 23.—A mysterious tragedy which occurred here Saturday night was discovered last night when the bodies of A. M. Betty, local representative of the Washburn-Crosby mills of Minneapolis, his wife and their son, twenty months old, were found at their home on Gilbert avenue. A note written by Betty was found, in which he accused his wife of killing the babe, and the police think the woman may have killed herself and the child on account of domestic troubles.

The body of the child was found in a basin with no marks on it. It is thought that Betty took it from the crib and tried to revive it by turning on the water. When he found it dead he lay down beside his wife's dead body to die from asphyxiation, and in that position their bodies were found. The odor of gas led to the search which disclosed the three dead bodies. There is nothing to indicate how any of the family came to their death except the line left by Betty and the fact that the gas was turned on. There is evidence that Mrs. Betty was dead some hours before her husband came home and that the babe possibly may have died after he returned.

Dean Farrar Is Dead.

London, March 23.—The Very Rev. Frederick William Farrar, dean of Canterbury since 1895, died Sunday. Dean Farrar was in his 72d year. Frederick William Farrar was born in 1831 in the Fort Bombay, where his father, the Rev. C. R. Farrar, was chaplain. He was educated at King William college in the Isle of Man, King's college, London, and Trinity college, Cambridge. In 1876 Dr. Farrar was appointed a canon of Westminster abbey and rector of St. Margaret's, Westminster. He became archdeacon of Westminster in 1884.

Shot the Bride.

Chicago, March 23.—Extending in one hand a wedding gift, Benjamin Valerio, a discarded suitor, pointed a revolver and fired at the bride of Joseph Malone at the wedding feast which they were celebrating here last night. In the struggle which followed, as the bride sank to the floor dangerously wounded, Valerio received fatal injuries, and Michael Malone, a brother of the groom, was so severely hurt that he may not recover. The tragedy occurred when the nuptial festivities were at their height.

Baer Re-Elected.

Reading, Pa., March 23.—The annual meeting of the Temple Iron company, known as the coal trust, was held here Saturday. George F. Baer was re-elected president and A. S. Law of Scranton secretary and treasurer.

Hair-Cut War Goes On.

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 21.—The freshmen and the sophomores had an all-night hunt for victims in the hair-cutting war Thursday night. Crowds did not tackle crowds, but gangs jumped upon individuals. The result, as far as can be learned, is that about a half dozen from each class are "shingled."

Bullet in His Brain.

Samaria, Mich., March 21.—After three years' suffering from consumption, Frank Whiting, aged 43, became despondent and killed himself. He took a 32-caliber revolver, stood before a mirror and fired the bullet into his right temple. The ball lodged in his left temple. His death was instantaneous.

A LIGHTED MATCH

Caused Terrible Conflagration in Grand Rapids Hotel.

MAN PERISHED IN THE FLAMES

Several Others Injured—Guest Accidently Threw Lighted Match Among Inflammable Material In His Room—Guests Escaped Down Ladder.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 21.—By the careless throwing down of a lighted match by a guest in his room, a fire was started at 7:30 last night which practically destroyed the Clarendon hotel at Canal and West Bridge streets, with its contents, entailing a total loss estimated between $75,000 and $100,000 and causing the loss of one life and the more or less serious injury of several persons.

The dead: William G. Hawkins, traveling man of Bay City; body discovered after the fire had been extinguished.

The injured: Peter Sternberg, Chicago, traveling man; severely burned on face and hands. Mrs. William R. Laughray, dancing teacher of this city; head burned and overcome by smoke. Guy Doty, yardman, head and face blistered. Harry Morris, bell boy; bruised and burned on hands and face.

Peter Sternberg went to his room on the second floor after his overcoat, and after igniting the gas threw the lighted match among a lot of his silk goods, which immediately took fire. He made a desperate effort to extinguish the flames, being severely burned, but the fire spread rapidly. Sternberg rushed out, yelling "fire." The flames spread through the four-story brick building with great rapidity, and by the time the department got to work flames were bursting from nearly every window. Fortunately, at the hour of the fire most of the guests were out of their rooms. A panic ensued among those in the upper stories and a number of thrilling rescues were made by the firemen. One man and two women were taken from a third story window and down a ladder. After about an hour's work, the firemen gained control of the fire, but the big building had been badly gutted.

It was thought that all persons had escaped with their lives, but when it became possible to enter the ruins the body of William G. Hawkins was found in a back room on the third floor, badly charred. He had been cut off from escape by the flames in front, and his room looked out over the power canal in the rear of the hotel, where it would have been practically impossible to reach him from the outside if his plight had been known. Hawkins was an old and well-known traveling man, who had made Grand Rapids his home most of the time.

INSURANCE IN MICHIGAN.

Abstract of the Commissioner's Annual Report.

Lansing, Mich., March 21.—The advance report of life, casualty, assessment and fraternal insurance transacted in Michigan during the last calendar year was issued by the commissioner of insurance Friday. It shows that since the last preliminary report was issued five stock life, one stock casualty, ten assessment life and six fraternal companies were authorized by the department to transact business.

The statistics covering the Michigan business of the stock life companies are as follows: Number of policies issued in Michigan in 1902, 30,231, aggregating $43,702,154 66; 111,613 policies aggregating $198,538,883 88 were in force at the close of the year; premiums received, $7,673,438 42; losses incurred, $2,332,599 57.

The stock casualty, fidelity and miscellaneous companies wrote accident and health risks aggregating $90,099,215.

The co-operative, or assessment, life, health and accident associations wrote 33,770 certificates, aggregating $10,895,031.

Michigan fraternal beneficiary associations wrote 39,286 certificates aggregating $31,341,217 25, and at the close of the year had in force 240,227 certificates aggregating $272,255,286. They paid $1,968,182 81 in losses and collected assessments aggregating $2,090,585 97.

Bradley Assaulted the Girl.

Manistee, Mich., March 21.—Fuller particulars of the terrible tragedy at Chief Lake Thursday go to show that Bradley not only killed Mrs. Bowerman and fatally wounded little Nola, her 11-year-old daughter, but that he brutally assaulted the girl before he shot her. Joseph Bradley came from Canada and had been working for Mrs. Bowerman nearly a year, having been discharged and paid off last Sunday. He had become infatuated with a niece of his employer, but the family interfered, and it is thought his anger at being jilted was the real motive for the crime.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, March 21.—Michigan pensions granted Friday: Original—Louis LeBaux, Detroit, $8; William L. Herrick, Hastings, $6. Increase—Michael J. Fauble, Bear Lake, $10; A. J. Pratt, Lake Ann, $12; Daniel Donovan, Reed City, $10; Thomas McCarthy, Big Rapids, $8; E. T. Johnson, Corunna, $17. Widows—Margaret Toner, North Lansing, $12; Martha M. Bailey, Ortonville, $12.

Willing to Settle.

Niles, Mich., March 21.—The Kelley Road Roller company, who threatened to bring mourning into some of the first families of Niles unless they were paid $3,350 for a street roller they sold the city, which transaction the court declared invalid, now offer to accept $1,000 in settlement, plus an attorney's fees of $250, they to take the machine back.

Michigan Defeated Wisconsin.

Madison, Wis., March 21.—The University of Michigan won the inter-collegiate debate from the University of Wisconsin last night on the question: "A federal vs. a state income tax." Michigan argued for a federal income tax.

A DECISION

Miners Awarded an Increase by Coal Strike Commission.

THEIR REPORT MADE PUBLIC

An Increase of 10 Per Cent In Most Instances—Shorter Hours For Some—Refused to Touch Question of Union Recognition.

Washington, March 21.—The report of the commission appointed by the president last October to investigate the anthracite coal strike was made public today. The report is dated March 18 and is signed by all the members of the commission. The report is to be illustrated, and it will be accompanied by the testimony taken by the commission, but thus far only the report proper has been printed. This alone covers 87 pages of printed matter. In brief, the commission recommends a general increase of wages, amounting in most instances to 10 per cent; some decrease of time; the settlement of all disputes by arbitration; fixes a minimum wage and a sliding scale; provides against discrimination of persons by either the mine owners or the miners on account of membership or non-membership in a labor union, and provides that the awards shall continue in force until March 31, 1906. The commission discussed to some extent the matter of recognition or non-recognition of the miners' union, but declined to make any award on this matter.

1. That an increase of 10 per cent over and above the rates paid in the month of April, 1902, be paid to all contract miners for cutting coal, yardage and other work for which standard rates or allowances existed at that time, from and after Nov. 1, 1902, and during the life of this award. The amount of increase under the award due for work done between Nov. 1, 1902, and April 1, 1903, to be paid on or before June 1, 1903.

2. That engineers who are employed in hoisting water shall have an increase of 10 per cent on their earnings between Nov. 1, 1902, and April 1, 1903, to be paid on or before June 1, 1903; and from and after April 1, 1903, and during the life of the award they shall have eight-hour shifts, with the same pay which was effective in April, 1902, and where they are now working eight-hour shifts, the eight-hour shifts shall be continued and these engineers shall have an increase of 10 per cent on the wages which were effective in the several positions in April, 1902.

Hoisting engineers and other engineers and pumpmen, other than those employed in hoisting water, who are employed in positions which are manned continuously, shall have an increase of 10 per cent on their earnings between Nov. 1, 1902, and April 1, 1903, to be paid on or before June 1, 1903, and from and after April 1, 1903, and during the life of the award they shall have an increase of 5 per cent on the rates of wages which were effective in the several positions in April, 1902, and in addition they shall be relieved from duty on Sundays, without loss of pay, by a man provided by the employer to relieve them during the hours of the day shift.

That firemen shall have an increase of 10 per cent on their earnings between November, 1902, and April 1, 1903, to be paid on or before June 1, 1903, and from and after April 1, 1903, and during the life of the award, they shall have eight-hour shifts, with the same wages per day, week or month as were paid in each position in April, 1902, all employes or company men, other than those for whom the commission makes special awards shall be paid an increase of 10 per cent on their earnings between Nov. 1, 1902, and April 1, 1903, to be paid on or before June 1, 1903, and from and after April 1, 1903, and during the life of the award, they shall be paid on the basis of a nine-hour day, receiving therefor the same wages as were paid in April, 1902, for a ten-hour day. Overtime in excess of nine hours in any day to be paid at a proportional rate per hour.

3. During the life of this award the present methods of payment for coal mined shall be adhered to unless changed by mutual agreement.

The commission provides for the settlement of all controversies, including those made in these awards, by the establishment of a board of six persons.

Lockouts or strikes are forbidden pending the settlement of any matter taken up by this board.

Mine cars shall be distributed among workmen equally, and miners shall not limit the output.

A sliding scale is provided in article 8. The wages in the award shall be the basis of and the minimum under the sliding scale.

9. No person shall be refused employment or in any way discriminated against on account of membership or non-membership in any labor organization; and there shall be no discrimination against, or interference with, any employe who is not a member of any labor organization by members of such organization.

The commission in its reports reviews all sides of the mine question, dwelling to considerable length on the hazardous work of the miner.

They also find that the social conditions in the mining communities are good, and they fail to find that the wages are so low among the miners as necessarily to force them to put their small children to work. The commission also find that the average daily rate of earnings in the anthracite regions does not compare unfavorably with that in other industries. On the subject of recognition of the mine-workers' union, the commission say that they do not consider that this subject is within the scope of the jurisdiction conferred on them.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

THE NEWCOMER AT PICKVILLE

[Original.]

There is a flutter among the men of the mining town facetiously dubbed Pickville. Since the place has emerged from the grub (camp) into the butterfly (town) there have been but three women within its corporate limits, and they all married. Now comes a young woman styling herself Molly Grifton and sets up a small store. Mining supply dealers and gamblers are among the eligible men in Pickville, besides a young man, Arthur Huggins, in consumption, who came to save his life and to save souls, though he has neither church nor salary. The day after Molly Grifton's appearance every bachelor in the town was agog as to who would draw the prize, for it was not for a moment supposed that any good looking young woman would remain long in such a community without being appropriated. The question was sifted like an algebraic problem. The parson was not considered at all; the mine owners had wives in the east; the merchants were none of them proficient with the gun; the miners were too busy to look after their interests. This left the gamblers to fight it out among themselves.

The most dreaded among the gamblers was Fox Armstrong, and when he was observed to stop at Molly Grifton's store and buy up the first edition of the stock, cleaning out the shelves entirely, the rest of the profession concluded to keep at a safe distance. But one man in Pickville had the audacity to buck against Fox Armstrong, and he was a young prospector named Stephen Bartlett. Stephen was the only man in town who seemed to find favor with the lady, and, though he had not the means of wooing by trade, as in the case of Armstrong, the scale was turned in his favor by his manly and honest bearing, his cheerful disposition and certain ingenuous traits which rendered him attractive to women. He was warned by his friends that as he valued his life he should refrain from any attention to Miss Molly.

As a firecracker has been known to kindle a city, so a meek and lowly man started the shooting that was bound in time to take place on account of Molly Grifton. Fox Armstrong one night ceased dealing faro at 11:30 o'clock on account of an indisposition, concluding that he would go to his room and turn in for the night early. Passing Molly Grifton's store, he was surprised, though all was dark within, to see the door standing ajar. Thinking that some one might be appropriating Molly's belongings and that he might win credit with her by capturing the thief, he sidled up to the door and listened. Low voices came from the room behind the store where Molly lived, the one a woman's, the other a man's. Armstrong at once assumed that his rival Bartlett was stealing a march upon him and got his revolver in position to handle readily at the exit of the intruder upon what he considered or wished to consider his own domain. Presently the two inside advanced to the shop.

"Come," said the girl; "take it. You are paining me by refusing."

"Do you suppose I could live a moment among these men if they knew you were furnishing me with money?"

"But they don't know it."

"Very well; I will take this. Next week I am going to work with a pick and shovel."

"You will do no such thing."

There was the sound of a kiss, and the man stepped into the street.

Great heavens! It was the parson!

Unconscious of being observed—for Armstrong occupied a position where he could not be seen—Arthur Huggins wended his way toward his room. Armstrong followed him and when in the center of a bridge across the gulch accosted him:

"You white livered hypocrite"— he was beginning, but paused. A step was heard on the far end of the bridge, and in a few moments Stephen Bartlett came up and was recognized under the starlight.

"Parson Huggins and Fox Armstrong together here at this time of night! What does it mean?"

"That he has been skulking with Molly Grifton, which I don't permit."

"He has as good a right as you anyway," said Stephen.

"You give me great joy in taking his part," sneered Armstrong. "I can't kill a man with a woman's soul in him, but I can take care of"—

The words were never finished. Had he not had something of the contempt for Bartlett that he had for the parson he would have fired first and talked afterward. Stephen knew full well that firing, and quick firing, was essential or he would be a dead man. Armstrong dropped.

Molly Grifton heard the shot and, fearing that Huggins might have been waylaid, rushed upon the bridge.

"Stephen! Arthur! What does it mean?"

"That dog," said Stephen, "assumes sole right to you. I have maintained that Parson Huggins or any man you choose has an equal right."

"This is all my fault," cried Huggins bitterly as Molly bent over the wounded gambler to assist him. "Molly is my sister. I came here to recover my health. Having no means, I was about to return when she came out to help me. Knowing that this community would not respect me for being helped by a woman, she took another name and concealed our relationship."

The next day the town of Pickville was startled with the news that Stephen Bartlett had downed Fox Armstrong and was going to marry Molly. The rest of the story was not divulged.

SARAH PARKE TRIMMINGHAM.

Browning's Goose.

In her reminiscences Henriette Cockran relates an amusing anecdote of Robert Browning. She relates that as she sat in the drawing room of her London house one afternoon she happened to look out of the back window. "And there," she says, "I saw Mr. Browning nursing a goose, absolutely carrying it in his arms. The poet came into the hall with the goose. I laughed, remarking that it was a queer kind of pet. 'It is so clever and affectionate,' answered Mr. Browning. 'It is not well, so I am looking after it. It follows me about just like a dog.'"

Reduced Assessments.

"Old Crœsus is a mighty clever fellow."

"How is that?"

"Why, just before the assessor gets to him he always manages to have a lot of stuff printed to the effect that he has been giving several millions to charitable and educational institutions. That makes his assessment schedule look more plausible."—Chicago Post.

Pains in the Back

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important is a healthy action of these organs.

They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and despondency.

"I had pains in my back, could not sleep and when I got up in the morning felt worse than the night before. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and now I can sleep and get up feeling rested and able to do my work. I attribute my cure entirely to Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. J. N. PERRY, care H. S. WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, March 23, 1903.

The anthracite coal strike commission has made its awards and the president has caused them to be made public. By the terms of the agreement entered into between the operators and the miners these awards stand until the 31st of March, 1906, and, therefore, danger of another coal famine is averted for that period. By the decision of the commission the miners will receive a general 10 per cent. increase in wages beginning with April of last year and continuing thoughout the period. Moreover, if the average wholesale price of coal, pea size, goes above $4.50 per ton, the miners are to receive an increase of wages amounting to 1 per cent. for each 5 cents increase. Men working 9 hours are, also, to be paid on a 10 hour basis. A "conciliatory joint committee" is provided for in each mining district. It will be composed of three members appointed by the operators and three appointed by the miners and to it shall be referred all differences, while in the event that an agreement cannot be reached, a seventh, who shall cast the deciding vote, shall be called in. The miners are allowed all the check weighers they may demand, but they are to pay them themselves. The operators are required to pay a commissioner who shall be appointed by a circuit judge and whose duty it shall be to determine the average wholesale price of coal. Among the general recommendations of the commission are one recommending that the custom of employing special police shall be abolished and one urging that the existing child labor laws be enforced.

In view of the ratification of the Panama canal treaty, the engineers are already figuring on the force that will be required to construct the canal. It is said that not less than 20,000 will be employed and at times this force may be doubled. There are now 1,000 men at work under the French company and every foot of the canal has been surveyed and ground broken. Two hospitals, fully equipped, are now maintained and doubtless will be during the entire construction of the canal. Assuming that no legal obstacles present themselves, it is not believed that the actual work of construction will begin before the fall of 1904. American skilled labor and possibly some of the experienced French engineers will be employed, but only negroes and preferably those who have been acclimated will be hired for the common labor.

The president has expressed himself as sorely disappointed at the postponement of actual reciprocity with Cuba for practically a year and is seriously contemplating calling congress in extra session about November 15, with a view to getting the Cuban legislation disposed of before the volume of legislation inevitable at the beginning of a regular session. Mr. Roosevelt is also disappointed at the failure of the senate to act on the nominations of William Michael Byrne as United States attorney for Delaware and of Dr. Crum, the negro named for collector of the port of Charleston, S. C. Both of these nominations were sent in at the regular session and both were unfavorably reported by the committees to which they were referred. Both were sent in during the special session and the first was unfavorably reported by the judiciary committee but the commerce committee refused to meet to consider the latter. The president has committed himself to the appointment of these two men unless formally turned down by the senate, and he desired a vote of that body but failed to secure one. He has now made both appointments as recess nominations and the men will take office.

The president will go west on April 1, and hopes to secure, in the wilds of the Yellowstone Park, an absolute respite from all official cares and worries. He will take newspapermen on his special train but has requested that when he enters the park they remain outside and permit him the two weeks undisturbed and unwatched vacation of which he feels himself in need. The proposed trip is a far reaching one. From the Yellowstone, Mr. Roosevelt will return to Saint Louis and be present at the dedicatory exercises of the Saint Louis Exposition and will then go to the Pacific coast practically the entire length of which he will traverse and on Decoration day expects to deliver an address at Cheyenne, Wyoming. From there he will journey towards Washington making numerous stops and reaching here June 5th.

Already the President is worried over what appears to be a serious blunder made by his friends with regard to his visit to Chicago. The date set for that visit is April 2 and on April 5 will occur the municipal election. For some, thus far unexplained, reason the Mayor of Chicago, who is a candidate for reelection was not invited to be chairman of the reception committee and, although the President understood that his reception was to be entirely nonpartisan, it now transpires that only republicans have been invited to participate in his reception. The democratic mayor has attacked the President on the ground that he is coming to Chicago to help elect a republican mayor, but the President has insisted on the Mayor's being invited to participate in all the ceremonies attending his visit.

A somewhat sensational report has just been received at the War Department urging upon the Government the importance of increasing the strategic strength of the American Legation at Pekin. While the report contains nothing which indicates danger of an immediate uprising it states that in the event of such a catastrophe the Americans would be wholly unprotected, there being no armament at the Legation, aside from the small arms of the Guard, but two antiquated guns valuable only as ornamental relics. The American military officers say that Germany and other countries have not only inclosed their legations with stout steel fences capable of keeping at bay a mob armed with the usual weapons but they have erected on the wall of the city, against which all the the compounds abut, block houses from which a long and effective defense can be maintained. As there are many men, women and children who would be obliged to take refuge in the legation in the event of an uprising, the military authorities urge the advisability of Americans being authorized to take similar precautions.

Making Them All One.

An elderly minister is fond of telling of a "break" he once made at a double wedding of two sisters. It was arranged that the two couples should be married with one ceremony, the two brides responding at the same time and the two bridegrooms doing the same. There had not been any previous rehearsal, as the minister had come a long distance and had reached the church but a few minutes before the time for the ceremony.

All went well until it came time for the minister to say, "And now I pronounce you man and wife."

It suddenly became obvious to the minister that the usual formula would not do in the case of two men and two wives, and he could not think of any way of making "man" and "wife" plural in the sentence. In his desperation and confusion he lifted his hands and said solemnly:

"And now I pronounce you, one and all, husband and wife!"

The latest scheme to get even with the perpetual pencil borrower has been invented by an ingenous clerk. It consists of a pencil with a black rubber tip that looks like lead. A teacher in a school not far away is said to have been considerably annoyed by the boys climbing the stairs and wheezing as though exhausted. She made up her mind to stop it, and after all had seated themselves she said: "You boys are making altogether too much fuss about climbing those stairs. Hereafter you may leave your puffs and pants down stairs." The boys all snickered and she doesn't know yet what tickled them.—Leslie Local Republican.

More than 50 girls are studying scientific farming in the Minnesota college of Agriculture. The course they take includes botany, chemistry, physics and geology, requiring in the first two years two terms of each. They pay special attention to cooking, laundering, household economics, furnishing houses and social culture. They learn to plan buildings and to lay out grounds. By this means it is hoped that farmers can be provided with wives who will know enough about making life in the country attractive to keep the boys from emigrating to towns and cities.—Ex.

How the schoolboy on these bright springlike days likes to stand on the bridge and watch the river as it flows by. Funny how a spring sun will effect the average boy. Visions of mullets, suckers, red horse, an occasional bass or pickeral floats through his mind, and off in the distance the base ball diamond looms up like a bewitching phantom. But he wakes up, sighs, thinks how far away the end of June is, and wanders back to his studies.

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

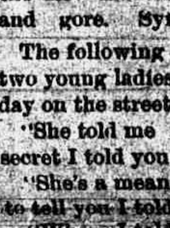
Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.



We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Sam Young, of Ogden, tells a good traveling man story. A large, good looking fellow went to the hotel and leaving his gold-handled umbrella sitting by the clerk's desk, went across the street to see a customer for a few moments. Before he went he wrote the following card and tied it to the umbrella handle:

"I weigh 200 pounds, can run a mile in five minutes, and will be back in two minutes."

He hadn't any more than disappeared out of the front door when another fellow read the card, scratched out the writing, and on the other side penned the following:

"I weight 105 pounds, can run a mile in three minutes and am not coming back at all."

He took the umbrella, left the card and skipped.

BASE BALL MEETING

Was Held in the Council Building

LAST EVENING.

The Old Board of Directors were Elected and Preparations Made for the Season of 1903.

A meeting of the Base Ball Association was held in the council building last evening to formulate plans and prepare for base ball during the season of 1903. The old board of directors, consisting of J. L. Anderson, B. J. Garlinghouse, E. N. Satterthwaite, J. J. Freeman and J. H. Smith, were re-elected and the number on the board increased to seven. R. A. Hessen and H. R. Brewer were elected as the new members. The directors will meet in a day or two and elect officers.

It was unanimously expressed by the members of the association that, in securing players, the directors secure a team of players equal to or better than the team of last season, who were excelled by none in the state. The membership of the Association was also increased to 35 members.

Since the close of the season of 1902, about $100 has been laid out in regrading the ball grounds and, without doubt, Tecumseh will have the finest ball park in Michigan this season. Now let the citizens come to the front and assist the Association liberally, and there will be no question about the success of the Tecumseh base ball club this season.

A Genuine Surprise.

Not often is a surprise so planned that the surprisers are surprised as at the surprise at Mr. and Mrs. Titus' Friday night. Four Auxiliary ladies, Mrs. Belding, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Hanley and Mrs. Sweet, held a secret session and when they came forth they issued invitations to the G. A. R. and their wives for a surprise at Mr. and Mrs. VanTyne's all to meet at Mr. Titus' at seven o'clock.

The company were already to take up the march at the signal from our captain, Mrs. Thompson. Then to our surprise in walked Mr. and Mrs. VanTyne, wishing all "Good evening, glad to see you, take off your things and make yourselves at home. This is a surprise on Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Titus," and such looks of consternation and surprise only a camera could reveal, till the joke was discovered, then came forth a regular army yell. Mrs. Austin, the florist who had been invited, very thoughtfully took a potted hyacinth for Mrs. VanTyne, but when the program was changed she made her obeisance and presented it to Mrs. Thompson, who was so surprised and overcome she did not know whether she took a flower or a gentleman's hat.

Although the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Titus, were terribly shocked at the reverses of the program, they kept their presence of mind and came forward cheerfully to assist those who had swooned and in every way possible make the quarantined ones comfortable and happy. When each patient had received care and attention the nurses, Marsden and Sweet, found thirty-five had recovered sufficiently to partake of hot coffee and an abundance of other good things. Then came songs of cheer and an experience meeting and all too soon came the signal "lights out."

And now the board of health is requested to put their sign of contagious diseases on the house of Mr. and Mrs. Titus, that being the home of Mrs. Thompson, on whom the deed was perpetrated and who has long been connected with the afflicted ones and has had the blue card attached to several other residences.

"Joshua Simpkins."

A rural comedy drama, which has been presented continuously for several seasons on the road, will play an engagement in this city March 30, at the New Bradley. The comedy has been here before, those who remember it have no hesitancy in saying that it furnished a very pleasant evening's enjoyment. "Joshua Simpkins" is a comedy drama, well acted by a company said to possess more than ordinary merit, in addition to which several pleasing specialties are introduced. A complete orchestra composed of professional musicians discourse incidental music, which assists to make the play the success it is. This feature is claimed by the management to be gilt edged and, it is said, far exceeds the usual orchestra by theatrical companies.

Their fine band is said to possess more than ordinary ability to render classical and stirring music. The band will give a parade about noon on the day of the engagement. The street parades of all shows are usually an index to their resources. The parade ought to tell something of the worth of "Joshua Simpkins."

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound and well." Everybody ought to know it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Miller-Bryan Stock Co.

The above company opened a three nights' stand here last week and presented three excellent bills. The cast was strong, the specialties such as seen only at the best theatricals and every member of the company a perfect lady and gentleman. Although they did not receive the patronage they deserved, they would, without a doubt, play to crowded houses, if Tecumseh is given the pleasure of greeting them on a return visit.

SHOOTING AFFAIR

Near Britton Last Wednesday

CAUSED MUCH EXCITEMENT.

Frank Ward, while in a Drunken Stupor Shot Mrs. Thomas Wilson in the Hip. Mrs. Wilson is a Half Sister of Mrs. Joseph Emery, of this Place.

Frank Ward, who has been an employe on the Thomas Wilson farm near Britton, for the past two years, caused quite a little excitement in their neighborhood last Tuesday evening.

Ward had been to Britton in the afternoon and had consumed considerable liquor. During his absence Mr. Wilson went to Milan to take a degree in the Odd Fellow lodge that evening. On returning home Ward went to the house, procured a shot gun and threatened to take his own life. This frightened Mrs. Wilson and she started on a run to her nearest neighbor's, Ed Auten's, half a mile away. Ward chased her threatening to shoot her and when about half way to the Auten home he fired the shot which took effect in the fleshy portion of the thigh.

After Mrs. Wilson was shot she continued her journey to the Auten house and on entering fell to the floor and lay exhausted from the loss of blood.

Deputy Sheriff William Britton and Dr. Patton were soon on the scene. Sheriff Britton took Ward to Adrian on the midnight Wabash train and placed him in the county jail where he is awaiting the outcome of the wound he inflicted on his victim. Mrs. Wilson is reported not as well and there are fears now that the shot will terminate fatally.

Sheriff Shepherd was at Britton Friday and made an investigation into the affair. He found enough evidence to justify him in making a complaint against Ward, which he expects to do some time this week. Sheriff Shepherd says that the community seems to be afraid of Ward, and none of them will make complaint. So he will have to do it himself. He is satisfied that Mrs. Wilson is an excellent woman and cannot understand why everybody there should be afraid of Ward. It is a mysterious case and will need more investigation.

In the Hillsdale court a divorce was granted Morell C. Northrup from Silence Northrup. It is the first time on record that a man who had silence with him all the time so far as his better half was concerned, has applied for a divorce.

A HELPING HAND

Is Gladly Extended by a Tecumseh Citizen.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Tecumseh prepared to tell their experience of the public good. Testimony from such a source is the best of evidence, and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement.

Mrs. J. H. Welch, who resides in the south western section of Tecumseh, says: "I wish to express my gratitude for the benefit derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. My back troubled me for a long time with a constant dull aching pain across my loins and when stooping or exerting myself it became very sharp. If I took cold it always settled in my kidneys and in the morning I was so lame and stiff that I could hardly attend to my work. I used several simple household remedies but they did not bring relief. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended and spoken of so highly I concluded to test their merits and got a box at C. A. Wright's drug store. They took right hold of the cause and in a short time the pain in my back was a thing of the past. I can now straighten after bending or stooping without any inconvenience. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a wonderful remedy."

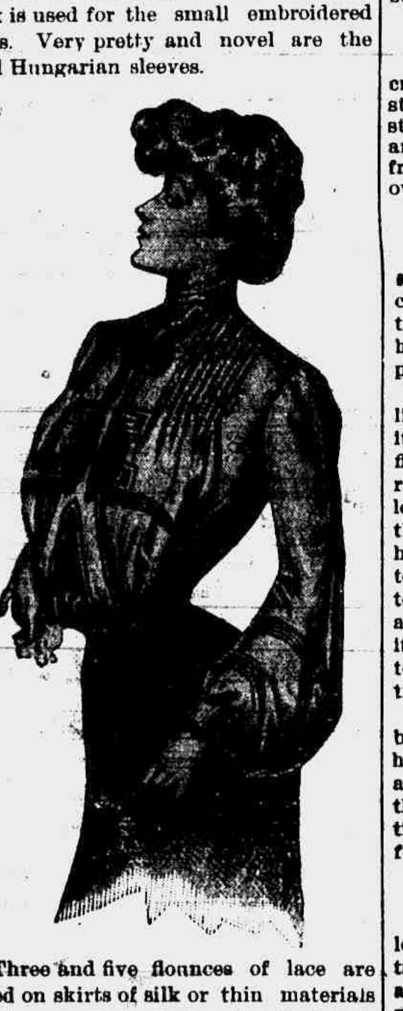
LATEST FASHION NOTES.

Crepe de Chine Waist.

Every woman is an admirer of pretty corsage, which is so useful for afternoon wear in the house or for an afternoon at the matinee, and the model here shown is very attractive. It is made of the new shade of scarlet crepe de Chine, and its oddity ought to please every one. Vertical and horizontal tucks are stitched with Corticelli silk, and Filo silk is used for the small embroidered tabs. Very pretty and novel are the full Hungarian sleeves.



Three and five flounces of lace are used on skirts of silk or thin materials with good effect, giving the fluffy effect around the feet, which is still the end to be obtained. The pleated and tucked skirts which are always close fitting around the hips must flare out at the bottom. Short skirts are de regle for all walking and traveling costumes, the length just clearing the ground being the most becoming as a rule.

DOINGS AT LANSING.

House Ground Out a Few Bills—No Quorum in the Senate.

Lansing, Mich., March 21.—The Colby-Powell-Stone primary election substitute bill was reported out Friday morning in the house and made a special order for consideration on Thursday afternoon next. It will be very close to the first of April before it gets over to the senate. The bill has been amended so as to provide for separate party ballots and to eliminate the clause supposed to prevent candidates for namination from spending more than half the salary of the office they seek.

The house worked a few bills off the general order in committee of the whole at Friday's week-end session, among them one introduced by Representative Duncan for the retail jewelers of Detroit, requiring all gold and silver goods and all jewels to be stamped by the manufacturers so as to show their actual value. The measure is designed to do away with the paste diamond and restrict the cheap jewelry business.

Representative Dennis' bill, which came from the auditor-general's department, says a certificate of error cannot be issued against any land property later than five years after conveyance has been made to the party in possession. This would prevent many a fight now brought up on the question of titles. This measure was also agreed to. A bill of Representative Wade, placing the claims of mental laborers on the same plane as manual laborers in the matter of collecting, and a bill of Representative Colby straightening out a tangle in the statute so as to make all parts of the factory inspection law operative, were also agreed to.

The senate had no quorum for the morning session. Both houses meet again Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock.

A war with the railroads is brewing in the upper peninsula, a war in which the people of the north country appear to be fast flocking to the firing line. The struggle is for a reduction of passenger rates on steam roads from 4 cents to 3 cents a mile. It is not so much a reduction of passenger rates, it seems, which the roads fear as the possibility of an assault on their fortune-getting freight schedule.

Aeronaut a Lunatic.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 21.—The mother of Morris Goldman, the aeronaut, has petitioned the probate court that he be placed under guardianship. He is about 35 years old and has been making balloon ascensions and parachute drops. His mother claims he is not right mentally and gets no pay for his performances, but does it for the excitement.

Fought Over Barrel of Pork.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 21.—Trouble over a barrel of pork resulted in a bitter fight between two Baroda women, and Mrs. Gustav Troband, a mormon woman 32 years old, lies in her home with several horrible wounds in her head, which may prove fatal. The wounds were inflicted by Mrs. Troband's sister-in-law, Mrs. William Gast, aged 45, who used a heavy stick of stovewood for a weapon.

Both Feet Cut Off.

Cadillac, Mich., March 21.—While crossing the G. R. & I. tracks near the station last night, William Sloan was struck by the incoming passenger train and knocked over upon a siding in front of the switch engine, which ran over him, cutting off both feet.

Lengthening a Bee's Tongue.

Man is often blamed for driving to extinction many sorts of beautiful creatures, but the account is far more than balanced by the amount of good he has done for those animals which proved useful and could be tamed.

Take the case of the bee. The bee lives by its tongue, with which organ it is able to extract the honey from flowers. Now, a bee's tongue is naturally about a twenty-fifth of an inch long. Clever beekeepers, by keeping only those bees with naturally long tongues, have succeeded in lengthening the tongues of a number of bee colonies to the extent of another hundredth of an inch. It does not sound much, but it enables those insects to do a quarter as much work again in the same time.

Man has done more than this for bees. He has given them ready made homes, where they are safe from wasps and other enemies; frames for making their combs without using large quantities of wax for outside walls, and food during flowerless weather.

Saving the Money.

In a certain parish in Scotland collectors were going round soliciting contributions for the kirk. On coming to a wretched little hovel they hesitated whether or not to enter, but finally decided to "try their luck." A hale old man greeted them, and to him they explained their errand, but he really had nothing to give them, he said.

"Can't yo gi'e up your whisky?" one of the visitors asked. "No," he said, "I don't drink 'whusky.'" Perhaps then he could forego the pleasures of snuff. No, he didn't use snuff.

The collectors prepared to move on. "Stop a bit!" cried the old fellow. "I pay Sandy, the barber, twopence every Saturday night for shaving me. Tell the meenister he can have the twopence if he'll come and shave me himself!"

The Student's Prayer.

There was long ago a divinity hall presided over by a most amiable and dignified professor. On certain days the senior students opened the proceedings of the day with prayer. One morning a raw youth from a remote region performed this duty, and it was a memorable occasion. None who were present can forget how the venerable professor turned and gazed on the untutored lad, who prayed for him as follows: "Lord, have mercy on our professor, for he is weak and ignorant. Strengthen his feeble hands, confirm his tottering knees, and grant that he may go out and in before us like the he goat before the flock."—"Twenty-five Years of St. Andrews."

Reading.

Were I to pray for a taste which should stand me in stead under every variety of circumstance and be a source of happiness and cheerfulness to me during life and a shield against ills, however things might go amiss and the world frown upon me, it would be a taste for reading.—Sir John Herschel.

Frank Morginson arrived here from Laporte, Ind. Saturday to take a position as boss finisher in the woolen mill.

E. L. Parker and James Ferrick, who have been employed with the Woolen Mill Mfg. company, the former as superintendent and the latter as boss finisher, resigned their duties Saturday to accept positions in the same work in the South Bend woolen mills. The employers desiring to show to them their appreciation of their kindness, congregated in the finishing room at the noon hour and presented Mr. Parker with a diamond ring and Mr. Ferrick with a handsome gold watch chain. The gentlemen have served faithfully the Woolen Mill Co. here and have hosts of friends who wish them prosperity in South Bend.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

NEW MICHIGAN CONCERNS.

Week's List of Corporations Filing Articles at Lansing.

Lansing, Mich., March 23.—The following corporations filed articles of association with the secretary of state during the past week: Waukegan Fence & Supply Co., Holly, $25,000; Monarch Drug Co., West Bay City, $5,000; Hickox, Mull & Hill Co., Detroit, $300,000; Cement Brick Co., Port Huron, $40,000; Gibson Paper Co., Kalamazoo, $60,000; Lansing Sanitary Milk Co., Lansing, $6,000; Aetna Portland Cement Co., Fenton, $5,000; Inter-State Amusement Co., Kalamazoo, $5,000; North American Investment Co., Detroit and Dover, Del., $150,000.

Non-capitalized Corporations.—German Evangelical Lutheran St. Petri Congregation U. A. C., Manistee; Home Benevolent association, Petoskey.

The following corporations filed notice of increase of capital stock: Stickley Bros. Co., Grand Rapids, from $100,000 to $225,000; Howell & Spaulding Co., Caro, from $14,000 to $25,000; Borculo Creamery Co., Borculo, from $2,000 to $3,200; W. C. Clark Coal Co., Detroit, from $16,000 to $30,000.

ATTACKED MARRIAGE LAWS.

Pastor in Benton Harbor Roasts St. Joe Officers.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 23.—W. L. Cogshall, pastor of the Methodist church at Benton Harbor, made an attack on the marriage laws of this state Sunday morning and scored the officers at St. Joseph who issue licenses and keep the county offices open on Sunday. He read the proposed new marriage bill and asked a vote of the congregation as to whether the law should be amended or not. The vote was unanimously in favor of amendment. Mr. Cogshall linked the marriage business with Sunday excursions and said people are becoming tired of this business and are bound to have reform sooner or later.

The ministers who are opposed to the business as conducted here never refuse to perform ceremonies on Sunday, it is said. St. Joseph church people, it is claimed, are in favor of leaving the marriage bill as it is.

Must Obey the Laws.

Port Huron, Mich., March 23.—The hotels, clubs and saloons of the St. Clair Flats will hereafter comply with the law regarding the sale of intoxicating liquors or give up the business of supplying liquid refreshments to summer visitors at that favorite resort. Such is the order sent out by Burt D. Cady, prosecuting attorney of St. Clair county. Each one of the dealers in "booze" has received a letter to that effect. It states that on May 1 of this season and every season hereafter, so long as Mr. Cady holds office, they will be compelled to pay the treasurer of St. Clair county $500, one-half of which, by the way, goes to the township of Clay and the other half to the county, file a bond with the town clerk, and in fact comply with all the provisions of the statute.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, March 23.—Michigan pensions granted Saturday: Original—E. A. Salisbury, Shepherds, $6; Levi Bower, Ionia, $10; Henry G. O'Houhard, Detroit, $6; John H. Heltzel, Moore's Junction, $6. Increased—William Demper, Saranac, $14; Lester A. Babcock, Grand Rapids, $12; Thomas M. Stroud, Horton Bay, $8; Joseph Johnson, Croswell, $8; John Hoffman, Morenci, $8; James Montgomery, Benzonia, $8. Widows—Jennie N. Weatherwax, Somerset Center, $8; Clarissa A. Chandler, Mason, $12; — Mayfield, Lansing, $12; Sarah S. Myers, Detroit, $12; Mary Williams, Monroe, $12.

To Convene in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., March 23.—The ninth annual convention of the National Municipal league will be held in this city on April 22 to 24 inclusive, at the Hotel Cadillac, where the day sessions will take place in the Turkish room. Philharmonic hall will be the scene of the evening meetings. Delegates from all the large cities in the east and the middle west have signified their intention of being present. By invitation of President Angell of the University of Michigan, one session will be held at Ann Arbor.

Again Becomes a Convict.

Detroit, Mich., March 23.—Jeremiah Guinan was sent to Jackson state prison for four and a half years Saturday by Judge Phelan. He was convicted of the theft of $27 worth of goods from a show case, the specific charge being breaking and entering. Since pardoned by the late Governor Pingree from Jackson, where he was serving time for robbery from a bank, Guinan has been arrested several times.

Heavy Sentence For Robbery.

Detroit, Mich., March 23.—Elmer Thompson, convicted of robbery, was Saturday sentenced by Judge Phelan to serve fifteen years in the Detroit house of correction. The particular offense of which he was convicted was the robbery of Fred Buck's saloon. He entered at night and, at the point of a revolver, held up those present while a companion tapped the till.

Snow in Missouri.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 23.—The heaviest snowstorm of the year began here Sunday and railway traffic is greatly impeded. Telegraph and telephone wires are crippled today. The temperature has been falling slowly and the snow covers the northern part of the state to a depth of from six inches to twelve inches.

Seek Pardon For MacLeod.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 23.—President Roosevelt will be asked to pardon Stilson V. MacLeod, who is serving a two years' sentence in the house of correction at Detroit. MacLeod pleaded guilty to a violation of the banking laws growing out of the water scandal here and his sentence is nearly half served.

Spanish Naval Estimates.

Madrid, March 23.—The minister of marine has completed the naval budget. The estimates provide for an increased expenditure of $5,000,000.

Dam Is Giving Way.

Niles, Mich., March 21.—Great consternation prevails at Buchanan as a result of the Chapin dam in the St Joseph river there dropping about a foot on the west side. The high water has caused a break, and it is expected the dam will go out at any minute. The dam cost Charles A. Chapin about $100,000, and he has erected a $250,000 electrical powerhouse to transmit power to Notre Dame, Ind. If the dam goes out his loss will be great. If the water drops and the dam is saved an immense sum will have to be expended in restoring it to its former strength.

Car-Pushing Question Hangs Fire.

Bay City, Mich., March 21.—The joint scale committee appointed by the operators and miners in conference here is still at work endeavoring to settle the car-pushing and differential questions. Every other matter in dispute has been settled, including an advance of 12½ per cent in wages, but the two matters named are likely to cause a serious break. It is expected the committee will report back to the conference today that it is unable to agree and that there will be an immediate adjournment, with the questions still unsettled.

A Quick Witted Pastor.

In Germany a country preacher was preaching a sermon when suddenly he lost the thread of his discourse, and, do what he would, he could not find it again.

The congregation was greatly embarrassed and was wondering what the matter was when he startled it by exclaiming hurriedly, "Pardon me, my brethren, for pausing in my sermon, but it seems to me that I smell fire somewhere—and—and it might be well to see that it has not broken out in the church or in any of the nearby houses."

Before the words were all uttered the congregation was pouring out of the church, each family being anxious to make sure that its home was not on fire. It need hardly be said that the fire existed only in the pastor's imagination.

A Humorous Mixture.

In a Scotch church an old minister who was very deaf was also very anxious to introduce some new hymnbooks into the church and asked his precentor to give out the notice immediately after the sermon. The precentor, having a notice of his own, gave out that members of the congregation wishing to have their children baptized were to send their names into the vestry. The old minister, thinking that it was the notice about the hymnbooks, stood up and said, "And I wish to say, for the benefit of those who have not any, that they may be had in the vestry any afternoon, between the hours of 3 and 4—ordinary little ones at a shilling each, and special little ones, with red backs, at one and three."

Not an Occasion For Haste.

During the Sikh war the late Field Marshal Sir Neville Chamberlain, who then held the rank of colonel, called for volunteers to assist him in blowing up a bastion. Three or four responded, and the colonel led the little party close up to the point where the mine was to be fired. As soon as the explosives were in place and the fuse lighted the volunteers started to run in order to get out of the way of the explosion no less than to effect, as speedily as possible to retreat to the safety of the British lines. They had not gone a dozen yards before Chamberlain shouted: "Come back! There's to be no indecent haste, young men. We'll walk." And walk they did, while the fuse slowly sputtered down to the waiting powder.

Mark Twain's Cousin,

G. O. Clemens.

G. C. Clemens, of Topeka, Kan., the noted constitutional lawyer, who bears so striking a resemblance to Mark Twain, (Samuel B. Clemens) that he is frequently taken for the original Mark, is a man of deep intellect and wide experience. He is considered one of the foremost lawyers in this country. In a recent letter to the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Mr. Clemens says:

* * "Personal experience and observation have thoroughly satisfied me that Dr. Miles' Nervine contains true merit, and is excellent for what it is recommended."

Mr. Norman Waltrip, Sup. Pres. Bankers' Fraternal Society, Chicago, says:

"Dr. Miles' Pain Pills are invaluable for headache and all pain. I had been a great sufferer from headache until I learned of the efficacy of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. Now I always carry them and prevent recurring attacks by taking a pill when the symptoms first appear."

Mixed Eggs.

Professor Edwin Ray Lankester was sitting in his office in the Natural History museum, London, when he was visited by an elderly woman, evidently from the country, who carried a parcel which she handled with the most exaggerated care. She was in a state of great excitement and exclaimed:

"I've got two of 'em."

"Two of what?" inquired the professor.

"Two 'awks' eggs," replied the woman. "I'm told they're worth a thousand pounds apiece."

The professor, much interested, looked at the eggs. "These are not auks' eggs," he said.

"They are 'awks' eggs," said his visitor. "My son Joe found 'em."

A light dawned on the naturalist. "The kind of eggs which are so valuable," he remarked gently, "are the eggs of an extinct bird called the auk—a-u-k."

"Oh, hauk!" said the woman. "I'll pay out that 'Enry 'Obhouse as told me it was 'awks' eggs as was wanted."

And she went away.

A Clever Pickpocket.

In Paris two police officers recently got upon the track of a pickpocket. They surprised him in the act at the omnibus bureau and followed him in hot pursuit. He was a thin, poorly clad young fellow. In the Rue Rochechouart, however, he suddenly disappeared. Judging that he had slipped into one of the houses they set themselves to watch for his reappearance. The thief in the meantime had entered a bathing establishment, and after a refreshing bath entered the box of another bather and calmly clothed himself in the smart suit he found there, then passed proudly and peacefully out before the very eyes of his pursuers. The climax of humor came when the other bather, arrayed in the rags of the pickpocket, was grabbed by the officers of the law at the door and dragged off to the station house. With some difficulty the situation was explained; but the pickpocket is still laughing.

What is the Good of Using Protecto?

It is the great corn and vine vitaliser, and gives seed and young plants a taste and odor which absolutely repels crows, squirrels, cut worms and insects, for about five cents per acre. Read what a half dozen of hundreds of enthusiastic users say:—these are from leading farmers:

"It paid me big to use Protecto. I think it a good protection for the roots of corn from insects and it is a good fertilizer. I recommend Protecto to others and must continue its use."
JAS. LADSON, Paxton, Ind.

"I used Protecto on two different pieces and got a fine stand on both. One piece I watched carefully, where squirrels and insects were bad. I could not find a missing hill. On my east side I noticed where some had dug down to the seed and ate a little of it, went to the next and dug down to the grain and left it alone, and I could find no more. It convinced me that they did not like it and gave it up as bad medicine."
N. H. McPHERSON, Gosport, Ind.

"Cut worms cut my first tomato plants clean. On second crop I used Protecto and cut worms would not work where it was used. Protecto is a friend to farmers." ED. HUNT, Covington, Ind.

W. BUCKNER, Calvertville, Ind.

The same unequivocal testimony comes from all quarters. Every user of last year will have it this year. Write for our Protecto booklet and learn more about it. The one named below is the local agent for this county. All inquiries will be cheerfully answered and supplies in any quantity furnished on application to him.

A GRAND DIAMOND JUBILEE

Your sires and grand sires used Mexican Mustang Liniment because it healed their hurts and cured the ills of their domestic animals. What MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT did for mankind and brute kind 60 years ago it does to-day. It has always cured and always will cure any and everything that a good, honest liniment can cure.

All Sorts of Horse Flesh

are all subject to all sorts of Sprains, Bruises, Flesh Wounds and other ails. Most owners know that Mexican Mustang Liniment is the most effective horse medicine that ever penetrated flesh. It is the best investment an animal owner could put money into.

It soaks down through the muscles.

No liniment can cure unless it penetrates the fevered and swollen muscles right down to the roots of the trouble. MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT penetrates more thoroughly than anything that was ever created in a chemical laboratory. The deepest, most stubborn and most intense pain in man or beast can be reached and routed by the use of this good old time-tried liniment.

Cures the hurts of anything that walks.

If your horse has a stiff joint, a harness sore, a cut or bruise, MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT will cure it. If your cow has a hurt, a caked udder or sore teats it will cure it and restore her to health and usefulness. If your poultry has roup, frozen combs, rheumatism, scaly legs or any disease of the flesh or bones MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT will cure them. What it has done in thousands upon thousands of instances justifies these claims.

Two things needed in lameness.

What Lameness, Stiff Joints and other deep-seated ailments need more than anything else is MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. The next is plenty of rubbing. The rubbing works the liniment away in through the tired and sore muscles to where the pain begins and then the lameness disappears and the pain departs.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle. Sold everywhere.

FAITH IN PENNELL

Mrs. Burdick Maintains She Had Implicit Confidence.

HER CHILDREN ON THE STAND

She Has No Knowledge as to Who Killed Her Husband—Her Actions With Pennell Not Immoral—Pennell Did Not Have Duplicate Key.

Buffalo, March 25.—"Have you received any information as to who killed your husband?"

"No, sir."

"You swear you have no knowledge or information as to who killed him?"

"I do."

These questions were addressed to Mrs. Alice Hull Burdick Tuesday afternoon by District Attorney Coatsworth at the inquest into the death of her husband. The answers were given in a calm, clear voice. The questions came abruptly while the district attorney was drawing from Mrs. Burdick information about her relations with Arthur R. Pennell. She had denied that Pennell took her key to the front door of the Burdick home while they were in New York together and had duplicates made of it.

To complete the examination of everyone known to have been in the Burdick home on the night of Feb. 26, where Edwin Burdick was murdered, the district attorney, yesterday called to the stand the two youngest Burdick children, Carol and Alice, aged 12 and 10 years, respectively. The district attorney questioned the children closely about the events that occurred about their home the night before and the morning after the murder of their father. Their recollection of the happenings at the time of the tragedy was rather hazy, and "I don't remember" was usually the answer they gave when the district attorney pressed them closely on any point.

Mrs. Burdick's testimony covered the week in which Burdick was murdered, and the name of Arthur R. Pennell was constantly upon her lips. She trusted him implicitly in everything. The district attorney read a number of letters written to Mrs. Burdick by Pennell, in which he said life was not worth living without her and that death would not be unwelcome. She knew nothing of a document found in her safety deposit vault bonding Pennell to pay her $25,000 in the event of his being unable to marry her.

Although it was among Mrs. Burdick's private papers in the vault, she claimed to have been ignorant of its existence.

Mrs. Burdick declared that the last time she saw Pennell was on Tuesday before the murder. He left her that night in Atlantic City, arriving in Buffalo Wednesday.

Before leaving the stand Mrs. Burdick took occasion to say, in reply to questions from her attorney, that nothing improper or immoral had occurred between her and Pennell. At the same time she said her husband was fond of the society of other women, and for some reason not quite clear said that Mrs. Pennell was quite familiar with the dining-room and "den" in the Burdick house.

Negro Whipped in a Hospital.

Columbus, O., March 25.—The whipping post was resorted to at the smallpox hospital yesterday to maintain discipline. Hugh Murphy, a negro, suffering from a mild case of smallpox, attacked and badly wounded T. V. Flowers, another patient, with a fork. Dr. Rebell, superintendent of the hospital, decreed that Murphy should receive twenty-five lashes on his bare back, and the punishment was inflicted by the superintendent himself after the offender had been tied to a post by the attendants.

Reduce Price of Coal.

New York, March 25.—Coal will drop in price April 1 50 or 60 cents a ton. An announcement to this effect by the operators and by the principal retail dealers of New York is expected today or tomorrow. They want a lively trade this summer and will follow the annual custom of making a cut in price April 1. The indications are that the wholesale price at tidewater will be $4.40 a ton and the retail price $5.75.

Entrance Fee Raised.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 25.—On and after April 1, mine employes who desire to join the United Mineworkers will have to pay $10 as an initiation fee instead of $2, the present fee. This rule has been adopted by the three anthracite districts of United Mineworkers and applies to every local in the region. It is expected that nearly every mineworker will be enrolled in the union before March 31.

New Title For Luise.

Vienna, March 25.—It is learned from an authoritative source that the former Crown Princess Luisa will in future bear the official title of Princess Luise of Tuscany, with honors due a royal highness. Her father, as grand duke of Tuscany, has the prerogative of granting titles and has conferred this one upon his daughter with the consent of the emperor.

Plot to Slay the Czar.

Naples, March 25.—The police announce that a search of Russians just arrested at the Grand hotel here revealed documents proving the existence of a plot by Russian Nihilists to assassinate the czar during his visit to Italy.

Ladrones Driven Off.

Manila, March 25.—The town of Surigao, in the northeastern part of the island of Mindanao, which was captured Sunday by Ladrones, was relieved Tuesday. The American officials and foreigners were found to be safe.

ON NEGRO QUESTION

Senator Tillman Delivers Radical Speech in Detroit.

HE WAS HISSED AT TIMES

Declared That if Blacks Dominate More Bloodshed Will Result Than Took Place at the Time of the Civil War.

Detroit, Mich., March 25.—Wading knee-deep in metaphorical human gore and uttering torrents of blistering abuse and stentorious defiance into the upturned faces of 7,500 auditors, United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman of South Carolina gave the patrons of the People's Popular Course considerably more than their money's worth last night at the Light Guard armory. So acute did his attack on the north and on the negro become that a storm of hisses greeted his astonished ears, only to be followed by ringing cheers. He consigned his opponents to hell, and the manner of his remarkable delivery was such as to astound his listeners.

"They tell us that we should be governed by the majority vote. Then in South Carolina we would be governed by the negro. They talk of keeping the door of hope opened. You thought the negro was a white man with a black skin. You voted as you shot. If will mean that more blood will flow than flowed in the civil war if you persist in subjecting us to the domination of the blacks. We had three race problems. You decided that a good Indian was a dead one. You killed and butchered them. You shut out the Chinaman. Then came the African, caught wild in the jungles. He was pumped in by the Yankees of the north. The south fought for its conventions in such a manner as to make every man shut his mouth. If it was given to every man to be always right, you would have your papers made out for hell already.

"Had it been known by the soldiers who surrendered with Lee that it was your devilish intent to set up the negro over the white man we would have fought you till now. The tendency of the negro, physically and morally, is downward; while you educate his intellect you are preparing him for the gallows, not for the ballot.

"He was a black-lipped hewer of wood, a eunuch, in Africa, and he has remained one ever since. We propose to maintain the supremacy in spite of you, if you are crazy enough to persist in setting up negro government in the south.

"After the war you proceeded to set up a government for us. The remnants of Sherman's army of bummers and chicken thieves, carpet-baggers who remained in the south to—"

The fiery speaker was interrupted by a storm of hisses and was unable to proceed.

"Yes, bummers and chicken thieves—all hell won't make me take it back. This scum of Sherman's army remained in the south to steal."

The hisses drowned the speaker's voice again, and it looked for a moment as if there was to be trouble.

"I wonder if some of them have escaped the gallows and got in here," he roared defiantly, and the hard sneer tightened on his lips. "I come here to give you pro quid puo, to lecture for money. It is left to you to determine what you get out of it.

"Not having enough money to maintain this riot, this Saturnalia, they stole from the south and sold franchises and bought negro votes."

State Tax Report.

Lansing, Mich., March 25.—The annual report of the state tax commission, just out, shows a decrease in state taxes of $1,166,012 90 and an increase in all other taxes of $1,292,542 08, leaving a total net increase of $126,529 18. "There is not a township in the state," says the commission, "where the rate of taxation should be over 3 per cent of the assessed valuation." The attention of taxpayers is called to the fact that for every $1 88 paid for the support of the state, $14 67 is paid for local purposes. The commission caustically advises the American citizen to spend more time in the judicious selection of proper officials to administer the assessment and taxation laws and less in grumbling at the increase in the rate of taxation.

Detroit Bankers Banquet.

Detroit, Mich., March 25.—The annual banquet of the Bankers' club of Detroit, held at the Cadillac last night, was the most successful in the history of the organization. One hundred prominent bankers, with their invited guests, sat down at the tables. Among the number were bankers, trust officers and financiers from institutions not only in the City of the Straits, but from various cities in the lower peninsula.

Young Girl Fell Dead.

Port Huron, Mich., March 25.—While walking about Erie street Tuesday morning, Miss Florence Bowles, aged 19, of Yale, dropped dead. She had been attending a business college in this city and intended going home yesterday morning. She was perfectly well, apparently, when she arose and went to visit some friends before leaving.

Michigan Postmasters.

Washington, March 25.—Dora Delamere has been appointed postmistress at South Haven, Mich. Additional rural free delivery service has been ordered established at Battle Creek, Calhoun county, Mich., commencing May 1, with one carrier.

Asylum Attendant Went Insane.

Traverse City, Mich., March 25.—Virgil Cooper, an attendant at the asylum, suddenly became violently insane at his home Monday night and was with difficulty placed under restraint.

To Stop Hair-Cutting War.

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 26.—Meetings have been called for today for the freshmen and sophomore classes of the University of Michigan. It is believed the purpose is to stop the hair-cutting war, although both classes were out last night after scalps. A very conservative estimate gives fifteen scalped underclassmen up to date.

Fell Down and Smothered.

Cheboygan, Mich., March 26.—D. Thenninck, a Belgian laborer, while suffering from epilepsy, fell into a ditch face downward and was smothered. He was found by the family and carried home on a ladder by his wife and son. He leaves eight children.

HOLMES GOT RILED

Believes His Liquor License Bill Has Been Killed.

REFERRED TO JUDICIARY COM.

Wiley's Timber Bill Passed—Senator Smith's Bill For New Equalization of Taxes Killed—Other Bills Indorsed—List of Game Wardens.

Lansing, Mich., March 26.—The Holmes bill, to strengthen liquor dealers' bonds, came up as a "special order" in the house Wednesday. Representative Campbell, who is a lawyer, moved to amend by striking out the "summary hearing" provision for application when a new bond is required, apparently giving county treasurers judicial powers.

Representative Paddock moved that the bill be referred to the judiciary committee. This riled Representative Holmes, who said such a reference would mean the killing of the bill. He also asserted that good lawyers in Lansing had declared the bill constitutional.

On a viva voce vote the motion to refer was easily carried.

By a vote of 56 to 35, the house passed the bill submitted by Land Commissioner Wiley, authorizing the commissioner to sell the timber from state swamp, primary school and tax homestead lands, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the state board of agriculture, provided said lands shall have been offered at public sale and been held by the state for one year after such public offering.

The Denby corporation bill was reported out with the amendments.

The Colby-Powell-Stone general primary election bill will be taken up under the special order at 3 o'clock this afternoon. A first-class attack on the bill will be made in committee of the whole. Representative Galbraith of Houghton, one of the strongest speakers in the house, will take the floor against it.

In the senate, Senator Smith's bill, giving the board of state tax commissioners power to make a new equalization this year, was killed Wednesday afternoon. On motion of Senator Lockerby, in the committee of the whole, all after the enacting clause was stricken out by a vote of 16 to 8. The senate afterwards adopted the recommendation of the committee of the whole by a vote of 14 to 13.

Senator Smith, in answering Senator Lockerby's question for the reason for the bill, said: "It is not much wonder that there is objection from the senators unfamiliar with the last work of the state board of equalization in 1901. The board, as is well known, knew very little about property values over the entire state and depended in making the equalization upon the statements of the representatives from each county who appeared before the board and presented the poorest side of the county which sent them. It is for the purpose of correcting these errors and putting the equalization upon a business basis that I ask for the passage of the bill."

Senator Moriarty's bill passed yesterday, affecting the paroling of convicts, simply gives the governor power under certain conditions to allow a paroled convict to leave the state, and making it possible to retake him from another state if he breaks the parole.

Senator Cook's bill, which passed, makes it a felony to exhibit deformed human beings or cadavers, except for scientific purposes, and is aimed at the suppression of fake museums and the like.

Senator Moriarty's bill, passed yesterday, relative to escape of prisoners, provides for further punishment at the expiration of the time for which they are sentenced.

Bay county—John Combs and Roscoe Dow, both of Bay City; Andrew B. Summerfield, Pinconning. Branch—W. L. Robinson, Union City. Calhoun—Ellsworth Tibbits, Albion; H. R. Williams, Battle Creek. Cass—Thomas L. Wewey, Dowagiac. Hillsdale—Frank B. Slater, Reading. Ionia—John Wallington, Saranac. Houghton—William H. Vivian, Jr., Houghton. Chippewa—Dr. J. A. Oswald, Detour. Kalamazoo—Alvin Dennison, Kalamazoo. Kent—Fred Jacobi, Lowell. Lenawee—R. V. Wilson, Tecumseh; H. R. Watkins, Cambridge. Livingston—H. G. Beach, Hamburg; James King, Chilson. Macomb—William J. Wood, Mt. Clemens. Muskegon—Frew W. Figge, Muskegon. Saginaw—Edward Carpenter, Saginaw. Shiawassee—A. Arthur, Laingsburg. Tuscola—T. J. Craw. Van Buren—Charles Leach, Paw Paw. Washtenaw—Otto Rohn, Ypsilanti.

Chandler Was Discharged.

East Jordan, Mich., March 26.—The examination of Robert Muirhead and Philip Chandler of Pontiac, charged with burning the Bush sawmill at South Arm, valued at $20,000, about midnight Jan. 2, 1902, is now in its third day. Some sensational testimony has been given, but being utterly unable to connect Chandler with the affair, the charge against him was nolle prossed. The examination is continued against Muirhead, but it is generally expected that he will be discharged.

Captain William Duff Resigns.

Port Huron, Mich., March 26.—Captain William Duff of Company M, First infantry, will tender his resignation from the service today. Duff has been prominent in military circles for years and figured in every contest. He was attached to Governor Pingree's staff at one time.

Alleged Counterfeiter Wanted.

Detroit, Mich., March 26.—United States Marshal Bates has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest of Leonard Weber, the alleged counterfeiter, who escaped from Deputy Marshal Cash P. Taylor.

PREFERRED TO DIE

General MacDonald Shot Himself In a Paris Hotel.

RATHER THAN FACE CHARGES

Commander of British Forces in Ceylon Was to Be Courtmartialed on His Return—Surprise and Sorrow Among Army Officers.

Paris, March 26.—Major-General Sir Hector Macdonald, commanding the British forces in Ceylon, and one of the foremost officers in the British army, against whom charges, based on immoral acts, were filed some time ago, committed suicide Wednesday at the Hotel Regina here. He shot himself in the right temple shortly after noon and expired a few minutes later. The general was alone in his small chamber on the Messanine floor of the hotel at the time of the tragedy. One of the female attendants heard the pistol shot, and opening the door saw the general's figure stretched out on the floor with the blood gushing from a bullet wound in the head. The proprietor of the hotel was the first to reach the expiring man. Medical help was immediately summoned, but was found to be useless, death ensuing quickly on the fatal act. No money or papers of any kind were found in Sir Hector's baggage. Two notes, written in English, were found lying on a table in his room, and these were taken possession of by the authorities, but it is understood that their contents have no bearing on the suicide. In the general's coat, lying on the bed, were found some photographs.

Sir Hector Macdonald arrived in Paris last Friday evening from London on his way back to Ceylon, where it was understood that an immediate courtmartial would be held to clear up the charges made against him. On reaching the hotel, at 11 o'clock at night, he was told that only a small and indifferent room was available. He replied that that was quite sufficient. He was not accompanied by any aide de camp or a valet. He said he only intended to stay a day or two in Paris.

Little was seen of him since his arrival. He was, however, in the lobby in the morning, and it is believed the newspapers printed in English, containing a resume of the grave charges brought against him and embellished with the general's portrait in full uniform, came under his attention. He left the lobby, going to his room, and the pistol shot followed soon after.

No arrangements have yet been made as to the disposition of the body, which is subject to the orders of the British authorities.

London, March 26.—The tragic end of "Fighting Mac," who, the son of a Highland cottar, from the position of a draper's assistant to be an honored general in the British army, has caused great surprise and deep sorrow in London. The nature of the offenses with which he was charged had not become generally known to the public, but had been common gossip in military circles, and although in the army and among his Highlander comrades, especially, there is keen grief, their feeling is that it was "better to die thus than face dishonor." Sir Hector Macdonald was separated from his wife many years ago, before he got his commission. He has not lived with her since. He leaves a son, who is being educated in an English public school.

Confessed Terrible Crime.

Philadelphia, March 26.—George Nelk, who last month killed his mother, Mrs. Catherine Nelk, was last night convicted of murder in the first degree. The prisoner admitted his crime and a plea of insanity was advanced by the defense. Expert alienists, after examining Nelk, pronounced him sane. The prisoner, who is 22 years old, on Feb. 11 crushed his mother's skull with a hatchet and murderously assaulted his sister Minnie with the same weapon. He then stole $70 and disappeared, but was captured in a disreputable resort at Reading, Pa., several days later.

Big Reward For Their Capture.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 26.—More than $6,900 is the price put on the trio of highwaymen who last Saturday night murdered a passenger and wounded three others in a desperate attempt to hold up a Santa Monica car. A telegram has been received from the bank in Manson, Ia., of which George A. Griswold, the dead passenger, was vice-president, stating that an additional reward of $2,500 for the capture and conviction of Griswold's slayers will be paid. There are no developments in the search for the highwaymen.

Drove Auto Up Capitol Steps.

Washington, March 26.—Will B. Hurlburt of Detroit is under arrest for driving an automobile up the capitol steps at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. He eluded the police on the way up, but they were hot after him and he was taken in charge when he had halted the machine on the top step. The successful attempt is the outcome of a bet of a supper, made here the other night by W. E. Metzger. He claimed Hurlburt could do the trick and was taken up by local parties. Hurlburt was released on bail.

Another Beef Packing Combine.

Chicago, March 26.—Announcement of the incorporation of the National Packing company, capitalized at $15,000,000, and including several of the smaller plants in Chicago, Omaha and elsewhere, is made by J. P. Lyman, president of the company.

Russia Wants Loan From France.

Berlin, March 26.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung cables that Russia is trying to negotiate a loan of $100,000,000 in France.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

Children Poisoned.

Many children are poisoned and made nervous and weak, if not killed outright by mothers giving them cough syrups containing opiates. Foley's Honey and Tar is a safe and certain remedy for coughs, croup and lung trouble, and is the only prominent cough medicine that contains no opiates or other poisons. J. J. Orr.

Clothes may not make the man, but the boy who puts on his first top hat thinks they help a lot.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic and effective nervine and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

A Strike Seems Inevitable.

Saginaw, Mich., March 26.—It is now regarded as almost inevitable that the coal miners of the Saginaw and Michigan district will go on another strike about April 1, and that another long period of idleness will result. After adjournment of the joint convention at Bay City last week there was some little hope that the two sides would get together on the car-pushing question within a few days and settle all matters up. However, this hope has been entirely dissipated, and there now seems to be little doubt but that the miners will go out. Thus far every point for next year's wage scale, excepting that of car pushing, has been agreed to by miners and operators. Both are determined upon this, however, and neither side show any signs of giving in.

Second Infantry Officers.

Kalamazoo, Mich., March 26.—Colonel P. L. Abbey of the Second infantry, M. N. G., Wednesday announced the following regimental staff appointments: Major and surgeon, Lawrence D. Knowles, Three Rivers; captain and adjutant, Don S. Ingraham, Kalamazoo; captain and quartermaster, David P. Beach, Battle Creek; captain and commissary, Wallace H. Amsden, Grand Rapids; captain and assistant surgeon, John L. Burkhart, Grand Rapids; captain and chaplain, Rev. Francis C. Kelley, Lapeer; first lieutenant and assistant surgeon, William T. Dodge, Big Rapids.

Effort and Its Effect.

It pays to think. It is like putting money out at interest. Dollars make dollars, and thoughts make other thoughts. We are so accustomed to having this old world reward us for things we do in dollars that we forget there is such a reward as brains—mental growth. Happy the one who sees all these things in their proper light, who recognizes in every failure a lesson learned, in every effort a reward, be it only a little speck of mental energy.

A WAY TO GET A HUSBAND

[Original.]

"My dear," said Mrs. Colonel Morningdale, "why don't you marry?"

"Because no one is so stupid as to propose to me."

"Nonsense. It's because you have no mother to engineer the matter for you. You are fairly pretty, have a good disposition and plenty of common sense, but you are not practical, or, rather, too proud to angle for a man. Now, it's a mistake to suppose the men want a girl to stand off and let them do all the courting."

"I thought they turned against women who show that they are fishing for a husband."

"They should not know that a girl is fishing."

"I don't want a fool."

"Fool! The brightest men are the easiest caught, for their knowledge is all of a different kind. There's Captain Griffith of the engineers, graduated head of his class at West Point, fine character, some fortune, everything to make him desirable. Come and visit me at the fort, do exactly as I order you, and I'll engage that both of you will be the happier for the result."

Gertrude Soyne laughed outright.

"Will you come?"

"Yes."

"And obey me?"

"Yes."

"Very well; pack your things. We go tomorrow."

When the two women reached the fort, Mrs. Morningdale invited Captain Griffith to dinner. He talked most of the time about a widow who had appeared as the guest of Mrs. Major Fosdick and had taken the garrison by storm. After dinner Mrs. Morningdale was (intentionally) called away to visit a sick neighbor and left the captain and Gertrude together.

"Nothing. I will give you your orders at the proper time."

Captain Griffith called several times a week. It was said that he divided his evenings between the widow and Colonel Morningdale's quarters, giving the Morningdales all he had left from the widow. Gertrude chaffed her hostess good naturedly and asked when she was to get her instructions.

"We don't ask for instructions in the army," said Mrs. Morningdale. "We wait till we get them. Then we obey them implicitly."

"Griffith is going to leave us," said Colonel Morningdale to his wife one day when he returned from his office.

"Ordered away?"

"Yes; Pacific coast. Orders came from Washington this morning."

"H'm!"

When Mrs. Morningdale said "H'm!" in that tone of voice, the colonel knew that it meant something.

"He told me that he would see us to say goodby between 8 and 9 this evening."

"He means to say goodby to the widow between 9 and midnight?"

After dinner Mrs. Morningdale took Gertrude aside and said to her:

"Your orders are ready for you."

"Very well; I am ready for my orders," replied Gertrude, smiling.

"Captain Griffith will call this evening at 8 o'clock to say goodby, for he is going away. I shall be in the room till a quarter to 9, when I will excuse myself. When he takes leave of you, you will begin to cry."

"Cry!" laughed Gertrude. "How can I cry at will?"

"If you can't cry, put your handkerchief to your face and sob."

The conversation which began in this pleasant tone ended seriously. Gertrude mutinied, and Mrs. Morningdale was obliged to use drastic measures. She reminded her charge of their contract and told her plainly that unless she obeyed orders their friendship would be ended. Then Gertrude fell in with the spirit of the joke, as she regarded it, and assented.

At 8:45 that evening Captain Griffith and Gertrude were left alone. When the clock on the barracks tower struck 9, the captain arose to go. Gertrude thought of the part she was to play and found it impossible to repress a smile, which she hid behind her handkerchief. When the captain put out his hand for the farewell, she, like a good soldier, remembered her orders and obeyed them. She raised the handkerchief to her eyes. Griffith was thunderstruck.

"Miss Soyne!"

The orders were to sob, and Gertrude sobbed.

"Gertrude!"

Another sob.

"My dear girl, can it be"—

Another sob. Griffith advanced, put one hand to Gertrude's waist, the other to the handkerchief; but she held it firmly over her eyes, though it was sufficiently displaced from her mouth to show that she was laughing.

"Great heavens—hysterics!"

"Miss Soyne—Gertrude—sweetheart, you distress me beyond measure!"

The door opened, and Mrs. Morningdale stood on the threshold.

"Pardon me," she said. "I"—

Griffith blushed to the roots of his hair.

"Mrs. Morningdale," he said, "do not misconstrue what you see. I love Miss Soyne and will never be happy till she has promised to be my wife."

Mrs. Morningdale's campaign was ended, and Gertrude was horrified. Nevertheless she married Captain Griffith, and there is not today a more devoted couple in the army.

"Don't tell me," says the matchmaker, "that a girl doesn't need a mother to see that she gets a good husband."

Divorce Suit Lasted Thirty Years.

Corunna, Mich., March 26.—The divorce granted Wednesday afternoon in the case of Lutheria vs. Jay Vincent brings to an end a suit which has been pending over thirty years. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent were married in October, 1871, and separated fourteen months later, the woman carrying her infant son in her arms. Another son was born later. Allimony was arranged by Vincent selling his farm of forty acres. Vincent, soured and disappointed, retired to a patch of land northwest of Chesaning, and has lived there ever since a hermit.

Bad Boys Disposed Of.

Lansing, Mich., March 25.—In the circuit court Wednesday Judge Wilcox disposed of the gang of youthful burglars who committed a series of burglaries in this city recently. Perry Rounds, Harry Quay and Wesley Parks were given six months each in the house of correction. Arthur Frye, son of Rev. Dr. W. A. Frye of the Central M. E. church is too young to be sent to that institution, and was therefore sent to the Industrial School for Boys for eighteen months.

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial.

It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." MRS. K. T. SNYDER, Troy, Ohio.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

will rid you of it, radically and permanently, as they have rid thousands.

A Feminine Mystery.

Among the minor mysteries of life is the bewildering fact that, as a rule, the tall woman is of a melancholy disposition, while her smaller sister is of a bright, brisk and cheerful temperament. Science, so far as we know, has never addressed itself to the solution of this puzzle, and the amateur philosopher is therefore left to cudgel his brain and marvel. Why length of limb should make for solemnity and melancholy, says a writer on this subject, is hard to determine. Length of limb seems to suggest to the mind the need for a stateliness of deportment, which never troubles the consciousness of "the small and tubby." We are left to conclude that the feminine side of our nation, which is rapidly becoming famous for its extreme height, will some day become as serious and gloomy as Quakers, and then we shall take our pleasures more sadly than ever.—London Globe.

Second Nature.

The old schoolmaster was deeply affected. His scholars, noticing the dilapidated appearance of his chair, had presented him with a new one on his birthday.

"My dear boys," said the kindly old pedagogue, with tears in his eyes, "I can never hope to tell you how much you have made me feel by this token of your love for me. All I can do is to thank you for the sacrifices you have made of your little purses for the sake of my comfort. If you have found me severe at times, I trust you realize that it has always been for your own good. I hope to always have your full confidence, as you have ever had mine."

As the old schoolmaster prepared to sit down in his new chair he unconsciously ran his hand over the seat in search of bent pins.—New York Times.

Rousseau.

Rousseau was a type of the melancholic temperament, assuming sometimes the symptoms of a veritable pathetic insanity. He sought to realize his phantoms in the least susceptible circumstances. He saw everywhere enemies and conspirators, frequent in the first stages of insanity. Once, coming to his sailing vessel in England, he interpreted the unfavorable winds as a conspiracy against him, then mounted an elevation and began to harangue the people, although they did not understand a word he said. In addition to his fixed ideas and delirant convictions Rousseau suffered from attacks of acute delirium, a sort of maniacal excitation. He died from apoplectic attack.

Few Errors in the Count.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 26.—A recount of the ballots cast in the primary election for city treasurer and clerk of justice courts was completed Wednesday afternoon. Oscar E. Kitstrom, who had 86 majority for treasurer, according to the original returns, has his majority increased to 111, and James Schriver, for clerk, finds his majority increased from 5 to 16. The total vote exceeded 10,000, and the very small number of errors in the count is considered remarkable.

Censured Their State Paper.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 26.—At a meeting of the pastors of the Grand Rapids district of Michigan Methodist conference Wednesday, resolutions were adopted censuring the Michigan Christian Advocate for not giving greater publicity to coming meetings and conventions. The pastors thought space could be better devoted to such matters than given to other things that are published.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, March 26.—Michigan pensions granted Wednesday: Increase—Joseph R. Foster, Evart, $17; Henry C. Barber, Cheboygan, $12; David Harris, Richmond, $24; George J. Cheley, Lansing, $24; Myron H. Ellis, New Boston, $20; William Close, Linden, $8; Alfred Tichener, Mason, $12. Widows—Catherine E. Hustis, Horton, $12; Jane Hale, Ypsilanti, $8.

"Terror" Harvey Convicted.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., March 26.—Charles Harvey, who last winter for an entire day terrorized the village of Disco when the officers attempted to arrest him on a charge of chicken stealing, and who later fired on the officers and escaped from them while enroute to this city, was yesterday convicted of assault with intent to commit murder.

A NEGRO'S STORY.

Heard of a Plot to Capture Cabinet Officials in the West.

Winona, Minn., March 26.—An aged negro orator, J. C. Fremont, of Watertown, S. D., a well-known representative of his race, who at the close of the civil war was president of the society that sent many negroes back to Africa, lectured here Tuesday night on the "race problem." While here he called on Congressman Tawney and asked for a private interview. He stated that he had a communication which he desired the congressman to convey to the president, to the effect that he had come into possession of information that a plan had been made to attempt the life of President Roosevelt on his western trip, but that this had now been abandoned, and instead the plotters were planning, at some favorable point in Montana or Colorado, to capture Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, Secretary of War Root and Attorney-General Knox and carry them to the mountains, to be held for suitable ransom.

Fremont refused to divulge the source of his information, but insisted it was correct. Congressman Tawney places little credence in the tale, but nevertheless has written to Secretary Shaw, telling him the negro's story.

GREAT LAND SWINDLE.

Chicago Men Arrested on Serious Charge by U. S. Officials.

Chicago, March 26.—In the arrest of former County Surveyor Enricht and E. C. Deuscher, an attorney, Wednesday, Postal Inspectors believe they have put a stop to a great land swindle, through which many poor persons in various parts of the country were defrauded. Enricht and Deuscher, as manager and attorney, conducted the United States Land Syndicate. They were arrested by Deputy United States Marshals Fraley and St. Clair. They were taken before Commissioner Foote and gave bonds in the sum of $1,500 each for their appearance April 4th.

The profits of the "syndicate" in the few years it has been operating are estimated at from $25,000 to $50,000. Enricht and Deuscher advertised that they would give farms free, asking only payment for drawing the papers, and in a few cases they are said to have turned over the deeds to land for a small sum. In other cases, however, they secured as high as $500 from their correspondents, it is alleged.

RESIGNATION WITHDRAWN.

Castro Will Continue as President of Venezuela.

After passing in review the difficulties in the way of government, he told how his intentions were misrepresented, and he was disheartened and at that moment resigned. "Notwithstanding those reasons which were weighty to my mind," he continued, "congress does not accept my resignation and insists that I should continue, that I should persist therein, but considers me still useful in the government. I bow before its desire and resign myself to the new obligations imposed by my country, but only until the work of pacifying the nation shall be complete and order re-established in the public administration. Remember it well, senators and deputies; I believe my separation necessary; you think otherwise. I hope the future will prove you right."

Praise For Wood.

Washington, March 26.—Brigadier-General Wood left here Wednesday afternoon for Boston, whence he will sail in a day or two for the Philippines to assume command of the military department of Mindanao. Coincident with his departure from this city Secretary Root issued the following order: "By direction of the president, Brigadier-General Leonard Wood, U. S. A., having filed the report which completes his services as military governor of Cuba and as commander of the military forces stationed in that island from December, 1899, to the close of American occupation, is relieved from further duty in connection with the affairs of the former military government of Cuba. The administration of General Wood, both as military commander of the division and department of Cuba, and as military governor, was highly creditable."

Alleged Murderer Captured.

Geneva, N. Y., March 26.—Edward Myers, the alleged murderer of Mrs. George W. Payne, was captured yesterday in Corham, nine miles west of here. The crime was committed in Jackson township, Tioga county, Pa., on Feb. 23. Myers was captured by a former employe, of whom he sought protection.

U. S. Gets Favored Treatment.—Vice-Consul Typer at Teheran, Persia, has informed the state department that the country has adopted a new tariff. The United States is included among the countries entitled to the most favored nation treatment.

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture is the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

RECEPTION

At the Home of Mrs. J. J. Freeman Tuesday Afternoon.

One of the most delightful club entertainments ever held in Tecumseh, was the afternoon party given by the Research Circle at the home of Mrs. John Freeman Tuesday afternoon. About sixty ladies were assembled at two o'clock and Miss Wallein, of Ypsilanti, gave them some delightful selections on her violin, Mrs. Kellogg sang a charming song and three games of guessing causing much merriment, formed the entertainments.

After this small tables daintily set with cut glass and silver were brought in and a three course collation was served by Research ladies dressed in white. The menu cards were birch bark with pen and ink sketches of Indians, tepees, canoes, etc. The menu was written in Spanish:—"Bouillon, Polo Primida, Accitunas, Salado Colo, Biscochos, Cafe con crema, Pastelito, Helados." The ice cream was decorated with tiny flags of the different countries of South America.

After partaking bountifully of these refreshments the ladies departed to their respective homes.

This closes a very successful year's work for the club and the opening of the next year will be looked forward to eagerly by all the members.

"Joshua Simpkins."

The humorous comedy drama, "Joshua Simpkins," accompanied by a fine band and an excellent orchestra will be seen at the New Bradley opera house Monday night, March 30. It is a rural play in four acts, bound together by an interesting plot and produced with special scenery carried by the company. In the third act a realistic saw mill scene is introduced, when a real buzz saw is seen cutting through a real log at terrific speed upon which a human being has been helplessly bound by his enemies and left to an evident death. There is an abundance of comedy in the play, while there are many fine singing and dancing specialties incidentally introduced.

MURPHY--FELDMAN.

Miss Lizzie Murphy and Lewis R. Feldman, of Exeter,

WERE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Wednesday Evening at the Home of the Bride's Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Murphy.

A quiet home wedding occurred Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy, one mile north of the village, when their daughter, Miss Elizabeth May, was united in holy wedlock to Mr. Lewis R. Feldman, of Exeter. The impressive words were spoken by Rev. W. F. Jones in the presence of only immediate relatives. After the happy couple had received congratulations, an elaborate supper was served.

Miss Murphy is well and favorably known in Tecumseh and Mr. Feldman is to be congratulated on winning her as his life partner. They will make their future home in Exeter.

THE CHURCHES.

Services at Universalist church Sunday morning at 10:30. Rev. Harriett Baker, of Manchester, will preach.

Topics for the Baptist church Sunday, March 29: morning "Soul Prosperity," evening, "A young man who wanted to do good."

Sunday morning the pastor of the M. E. church will preach on the subject, "True Beauty." In the evening his subject will be "Approved Ambition."

Sunday afternoon services during Lent. Special course of sermons, general subject "The Way of Salvation."

March 29th—"The Necessity of Faith."

The Rector would earnestly commend this course of sermons. It is not more to be lamented than it is true that the great majority of Christian people have no proper understanding whatever of the Way of Salvation.

Detroit Southern Offices to be Moved to Springfield.

A dispatch from Springfield, O., reads as follows: The general offices of the Detroit Southern will be moved from Detroit to this city as soon as suitable arrangements can be made for their location, is the statement which comes from Supt. Gleason. This is a move which has been contemplated for some time, and it is thought that the change will serve to maintain a closer connection between the working points of the system.

It is realized that Jackson represents the principal seat of operations of the line and that there is a field in that connection which will well repay development. After careful study of the available points of the situation from which a more effective jurisdiction could be extended over the Jackson mines, it was readily seen that the facilities offered by Springfield in this connection could not be surpassed.

Caucuses.

A township democratic caucus will be held in the Tecumseh council rooms March 30 at 2:30 p. m.

A republican caucus for the township of Tecumseh will be held in the council rooms Monday evening, March 30, at 7:30.

Prohibition caucus will be held Tuesday evening next at 8 o'clock at the council building.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound and well." Everybody ought to know it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

RATHBONE LODGE ENTERTAINS

Adrian Lodge Wednesday Night.

TWO CANDIDATES INITIATED

And 125 Partake of a Banquet. Everybody Reports a Good Time.

In response to an invitation from Josephine H. Hall Temple, about sixty members of the sister lodge at Adrian, came over last Wednesday night on a special train arriving at seven o'clock. They were conducted to the K. P. hall where tables were spread for a banquet and 125 members of the Rathbone lodge were seated.

After the tables were removed two candidates were initiated into the order, the work being performed in a very creditable manner by officers of Adrian Temple. After the exercises a social time was enjoyed, dancing and games indulged in.

Everything passed off harmoniously notwithstanding there were three editors present, all with different political tendencies, but all with equally belligerent reputations. At 12:30 the guests departed with the hope expressed that they would sometime come again.

It Costs No More
To get the best paints than poorer, untried kinds. The modern idea of mixed paints is all right if you get the right make of paint. The idea of ready mixed paint must be good, for think of the number of gallons of paint that are mixed at one time, and with all the modern machines for grinding and mixing the paint, the results must be better than with paints that are mixed by hand, a gallon at a time.

Paine's Celery Compound

Permanently Cures Sick and Nervous Headaches that Make Life Miserable.

Sick and nervous headaches are amongst the worst ills of life. The man or woman who is subject to headache at irregular intervals, goes through life bearing a load of misery and wretchedness that is terrible to think of.

Headaches as a rule, result from a disordered condition of the nervous system. Mental excitement, loss of sleep, bodily fatigue, and disordered digestion are exciting causes. When the brain becomes tired and debilitated, the whole nervous system is weakened, and headaches result. If the liver is sluggish, the kidneys inactive, and digestion deranged, headaches invariably follow. To cure and prevent headache, the nervous system must be strengthened and vitalized. The most persistent cases of headache, nervous feebleness, and sleeplessness, are permanently cured by Paine's Celery Compound; it is the great reconstructant of the nervous system. Mrs. Henry Westrick, St. Clair, Mich., tells of her release from suffering as follows:—

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia and sick headache for a number of years. About every week I would have a bad spell of sick headache, but since I began using Paine's Celery Compound, my dyspepsia is gone, and I do not have any more headaches. I feel better than I have for years."

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

Quick Relief for Asthma Sufferers

Foley's Honey and Tar affords immediate relief to asthma sufferers in the worst stages and, if taken in time wil effect a cure. J. J. Orr.

One of the times when a man begins to cry and sigh that all men are not honest, is when he gets the wrong hat.

A Good Hearted Man,

or in other words, men with good sound hearts, are not very numerous. The increasing number of sudden deaths from heart disease daily chronicled by the press, is proof of the alarming prevalence of this dangerous complaint, and as no one can foretell just when a fatal collapse will occur, the danger of neglecting treatment is certainly a very risky matter. If you are short of breath, have pain in left side, smothering spells, palpitation, unable to lie on side, especially the left, you should begin taking

J. A. Kreamer.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

J. A. Kreamer of Arkansas City, Kans., says: "My heart was so bad it was impossible for me to lie down, and I could neither sleep nor rest. My decline was rapid, and I realized I must get help soon. I was advised to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which I did, and candidly believe it saved my life."

A HELPING HAND

Is Gladly Extended by a Tecumseh Citizen.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Tecumseh prepared to tell their experience of the public good. Testimony from such a source is the best of evidence, and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement.

Mrs. J. H. Welch, who resides in the south western section of Tecumseh, says: "I wish to express my gratitude for the benefit derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. My back troubled me for a long time with a constant dull aching pain across my loins and when stooping or exerting myself it became very sharp. If I took cold it always settled in my kidneys and in the morning I was so lame and stiff that I could hardly attend to my work. I used several simple household remedies but they did not bring relief. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended and spoken of so highly I concluded to test their merits and got a box at C. A. Wright's drug store. They took right hold of the cause and in a short time the pain in my back was a thing of the past. I can now straighten after bending or stooping without any inconvenience. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a wonderful remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Mexican Mustang Liniment

Its Year of Jubilee has come.

Sixty years of faithful service to Man and Beast entitles it to

A GRAND DIAMOND JUBILEE

Your sires and grand sires used Mexican Mustang Liniment because it healed their hurts and cured the ills of their domestic animals. What MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT did for mankind and brute kind 60 years ago it does to-day. It has always cured and always will cure any and everything that a good, honest liniment can cure.

All Sorts of Horse Flesh

are all subject to all sorts of Sprains, Bruises, Flesh Wounds and other ails. Most owners know that Mexican Mustang Liniment is the most effective horse medicine that ever penetrated flesh. It is the best investment an animal-owner could put money into.

It soaks down through the muscles.

No liniment can cure unless it penetrates the fevered and swollen muscles right down to the roots of the trouble. MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT penetrates more thoroughly than anything that was ever created in a chemical laboratory. The deepest, most stubborn and most intense pain in man or beast can be reached and routed by the use of this good old time-tried liniment.

Cures the hurts of anything that walks.

If your horse has a stiff joint, a harness sore, a cut or bruise, MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT will cure it. If your cow has a hurt, a caked udder or sore teats it will cure it and restore her to health and usefulness. If your poultry has roup, frozen combs, rheumatism, scaly legs or any disease of the flesh or bones MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT will cure them. What it has done is thousands upon thousands of instances justifies these claims.

Two things needed in lameness.

What Lameness, Stiff Joints and other deep-seated ailments need more than anything else is MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. The next is plenty of rubbing. The rubbing works the liniment away in through the tired and sore muscles to where the pain begins and then the lameness disappears and the pain departs.

Three sizes. 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle. Sold everywhere.

TO KILL SOMEONE

Man Found Who Says He Heard Pennell Make the Threat.

BURDICK CASE BE REOPENED

Numerous Witnesses to Testify at the Pennell Inquest—Delia Leary, a Domestic, Tells a Story Which the Authorities Will Investigate.

Buffalo, March 28.—Before the inquest into the death of Arthur R. Pennell is begun next Monday the inquest into the Burdick case will be reopened by Judge Murphy, at the request of District Attorney Coatsworth. This will be done to introduce the testimony of Alexander J. Quinn, formerly a bartender in the Roland house, New York, who says he had heard Arthur R. Pennell threaten to kill someone. The remark was made by Pennell within the hearing of the cashier of the place. The cashier also will be subpoenaed.

After Quinn and the cashier have testified the Pennell inquest will begin.

Among the witnesses will be William Lannan and George Dunbar, who saw the automobile go into the quarry; George Volk, the saloonkeeper who sold Pennell whisky for himself and wife; Wallace Thayer, attorney, and residents of Kensington avenue and cross streets, who say they saw the automobile being driven back and forth in that region in the rain, then saw the hood lowered just a few minutes before the vehicle went over the edge of the rocks.

Medical Examiner Danser stated that he had not expressed any belief that Mrs. Pennell was drugged and that there was no probability her body would be exhumed to search for traces of a drug.

The authorities are investigating a story told by Delia Leary, a domestic employed in a house near the Burdick home. She says that about 10 o'clock on the night preceding the murder she saw a woman in the vacant lot adjoining Burdick's. The woman was dressed in black, Miss Leary says, and acted queerly. That is about all she claims to know about her. The authorities may ask Miss Leary to make a sworn statement, but they have little hopes of gaining anything more tangible than they did from the clues furnished by the lone woman, the lost woman and the blonde woman.

CHOPPED THEIR WAY IN.

New York Police Break Into an Alleged Poolroom.

New York, March 28.—In affecting an entrance into an alleged poolroom in the basement of a six-story building on West Third street Friday, two detectives were forced to chop a hole through the floor in the rear room of a saloon and drop into the room below, where other detectives were holding the men inside at bay with their revolvers. William Daly, said to be the proprietor, and a dozen others were arrested.

The raid was a sensational one. According to the story told by the police, the place was cunningly fortified and guarded. An elaborate system of signals had to be given by several sentries before a would-be bettor could gain entrance. Pocket telephones, electric buttons, "buzzers," secret slides and a "maze" figure in the story.

Cuba Cannot Amend Treaty.

Washington, March 28.—Secretary Hay has sent a warning to Cuba that the slightest amendment of the Cuban reciprocity treaty by the Cuban congress, even that which proposes to make its ratification conditional on the treaty going into effect during the current calendar year, certainly would defeat the convention itself, since any amendment must be submitted to the United States, and before that can be done the date fixed for the final exchange of ratifications, March 31, will have been passed.

President and Cleveland to Meet.

St. Louis, March 28.—During their visit in St. Louis to attend the dedication of the world's fair, President Roosevelt and ex-President Cleveland will sleep and eat at the same house and be in almost constant intercourse. President D. R. Francis of the world's fair has made arrangements to entertain the president and the ex-president at his handsome home, Newstead and Maryland avenue.

THE FIGHT BEGINS

Validity of New Tax Law Attacked by the Railroads.

RESTRAINING ORDERS GIVEN

By Judge Wanty Preventing State From Collecting Taxes in Excess of Old Law—Roads Claim Ad Valorem Tax Law is Illegal.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 28.—Twenty-four attorneys, representing as many railroads doing business in the state of Michigan, assembled in the office of Judge Wanty Friday to commence proceedings which not only directly involves millions of dollars, but also the constitutionality of the state constitution under that of the United States, and the constitutionality of the ad valorem tax now under both the state and the United States constitutions.

Judge Wanty was asked to issue an order restraining Attorney-General Blair, as the representative of the state, from attempting to collect the taxes of the roads in excess of those due under the old law, and after an explanation of the position of the roads by Attorney A. C. Angell of Detroit, representing the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad company, the request was granted. A temporary restraining order was issued pending the argument of a petition for a temporary injunction to be held in this court on May 26. After that will come the main issue, the constitutionality of the law, but the real fight will come on the argument for the temporary injunction, as good grounds will have to be shown for even that.

Although each road filed separate bills of complaint Thursday, the issue will hang upon the outcome of one, or two at the most.

As the argument before Judge Wanty was made by the representative of the Lake Shore road, it is thought that the Lake Shore case will be the test case to be taken up. Next in line will probably come that of the Michigan Central. As the bills of complaint are all alike with the exception of a few minor difficulties made to suit the individual case, the bill of the Lake Shore road as explained by Attorney Angell will serve as a sample.

In it it is claimed that the ad valorem tax law is illegal for the reason that it is repugnant to article 14 of the amendments to the United States constitution, in that it deprives the plaintiffs of property without due process of law, and that it would deprive them of equal protection of the laws in that the tax imposed upon their property depends upon the collective results of township, county, school and municipal boards.

It is also claimed under this count that the fixed rate, without reference to the needs of the state, is a violation of the United States constitutional provision. It is claimed that under the law the classification of the corporations is not based on inherent differences, but that there is discrimination between corporations engaged in the same line of business. It is charged that there is no opportunity of securing redress for excessive assessments. Following along the same charges of the constitutionality, the bill sets up that the act is repugnant to section 4 of article 4 of the United States constitution, by which the government guarantees a republican form of government and reference is made back to the aforementioned "collective results."

Following it is alleged that if the provisions of the state constitution provides for the act, then the state constitution is in violation of article 14 of the United States constitution. In support of this, the same objections are set up, the difference being that the constitution of Michigan is substituted for the ad valorem law itself. Another turn is taken to make the thing sure by an allegation that in case the law is valid under the United States constitution, and in case the provisions of the state constitution are valid under the United States constitution, then the act itself is unconstitutional under the state constitution. The same objections as before are set up.

The above has been identical with the bills of all the rest of the roads, but it winds up with a claim that even though the ad valorem tax law is declared to be valid, the Lake Shore road is assessed too high by over $1,000,000. When the representatives of the road appeared before the tax commission with a request that the assessment be lowered, the board responded by making a $1,000,000 raise instead. It is asked that the raise be stricken from the account against them.

The full list of the roads represented in the injunction suit are:

Chicago & Northwestern; Chicago & St. Paul; Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic; Lake Shore & Michigan Southern; Grand Trunk; Michigan Central; Pere Marquette; Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis; Ann Arbor; Wabash; Boyne City & Southeastern; Detroit & Mackinac; South Haven & Eastern; Pontiac, Oxford & Northern; Indiana, Illinois & Iowa; Wisconsin Central; Manistee & Northeastern; Detroit & Lima Northern; Mason & Oceana; Milwaukee, Benton Harbor & Columbus; Wisconsin & Michigan; Munising Railroad; Mineral Range; Manistique.

For Working the Mails.

Benton Harbor, Mich., March 28.—Nay Mickels, proprietor of the Michigan Investment Syndicate, was arrested here Friday morning by a United States deputy marshal. His alleged scheme for working the mails was run down by two United States postoffice inspectors. Mickels sold whisky bonds, land abstracts and everything possible that could be transacted through the mails.

Emigrating From Switzerland.

Geneva, March 28.—The glowing accounts sent home by Swiss emigrants in Canada of the prospects in America is causing an emigration fever in Switzerland, especially in the canton of Schwyts, for Canada and the United States. Many wealthy families have sold their property in order to emigrate, with the result that a slump in the values of houses and land has taken place.

Indicted For Murder.

Hamilton, O., March 28.—The grand jury late Thursday afternoon reported indictments for murder in the first degree against Alfred A. Knapp and Samuel Keeler, both charged with wife murder.

THE DEDICATION

Opening Events of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

THREE DAYS TO BE DEVOTED

President Roosevelt and Former President Cleveland Will Participate—Gen. Corbin Will Be Grand Marshal—Civic Parade the Third Day.

St. Louis, Mo., March 30.—At a meeting held last evening, at which President Thomas H. Carter of the National World's Fair Commission, President David R. Francis and other officers of the exposition company were present, the program for the three days' dedicatory exercises of the Louisiana Purchase exposition, which will open here in 1904, was finally adopted. The dedication of the buildings, under the direction of the national commission, will begin April 30, on the centennial anniversary of the cession of the Louisiana territory by France to the United States, and continue through May 1 and 2.

The principal ceremonies will be on April 30, when President Roosevelt and former President Cleveland will be among the speakers. At 10 o'clock on that date the freedom of the city will be tendered to the president of the United States by Mayor Wells. Then will follow the military parade, composed of United States troops and national guard from various states. These bodies will be assembled under the direction of Major-General Henry C. Corbin, the grand marshal, and will move, preceded by the president of the United States and official guests in carriages, through Forest Park to the exposition grounds where the presidential salute will be fired. From a grandstand on the exposition grounds the parade will be reviewed by the president. Promptly at 2 o'clock the assembly in the liberal arts building will be called to order by President Francis.

The ceremonies will be as follows: Invocation by Cardinal Gibbons; introduction of Hon. Thomas H. Carter of the national commission, president of the day; grand chorus, "The Heavens Proclaiming;" presentation of the buildings by President Francis; dedication address by President Roosevelt; chorus, "Unfold Ye Portals;" address by former President Grover Cleveland; "America," with full chorus and band accompaniment; prayer by Bishop E. R. Hendrix; benediction by Rt. Rev. Henry C. Potter; centennial salute of 100 guns.

On the morning of the second day members of the diplomatic corps, the representatives of foreign governments and other official guests will be escorted to the liberal arts building, where Corwin H. Spencer, chairman of the committee on ceremonies, will call the meeting to order. Hon. John M. Thurston of the national commission will be president of the day.

President Francis will extend a greeting to the representatives of the foreign governments and there will be addresses by the French ambassador and Spanish minister.

The civic parade will be held on the third day and will be reviewed by the governors of states.

Roosevelt Family on a Cruise.

Washington, March 30.—Mrs. Roosevelt and her children will take the projected cruise on the president's yacht, the Mayflower, during the coming week. They bade good-bye last night to the president, who leaves on his western trip Wednesday morning, and then boarded the Mayflower, which has been lying at the navy yard here for some days. The vessel has been entirely remodeled recently and is in fine condition. Mrs. Roosevelt expects to be absent about a week. If the weather is good, the vessel will go out into the open sea, the first stop being made at Port Royal, S. C.

Miners Accept the Demands.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 30.—From reports received here, a majority of the 10,000 bituminous miners of Indiana have voted to accept the operators' demand that last year's arrangement be accepted, with an advance of 12½ per cent in wages. The miners' delegates will meet here today, when the first official returns of the vote will be received. The principal cause for a controversy was the question of the operators employing experts to fire shots in mines of the Clinton district. The Clinton miners have voted not to strike.

Cubans Sign the Treaty.

Havana, March 30.—The treaty of reciprocity between the United States as amended by the senate of the United States, was approved at 8 o'clock Saturday night, in the Cuban senate by a vote of 12 to 9. This approval is absolute and is not hampered by any conditions, the questionable time limit amendment having been dispensed with through the receipt of the cablegram from Secretary Hay, in which it was positively declared that President Roosevelt would call a special session of congress prior to Dec. 1.

Macedonian Band Annihilated.

Vienna, March 30.—It is reported from Belrade that one of the bands formed by the Macedonian leader Sarafoff, consisting of forty men, has been annihilated, twenty-nine of the insurgents being killed at Vladimirov and the remainder at Podareshe. At Raslowzi, near Serres, thirteen revolutionary Macedonians have been killed by a Turkish force of the Russian priesthood from different parts of the country.

Wages Increased at Niles.

Niles, Mich., March 30.—The Michigan Wood Pulp company has advanced the wages of its skilled employes 10 per cent. It is stated the Niles Board and Paper company will make a similar advance.

Another Victim of a Train.

Flint, Mich., March 30.—Ernest Sherlock, aged 20, and unmarried, was struck by a Pere Marquette train Saturday evening while on his way home from work, and was so badly injured that he died two hours later. His skull was crushed in at the back and both legs cut off.

Working Overtime.

Eight hour laws are ignored by those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work night and day, curing indigestion, biliousness, constipation, sick headache and all stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure. Only 25c at C. A. HE TOOK POISON

Detroit Young Man Commits Suicide by Drinking Laudanum.

OFFICERS MAKE A CAPTURE

Alleged Murderer of Mrs. Zolkowski Arrested at Seven-Mile House—Flint Police Are in Search of Fred Parkhurst's Assailant.

Detroit, Mich., March 30.—Laudanum, self-administered, caused the death at the Red Cross hospital at 9:10 last evening of William J. Hall, aged 23. Whether the cause of his rash act was due to an unsuccessful love affair or because of accumulated trouble it has been impossible to discern.

Early yesterday afternoon Hall went over to a boarding house kept by Austin Bell, at 320 Fourteenth avenue. There are a number of young people boarding at the place, and it is said that Hall had been paying attentions to one of the young lady boarders.

About 4 o'clock Bell sent to a neighboring drug store for 10 cents' worth of laudanum, saying that he was suffering from a toothache. While Bell was doctoring the aching molar Hall seemed to take a sudden interest in the proceeding.

"What have you there?" he demanded.

"Laudanum," replied Bell.

"Let me see it," said Hall.

The bottle was handed to him. With a quick motion of his arm he placed it to his mouth and swallowed half the contents before anyone could stop him and then walked out of the house. He walked to his boarding place at 197 Twelfth street. Entering the house he dropped on a couch and sank into an unconscious condition, from which he never emerged.

Joseph Samel, a painter, aged 34, residing at 399 Superior street, was taken into custody by detectives yesterday afternoon at the Seven Mile house, out Woodward avenue, charged with the murder of Mrs. Mary Zolkowski, an old Polish woman, who died at St. Mary's hospital Sunday morning from the result of injuries inflicted upon her last Thursday afternoon during a drunken revelry at the woman's home, No. 7 Boes alley.

The police have been searching for Samel since Saturday morning, when the facts of the assault become known.

Mrs. Zolkowski lived with her husband, Michael Zolkowski, in a couple of rooms, the larger of which is about twelve feet square. Thursday morning three painters were sent to work on the building. The husband had gone to his work. It is said that some time during the day the three men entered the house, that liquor was procured and an orgie begun, the details of which are unprintable. The woman was given drink until she was helpless. Then she was shamefully abused by at least one of the men, all of whom are said to have been more or less under the influence of liquor.

Two men, who said that their names are John Dettloff, aged 23, of 329 Superior street, and John Paschke, aged 27, of 442 Garfield avenue, were locked up on Saturday. The third man, Samel, escaped the police and was not caught until yesterday.

Flint, Mich., March 30.—Fred, the 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Parkhurst of Stone street, was stabbed and mortally wounded in Charles Rogers' saloon about 7:20 o'clock Saturday night by a man who is said to be a bartender from Saginaw. The fellow got into a row with Frank Wilson and struck Wilson in the face. Parkhurst grabbed hold of him to pull him back and the man struck Parkhurst. The latter did not know he was stabbed until he left the saloon.

He walked some distance down the street, took a hack and was driven home. Conditions for the worse have hourly increased and peritonitis has set in, and the recovery of Parkhurst is now extremely doubtful. The attending physician holds out no hopes of recovery.

"Con" Donovan who was with the stranger and who says he can't recall his name, is in jail. He says the fellow boarded the 7:53 train Saturday night for Saginaw, but the train was thoroughly searched and the officers here are in doubt as to whether he left on the train or remained in hiding in this city. It was not until Sunday morning that they obtained definite information as to the name of the suspect. Captain Walsh of the Saginaw police telegraphed that from the description he thought the man wanted was Leonard Deningberg, who until two weeks ago was a bartender for Chris Henning of Saginaw, and who left last Tuesday for Detroit and Toledo. The stranger is said to have stopped off in Flint on Saturday at noon.

Last evening Al Stacy, one of the bartenders at the saloon, and Frank Wilson, who was in the fight with the Saginaw man, were placed in jail by the officers.

Mrs. Con Donovan, who arrived last evening from Saginaw, was also taken to the jail for interrogation. Others may be taken into custody.

Killed on the Track.

Battle Creek, Mich., March 30.—Robert McKay, Waterford, Ont., was killed by a Grand Trunk switch engine at the Marshall street crossing at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. McKay, who is 65, stepped around the street car, not noticing the engine, which backed into him. The top of his skull was entirely severed from the lower portion, though the rest of his body was not badly torn.

Brakeman Killed Near Cadillac.

Cadillac, Mich., March 30.—Bert Tabor, a brakeman on the G. R. & I., was killed by his train Saturday between this city and Manton.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

THE PROPOSED

NEW THEATRE

To Be Built at Adrian by a NEW YORK COMPANY

As Reported by The Adrian Telegram.

The assertions that the agent of an eastern theatrical syndicate had been in Adrian looking for a site on which to erect a modern play house, led The Telegram to investigate the matter.

J. E. McElfatieck, claiming to represent the Knickerbocker syndicate of New York city, is the man who was looking over the city. In company with L. H. Putnam, the real estate agent, Mr. McElfatieck looked over several sites and before leaving secured an option on the George W. Marvin property on North Main street and the Earl Brothers lots directly west on Winter street. The value placed on the lots was $8,000, and the theatrical agent expressed himself as very well satisfied with the price and the site. He said it was the best offer he had received since leaving New York.

The agent claims that his syndicate contemplates building a circuit, and has had its eye on Adrian as one of the stations for a long time, but this is the first opportunity they have had of making an investigation. From here he said he intended to go to Bay City, Lansing, Saginaw and several other places through the state.

Mr. McElfatieck told Mr. Putnam that he meant business and that an opera house that would not cost less than $50,000 was what they intended for Adrian. He said they proposed to build a thorough modern playhouse, four stories high, with stores located on the ground floor. The land on which the options were secured is about 73x100 feet. Before leaving the agent told Mr. Putnam he would inform him more definitely concerning the plans in the next ten days.

Several Adrianites who are up in theatrical matters take no stock in the story, although they are unable to explain why a man would travel about the country handing out such stories unless he meant business or had somebody back of him. They say there is no syndicate, that is, of any magnitude, bearing the name Knickerbocker, either in the trust or antitrust. The story circulated is that the Knickerbocker people are an antitrust syndicate, who are preparing to build a large circuit.—Adrian Telegram.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treat[illegible]. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

Children Poisoned.

Many children are poisoned and made nervous and weak, if not killed outright by mothers giving them cough syrups containing opiates. Foley's Honey and Tar is a safe and certain remedy for coughs, croup and lung trouble, and is the only prominent cough medicine that contains no opiates or other poisons. J. J. Orr.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic and effective nervine and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. KICK ABOUT IT

And Meantime the Herald Speaks About Other Things and People.

In Arizona there are three copper mining towns one of them named Morenci, the same as the name of the Michigan town in Lenawee county. In the three towns are employed about 7,000 work men, working in the mines and stores and shops of the Detroit Copper Mining Company. This company is controlled by New York capitalists and was started out there but comparatively a few years ago, but now their holdings are vast. They own their own railroads, mills, smelters, stores and everything.

Three years ago Harry Rosacrans was working in Tecumseh, "Trotter" in Lilley's bank. A year ago last fall he took a position as book-keeper in a Toledo dry goods house and in early fall commenced work in the business office of the Mining Co. at Morenci, Arizona. For four years Harry was in the Lilley bank here, learning to keep books, do business scrubbing windows and doing all there was to do. Since going to Morenci he has been pushed right along and last week was appointed assistant treasurer of the whole business.

I tell you it takes thorough training to fit a young man to do business in these times. The four years Harry was with Lucius Lilley made a man of him and the work of sweeping and scrubbing in the bank did him no harm. When he went out into the world he was not told that if he did not succeed he could come back to "pa" and get his living, but wherever he did go he must succeed. Leon Rosacrans is now there in the same town with Harry and both boys are doing finely. In a few years we shall hear more of both boys and always be glad of their prosperity.

Yesterday Frank Crosman was down here from Jackson, Mich. He and I used to go to school together quite a number of years ago and if ever there was a worse boy in school than myself his name was Frank Crosman. I have not seen him for years, but he looks the same as he used to when he went to school.

For 14 years he has been on the Michigan Central, having a run from Jackson to Grand Rapids. Between every run he has a little time at the Rapids and knows all the old Tecumseh boys there. Says Bert Catlin is a great doctor up there now, has all he can do and has really made a great success in life. Will Sherman has a fine dentist practice and all the other boys are doing well.

Mr. Weed is a travelling salesman from Toledo, he has made Tecumseh on his trips for years and years and sells hats. Mr. Weed is well known in Tecumseh, a great favorite at the Lilley House and is in many ways very droll and companionable. The other day he was coming up from Toledo, the Lake Shore was a little late and he, with a number of other men, were in the smoker talking and whiling away the time.

In front of him sat a young travelling man evidently from Chicago and this young man who sat with a farmer was telling said granger how all good first class traveling men hailed from Chicago. He said, "All these fellows who come from Detroit and Toledo are simple "Dubs", think they can sell goods but cannot compete for a minute with Chicago in any line." Pretty soon old man Weed looked over to the young man and said, "By-the-way you come from Chicago don't you?" "I do sir", said the young man. "Well," said Mr. Weed, "How is the hotel up there."

Joe Lanning besides being in the dray business runs the hack for the Lilley House and altogether is as busy a man as there is in Tecumseh, notwithstanding Joe is always good natured and always has time to hear a good story from a travelling man and he knows most all of them.

The other day as Joe was about to make the 5:45 D. T. & M. train, along came a man with a grip and he says, "Better ride, I am going right down to that train," but the man looking at Joe's rig and horse said after looking at his watch, "I only have 20 minutes so guess I had better walk." It is certain that this man did not know that our old friend Joe has a new hack all bought in Toledo and that in a few days it will be running in Tecumseh.

The roads in the western section of the city are in a bad condition, especially just inside of the city limits. One evening late last week a lady from the country had occasion to come to the city, and as she was coming down West Maumee street, her horse commenced to flounder around in the mud and finally came to a standstill. The lady used every effort to start him up, but to no avail. She thought she would investigate, and jumped out of the buggy, and in a moment or two learned the reason, for she herself sank into the mud to her knees. She called for help, and one of the neighbors living in that vicinity went to her assistance. He built staging from the roadside to where she was, then went to her, put his arms about her and pulled her out, minus her shoes, which are still there. After some trouble the animal was gotten out of the mire, and the lady made her journey to the city. This was done inside the city limits.—Adrian Times.

The above gives quite, even too good, an idea of Adrian streets in the spring and fall and some seasons most all winter. For years the streets of Adrian have been in the same condition and it must be the fault in a great measure of the street commissioner. The taxes per $1000 are a few cents higher in Adrian than in Tecumseh and beside this the city steals quite an amount each year by giving the taxes to the smaller manufacturing concerns for nothing. There is much gravel to be had in Adrian and if the city would employe a street commissioner who at all knew his business, in a few years the roads could be rounded up and much of the spring mud dried up. Tecumseh roads are so rounded that the water flows off and then by keeping the surface covered lightly with gravel, the road is always good. Of course the natural soil here is much better for roads than that in Adrian, but by exercising a little good common sense there is no excuse for such terrible roads in Adrian.

I was talking with a Tecumseh teamster the other day and he had a complaint to make about the Tecumseh streets. Said that in the days of old Morris Hyde there never was so much dust in Tecumseh as now, that in those days they never used the street scrapers as now and that there was always gravel all over the road. I do not agree with the teamster at all. The best roads in Michigan can be found in Tecumseh for the simple reason that the center of the road is rounded up, allowing the water to flow away which leaves the center dry in winter and spring.

Old Morris Hyde did the same thing to a certain extent, but did not roll the street center up as high, leaving a flatter street. There was at that time more mud and now a little more dust, but as near as can be estimated much more travel on the street now than then which accounts for much of the dust. But if this teamster would like a change let him drive his wagon over to Adrian jus now and see how the roads are.

The streets of Tecumseh were never so muddy as this year and even now for the last two weeks there has not been a particle of mud on any street. Could we ask for anything better?

Foiled by Humidity.

Noiselessly, but with all his might, the burglar tugged at the bureau drawer.

In vain.

It refused to open.

He tugged again.

"Give it another jerk," said a voice behind him.

The burglar turned.

The owner of the house was sitting up in bed and looking at him with an expression of the deepest interest on his face.

"Jerk it again. There's a lot of valuable property in that drawer, but we haven't been able to open it since the damp weather began. If you can pull it out, I'll give you a handsome royalty on everything that's"—

Regarded In Different Ways.

That one can obtain more favors by "jollying" than by being brusque is just as true as "one can catch more flies with molasses than with vinegar."

Two young men have lived in a boarding house in West Twenty-third street for some time, and one has the reputation of being a "jollier," while the other is quick spoken and of a bearish disposition. The young men are friends and usually breakfast together. Their respective standings in the estimation of the dining room maid may be judged from the way in which that damsel shouted their order—both had requested steaks—down the dumb waiter shaft recently:

Very Simple.

A rather simple looking lad halted before a blacksmith's shop on his way home from school and eyed the doings of the proprietor with much interest.

The brawny smith, dissatisfied with the boy's curiosity, held a piece of red-hot iron suddenly under the youngster's nose, hoping to make him beat a hasty retreat.

"If you'll give me half a dollar, I'll lick it," said the lad.

The smith took from his pocket half a dollar and held it out.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound and well." Everybody ought to know it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

ROUND ABOUT US.

Adrian, Mich., March 29.—Special.)—Two attempts at suicide within 24 hours is something unusual in Lenawee county, and has greatly shocked the community of Morenci. Following closely upon the unsuccessful attempt of Orpha Mapes, the pretty young Medina girl, Charles Conrad, a farmer living two miles southwest of Morenci, cut his throat with a razor and bled to death. He had been ill with dropsy for several months, and it is thought his mind had become unsettled. Yesterday afternoon he sent his wife out of the room on some trivial errand and during her absence secured the razor with which he committed the awful deed shortly afterward. Conrad was 59 years old, was a prosperous farmer and a highly respected man. He leaves a widow.—Detroit Free Press.

QUEEN ESTHER

BIG SUCCESS.

A Large Audience Witnessed this Presentation.

A large crowd witnessed the production of Queen Esther at the New Bradley Friday evening. The characters were represented by local talent and their acting was highly commendable, especially that of the younger characters. The singing was the main entertaining feature of the evening aside from the costumes, which were indeed, a whole show in themselves. It is really amazing that the characters could center their thoughts upon their parts while their costumes were every moment much in danger of dropping.

The advertising specialty which opened the program made a great hit with the audience. The characters and the stores they represented were as follows:

Faron Anderson, gents' furnishings—Gussie Hanham.

Bert Gray's bowling alley—Glennie Shurtz.

Avery Grocery Co.—Laura Leonard.

Harris & Hiteshu, dry goods—Eola Brown.

S. W. Anderson, dry goods—Ethel Leonard.

C. A. Slayton, implements—Hazel Ames.

D. L. Whitenack, hardware—Nina Skinner.

Maloney & Rockwell, bakery—Sena Kelly.

B. J. Pulver & Co., druggist—Rosa Lowry.

Miss Pierce, millinery—Olive McBride.

King—Floyd Slater.
Queen—Raye McKenna.
Haman—L. O. Hayden.
Mordecai—Dr. Maddox.
Prophetess—Edith Magers.
Persian Princess—Ethel Leonard.
Median Princess—Glennie Shurtz.
Guards—Mable Church, Hazel Ames, Rosa Lowry, Elsie Brigham.

Reports show that about $27 was taken in for the library after all expenses were deducted.

Township Tickets.

The Democratic and Republican tickets were nominated yesterday and the nominations were as follows. The village election will be held next Monday, April 6.

The Prohibition ticket will not be nominated till this evening at the council building.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Supervisor—B. J. Garlinghouse.
Clerk—Henry Wilson.
Treasurer—Sam'l Shutt.
Justice, full term—R. J. W. Bowen.
Justice to fill vacancy—John VanVleet.
Highway Commissioner—Richard B. Gillespie.
School Inspector—C. F. Patterson.
Constables—Arthur Dove, Joe Hanford, Albert Deming, J. H. Aten.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Supervisor—R. A. Heesen.
Clerk—F. G. Heesen.
Treasurer—N. S. Satterthwaite.
School Inspector—L. G. North.
Highway Commissioner—John F. Schreder.
Board of Review—Albert Waring.
Justice of peace, full term,—J. W. Wightman.
Justice of peace, vacancy.—Will W. Hicks.
Constables—John B. Smith, H. W. Stevens, S. W. Bordine, Chas. Hastings.

A Homespun Heart

A curious phenomenon of the theater is the fixed popularity of the rural drama. Melodrama in all its other forms, from the blood curdling thrillers of the Bowery to the reality racking adventures of Chivalric nobility, has its ups and downs. Not so with the rural drama that goes forever. It is almost unnecessary to note instances "The Old Homestead," "Way Down East," "The Dairy Farm," "Shore Acres"—all of these pieces are immense popular successes and the majority of them have proved the lasting strength of this general approval be reappearing on the theatrical circuits season after season.

A new drama written on similar lines which bids fair to enjoy a long and prosperous career, is "A Homespun Heart" which comes to the New Bradley opera house April 3, 1903 for one nights engagement. This play is by Hal Reid, who has contributed to the stage a number of notable successes, the best remembered being "Human Hearts" and "At Cripple Creek" recently here.

"A Homespun Heart tells a simple story of farm and village life. The characters are the living, breathing people of the country, and it is these types that give long life to the rural drama. The company is said to be an evenly balanced one and some beautiful and appropriate scenery is promised.

Prices 25, 35, 50.

Until May First

It has been stated that all subscribers to the HERALD would be charged an extra 25 cents if payment was not made by April. On account of the bad roads making it impossible for people to get in from the country, the time is now extended to May 1, after which date subscribers will be charged an extra 25 cents and a like 25 cents for each three months thereafter during the year. It is not the idea of the managment to make the price of the HERALD $1.25 instead of $1.00 per year, but to give subscribers ample chance to pay $1.00 and then charge $1.25 after the time has expired.

Kindly remember that all this year's subscriptions must be paid before May 1 to be able to settle for $1.00 per year.

COLE-KEMPF.

Miss Pearl Cole and Mr. Andrew Kempf

WERE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

At the Bride's Home in Clinton Today at High Noon. Only the Immediate Relatives were Present.

Very simple and quiet was the ceremony which solemnized the marriage of Miss Pearl Cole and Andrew Kempf of this place, at high noon today at the bride's home in Clinton. The beautiful ceremony was read by Rev. Colvin, pastor of the Methodist church, only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom being present. The bride's sister, Miss Hazel Cole, acted as bride's-maid and Roy Marks, of this place, was best man.

After the wedding dinner was served, the happy couple left for Tecumseh where they will reside. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

Joshua Simpkins.

Joshua Simpkins, the old time hit, again played to a crowded house last night. The company was a refined and high class one, worthy of the good patronage they received. The band and orchestra made a worthy hit during their stay in the city and was received with hearty applause. Their specialties were high class and their character impersonations of the best.

Registration Notice.

To the electors of the township of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan:

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the Board of Registration of the township above named will be held at the council building in the village of Tecumseh, within said township, on Saturday, April 4, A. D. 1903, for the purpose of registering the names of all such persons who shall be possessed of the necessary qualifications and who may apply for that purpose; and that said board of registration will be in session on the day and at the place aforesaid from 9 o'clock in the forenoon until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose aforesaid.

Dated this 25th day of March, 1903.
FLOYD G. HEESEN, Township Clerk.

Election Notice.

Notice is hereby given to the electors of the township of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, that the next ensuing township election will be held on the first Monday in April, being the 6th day of April A. D. 1903, at the first and second precincts in said township, at which election the following officers are to be chosen to-wit: One Supervisor for one year, one Clerk for one year, one Treasurer for one year, one School Inspector for two years, one Highway Commissioner for one year, one Justice of the Peace for four years, one Justice of the Peace to fill vacancy, one Member of the Board of Review for two years, four Constables for one year each. The polls of said election will be open at 7 o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as may be, and will continue open until 5 o'clock in the afternoon of said day (standard time), unless the board shall in their discretion, adjourn the polls at 12 o'clock noon (standard time), for one hour. The opening and closing and adjournment, if any, shall be at the same hour in both of said voting precincts.

Dated, March 25, 1903.

Mrs. J. W. Owen, wife of the well-known carpenter, living in the south-eastern section of Tecumseh, says: "I am very well pleased with Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and they did me a lot of good. I had heart trouble and my kidneys did not perform their proper duties. This condition existed for some time. I tried different remedies which were recommended to me but received little, if any, benefit from them. I will cheerfully say this for Doan's Kidney Pills. I received more permanent relief from their use than from any other medicine I ever used. I am pleased to testify in their value."

S. E. Lawrence has been notified from Washington that he will become the official head of the Hudson post office one week from next Tuesday, March 31st. That is the day the transfer of the office will be made from Mr. Steuerwald to Mr. Lawrence, and Mr. Lawrence's term will begin the day following—April 1st.—Hudson Gazette.

Since Tom Navin's appointment as a member of the prison board of control the power formerly held by that board in recommending pardons has been taken away. All such applications must hereafter originate with the advisory board of pardons, which makes its recommendations to the governor. Consequently it is pointed out, Navin's position gives him no more power in the securing of a pardon for Bank Wrecker Andrews than he had before.—Jackson Patriot.

Mrs. Milly Feaster of High street, has received news of an accident through which her son Ulysses lost an arm in a sawmill at Columbus, N. Y. The member was severed at the elbow, and the young man's condition at the time of the accident—Thursday of last week—was considered very serious. Latest advices, however, say that he is improving Ulysses Feaster is well known in this vicinity, which was his home up to about two years ago. He is 22 years of age.—Hudson Post.

William Parks, a wealthy farmer who lives in Troy township, about three miles northeast of Birmingham has a hen that evidently is looking for newspaper notoriety. The other day when the farmer drove to this place the hen was found under the buggy seat busily engaged in laying an egg. She remained undisturbed, and when the farmer reached home she flew down to the ground and an investigation showed that she had laid a double-yoked egg to pay no doubt for her six-mile ride.—Free Press.

A fourth ward youngster of three or four years has been very sick with pneumonia, and been subjected to vigorous treatment therefor. The pastor of the church visited him several times and gave him words of comfort. Last week the pastor suffered from a severe cold and when the lad heard of it, he sat down and wrote a letter, expressing his regret, and assuring him that "I have prayed to Jesus to cure you, and I think he will, but you may have to be greased. That's the way they did with me."—Adrian Press.

One day last fall the Hudson boys, living east of town, were working around the newly dredged river bed when one of them happened upon the prong of a horn protruding above the surface of the ground. Investigation showed that it was an immense pair of horns that had sometime graced the head of an elk, an animal that years ago roamed over the swamps of this country. The antlers are joined by a small part of the skull of the elk and tower up to a hight of three feet seven inches, and the spread between the tips of the widest prongs is four feet and three inches. While they are rusty appearing from their long rest in the mud of Cass river, a polishing will put them in shape to make a handsome ornament for any collection. Another object of interest was a copper arrow head about six inches long that was found imbedded in the skull bone of the find. Some savage offlong ago is without doubt responsible for the death of the noble beast though the date of his death can only be a matter for conjecture.—Mariette Leader.

"Corn Wheat" a Myth.

Washington, March 28.—The department of agriculture reports that an enormous number of letters is being received at the department from farmers in all parts of the country, asking for definite information concerning a so-called new grain called "corn wheat," and usually at the same time requesting samples for trial. These letters are the result of widely published newspaper reports. The department authorizes the statement that there is no such thing as corn wheat, and that it is probable no hybrid of corn and wheat could ever be produced, or at any rate, one that would be fertile. The grain which caused the newspaper publications, the department says, is known correctly as Polish wheat.

Slashed His Throat.

Morenci, Mich., March 30.—Chas. A. Conrad, a prominent farmer, stock buyer and horseman, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor at his house, two miles south of Morenci, Saturday afternoon. His wife had just left him to use the telephone when he pulled the razor from his clothes and slashed his throat. He lived only three minutes afterwards. He was 62 years of age and was despondent on account of his continued illness.

Miners to Suspend Work.

Bay City, Mich., March 30.—A suspension of all work by miners in Michigan coal mines has been ordered by President Williams of the Michigan district pending the outcome of a conference between the operators and miners in the offices of National President John Mitchell in Indianapolis. The suspension goes into effect April 1 and the declaration of a formal strike will depend on the outcome of the conference.

Damages For Husband's Death.

Flint, Mich., March 30.—On the morning of Jan. 28, 1901, George Ofield was killed by a Grand Trunk engine while passing in front of a freight train which blocked the Harrison street crossing, the engine of the freight blowing off steam and drowning the approach of the light engine, which killed Ofield. His widow sued for $10,000 damages and the case has now been settled for $1,000.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

Two Men Drowned.

Sharon, Pa., March 28.—A double drowning occurred here last evening in the Shenango river, within sight of several hundred people, who were powerless to give aid. The victims were Gaylord H. Locke, aged 38 years, a prominent business man of Sharon, and his nephew, Frederick Mapous, aged 19 years. The bodies of both were recovered two hours after the accident. Locke and Mapous drove a horse and wagon into the river at the foot of Silver street, to wash the buckboard. They apparently got into a sink hole, for the horse and the two men were swept down stream into deep water and all drowned.

American Assaulted in Paris.

Paris, March 28.—A wealthy American, whose name is not given, has been the victim of a sensational assault and robbery here. He was induced to visit quarters occupied by parties who represented themselves as dealers in antiquities, and was there set upon, badly choked and robbed of a pocketbook containing $500 and of four valuable rings, his watch and other jewelry. A young Englishman named Wilson has been arrested.

Nobility Recommends Nervine.

The above portrait is that of Countess Mogelstud, of Chicago, Ill., whose gratitude for the benefit received from the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine prompted her to make this statement:

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to the very excellent merits of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Although I am past 80 years of age I find it soothes the tired brain, quiets the irritated nerves and insures restful sleep. I never feel contented without a bottle of it in the house." Gratefully yours,

CHRISTIANA MARIA,
Countess Mogelstud.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is a nerve tonic and strength-builder that starts right in restoring health immediately.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

GIRLS SKIPPED.

Two Escaped From Industrial Home at Adrian.

Adrian, Mich., March 30.—Zo Matis of Grand Rapids and Hazel Yetter of Newaygo county escaped from the Industrial Home Saturday and walked to Pentecost, where they remained in a freight car until 4 o'clock Sunday morning.

At John Thelaud's residence they aroused the household and Mrs. Thelaud fitted the girls out with clothing. Shortly afterwards she heard over the telephone that two girls had escaped from the home. She hitched up a horse, overtook the girls and drove them to Onsted, where they were turned over to Deputy Sheriff George Hines. She will receive the customary $50 reward from the state for the capture.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, March 30.—Michigan pensions granted Saturday: Increase—James P. Bradfield, Wellington, $8; William H. White, Kent, $8; Scott B. Maynard, Grand Rapids, $8; Horace B. Stokes, Wolverine, $8; Oliver Griffin, Kalamazoo, $12; John J. Brudi, Fishers Station, $12; George W. Herring, Nashville, $8; Charles W. Smith, Elkton, $8; John Safford, Fife Lake, $17. Widows—Minor of Henry Fifield, Oxford, $12; Josephine Hugenon, Saginaw, $8.

Commissioner's Notice.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, county of Lenawee

In the matter of the estate of OLIVER DRAKE, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said county, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the law office of Wightman & Gillespie, in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 28th day of April, 1903, and on the 29th day of September 1903, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 14th day of March, A. D. 1903, are allowed by said probate court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

GEORGE HOLLOWAY,
CHARLES BENEDICT,
Commissioners.

Dated, March 16th, 1903.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss. Probate Court for said County. At a session of the Probate Court for said County, held at the Probate Office, in the city of Adrian, on the 30th day of March, in the year one thousand, nine hundred and three.

Present, Harry L. Larwill, Judge of Probate

In the matter of the estate of FRANCIS HARRING, incompetent.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Melissa Harring, guardian of said ward, alleging that she is now ready to render her guardianship account, and praying that said account may be approved and allowed, and for such other order as to this court shall seem proper.

It is ordered, that Monday, the 27th day of April next at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Tecumseh Herald, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

HARRY L. LARWILL,
Judge of Probate.

(A true copy)
E. L. Larwill, Probate Register.

His House Full of Loot.

Kalamazoo, Mich., March 30.—Sheriff Shipman Saturday, in searching the home of George Nash, who is serving time in the county jail, found it filled with contraband stuff of all descriptions. More than forty different articles were identified by descriptions previously left at the sheriff's office. The offense for which Nash is under sentence is larceny. He was convicted of stealing revolvers.

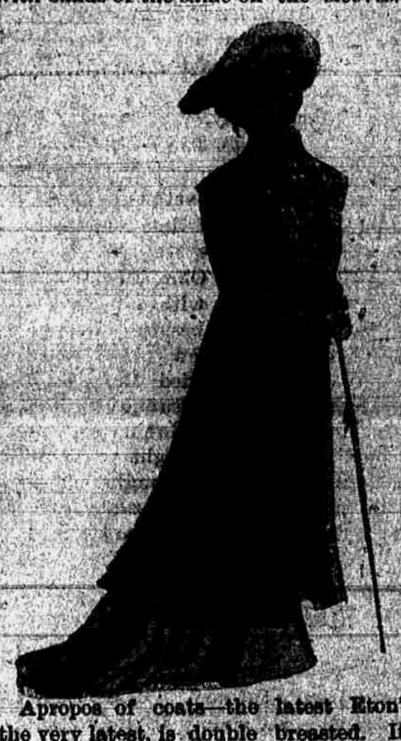
Drowned in Tawas River.

East Tawas, Mich., March 30.—The body of George Jenkins of Au Sable was found in Tawas river Saturday. As he was seen on the train Friday evening south bound, it is supposed he fell off the train when crossing the bridge. He has relatives at Five Lakes, Lapeer county, to which place his body was shipped.

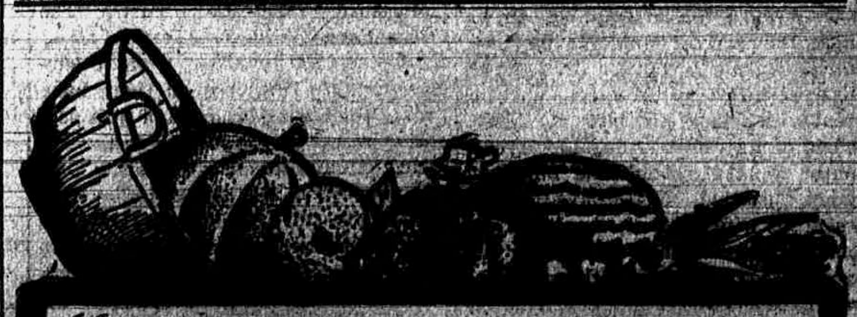
LATEST FASHION NOTES.

A Rich and Elegant Coat.

This coat is almost regal in its magnificence, being developed of heavy corded black novelty cloth. It is made with loose front and back, the revers-facing of white peau de soie and fancy black and white striped velvet, and on the sleeves as well as above the narrow ruffles, appear wide bands of handsome tapestry embroidery. Grelots of jet beads also add to the trimming, and the turn-down collar consists of ermine with bands of the same on the sleeves.



Apropos of coats—the latest Eton the very latest, is double breasted. It is cut V-shaped in the neck, V-shaped in the back, and there are double lapels, one deeper than the other, all double breasted and stitched with Corticelli stitching silk. The sleeves have two capes at the top, and the Eton itself has a frill falling below the belt in front, thus suggesting a Directoire. Then there is an Eton which is very nice and which makes a nice winter garment. It is fastened in the back, as so many winter coats are, while the front is laid in folds to below the bust, where the Eton is cut off. The shirtwaist in this case is made with a full, baggy effect over the front of the belt.



"PROTECTO" APPROVALS.

More than a thousand men in more than a thousand places give their unqualified endorsement of "Protecto" after a season's thorough trial. We have room for only a few of them here:

I used "Protecto" on cucumber and pumpkin vines. The bugs left immediately and never came back. JONATHAN CAREY, Westfield, Ind.

I bought three cans of "Protecto" to use on our garden last spring. Our first planting before using "Protecto" was all destroyed by cut worms. We used "Protecto" on all seeds after it arrived and it was a perfect success. L. A. PAYNE, Hastings, Neb.

I used "Protecto" on ten acres of corn, except sixty rows, which I left untreated, to test its merits, and where I used it I am satisfied that it will make ten or twelve bushels more to the acre than the other. B. F. LANCASTER, Greencastle, Ind.

I bought one gallon of "Protecto" and used it on melon and squash vines. The bugs were very thick. The bugs left and we had a very good stand of vines. "Protecto" does all that is claimed for it. A. SCHILLING, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

I used "Protecto" and it was a great help to drive the striped melon bugs away. It will do what you claim in driving the bugs away. I would like the agency for my county. J. W. C. LEE, Conway, Ark.

I used "Protecto" on my corn and I procured a better stand than I have had for years and also better corn than I ever raised on the field. I [illegible] any farmer to give it a trial. D. P. SHELTON, Lena, Ind.

"PROTECTO" is the celebrated Corn and Vine Protector and Vitalizer. It is a liquid in which seeds are immersed before planting. It kills all parasitic and fungus germs, keeps off insect pests, repels crows, squirrels, gophers, wire worms, cut worms, etc. Stimulates a strong and rapid growth and insures a perfect fruition. All persons who used it last year will use it again this season. Thousands of others who have not used it, but who have heard of it, are making inquiries about it now. To all such and others we recommend that they send at once for our "Protecto" booklet and additional information. All orders in this county will be supplied by the one named below who is our regular authorized agent for this territory.

WORLD'S FAIR BILL

Sleeper's Measure Favorably Acted Upon by the Senate.

HOUSE KILLED BANGHAM BILL

Requiring All Appointments by the Governor to Be Confirmed by the Senate—Simons' Wife-Desertion Bill Passed.

Lansing, Mich., April 2.—Representative Rodgers made a vigorous attempt at yesterday's session of the house to cut down the appropriation for the Soldiers' home from $134,000 to $119,000, basing his arguments on the fact that the amount was all that was required last year. Representative Von Zoeren, father of the bill, thought different and explained that with the increased cost of fuel and other commodities, the raise from $1 55 to $1 62 per capita for the maintenance of the home was anything but unreasonable. The Rodgers amendment, requiring a two-thirds vote, was lost.

Representative Wade, chairman of the house judiciary committee, thinks the Simons bill, making wife desertion a felony, is unconstitutional in that the title defines the felon as only the man who deserts his wife and leaves his family as a burden on the state, and then "leaves the state of Michigan." Wade did not notice the discrepancy until the vote was being taken on third reading. The wife deserter who does not leave Michigan is not affected by the bill. Speaker Carton was one of the four to vote against the bill on its third reading.

Several amendments were offered to the Byrns bill, authorizing the state auditors to sell state lots and buildings in Lansing. The bill passed.

By a vote of 43 to 27 the house killed the Bangham bill, requiring all appointments by the governor to be confirmed by the senate. Since the bill went through the committee of the whole the argument has been used that the senate had too much power now in the matter of appointments.

Governor Bliss sent to the senate the name of Dr. Hal C. Wyman of Detroit to succeed the late Dr. E. W. Jenks of Detroit as a member of the state board of corrections and charities. The term of office expires Dec. 31, 1906.

The senate yesterday afternoon adopted the house concurrent resolution, adjourning from Friday morning to Tuesday evening next, at 9 o'clock.

The senate also passed the Sleeper world fair bill, which President Pro Tem. Fuller Tuesday night decided did not pass on account of the lack of the necessary two-thirds vote of the members-elect to appropriate public money for a private purpose. The bill was passed by a vote of 21 to 9.

Attorney-General Blair gave President Pro Tem. Fuller a written opinion that this bill did not come within the constitutional provisions making an appropriation of money for a private purpose, and hence only needed a majority vote of the members-elect to pass the bill.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, April 2.—Michigan pensions were granted Wednesday as follows: Original—Frederick Gill, Reed City, $8; Edgar A. Green, Scottville, $6; L. Orlando Miner, Clayton, $6; Charles M. Walker, Adrian, $12. Increase, reissue, etc.—Edson Ferrill, Gilead, $12; Silas W. Ostrander, Gladwin, $8; John Waters, Bristol, $12; Livester Maginity, Bear Lake, $8; James C. Dixon, Benton Harbor, $14; Nathan F. Brown, Detroit, $8; William H. Horton, deceased, Hart, $14; Lambert Johnson, Morrice, $12; Alonzo F. Canfield, Lenwood, $24. Widows and minors—Rhoda A. Horton, Hart, $8; Charlotte J. Glosser, Wyandotte; Samantha A. Newcomb, Leroy, $12; minors of John Hines, Albion, $12.

Broke Her Neck by a Fall.

Cadillac, Mich., April 2.—Mrs. Arthur G. Snyder, one of the most highly respectable residents of this city, died yesterday from injuries received in a peculiar accident. She was engaged in doing the family washing when in some manner she slipped and fell, striking the back of her head upon a tub. She was unconscious when picked up and died in three hours without reviving. The doctor says her neck was broken.

Jackson Labor Strikes.

Jackson, Mich., April 2.—Between 200 and 250 building laborers and masons quit work Wednesday morning owing to the failure of the bosses to accede to their demand for a raise from 20 to 23 cents an hour. The strike is on large contracts, several small contractors having signed an agreement to pay 23 cents. The building trades council and the building exchange are now negotiating for a peaceable settlement of the differences.

Painters Want More Money.

Saginaw, Mich., April 2.—Citizens of Saginaw are doing their own painting and decorating at present, all union men being on strike. The bosses concede the minimum wage of $2 25 per day of eight hours demanded by the men, but will not agree to a proportionate increase for higher skilled men, who have been paid on a sliding scale for the last year. The men absolutely decline to recognize the Master Painters' Association.

Wheels Cut His Head Off.

Bay City, Mich., April 2.—Nelson Fortin, aged 48, was fishing on the Grand Trunk lighter track, when a train of flats backed down on him. Fortin stumbled in trying to get out of the way and fell under a car, with his head across the track, and it was cut off by the wheels.

In Honor to the Dead.

St. Joseph, Mo., April 1.—There was tolling of bells and a complete suspension of business in St. Joseph while the city's great benefactor, G. F. [illegible] was laid to rest in Chicago yesterday.

Makes a Clean Sweep.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures burns, sores, bruises, cuts, boils, ulcers, skin eruptions and piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by C. A. Wright, druggist.

A STATE OF SIEGE

Rebels of China Cornered Imperial Troops

SENT OUT FROM PEKIN

Many Headmen and Rifles Lost—Kwangsi Rebellion Has Become Very Formidable—Japan's Osaka Exhibition Opens April 10.

Victoria, B. C., April 2.—News was received Wednesday by the Empress of Japan that after defeating the imperial troops with heavy loss, the Kwangsi rebels have laid siege to Liuchow, where Governor Wang Chih Chen, who had been deposed and ordered to Pekin, is surrounded. Kweilin, the provincial capital, is also in a state of siege, and three rebel armies were approaching that city to aid the besiegers in making a joint attack on the place. Viceroy Tsen of Szechuan has wired to Pekin asking if the government is aware of the serious state of affairs at Wweilin. Governor Wang Chih Chen had intended to proceed there from Nankin, and marched his army from Liuchow, not many miles distant from Kweilin. The imperial forces soon found themselves greatly harassed on all sides by the rebels, who almost surrounded the former and effectually prevented them from leaving the vicinity of Liuchow. Governor Wang Chih Shen had to retreat with ignominity and with the loss of many headmen and 2,000 rifles.

All the roads are held now by rebels and the commissary routes are blocked.

The rebellion in Kwangsi has become very formidable and news has come from Yunnan and Kueichow that several cities within the borders of these two provinces have been occupied by the rebels.

Tokio, March 20, via Victoria, B. C., April 2.—The Osaka exhibition is being rapidly set in order for the grand formal opening by the emperor on April 10. The local papers already contain columns of reports on special exhibits, a . much praise is devoted to these from the United States and Canada.

The famine in the northeast is continuing to attract the attention of the charitable institutions, the Japanese now following the foreign residents in extending aid. The emperor has obtained a special report and will shortly contribute a large sum to the relief fund.

Departments Get a Shaking Up.

New York, April 2.—The Washington correspondent of the American says: Fortythree clerks in the treasury department have received three days' notice to show cause why they should not be removed. This is only one detail in the plans contemplated by the administration. The postoffice department and the customs' service are to have "shake-ups." Clerks are to be removed in New York and deputy customs inspectors are to be dropped in New York, Chicago and everywhere else. The forty-three clerks who have received the official ultimatum here are men who have been long in the service.

Great Britain's Revenues.

London, April 2.—The treasury returns issued Tuesday night show that the total revenue of the United Kingdom during the financial year ending March 31, was $805,998,900, compared with $793,008,185 for the previous year. The principal increases were: Property and income tax, $20,000,000; customs duties, $17,234,235; excise duties, $3,101,340; stamps, $2,000,000; postoffice receipts, $2,250,000. The leading decreases were: Estate duties, $2,163,355; miscellaneous, $823,335. The net increase of revenue over the previous year was thus $12,990,715.

A Turkish Massacre.

Sofia, Bulgaria, April 2.—The Macedonian committee announces that a revolutionary band of thirty-one men and the inhabitants of the village of Abalitche, near Istib, have been massacred by Bashi Bazouks. The band, it is added, was surrounded in the village, artillery was brought up and after ten hours' fighting the village was completely razed and burned and all the inhabitants, without distinction, were massacred. The Turkish losses are reported to have been even greater than those of the other side.

Fired on the Fort.

San Domingo, Republic of Santo Domingo, Sunday, March 29.—The Dominican warship Presidente, flying the flag of President Vasquez, arrived off this port early today and signaled for a pilot, who went on board. The cruiser then left San Domingo after exchanging cannon shots with the fort. No damage was done on either side. The situation is becoming very serious and the arrival here of a foreign warship is anxiously awaited.

Narrowly Escaped Lynching.

Lima, Peru, April 2.—A dispatch from Cusco announces that the police there with difficulty prevented the lynching of Fernando Seminario, the candidate of the liberal alliance for the presidency, who is now canvassing the south of the republic.

Major-General Hughes Retires.

San Francisco, April 2.—Major-General R. P. Hughes retired from active service Wednesday. He turned over the command of the department of California to Major-General MacArthur. No special formality marked the event.

Drought in Roumania.

Bucharest, Roumania, April 2.—The persistent drought is causing great anxiety among the farmers of Roumania. The wheat is suffering badly from lack of rain and the colza crop is already regarded as lost.

Oldest Lighthouse Tender Dead.

Alpena, Mich., April 1.—Patrick Garrity, the oldest lighthouse tender in the government service, is dead at the age of 76 years. He had been lightkeeper at Presque Isle since 1861, prior to which time he was in the lake survey service under General Meade for eight years.

Escaped Lunatic Recaptured.

Kalamazoo, Mich., April 1.—Anna McDonald, who escaped from the asylum, was found late last night under the platform in the Michigan Central yards, in a dangerous condition, having been without food and water for over thirty hours. She had divested herself of all her clothing.

PRESIDENT'S TRAIN.

Will Be One of the Finest Ever Run Out of Washington.

Washington, April 1.—The special train on which the president will leave today for his western trip will be furnished by the Pennsylvania railroad and will be one of the fastest ever run out of Washington. It has been specially decorated and equipped for the trip. It will consist of six cars, manned by a picked crew, with Conductor William H. Johnson, who has been with the president on many trips, in charge. Spencer Murray will be in charge of the president's car, which will be the private car Elysian. It has a parlor and observation compartment, three state sleeping rooms, a dining-room and two sleeper sections, a kitchen and sleeping sections for servants.

Other cars of the train will be the Texas, a compartment sleeper; the Senegal, a section sleeper; the St. James, a diner; the Atlantic, a combination buffet and baggage car, and a regular baggage car. The trip will continue from April 1 until June 5—nine weeks and three days. During that time the president will travel 14,000 miles.

ARTILLERY OVERTURNED.

Young Soldier Killed in Drill Hall at Fort Myer, Va.

Washington, April 1.—The overturning of a heavy piece of artillery Monday in the drill hall at Fort Myer, Va., during the regular drill of the Fourth battery of field artillery caused the death of a corporal and the injury of three other soldiers.

Killed: Corporal Charles J. Slavin, aged 25 years, of Washington, D. C., crushed beneath the wheels.

Injured: James Reilly, Worcester, Mass.; Elmer Wehn, Baltimore; Matthew E. Duncan, Brooklyn.

When the accident occurred the battery detachment, consisting of four pieces, was tearing at a gallop around the drill hall in column. As the heavy guns took the turn at a corner the wheels of the leading piece struck a rut under the tanbark and the entire piece was turned upside down. Slavin was the gunner of this piece and was seated on the extreme right of the lumber chest. He was hurled to the ground, the heavy ordnance falling squarely across his body. Four of his ribs were broken and he received terrible internal injuries.

SUED THE WATER COMPANY.

Insurance Companies Demand Damages For Non-Supply of Water.

Louisville, Ky., April 1.—Twenty-four insurance companies filed suit against the Louisville Water company Tuesday for amounts aggregating $491,000, alleged to be due because of the failure of the company properly to supply the fire department with water, thus resulting in disastrous fires which otherwise could have been averted.

One case is filed by twenty-two individual companies because of the fire which destroyed the warehouse of the Peasles-Gaulbert company. The insurance companies claim that if the water had been furnished properly the loss at this fire would have been small, whereas they already have paid out $74,901.

FIVE MEN KILLED.

And Four Injured in a Coal Mine Explosion.

St. Louis, Mo., April 1.—A special from Sandoval, Ill., says: Five men were killed and four fatally injured by an explosion in the coal mine here Tuesday.

The dead: Frank Devis, L. F. Lamay, Dominic Barlottso, John Gachenis, Joe Beanca. Fatally injured: Henry Newhouse, Henry Wheeler, Charles Lewis, William McFadden. Seriously hurt: Frank Day.

Three of the dead men leave families. It is thought the explosion was caused by a windy shot igniting the coal dust.

New Bulgarian Cabinet.

Sofia, April 1.—Dr. Daneff, the former premier, has succeeded in forming a new cabinet, which includes all the members of the late ministry with the exception of General Paprikoff, who was minister of war. Paprikoff is succeeded by Colonel Savoff.

Killed by Robbers.

Findlay, O., April 1.—Sarah Dietz, a widow aged 73 years, living alone, was found dead in her home Tuesday morning by a man who worked for her. Robbery was the motive of the crime, as the house was ransacked and a number of checks taken.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Building Fell and Man Killed.—By the collapse of a large steel and wooden apartment house, in process of construction in Boston, the foreman was killed and four others injured.

Mortally Wounded Two Persons.—While suffering from dementia, Frank Candee of Kansas City shot and mortally wounded his brother, Nathan B. Candee, aged 38 years, and his sister, Miss Oline Candee, aged 45 years, after which he shot and fatally wounded himself.

Conditions Are Miserable.—General Kritzinger, who commanded the Boer forces during the last year of the Boer war, addressing a large audience in Baltimore, said "conditions in South Africa are miseable in the extreme. The spirit of the people is unbroken, but the industrial resources are exhausted."

Held Up an Alderman.—With leveled pistols, three robbers in Chicago, in sight of a saloon filled with workingmen, held up and robbed Alderman Nathan T. Brenner of $300 in currency, took a ring from the finger of his companion, Jacob Kessner, and leaping into the victims' buggy drove off unmolested.

Married in Jail.—Ernest F. Bremer of Chicago was married to Miss Marie Hayman, also of Chicago, in the jail at Cleveland, O., Tuesday afternoon. Bremer had been placed under arrest for alleged defrauding of a hotelkeeper and as the wedding had already been arranged to take place, it was carried out according to program.

Painters Strike in Saginaw.

Saginaw, Mich., April 1.—Two hundred and fifty union painters, decorators and paperhangers went on a strike last night. The trouble is due to failure of the union grievance committee and a committee from the boss painters to agree on a wage schedule.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at C. A. Wright's drug store.

A DAY OF STRIKES.

Labor Throughout the Country Demands More Wages.

Philadelphia, April 2.—Numerous strikes, none of which, however, involved a great number of men, were inaugurated in many of the smaller towns in the eastern half of Pennsylvania Wednesday. The principal trades that struck were painters, plumbers, paperhangers, carpenters and bricklayers. Higher wages and a shorter workday were the principal demands.

Pana, Ill., April 2.—Because the mine operators of the Twelfth subdistrict refused to meet the 2,000 miners to consider a wage scale, work was suspended Wednesday pending the signing of a scale.

Indianapolis, April 2.—Three hundred bricklayers struck Wednesday for an increase in pay from 50 cents to 60 cents an hour. The contractors have offered an increase of 5 cents an hour.

Cincinnati, April 2.—More than 700 employes of nine architectural iron structure works struck here yesterday. The men demanded an increase of wages. Part of the increase was allowed Tuesday, but none of the men reported for work.

Milwaukee, April 2.—Two hundred and fifty painters and decorators, 135 steamfitters and 328 glassblowers quit work Wednesday. The men demand an increase in wages and recognition of the union. Several firms are affected.

Buffalo, April 2.—About 1,000 plumbers quit work Wednesday pending a conference between their representatives and the master plumbers. The issue is said to be the refusal of the most of the master plumbers to sign a contract agreeing to pay $3 50 a day for three years.

GOES INTO EFFECT.

The Award of the Coal Strike Commission.

Philadelphia, April 2.—The award of the anthracite coal strike commission went into full effect Wednesday throughout the coal regions. The inauguration of the new conditions was generally observed as a holiday in the southern fields, almost all the mines in that district being idle. In several towns parades and mass meetings were held. In the middle and upper regions some of the collieries were not operated, but most of the mineworkers reported for duty.

As a rule, the re-adustment of hours and other conditions were effected with but little difficulty. At some places there was friction, but it is expected that whatever difficulty still exists will be straightened out in a few days. In the region where the Reading's collieries are situated there is some trouble regarding the establishment of the three shifts of eight hours each among the firemen, as ordered by the commission. Until yesterday the firemen have worked twelve hours, and it is alleged by some of the firemen that in making up the third shift of eight hours men were taken from the other two shifts, increasing the work even though the hours have been reduced.

PENNELL'S LIFE INSURANCE.

Alleged Companies Holding It Wanted the Inquest Postponed.

Buffalo, April 2.—The life insurance of Arthur R. Pennell now constitutes the surviving element of interest in the Pennell-Burdick tragedy.

From information obtained Wednesday, it appears that the life insurance is the factor that has been working for the postponement of the inquest of Pennell. It is claimed, on good authority, that the activity of former District Attorney Penney to have the Pennell inquest postponed arose from financial considerations.

As to the probability of litigation, the only persons who can speak with authority are the agents of the various companies, with which Mr. Pennell was insured, and those who have suicidal clauses in their contracts are silent.

Accused of Corruption.

Chicago, April 2.—Edward J. Novak, alderman from the Tenth ward, was accused Wednesday of corruption in the misuse of his power as state legislator and city councilman. The accusation came in the hearing of a libel suit brought by Alderman Novak against August Gerringer, editor of a Bohemian newspaper. John G. Panoch, a former partner of the alderman in the real estate business, made the charges against Novak from the witness stand. "Alderman Novak told me that he cleared $7,000 in the legislature," said Panoch. "He said that he got $6,000 on one bill, $700 for voting for another and also received compensation in connection with a third measure. He told me that he made $7,000 above his campaign expenses."

Officer Stabbed to Death.

Jacksonville, Ill., April 2.—P. B. Campbell, a deputy sheriff of McDonough county, was stabbed to death by an insane man on a Burlington train near Chapinell yesterday. Campbell had charge of the man, whom he was bringing to the Central insane hospital. After stabbing Campbell the insane man secured Campbell's revolver and defied the whole carload of passengers until he was finally overpowered.

McGovern Wants to Fight Again.

San Francisco, April 2.—Young Corbett and Terry McGovern had a meeting last night, at which the latter solicited another match for the championship. Corbett said that he intended to engage in a theatrical tour for some months and at the end of his stage venture he would consider the proposition.

The Public Debt.

Washington, April 2.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business March 31, 1903, the total debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $939,603,919, an increase for the month of $1,631,021. This increase is accounted for by a corresponding decrease in the amount of cash on hand.

FROM CALIFORNIA

John J. Orr received the following letter from his brother

ALBERT ORR

Santa Catalina Island, March 26, 1903
John J. Orr,
Tecumseh, Mich.

DEAR BROTHER: Left LosAngeles via San Pedro last Monday and arrived here after 3½ hours ride. The island is 22 miles long and contains 55,000 acres, a park in the Pacific, a bit of the world by itself which in its climate and natural beauty and opportunity for sport comes as near perfection as one can find. On the trip over schools of whale, black fish and hundreds of flying fish were seen. There is good hunting of wild goats here and this is the world's record for rod and reel angling, home of the leaping tuna and yellow tales.

Took trip over the mountain yesterday. Today took glass bottom boat to Moonstone Beach where we got all the moonstones we could carry; also went to seal rocks this afternoon. Saw between 500 and 1000 seals of all sizes and ages being within a few feet of them.

Taking the trips in the large glass bottom boat we saw the submarine and floating gardens, beautiful beyond description, seeing all sizes from large gold fish to fish weighing 300 lbs. The wireless telegraph station is also located here.

Tomorrow we expect to take another trip by boat around the isthmus, 14 miles. The ocean was quite rough coming back today. Saw some throwing away their dinners and looking pale. The waves came over the side of the boat until we had to draw the curtains. The rougher the more I enjoyed it although others did not. There are people here from every state in U. S. Expect to leave Tuesday for Long Beach, then LosAngeles. Wish you folks were with us. Love from both to all.

Your brother, AL.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at C. A. Wright's drug store.

When you hear a great deal of one side of a story, the other side receives from you a great deal of sympathy.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE FORBES, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

OLD TECUMSEH

Commencing today the Herald will print one article each Friday until

TEN ARE DONE

About Tecumseh in Olden Times Written from old Files of the Herald.

For the benefit of those dear people who are ever bewailing "the days that are gone" and for many others who read with curious interest the ancient history of our town, we have dug up some old files of the HERALD and will from them occasionally refresh the memory of our readers with what was doing in this village nearly half a century ago.

The first paper of this collection bears date June 4, 1863. The weather that day was worthy of mention. This announcement is made, "After a season of very dry weather we were, on Saturday, Sunday and a portion of Monday, greeted with copious showers of rain. Crops look thrifty and farmers wear smiling faces." This was before the day of weather reports except in the past tense.

The editor makes his bow to a Tecumseh public in this edition. His name is J. S. Castle and he asks his readers to "Bear with the local column (half column would have been more exact) a little while, being an entire stranger in your midst and at present closely confined in the mechanical department of the paper, it will be impossible for us to do justice to it." Evidently there was no bright lady reporter at every train gathering up locals for the HERALD and the poor old editor (he must have been old, for every man in those times who had passed 30 was old) was "confined in the mechanical department." Why "confined" we do not just see, for he seems a harmless individual who meekly remarks farther on, "A year or two ago, we understand, this paper was sold for a dollar a year. Since that time, however, blank paper, like cotton goods has raised almost double in price and therefore it could be better afforded for one dollar at that time than now for a dollar and fifty. We can assure our subscribers that we make a very small per cent. at $1.50."

Wheat was quoted on that day at $1.30; potatoes, 25c; green apples $1.60; dried apples, 4c: butter, 13c; eggs, 7c; hams, 8c, and still the farmers were smiling.

R. F. Deaves has just "leased the Woolen Factory Building near the Globe Mill for a series of years, has established himself permanently in this village with a full stock of machinery for the purpose of pursuing the business of wool carding, cloth dressing and manufacturing cloths, satinets, flannels, yarn, blankets, etc., in a manner which he trusts will please his patrons."

A grand jubilee has been held the evening previous to the date of the paper, "upon the receipt of the news of the probable downfall of Vicksburg, by the discharge of cannon, illuminations, bond fires, display of fire works and public speaking." We presume it was the efficient work of Union soldiers in the field, and not the display of fire works in Tecumseh which caused the fall of the Southern stronghold. Still the writer is a little obscure on that point, but proceeds to deliver himself of encomiums that ought to have secured a few subscribers for his paper.

"It has seldom been our lot to meet where so much universal, sound patriotic feeling was manifested as in this beautiful town." (He hailed from Indiana.) "The very large crowd collected together by the booming of the cannon was patriotically addressed by Dr. Hamilton, Lieut. Kneeland, S. Davidson, Dr. Patterson and Mr. Rundle. The crowd dispersed between 10 and 11 o'clock p. m. quietly and peaceably, no doubt to drop a tear to the memory of those brave boys who may have fallen in the deadly strife." "Since writing the above it turns out that Vicksburg has not yet yielded, but desperate fighting has been going on ever since the first report of its capture."

Evidently the good feeling among our people which was so noticeable to the gentleman from Indiana, did not extend into commercial circles, for B. J. Bidwell announced that he has just purchased in New York an assortment of carpets which he invites the public to call and examine at his "One Price Store where you can get your money's worth and some change back. Having been twenty-five years in the trade, I deem all extra blowing unnecessary and leave that for young sprouts in the business." Whereupon A. Hood & Co., one of his competitors in the dry goods trade, announces in next issue, under an elaborate enumeration of their wares, "Super extra blowing being out of our line of business, we leave that for old fogies that have been a long time in trade."

Woolston Comfort takes exception to a statement previously made that "Wheat has moved a little faster than usual to the Globe Mill," and replies that he took in sixteen loads in one day and "I doubt if another mill on the stream can say they have received as much in one day this year."

And the editor remarks that a friend went to Adrian to buy a suit of clothes the other day and returned and bought them at home after all, cheaper than he could get them elsewhere, adding "Then what is the use of running off to purchase goods. You will not find Adrian people coming here even if they could purchase a little cheaper." Thus the friendly rivalries of trade were slightly tinged with acerbity in the beautiful days agone.

Most of the advertisements are illustrated. One of them informs the public "If you want the best of hooped skirts you can buy one or more at Moore's," but what on earth they need more than one for we cannot, after looking at the picture, imagine.

Social life in the village at this period was not quite what it is today. The Presbyterian social is to be held on Thursday evening at Mrs. Bacon's (where Mrs. Robert Cairns now lives) and the Methodist at C. Lawrence's on Friday evening."

The editor laments the fact that there are to be "no doings" on July 4th and says, "Our exchanges bring us announcement that it will be celebrated in very few places." This dearth of entertainment is somewhat relieved by the notice that "Committees have been appointed by the various Sunday schools in this and adjoining towns of Macon, Raisin, Franklin and Ridgeway who propose to hold a mass convention of Sabbath-schools on the 4th of July. Good speakers will be in attendance and a good time expected." Certainly they took their amusements seriously, no merry-go-rounds, slot machines or peanut roasters mentioned.

This is the strawberry season and the editor says he might take a few on subscription and there follows a new receipt for putting them up: "Common junk bottles may be used, thoroughly cleaned, tightly fitting soft corks tied in, answer well for covers, these should be made air tight by dipping them into a cement made of lard, beeswax and rosin. The above method is infinitely better and cheaper than the old mode of preserving, with a large and unnecessary quantity of sugar." Imagine one of our grandmothers arrayed in one of those shilling prints or new de laines from Hood's store, with a hoop skirt from Moore's, standing over an old fashioned hot wood fire putting strawberries, one at a time, into a "thoroughly clean" junk bottle and sealing the thing up with a home made cement of lard, beeswax and rosin and then sigh if you will, for the days that are.

A significant advertisement which is given great prominence is "Dutcher's lightening fly-killer supplies a want felt by every good housekeeper. Every sheet will kill a quart where flies are thick. Refuse base imitations." That was before we had dreamed of window and door screens and our best efforts in this direction, you will recollect, were confined to a small boy, who waved an asparagus bough over the dinner table to mitigate the ills we could not prevent.

The Union school order of examinations are published—Tuesday, June 23, Cicero's orations; Wednesday, University Arithmetic, Davis Algebra; Thursday; Danes Bourden, Natural Philosophy. Although the present Year Book of Tecumseh schools states that no diplomas were issued previous to 1886, there is a call in this paper for an alumni meeting June 26, 1863 which is said to be its third annual meeting. An oration will be delivered by Scovel C. Stacy in the afternoon. The evening will be devoted to social amusements.

A SUICIDE.

Wednesday Night Charles Bennett Found his Father,

JAMES H. BENNETT,

Hanging in a Barn. Had been Dead Several Hours.

About a week ago Chas. Bennett and family moved into town from L. W. Kimball's farm in Newburg and occupy Geo. Kay's house on Maumee street and already sorrow has overtaken them.

About 5:30 Wednesday night Mr. Bennett went to the barn to put out his team and found his father, James H. Bennett, hanging dead from a rafter. A barrel standing beside the body showed that the old gentleman had jumped from it.

About 1 o'clock Mrs. Bennett saw her father-in-law at the barn, but supposed he had gone down town as she did not see him again. Coroner H. W. Stevens was called but deemed an inquest unnecessary as without doubt it was a case of suicide.

Mr. Bennett has spent the winter at the Philip Pentecost farm in Franklin, only returning to his son's family recently. For some time past it has been noticed that his mind was failing, but his sons, Charles and Will, were totally unprepared for such an ending. He was 79 years of age.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Charles Bennett.

Registration Notice.

To the electors of the township of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan:

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the Board of Registration of the township above named will be held at the council building in the village of Tecumseh, within said township, on Saturday, April 4, A. D. 1903, for the purpose of registering the names of all such persons who shall be possessed of the necessary qualifications and who may apply for that purpose; and that said board of registration will be in session on the day and at the place aforesaid from 9 o'clock in the forenoon until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose aforesaid.

Dated this 25th day of March, 1903.
FLOYD G. HESSER, Township Clerk.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

The guests presented the host with many pretty gifts.

In another column of the HERALD may be found an advertisement of Will VanAntwerp concerning hand made harness. Will VanAntwerp has conducted a harness shop on Railroad street in Tecumseh for years and has made harness and done repairing to please everyone. He now carries a more complete stock than ever and builds an all hand made harness that will outwear all other makes. It would be well to call and get his prices.

Lilley House April 9 and 10.

It is always announced by an advertisement in the HERALD when Dr. Stein the oculist, will again be at the Lilley House in Tecumseh. The last month he was late and about a dozen different people have called at the HERALD office to find out when he was coming. April 9th and 10 are the dates and if the doctor is again late we shall be obliged to dock him half a day at least.

TOWNSHIP ELECTION

To Come off next Monday, APRIL 6,

And on Account of there being Three Good Tickets in the Field there will, no doubt, be a Full Vote Polled.

Three tickets are in the field to be supported at the town meeting next Monday and in all of them are names of good men.

B. J. Garlinghouse is renominated for supervisor by the democrats. He is a good man for the place, has made a good supervisor and will fight good and strong for election for another year. R. A. Heesen heads the republican ticket is a good business man, a strong party man and would make a good supervisor. The two men live within a block of each other on Chicago street, are both the best natured men in town and it is a pleasure to the HERALD to sit one side and see them have a good old fashioned scrap for the office, thinking that which either man is elected the township will be well represented.

Newberry Satterthwaite, the republican candidate for treasurer, is one of the best known men in Tecumseh. He is well fitted for the position and having hosts of friends, will, no doubt, make a good run. W. W. Hicks, the republican candidate for Justice of the peace, to fill vacancy, is peculiarly adapted to fill this position owing to his experience as student in the law office of F. B. Wood and his further extended education in the law department of the University of Michigan.

Best Hard Coal.

Last Spring before soliciting orders for hard coal, we assured ourselves about getting the coal, so in May we delivered all the orders taken for that month in full. Now in a few days we will be in a position to quote prices on summer coal. During the last year our coal trade has increased wonderfully and the reason is plain. We have insisted on giving the best quality of clean hard coal and it has become a byword among our many customers, that Temple always sells the best coal and the reason is that he buys only of mines that sell only good coal. Thus by fair dealing and handling only the best grades of coal you will always be pleased when giving your orders to the TEMPLE GROCERY CO.

THE CHURCHES.

Subject for sermons at the Baptist church next Sunday: Morning, "The Greatest Prophet;" evening, "Christianity and Suicide."

The pastor of the M. E. church will have for his subject Sunday morning, "The Characteristics of Christ, the Son of God."

Sunday afternoon services during Lent. Special course of sermons, general subject "The Way of Salvation."

April 5th—"The Necessity of Good Works."

The Rector would earnestly commend this course of sermons. It is not more to be lamented than it is true that the great majority of Christian people have no proper understanding whatever of the Way of Salvation.

At the Presbyterian church Sunday, Rev. S. E. Wishard, Synodical Missionary of Utah, will speak in the morning on Mission work among the Mormons. In the evening he will speak on The Mormon Menace.

SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The following program will be carried out at the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Presbyterian church Monday evening beginning at 7 p. m., to which all are invited to attend:

Invocation.
Singing, "Auld Lang Syne," by congregation.
Prayer.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Celebrated Monday Last at the home of

MR. AND MRS. JOHN CADMUS

In Raisin, Have Lived for Fifty Years on their Farms.

Between sixty and seventy relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cadmus in Raisin township on Monday, March 30th to celebrate with them the golden anniversary of their wedding.

On the 7th of April 1853, Mr. and Mrs. Cadmus moved on to the farm where they have ever since resided. It was then a forest wilderness, but through the industry of this worthy couple, they have today a beautiful, well-fenced, well-tilled farm. Their seven children and four grandchildren were all present to enjoy the occasion with them.

Notwithstanding the orders were that no presents were to be brought, some of the neighbors got together and purchased two beautiful heavy oak rockers which in a nicely worded speech were presented to them. Miss Colvin, who in the days when teachers "boarded around" was the first teacher to stop with the newly wedded pair, was present and read a very pretty poem descriptive of Mr. and Mrs. Cadmus' wedded life.

Some of the old time vocal and instrumental music was rendered, reminiscences of by gone days recited and a general good time enjoyed by all present. Each guest carried away with him a pretty heart shaped souvenir containing the words "Mr. and Mrs. John Cadmus, 1853 March 30, 1903" and a little landscape scene in water colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Cadmus are well preserved for their years and their friends departed wishing that they may be pared to enjoy many more anniversaries of their wedding day.

Election Notice.

Notice is hereby given to the electors of the township of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, that the next ensuing township election will be held on the first Monday in April, being the 6th day of April A. D. 1903, at the first and second precincts in said township, at which election the following officers are to be chosen to-wit: One Supervisor for one year, one Clerk for one year, one Treasurer for one year, one School Inspector for two years, one Highway Commissioner for one year, one Justice of the Peace for four years, one Justice of the Peace to fill vacancy, one Member of the Board of Review for two years, four Constables for one year each. The polls of said election will be open at 7 o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as may be, and will continue open until 5 o'clock in the afternoon of said day (standard time), unless the board shall in their discretion, adjourn the polls at 12 o'clock noon (standard time), for one hour. The opening and closing and adjournment, if any, shall be at the same hour in both of said voting precincts.

Dated, March 25, 1903.

IT'S FOOLISH

To Ignore such Convincing Proof as this Tecumseh Citizen Gives You Here.

You may differ from your neighbors in many important questions of the day. Your opinions may coincide with those of the minority or those of the majority, and still you may be in doubt. But you can hardly be skeptical about the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills when you read such emphatic local endorsement as the following:

Mrs. J. W. Owen, wife of the well-known carpenter, living in the southeastern section of Tecumseh, says: "I am very well pleased with Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and they did me a lot of good. I had heart trouble and my kidneys did not perform their proper duties. This condition existed for some time. I tried different remedies which were recommended to me but received little, if any, benefit from them. I will cheerfully say this for Doan's Kidney Pills. I received more permanent relief from their use than from any other medicine I ever used. I am pleased to testify in their value."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Excess of grief for the deceased is madness, for it is an injury to the living and the dead know it not.

Eczema, scald head, hives, itchiness of the skin of any sort, instantly relieved, permanently cured. Doan's Ointment. At any drug store.

The best acquaintance a man has is the stranger who knows neither good nor bad of him.

Ordinary household accidents have no terrors when there's a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the medicine chest. Heals burns, cuts, bruises, sprains. Instant relief.

Society is often more concerned about the way a man enters and leaves a room than about his fitness for being admitted to the room at all.

People without any faults never have many friends.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

requires physical and mental ability of a high degree to withstand its hard labors. The high tension to which the nervous system is constantly subjected, has a depressing effect, and soon headache, backache, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, etc., develop in severe form. Such was the case of Mail Carrier S. F. Sweinhart, of Huntsville, Ala., he says:

"An attack of pneumonia left me with muscular rheumatism, headache, and pains that seemed to be all over me. I was scarcely able to move for about a month when I decided to give Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and Nerve Plasters a trial. In three days I was again on my route and in two weeks I was free from pain and gaining in flesh and strength."

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Mortgage Sale.

Whereas, default has been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage (whereby the power of sale therein contained has become operative) made, executed and delivered by Benjamin F. Reynolds and Clarissa C. Reynolds, his wife, to John S. Strong, dated the 6th day of May A. D. 1896, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds, in and for the County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, on 15th day of May A. D. 1896, in Liber 139 of Mortgages on page 120; and which mortgage was duly assigned by said John S. Strong to Charles E. Williamson by instrument in writing dated the 19th day of June A D 1896, and recorded in said Register's Office on the 22nd day of June A D 1896 in Liber 142 of Mortgages on page 29; and which mortgage was further duly assigned by said Charles E. Williamson to Lorenzo D. Dewey by instrument in writing dated the 1st day of April A D 1896, and recorded in said Register's office on the 1st day of April A D 1896 in Liber 143 of Mortgages on page 391; upon which mortgage indebtedness there is claimed to be due at the date hereof the sum of fifteen hundred twenty-seven and 48-100 dollars (including the amount paid for insurance of the buildings on the premises described in said mortgage, with interest thereon, under authority given by the terms of said mortgage); and no suit or proceedings at law, or in equity, having been instituted for the recovery of the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that, for the purpose of satisfying and paying said claim, and the interest thereon, with costs of this proceeding (including a lawful attorney fee), I will, by virtue of said power of sale, on the 29th day of June A D 1903, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the east front door of the Court House in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee (that being the place where the Circuit Court for said County is holden), sell, at public vendue to the highest bidder, the following lands, in said mortgage described and conveyed, viz:—All that tract or parcel of land situate and being in the Village of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, to-wit:—Commencing in the south line of Kilbuck Street twelve rods east from the east line of Evans Street, such point of beginning also the north-west corner of the L. Drew homestead premises and now occupied by C. F. Coller as a residence premises, and being also the north-east corner of a parcel of land formerly deeded by one E. M. Lansing to Thomas Cummins, thence south on west line of said C. F. Coller land twelve (12) rods; thence west on south line of said E. M. Lansing land six (6) rods; thence north parallel with the first course twelve rods to the south line of Kilbuck Street; thence east on south line of Kilbuck Street six rods to place of beginning.

Dated: March 31st A D 1903.

Today's Herald.

It will be necessary to beg pardon of some of our out of town subscribers for today's edition of the HERALD as it contains no telegraph news and many other important items were left out to make room for the 75th Anniversary of the Presbyterian church, which takes up two pages of the paper and contains many cuts, which together with a full report of the proceedings make not only a very interesting paper, but one that is a great credit to Tecumseh and the HERALD.

Amongst other things it may be said that there was more type set for the HERALD today than for any other regular edition of any paper ever printed in Tecumseh. It is simply the aim of the HERALD to print all the news of Tecumseh and in a manner commensurate with the happenings.

THE CHURCHES.

The Epworth League will give a Sunrise prayer meeting Easter morning at 6 o'clock.

Services at the Universalist church Sunday next at 10 o'clock. Miss Baker of Manchester, will preach.

Capt. Davis and Adj. Evans, of Adrian, will conduct services at the Friends' church here this evening.

Six o'clock services will be held at the Episcopal church Sunday morning. The service will be held at 3:30 instead of 4 o'clock as announced last Sunday.

The work which the men from the University will do in Tecumseh will be of an interdenominational character. Nearly every denomination will be represented and five or six different states. Every one is invited to attend the meeting next Wednesday evening at the Methodist church.

Commited Suicide.

Columbus, O., April 8.—Prof. Ernest A. Eggers, head of the department of German at the Ohio State University, committed suicide this evening by shooting himself at his home. It is said he was despondent from ill health.

Though himself not a college graduate, Prof. Eggers was noted among college educators. He taught in several Michigan high schools before coming to Ohio State University in 1882. He was about 52 years old. A widow, who is a member of a distinguished German family, survive with two children.—Free Press.

Prof. Eggers was German professor in the Tecumseh school under Zeno C. Spencer. He was well thought of here and his untimely death is sincerely regretted.

Detroit Enterprise.

The second large edition of the Detroit Tribune devoted to the bridge question was issued yesterday. The Detroit Tribune is up to date and a great credit to our largest state city.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at C. A. Wright's drug store.

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

When people find out that a man is mean at home they don't care how good he professes to be in church.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free.

Accidents come with distressing frequency on the farm. Cuts, bruises, stings, sprains. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil relieves the pain instantly. Never safe without it.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at C. A. Wright's drug store.

Selecting Paint.
When getting ready to paint it would be well to think a little about what kind of paint you will put on the building. Remember it costs no more to put on good, reliable paint that has been for years tried, than to paint with poor grades that are but, as yet, experiments.

Vigorous Old Age

Paine's Celery Compound makes the old feel young, and cures their ills. It has added years of health and enjoyment to many a life. Use this great medicine regularly, and its invigorating powers will fill your declining years with health, strength, and happiness. Read what George F. Morse, 67 years old, writes:—

WELLS & RICHARDSON CO.,

Gentlemen:—Just a word in favor of Paine's Celery Compound, hoping it may catch the eye of some afflicted person, and they may receive the same satisfactory benefit. Some 15 years ago I had a combination of malaria, chills and fever, and grip, which continued for a year or more; meantime I lost in weight about 60 pounds, trying different medicines and doctors with unsatisfactory results. Paine's Celery Compound was recommended, and, after using a little I began to improve, gaining about a pound a week. In a year I had regained 50 pounds of the lost weight and good health, and have been a well man ever since. Yours truly, GEORGE F. MORSE.

THE PERFECT WAY.

Scores of Tecumseh Citizens have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache,

There is only one way to cure it.

The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys.

Neglect it, urinary troubles follow.

Are endorsed by Tecumseh people.

Mr. C. Patterson, the well known sexton residing in the south eastern section of Tecumseh, says: "For over a year I had a soreness and pain in the small of the back at times quite severe more especially if I did a hard day's work or took cold, for it always settled in my kidneys. The kidney secretions were also discolored and irregular and I had all symptoms of aggravated kidney complaint. I heard several people praising Doan's Kidney Pills so concluding to try them I got a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and commenced the treatment. I found it just suited my case for it helped me right from the start. It stopped the pain in my back and regulated and cleared up the kidney secretions. I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone having any difficulty with their kidneys."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Let your good thought get into your hands.

Half the ills that man is heir to come from indigestion. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens and tones the stomach; makes indigestion impossible.

Itching piles? Never mind if physicians have failed to cure you. Try Doan's Ointment. No failure there. 50 cents, at any drug store.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

CHAS. DOWNING AND FAMILY.

Now's the time to take Rocky Mountain Tea; it drives out the microbes of winter; it builds up the stomach, kidneys and liver. A wonderful spring tonic that makes sick people well.

J. J. ORR.

A preacher who gets at the hearts of men does better than the man who preaches at their heads.

Why is it that a man will wait for one cent in change from a newsboy and then turn around and give a cafe waiter 10 cents for handing him a toothpick?

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

A Medicine for Old People.

Rev. Geo. Gay, Greenwich, Kas., is past 83 years of age, yet he says: "I am enjoying excellent health for a man of my age, due entirely to the rejuvenating influences of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It brings sleep and rest when nothing else will, and gives strength and vitality even to one of my old age."

"I am an old soldier," writes Mr. Geo. Watson, of Newton, Ia., "and I have been a great sufferer from nervousness, vertigo and spinal trouble. Have spent considerable money for medicine and doctors, but with little benefit. I was so bad my mind showed signs of weakness. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I know it saved my life."

Dr. Miles' Nervine

Saved me from the insane asylum," Mrs. A. M. Heifner, of Jerico Springs, Mo., writes. "I was so nervous that I could scarcely control myself, could not sleep nor rest, would even forget the names of my own children at times. I commenced using Dr. Miles' Nervine and it helped me from the first, and now I am perfectly well."

Mexican Mustang Liniment

Its Year of Jubilee has come.

Sixty years of faithful service to Man and Beast entitles it to

A GRAND DIAMOND JUBILEE

Your sires and grand sires used Mexican Mustang Liniment because it healed their hurts and cured the ills of their domestic animals. What MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT did for mankind and brute kind 60 years ago it does to-day. It has always cured and always will cure any and everything that a good, honest liniment can cure.

All Sorts of Horse Flesh

are all subject to all sorts of Sprains, Bruises, Flesh Wounds and other ails. Most owners know that Mexican Mustang Liniment is the most effective horse medicine that ever penetrated flesh. It is the best investment an animal owner could put money into.

It soaks down through the muscles.

No liniment can cure unless it penetrates the fevered and swollen muscles right down to the roots of the trouble. MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT penetrates more thoroughly than anything that was ever created in a chemical laboratory. The deepest, most stubborn and most intense pain in man or beast can be reached and routed by the use of this good old time-tried liniment.

Cures the hurts of anything that walks.

If your horse has a stiff joint, a harness sore, a cut or bruise, MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT will cure it. If your cow has a hurt, a caked udder or sore teats it will cure it and restore her to health and usefulness. If your poultry has roup, frozen combs, rheumatism, scaly legs or any disease of the flesh or bones MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT will cure them. What it has done in thousands upon thousands of instances justifies these claims.

Two things needed in lameness.

What Lameness, Stiff Joints and other deep-seated ailments need more than anything else is MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. The next is plenty of rubbing. The rubbing works the liniment away in through the tired and sore muscles to where the pain begins and then the lameness disappears and the pain departs.

ONE TERRIBLE DAY

Many Suicides and Shooting Affrays in Buffalo.

FOUR PERSONS ARE DEAD

Polish Citizen Kills His Son, Shoots His Landlady and Fights the Police—Man Shoots His Wife—Three Cases of Suicide.

Buffalo, April 13.—A shooting affray, in which a 9-year-old boy was killed and a woman mortally wounded, a fatal shooting which may have been murder, two suicides and two attempts at suicide that may result fatally, occurred in this city last night.

Joseph Kwaitkowski, 51 years old, a representative Polish citizen, is locked up at police headquarters charged with shooting his landlady and killing his own 9-year-old boy. For the last four months Kwaitkowski has lived with his two children in rooms at 190 Coit street. The owner of the house, Mrs. Tekla Wolinski, her husband and their children occupied the rear part of the building. The children of the two families were constantly quarreling. Last night Kwaitkowski returned home and found the children in the usual turmoil. Mrs. Wolinski notified him that he would have to move, whereupon Wwaitkowski drew a revolver and began firing, backing out of the house as he did so. Mrs. Wolinski followed the infuriated Pole and grappled with him. He pointed the revolver at her breast and fired. She fell to the ground mortally wounded. Wwaitkowski fired several more shots, one of them striking his own 9-year-old son Peter, killing him instantly.

Kwaitkowski continued to fire on officers who tried to arrest him until his ammunition was exhausted. The officers then battered down the front door. They found the Pole hiding in a closet. He gave desperate battle with a stiletto before he finally was overpowered.

George Denning, 55 years old, had been separated from his wife for some time. He called upon her Sunday and tried to induce her to resume marital relations. She refused. He drew a revolver and fired. She fell to the floor in a faint, and believing that he had killed her, Denning ran away. His body was found later in the evening in a Salvation Army lodging house. He had taken poison.

Miss Marie Beers, 20 years old, an actress, took morphine Sunday. She is dead.

Bertha Vaughn, 23 years old, swallowed a dose of vitriol. Her condition is serious.

Miss Blanche Murphy, after a quarrel last evening with an unknown man, who disappeared, swallowed a quantity of laudanum. She was taken to a hospital.

Lawrence Ratajczak was last night shot and instantly killed. The person who is thought by the police to have done the shooting is Joseph Nowak. Eye witnesses of the shooting differ in their statements regarding the affair and the police have not yet determined whether it was a case of manslaughter or murder.

TWO LOST THEIR LIVES.

Man and Boy Perished in a Burning Indianapolis Home.

Indianapolis, April 13.—Nathan Morris, one of the best known attorneys of Indiana, and Frank Haas, the 12-year-old son of Dr. Joseph Haas, were burned to death Sunday morning, and Mrs. Joseph Haas, Miss Belle Haas, Miss Rose Haas, Louis Haas and Grace Lemon, a governess, were injured more or less seriously. The residence of Dr. Joseph Haas was nearly burned to the ground.

The fire started at 3 o'clock from the furnace. The family was asleep on the second floor. Mr. Morris was a brother of Mrs. Haas. From the position of his charred body it was evident that he was endeavoring to rouse the family when overcome by the flames. The firemen succeeded in saving the other members of the family. The body of Frank Haas and the governess were found on the back stairs. Louis Haas broke his leg in jumping from a second story window.

Cloudburst in Indiana.

Henryville, Ind., April 13.—A cloudburst at noon Sunday flooded this part of Clark county and did great damage. The heavy fall of water has extended north as far as Sellersburg and Seymour. County Commissioner Raymond and wife were drowned while crossing Blue Lick creek. The waters rose so rapidly that the buggy was swept away. Both bodies were recovered.

Shot His Old Sweetheart.

Little Rock, Ark., April 13.—Will Alexander, 32 years of age, shot and seriously wounded Miss Irba Young here. Alexander, after firing two shots at Miss Young, sent a bullet through his brain. It is thought Miss Young will recover. Alexander and Miss Young, it is claimed, were sweethearts when children.

Colorado Dam Gave Way.

Delta, Col., April 13.—The dam of the Boney reservoir, near Olathe, fifteen miles from this city, gave way causing damage estimated at from $50,000 to $75,000. No lives are reported lost, but crops in many places were ruined and several hundred head of cattle are reported as lost.

Declines Manila Bishopship.

Rome, April 13.—Rt. Rev. George Montgomery, coadjutor archbishop of San Francisco, who recently was appointed archbishop of Manila, has refused that post. He prefers to stay in San Francisco, where he expects to become archbishop.

Accidentally Shot Himself.

Ishpeming, Mich., April 13.—Stephen Slaymaker, a young man studying music here, accidentally shot himself while playing with a revolver. The ball entered below the heart and passed through the body. Physicians have little hope of the boy's recovery.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at C. A. Wright's drug store.

FOR ACCOUNTANTS

Bill Introduced By Denby Creates a State Board.

HOUSE LAID IT ON TABLE

Requires That Accountants Be Examined and Receive an Official Badge — Resolution Giving Law Books to Legislators Passes House.

Lansing, Mich., April 11.—On motion of the introducer, the Denby bill, creating a state board of public accountants, was laid on the table Friday when it came up for a third reading. With a small attendance it looked as if, on the strength of Representative Paddock's opposition to the measure, it might have some trouble going through, though it was agreed to in committee of the whole the night before, with only one or two votes against it.

The details of the bill are simple. Within thirty days after it is passed the governor is to appoint two men who have practiced accountancy in the state for at least three years and one man who is a practicing attorney as the state board of accountancy. One term shall expire January, 1904, another 1906, and the attorney's term in 1905; thereafter all terms shall be of three years' duration.

Examinations are to be held by the board at least twice a year in theory of accounts, practical accounting, auditing and commercial law as affecting be $25. On receipt of this fee the accountancy. Examination fees shall board may, in its discretion, waive the examination of any applicant during the year 1903 who, in addition to being a citizen of the United States, shall have been a practicing accountant in this state for more than one year prior to the passage of the act. There is nothing in the bill to discriminate against those who have not received a certificate from the state board, but only those who have received such certificate can have the prestige of styling themselves "certified public accountants" and wear the letters "C. P. A." The governor shall issue all certificates.

The house in the morning passed a resolution, which went through the senate Thursday, to furnish each member of the legislature with a set of the compiled laws of the state at state expense—a matter over $1,000. Representative Randall amended the resolution so that second termers will not get a set. Some of the leading senators who voted for the resolution and realize what a useless expense it entails say they will kill the resolution when it comes back as amended.

The house also passed the Duncan bill, giving the state labor bureau's inspectors the right to inspect canning and evaporated fruit factories, as well as other kinds of factories, and repealing the provision of the present law, which exempts factories where five or fewer persons are employed.

The senate had a quorum, but refused to work and adjourned after a four minutes' session.

Nearly all the legislators are now counting on getting away from the capitol by the middle of May. The only measures that may delay things are the appropriation bills.

New Rural Routes.

Washington, April 11.—Rural free delivery service has been ordered established in Michigan commencing July 1 as follows: Azalia, Monroe county, one carrier; Belding, Ionia county, one additional carrier; Deer[illegible] county, [illegible] two [illegible]; [illegible] county, one carrier; Dundee, Monroe county, [illegible] carriers; Goodison, Oakland county, one carrier, Harbor Beach, Huron county, one additional carrier; Ida, Monroe county, two carriers; Minden City, Sanilac county, one carrier; Monroe, Monroe county, four additional carriers; Morenci, Lenawee county, two additional carriers; Mulliken, Eaton county, one carrier.

Andrews Is Elected.

Ishpeming, Mich., April 11.—The recount of votes for municipal judge has been made. The result was practically unchanged, and ex-Mayor William Andrews was declared elected by 28 majority. The city building was surrounded by 3,000 or more men until the decision was reached. Occasional howls and jeers were given by Andrews' supporters, and prominent politicians were hissed when they left the building.

Bliss Will Stop the Fight.

Lansing, Mich., April 11.—Governor Bliss will stop the McCoy-Root fight should the promoters insist on breaking the state laws. He stated that the matter had not been officially brought before him, but that he would act as soon as he had all the facts in the case.

Dr. King Wins His Suit.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 11.—G. W. King, whose suit for damages against the General Accident association had many sensational features, has been given a verdict for $200 against the company. A number of insurance companies had charged King with extensive swindling operations.

Churches May Unite.

Traverse City, Mich., April [illegible]—Plans are being seriously considered by a number of the most prominent members of the Congregational and Presbyterian churches here to unite under the name of the people's church, engage a high-priced minister and complete a stone church, now partially built by the Presbyterians.

Recount Asked at Pontiac.

Pontiac, Mich., April 11.—Daniel Thomas, Democratic candidate for mayor, has petitioned for a recount of the third, fourth and fifth wards. He lost by four votes to Mayor H. C. Guillotte.

Mayor White Going to Idaho.

Owosso, Mich., April 13.—Mayor V. M. White and son George leave this week for Clarks Forks, Idaho, where they will engage in mining. The mayor has some interests in claims there and will go with the intention of remaining there permanently and dig out a fortune. His term as mayor expires tonight.

Old Settler Missing.

Menominee, Mich., April 13.—John Loedermeyer, a prosperous farmer and old settler, has not been seen for two weeks past. Early on the morning of March 31 Loedermeyer went to Powers to get his mail, expecting a check for some timber he had sold. He did not return home.

FROM THE CAPITAL

LOTS OF SMALLPOX THIS YEAR

Subject of Rabies Reviewed at Length—Dr. Vaughan Talks—Favorable Report on Crop Conditions From the Secretary of State.

Lansing, Mich., April 13.—At a regular meeting of the state board of health Frank Wells of this city was re-elected president of the board for the ensuing two years. He has already served in this capacity for ten years.

The report submitted by Secretary Baker shows that while consumption has decreased in the state during the past year, there has been an extensive epidemic of smallpox, which the board has been making great efforts to stamp out. In this work it has encountered great opposition because of the mildness of the disease and the fact that it has, in many instances, not been reported or considered as smallpox.

The subject of rabies, now epidemic in Michigan, and the work of the board for its restriction and prevention was reviewed at length. Circulars of information and forms or regulations requiring the muzzling of all dogs at large have been sent to each of the 1500 local health officers in the state.

Vaughan on Rabies.

Dr. Victor C. Vaughan made a report as a special committee on rabies. He stated that two or three years ago this disease was very prevalent in New York, and it gradually spread, partly through Ohio, into Michigan, and is now prevalent throughout the lower peninsula of Michigan, cattle, hogs and other domestic animals being afflicted. Many dogs and children have been bitten. The regents of the university recently re-established a Pasteur institute at that institution, and already six patients are being treated there. Five of these persons were bitten by dogs known to have been infected with rabies. Residents of Michigan are treated free at this institute, three weeks being required for the treatment. Patients are, however, required to pay for their rooms and board.

The board decided to hold examinations of undertakers for embalmers' licenses at Lansing on June 10 and at Grand Rapids on July 17. Applications will not be received later than ten days before each examination.

Monthly Crop Report.

In the official state crop report for April, Secretary of State Warner says that the weather during March was especially fine for that month. The temperature was uniform throughout the state and much above the normal.

Conditions during March were very favorable to wheat. The crop grew during the month and in most cases suffered no damage, although there was but little snow to protect it. Considerable wheat was sown very late last fall and is consequently small for this time of year. Some damage by the Hessian fly is reported, but unless conditions are very favorable for their work a good crop of wheat may reasonably be expected this year. Just 110 out of a total of 553 correspondents reported that wheat was inju[illegible] during March, the balance rep[illegible] no damage. The average con[illegible] of wheat in the southern counti[illegible] central 89, northern [illegible] state 91. Repor[illegible] sider[illegible] [illegible] tendency to open them [illegible] curate estimates can be given next month, when the buds will have developed more fully.

Boy Vandals Arrested.

Menominee, Mich., April 13.—The police have arrested fourteen boys ranging between the ages of 8 and 14 years, for throwing stones through the windows of passing trains, cutting the air brakes on freight trains and putting sand in the oil boxes of the cars. There will be a number of other arrests for the same causes. A few days ago a woman sitting in a car of a passing train was struck in the face by a stone thrown by one of these boys and was badly injured. A freight conductor was also struck on the head by a stone. The trial of the boys will be held tomorrow and the police say that it will probably go hard with them.

Fishermen Found Her Body.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., April 13.—The body of Mrs. Robert Klagge, daughter of the late John Breitmeyer of Detroit, was found floating in the river here by a Sunday fishing party. The ramains were identified immediately upon being taken from the water. Upon inquiry it was learned that she had left the house, which is situated at a considerable distance above the water works, at an early hour in the morning and was being searched for. She is believed to have committed suicide while temporarily deranged.

Auto Scared Their Team.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 13.—Robert Grannahan and his son, Robert Grannahan, Jr., farmers of Walker township, were in town with a span of colts Sunday afternoon. The colts became frightened at an automobile and ran away. The father was thrown against a telegraph pole and it is believed he sustained a broken back. The son was dragged on the road and badly injured.

Niles' Oil Fever Dying Out.

Niles, Mich., April 13.—It is alleged here that the officers of the Niles Oil and Gas company have appropriated in salaries about one-half of all the money received through the sale of stock. The news has created a sensation. The well appears to be petering out.

New Michigan Postmasters.

STILL A QUESTION

Whether Pennell's Death Was By Accident or Designed.

NO LIGHT ON BURDICK MURDER

Pennell Inquest Held—His Statement, Prepared For Publication Before Death, Is Read—Makes Startling Accusations Against Burdick.

Buffalo, April 14.—The evidence given Friday at the inquest into the deaths of Arthur R. Pennell and Mrs. Pennell before Justice Murphy will not help the authorities in any way to a solution of the Burdick murder mystery. Whether the tragedy at Gehre's stone quarry on March 10, in which Pennell was killed and Mrs. Pennell was fatally injured, was due to accident or design, was not proven.

Thomas Penney, who has acted as attorney for the Pennell family since Arthur Pennell's death, declared that so far as he was aware, nothing in the papers left by Mr. Pennell would throw any light upon the murder of Edwin L. Burdick. When questioned regarding the alleged defalcations by Pennell, Mr. Penney declined to answer. J. Frederick Pennell, brother of the dead lawyer and administrator of his estate, who has possession of most of the papers, was out of the city, and Mr. Penney informed the court that he did not know where he was or when he would return to Buffalo.

"Evidence that would show defalcation would simply be accumulative," said Justice Murphy, after the evidence was all in. "No stronger motive could be proven than has already been brought out here. But proving a motive does not establish suicide. The court is prepared to announce its findings."

Judge Murphy's Verdict.

Judge Murphy then delivered his verdict as follows:

"I find and certify: That Arthur R. Pennell came to his death on the 10th day of March, 1903, as a result of injuries received while riding in an automobile, the said automobile plunging from an embankment into the Gehres stone quarry.

"That I cannot determine, from the evidence submitted, whether such plunge was accidental or designed.

"That Carrie Lamb Pennell came to her death as a result of the said plunge of the automobile into the quarry."

W. C. Omphelius, Pennell's stenographer, produced a typewritten copy of the first draft of a statement prepared for publication by Pennell before his death. The statement in part is as follows:

"Owing to the fact that my name was so unfortunately at this time connected with the pending divorce proceedings, it was forced into great publicity in connection with the tragedy itself. Insofar as any possible connection with that crime was concerned, I satisfied, I think, the district attorney and his assistants thoroughly that I had nothing to do with it, and since [illegible] neither has my house nor [illegible]. Office under suspicion or sur[illegible] [illegible] comes insumbent upon me [illegible] statement relative to my [illegible] with the divorce proceed[illegible] was no truth in the [illegible] ght by the plaintiff in that [illegible] against the defendant and [illegible] the charges were absolutely [illegible] her oath and counter charges [illegible] made and in a short time the [illegible] uld have been quietly tried be[illegible] referee and settled.

He Attacks Burdick.

"The relations existing between the plaintiff and the defendant had been strained for some time. Twice he had unjustly attempted to make her leave her home. My wife and myself had taken her side in the controversy that arose between them, and she had consulted me for legal advice and protection. During this time the man himself was on intimate relations with a woman whom he desired to marry.

"Being thus apprised of the evidence against him, he determined to anticipate her (his wife's) actions by bringing an action himself in order that he might have the appearance of being the injured party, and out of the vindictiveness and desire to injure me as much as possible he made me a defendant in the action. His allegations were properly denied and the issues would have been squarely met when his death occurred at the hands of some unknown woman, whom he had invited to his house at midnight."

The Amsterdam Strike.

Amsterdam, April 11.—The workmen's defense committee has issued a manifesto explaining that a continuance of the strike will only expose the strikers to the vigorous penalties of the new anti-strike bill, which has practically become law. The committee has, therefore, decided to leave each trade union free to act as it thinks best. The calling off of the strike has resulted in the holding of angry mass meetings of strikers. The anarchists and socialists are busy exploiting the situation, urging the men to ignore the committee and continue the strike.

Iowa Out of Commission.

Pensacola, Fla., April 11.—The damage to the battleship Iowa, caused by the premature explosion of a shell in the forward port 12-inch gun, has developed to be more serious than was thought when the first examination was made, and as a consequence the big ship has been ordered to the New York navy yard to go out of commission.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at C. A. Wright's drug store.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, April 13, 1903.

Since it has become known generally that there is an investigation going on in the postoffice department the reports and changes are coming in in constantly increasing numbers. It is regarded as certain that grave irregularities have already been discovered but, acting under orders from the President and the Postmaster General the officials refuse to divulge the character of the discoveries. The latest charge known to have been received is in the form of an anonymous letter alleging that there has for some time existed a "promotion pool" to which aspirants for promotion were compelled to pay prices varying from $10 to $50 and a percentage of their increased salaries. This charge is said to be "undergoing investigation."

A most serious charge has also been filed in connection with the sheet iron mail boxes which are now being substituted for the cast iron boxes heretofore in use. There are 51,135 of these boxes in use, and if, as alleged, there was a commission paid on the contract it was doubtless a liberal one. First assistant Postmaster General Wynne noticed this charge in his last annual report and there made the statement that the breakage in the cast iron boxes, in transportation, was so great that the department had decided it would be economy to adopt the more indestructible material, but he did not touch on the allegation that the officials who awarded the contract received a commission.

The attorney general and his assistants are rejoiced over the decision of the circuit court of appeals in the northern securities case. It will be remembered that the Northern Securities Company was a corporation organized by J. J. Hill, J. P. Morgan and others for the purpose of purchasing the stock of the Great Northern Railway, the Northern Pacific Railway and the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Railway, with a view to operating the three systems as one road. The court has now decided that this company is illegal in that it operates in restriant of competition or has the power to do so and leave all the people in a considerable section of the country at the mercy, in so far as freight and passenger rates are concerned, of one corporation. The case will, of course, be appealed to the supreme court but as the opinion of the four judges of the court of appeals was unanimous that the merger was in violation of the anti-trust law, it is regarded as certain that the supreme court will confirm the decision. The position taken by the attorney general is that this decision proves that the trusts can be reached through the medium of the existing laws.

Secretary Shaw has been requested to issue what he humorously calls a "blow up" order. This request comes from the ship owners of the country who want all goverment vessels supplied with orders and means for blowing up all wrecked vessels, direlicts, which they encounter floating on the high seas At present every time a direlict is sighted a report is made to Washington at the first opportunity and a naval vessel is sent to look up the floating wreck and destroy it but this method is regarded as too slow and it is urged that each government vessel be supplied with a quantity of giant powder with which to blow up these menaces to navigation.

The work of the United States bureau of soils has already been noticed in these letters. The discovery of land in Connecticut on which Sumatra tobacco, which sells at from $10 to $12 more per pound than the domestic varieties formerly grown there, has been described as well as the remarkable results secured from the irrigation and under-drainage of the Alkali lands of Utah. Professor Milton Whitney has now computed the cost of the surveys which have accomplished such excellent results and finds that the total expense of making soil surveys has been $2.88 per square mile or about 33 cents per acre. Last year fifteen parties were in the field and surveyed 17,911 square miles or 11,463,040 acres. This year twenty parties have been sent out and it is expected that they will survey fifty different areas in 32 states and territories.

Some remarkable figures have just been issued by the bureau of statistics showing the growth of the commerce of the United States since 1870. Since that time the imports of this country have increased from $436,000,000 to $903,000,000 in 1902. The exports have increased in the same period from $376,000,000 to to $1,355,000,000. The balance of trade has exceeded that of all other countries combined. In 1870 the trade balance of the United States was $60,000,000 of imports. In 1902 it was $452,000,000 excess of exports. In both imports and exports this country leads the world.

Considerable interest is manifested in the Navy and War department circles over the launching of the Minnesota which will occur at New London, Connecticut on the 16th. The Minnesota, which is the largest vessel ever launched in the United States and the third largest in the world, has been constructed for the Pacific trade and with an especial view to the transportion of troops. The vessel is 630 feet long, 73 feet, 6 inches beam and 56 feet from keel to upper deck. She will have a cargo capacity of 30,000 tons dead weight.

Secretary Hay has been advised that the German Emperor has permitted Dr. VonHolleben to retire from the diplomatic service without returning to this country to present his credentials to the president. This leaves the German embassy at Washington in charge of a minister but Baron Von Steinburg's credentials as ambassador are expected to arrive at any time. There is considerable friction in the embassy here and unless it soon blows over there are likely to follow several changes; but Baron Von Sternburg is regarded as a fixture for some time at least.

LITERARY NOTES

CENTURY.

"On the night I arrived in Butte," says Ray Stannard Baker, whose "Butte City: Greatest of Copper Camps," the April installment of his "The Great Northwest" series in The Century, is likely to make Butte proud to the third and fourth generation, and to waken Easterners to a new realization of Butte City's fabulous resources—"on the night I arrived in Butte City I was awakened at two o'clock in the morning by an enterprising reporter who wanted an interview. He shouted his questions over the transom; I shouted my replies from my pillow. In parting he gave me the name of a man connected with his paper who he said was the 'real thing.' He concluded: "'He can give you more dope about Butte than any other guy in Montana.'"

LIPPINCOTT'S.

The best British fiction today is coming from the younger men. Archibald Eyre is of these, and his laughable and delightful novel called "The Trifler," which appears in full in the April number of Lippincott's Magazine, gives evidence of his talents. The Trifler is a "younger son," whose elder brother is a busy member of the government. This brother has married an old flame of The Trifler's who has had other little affairs. One of these begot certain love-letters which the jilted suitor now publishes for "private circulation." The Trifler comes to his sister-in-law's aid, but in obtaining the letters is charged with theft, and a pretty kettle-of-fish ensues. The reader will enjoy every word of the story and ask for more when The Trifler shows how he can be strenuous enough in his own wooing.

McCLURE'S.

John LaFarge has a noble essay on Hogarth in the April McClure's. Since Lamb said of Hogarth that we "read" his pictures, and since Thackeray included him in the same essay with Fielding and Smollett in his "English Humorists," Hogarth has come almost to seem a figure in English literature rather than in English art. This association Mr. LaFarge's essay, one need not say corrects, but finely supplements. It is to the great painter, whose canvases were scoffed at by the art critics of his own time, and whose fame even today rests disproportionately on his engravings, that Mr. LaFarge pays his tribute. The article is splendidly illustrated in tint.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

In the April Atlantic is a paper which will prove of exceptional interest to men of affairs as well as to students of business economics. It is a searching and practical discussion of the function of the stock and produce exchanges by Charles A. Conant of the Morton Trust Company of New York, who is an exceptionally well equipped writer upon questions of commerce and finance. Mr. Conant outlines clearly and convincingly the part played by the stock exchange in all the activities of the business world, and particularly points out its paramount importance for the commercial welfare of the nation. As he vigorously concludes, "that delicate register of values, that sensitive governor of production, that accurate barometer of people's needs could not be replaced by any process that any state [illegible] has devised or suggested."

THE CRITIC.

Pictorially as well as from a literary standpoint the April number of The Critic is in many respects an exceptional issue. The cover is in itself a radical departure from custom, being on this occasion a sprightly combination of red, black, and white, enclosing an animated street scene by Felix Vallotton. The leading illustrated article in the current number of The Critic is devoted to the art of Felix Vallottom, who unquestionably ranks as the foremost living master of black and white. Among the numerous illustrations which enliven this paper are several hitherto unpublished subjects, and the text, which is by Mr. Christian Brinton, discusses in characteristic vein the career and achievement of this remarkable and diverting artist who is both painter and engraver.

THE COSMOPOLITAN.

An American-English duchess recently boasted to me of the good which had been done to her by a course which was not only new to me, but was so strange as to be almost comical. The "air-and-draft cure" is what she praised, and it was a remedy for cold hands and feet. This cure is taken at a tiny place in the Ardennes mountains—in a single building there, a sanatorium. As I understand it, this building is bereft of bedroom-windows, and has great apertures in the walls instead. The patient retires to a well-bestowed bed, but leaves uncovered and exposed his or her feet and hands. Strong winds make the Ardennes their playground, and these blow through the bedrooms and over the extremities of the patients, and, in some mysterious way, their members develop a strong circulation and are presently able to resist cold and to guarantee to themselves uninterrupted warmth for all time to come.—From the article on the "Famous Cures and Humbugs of Europe," by the late Julian Ralph, in the April Cosmopolitan.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

Rev. Father Hallisey, of Sacred Heart church, Hudson, leaves next Sunday evening for an extended trip through Europe. He will sail from New York city for Naples April 14th. While he is away he will visit Rome and other places of interest to him and also visit the pope. He will be greatly missed by his congregation while away and they all join in wishing him a pleasant voyage and a safe return.—Adrian Telegram.

Cambridge boys have contracted a bad habit of jumping on trains. About two miles out of Onsted there is a heavy grade, making it usually very easy for them to jump off the ponderous freights as they slowly pull up the hill. Last Friday Frank Marr attempted to make the trip, but a light train and a heavy engine developed more than usual speed and in attempting to alight he was thrown a long distance. He was found unconscious a short time later and for several days suffered from severe concussion of the brain, but at last reports was on the road to recovery.—Brooklyn Exponent.

There is a North Missouri editor who is very fond of honey. This editor makes frequent trips to Kansas City, and, whenever he makes one of these trips he stops at a hotel where he can always get honey. On a recent trip he was accompanied by his wife and just as they were approaching the city he told her he was nearing the place where he could get his honey. That night as they dined at the hotel, he turned to the waiter and asked: "Where is my honey?" With a broad smile, the waiter replied, "You mean that little black headed one? Oh, she don't work here nomore." The editor is still explaining to his wife.

Hudson merchants bought 2150 dozen eggs in a single day lately. Half the farmers in that vicinity are named Henry.

James I. Dennis has published the Jonesville Gazette for 25 years and has started in for another quarter-century run. He has been engaged in newspaper work between 35 and 40 years and when it comes to anything about the business his name isn't "Dennis."—Hillsdale Standard.

A Jasper young couple went to Adrian after a marriage license Wednesday, April 1st; it soon appeared that the bride was too young and it took till night to get her father there to give his consent. When they finally arrived at the preacher's home, he had retired and a couple who had agreed to "stand up" with them had gone home; but the good pastor invited them in and kindly ended the troubles of the day.—Blissfield Advance.

Mrs. Mary Tracy is in receipt of a letter from her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Frazier, of Adrian, who states that her little son Donald, five years old, has commenced attending school and that he is in the same room in which his mother began school over 20 years ago, and that he sits in the same seat and has the same teacher. It is a coincidence which could probably not be duplicated in the state.—Hudson Post

Howard Norcross, a rural mail carrier from the Adrian office, was driving across the Wabash tracks in Madison township on Wednesday. He failed to see an approaching train till it had almost reached him, and then pulled his horse off the track and into a ditch, wrecking the wagon and sustaining injuries consisting of cuts and bruises. The mail matter was picked up and returned to the Adrian office and the injured man was cared for.—Hudson Post.

The Blissfield Advance says Riga is going into the base ball business this season, and has ordered a dozen $16.50 suits of green, trimmed in red; also a score of bats, and a supply of masks, mits, etc. The town has raised or pledged $300, and it will be a shame for any amateur club to go down and "clean 'em up." But Deerfield has its eye on those green suits with red adornments, and may walk over and try to "put it all over them" at an early date. The grounds are just east of the village, and the oil well will not in any way interfere.—Adrian Press.

Ezra Simmons, of Franklin, has lately done a bit of realty business. A year ago he gave his son a garden spot of 160 acres. Having two other 80s in that vicinity, he last week transferred both to his son. Not caring to do the work on the premises where he resides, he leased the house and lot containing something like 173 acres, to Andrew Fisher. He likes to drive a good team, so he keeps 160 acres for pasture. He bought for something like $9,000 some land in 1876, and paid for it in five years, but he allows that "you can't make money these days on a farm, as you could then." Mr. Simmons is nearing his three score and ten years, and has no idea of going to the county house, except on a visit.—Adrian Press.

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern road has planned to make more improvements in its passenger service and has just ordered 15 more coaches of the same make as those received during the winter. The order was given to the Barney Smith company and the coaches will be delivered this summer. They will be finished in mahogany and the whole interior as well as the exterior will resemble very closely the Pullman car. They will probably cost about $12,000 apiece. They will be used on regular through trains. This equipment follows a large order placed recently with the Brooks Locomotive [illegible] Wood ballast cars and four plow cars.—Toledo Times.

Albion Lodge No. 36, A. O. U. W. boasts of a crack military organization. The Detroit Tribune says: "The company is now under the leadership of Capt. Harry J. Pattison, who was elected about a month ago. Capt. Pattison is one of Albion's most esteemed young men, and a member of Albion lodge, No. 57, K. of P. He is also a Spanish war veteran, having served fourteen months as a corporal with the Thirty-first Michigan volunteers. He enlisted from Tecumseh with Co. C. He served in Cuba three months and during that time was on special duty with the signal corps of the regular army. Though strict in his military work, Capt. Pattison is a genial, good-natured fellow, and has the good will of all his men, which is one of the main factors in his success."

Harry J. Pattison is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pattison, of this place, and has a large circle of friends here.

LIBRARY LOCATED.

The School Board has Purchased the Property of the

BAXTER HEIRS

On Chicago Street and will Locate thereon the Carnegie Building.

Yesterday the school board purchased the property formerly owned by the late Benjamin L. Baxter on Chicago street and will locate therein the Carnegie library building.

The price paid was $1500 and in the opinion of everyone, both the school board and heirs of Mr. Baxter have made a good deal. There is no lot in Tecumseh better located on which to put the library than this one. It is beautifully located amongst the best residences in Tecumseh near to all parts of town and this beautiful building will be forever an ornament to Tecumseh on this lot.

The price paid is just right, this will leave from the amount voted at the special school meeting $500 with which to build walks and beautify the grounds. Every one is pleased with the judgment of the school board and now the building will, no doubt, be put up this summer.

MODERN WOODMEN

About twenty from Tecumseh and thirty-five from Manchester

VISIT CLINTON CAMP

Eight candidates were initiated into the mysteries of Woodcraft, after which a banquet was held.

Last Wednesday evening the Modern Woodmen camp of this place and the Manchester camp were invited to visit their neighboring camp at Clinton and about twenty of the Tecumseh camp and quite a number of the Manchester camp availed themselves of the opportunity to enjoy the well known hospitality of their friendly neighbors. After the general business of the evening a class of eight candidates were initiated into the mysteries of Woodcraft. Among the number were Thos. Wilson and Martin Zimmerman of Tecumseh. The degrees conferred, the company were invited to step across the hall, where the ladies were in readiness with good things in store. After listening to the fine, well rendered program a sumptuous repast prepared by the ladies was enjoyed by all. Some little time was spent in social intercourse, after which the company left, reaching home in the small hours of the morning, feeling well pleased with the pleasant time spent with their neighbors. Jas. Riley, formerly of this place, acted as master of ceremonies for the evening being head of the degree team, also chairman of the program, which position he filled admirably well. The following program was given:

Music—Male Quartette.
Rec.—Miss Mingay.
Violin Solo—Miss Katherine Noone
Vocal solo—Joe Alexander.
Address—Dr. John Tuttle, Jr.
Pianist—Miss Katherine Biggans.

CLUB NOTES.

On April 21st at 6:30 sharp the Wit and Wisdom club will hold its annual banquet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Slayton.

The Shakespeare club will meet with Mrs. J. Crosby Thursday evening. Reading beginning at 7:30. Hamlet, Act II.

SOCIAL AFTERNOON OF THE MONDAY CLUB AT MRS. R. B. GILLESPIE'S.

The Monday Club held their last social afternoon of the year at the home of Mrs. R. B. Gillespie yesterday. The unfavorable weather did not seriously affect the attendance and the parlors were well filled with club ladies and their guests.

A short musical program was given after which a guessing contest, arranged by Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Crosby, proved very interesting and exciting. Answers to the first part were correctly given by several ladies who drew lots for the prize which fell to Mrs. Farnsworth first and to Mrs. L. I. Bidwell second. In the second contest Mrs. Geo. Howell won the first and Mrs. Weller the second prize.

The dining room was prettily decorated for the season. The table, handsomely ornamented with pink carnations and lighted by rose colored candles, was very attractive and beautiful. Mrs. Burlingame presided over the coffee urn and Misses Julia Hicks, Edyth Corey and Jennie Gillespie assisted in the serving. Pretty little table favors in the form of rabbits and chickens, the work of Mrs. Deming and Mrs. Look, added to the attractions of the [illegible] room.

Mi[illegible] two [illegible] committee who planned the [illegible] enawee county, ment, and Mrs. Hicks and Mrs. G. [illegible] Garlinghouse had the dining room in charge.

This closes a very successful year of club work under the efficient administration of Mrs. T. C. Harris, the retiring president, who has served the club very acceptably for two years as its chief officer.

Those from out of town who were present were Miss Lizzie Hicks, of Boston, the guest of Mrs. J. F. Hicks; Miss Bates, of Mason, guest of Mrs. James McCann; and Mrs. Dell Hall, of Toledo, the guest of Mrs. Albert.

"The Hottest Coon in Dixie"

Has returned to the New Bradley Friday, April 17, 1903. It is without doubt the cleverest colored minstrel organization on the road today. It certainly contains the best vaudeville talent and they know how to entertain an audience with Southern plantation melodies, cake walks and rag-time music and besides this the specialties that are introduced by the "Great Black Carl" and the Grundy trio, always take the house by storm, and numerous encores are nightly demanded before the audiences are satisfied. As for the chorus, it is made up of good singers, who add materially to the success of this piece. It is beautifully costumed and the scenic and electrical efforts are unsurpassed. "The Hottest Coon in Dixie" is full of wit, humor and up-to-date jokes that follow in such rapid successes that it is impossible for one to get tired or have a fit of the blues.

Accepts Position at Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Jackson will leave Wabash the latter part of this week for Chicago where they will hereafter make their home. Mr. Jackson goes on the road for J. V. Farwell & Co. and will cover the state of Michigan, with his headquarters in Chicago.

Mr. Jackson has been in Wabash with the firm of Fawley & Halderman since they first commenced doing business here. Mr. Fawley is with the firm that Mr. Jackson becomes associated with in the "Windy City." The position is a lucrative one and has been awarded to Mr. Jackson only because of his competency.—Wabash, Ind., Daily Plain Dealer.

Glen R. Jackson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jackson, of this place, and his many friends here wish him success in his new work.

COMMON COUNCIL

Appointed the Following Officers

AT THE MEETING

Held last Evening.

Marshal—E. C. Brown.
Street Commissioner—Albert Hyde.
Member Board of Water Commissioners—B. P. Anderson.
Health Officer—Dr. Maddox.

A teamster to succeed Ned Wood, resigned, and a member of the cemetery board will be appointed at the next meeting of the council.

Mrs. Maria Lanning.

Maria Dalley was born in Readington, N. J., on May 13, 1814. At the date of her death, April 7, she had nearly reached her 89th birthday. To her was granted a long life. For some good reason God let her abide with us after her bodily powers had begun to fail, but now at length He has taken her unto Himself.

She was married to James Lanning on May 31, 1847. Her two children, Mr. Joseph Lanning and Mrs. Chauncey Vedder, survive to mourn her loss. The loss will be especially heavy to Mrs. Vedder who has cared for her mother so tenderly through the years of failing powers.

Mrs. Lanning was a faithful and devoted member of the Presbyterian church. One of the crosses of her recent years was to be deprived of church privileges. She bore her sufferings with patience and resignation, and had an unwavering trust in the goodness of God. Her faith was clear and her love entire.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our dear mother, for the floral gifts and to the ladies who furnished the music.

MR. AND MRS. CHAUNCEY VEDDER.
MR. AND MRS. JOS. LANNING.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free.

Selecting Paint.
When getting ready to paint it would be well to think a little about what kind of paint you will put on the building. Remember it costs no more to put on good, reliable paint that has been for years tried, than to paint with poor grades that are but, as yet, experiments.

MOTHERS, DO YOU KNOW the many so-called birth medicines, and most remedies for women in the treatment of her delicate organs, contain more or less opium, morphine and strychnine?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not take internally any medicine for the pain accompanying pregnancy.

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is applied externally only?

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is a celebrated prescription, and that it has been in use over forty years, and that each bottle of the genuine bears the name of The Bradfield Regulator Co.?

Do you know that when you use this remedy during the period of gestation that you will be free of pain and bear healthy, hearty and clever children?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts. Of druggists at $1.00. Don't be persuaded to try a substitute. Our little book "Motherhood" free.

TO BE DEPENDED ON

Because It is the Experience of a Tecumseh Citizen and can Readily be Investigated.

A stranger lost in a large city would place far more dependence on the directions given him by a local resident than the guidance of another stranger like himself. This is a natural consequence of experience; it's like a ship in a strange port— a trusty pilot familiar with the harbor is always called upon to bring her safely to her moorings. So it is with endorsement; we doubt the sayings of people living at distant points because we can't investigate, but the public expression of local citizens can be depended on, for 'tis an easy matter to prove it. Evidence like the following is beyond dispute.

Postmaster J. W. Wightman, well known to every reader of this statement, says: "I have no hesitation in endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills procured at C. A. Wright's drug store. They have been used in my family and the most satisfactory results followed the treatment. They proved to be a remedy of merit. You can use my name to that effect if you think proper."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Early to bed and early to rise, makes little boys very tired.

If there is one thing more than another that a man is up to his neck in it is his shirt.

Bodily pain loses its terror if you've a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the house. Instant relief in cases of burns, cuts, sprains, accidents of any sort.

Ways of th[illegible]smen.

Many yea[illegible] England was engaged [illegible] complications, the first lord of the admiralty sent Admiral Codrington a dispatch which was most peaceful as far as it appeared before the public. He told him not to take his ships into action and so forth, but in a corner he wrote this short private note, "Go it, Ned!" And Codrington went to Navarino and smashed up the Turkish fleet.

Same Old Story.

"Wonder why the grizzly bear isn't exhibiting himself today?" said the African lion gently.

"He's laid up. The tortoise bit him," replied the lioness.

Not Always Hard.

"Yes, he swindled us," said one of the victims, "and we considered him such a perfect gentleman; he had such a gentle, suave way about him."

"Proving," remarked the other, "that the way of the transgressor is sometimes soft."—Catholic Standard and Times.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

It is seldom that God finds a man whom it won't spoil to have his own way.

Now's the time to take Rocky Mountain Tea; it drives out the microbes of winter; it builds up the stomach, kidneys and liver. A wonderful spring tonic that makes sick people well.

J. J. Orr.

"I first used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the fall of 1848. Since then I have taken it every spring as a blood-purifying and nerve-strengthening medicine."
S. T. Jones, Wichita, Kans.

If you feel run down, are easily tired, if your nerves are weak and your blood is thin, then begin to take the good old standard family medicine, Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It's a regular nerve lifter, a perfect blood builder. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and we will be satisfied.

The Gentleness of Seals.

Hundreds of seals made Nelson island, in the south Shetland group, look black as night as we approached. They disported themselves in the water and played upon the shore. In wonder, not alarm, they stared at us as we drew near in a small boat. We leaped on shore among them. Still they looked at us in dumb curiosity. I was as much impressed as were the seals and stared as hard at them in an answering wonder.

"Come, old fellow," said young Sobral, approaching one of the large seals with outstretched hand.

It edged away a few feet.

"Move on, then," he said, smacking it on the back with his open hand.

It edged a little farther away, looking over its shoulder with an injured air. But it made no attempt to seek safety. A mere plunge into the water would have brought freedom from any danger. Several leopard seals were shot by our party, and their fellows gathered around them, wondering why they lay so motionless and staring at us with wide, pathetic eyes.—Independent.

SENATE CHAPLAIN DEAD.

Venerable William H. Milburn Passes Away In California.

Washington, April 11.—The Rev. William Henry Milburn, the venerable blind chaplain of the United States senate, died in Santa Barbara, Cal., Friday. Word to this effect was received here last night by Colonel D. A. Ransdell, the sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Milburn, accompanied by his two nieces, the Misses Timley, left Washington for the Pacific coast about a year ago. The chaplain was in broken health. The change brought no great improvement in his condition, and when congress met in December he forwarded his resignation to Washington, but it was never acted on. The deceased was a native of Philadelphia, where he was born in 1823.

When he was five years of age a playfellow accidentally struck him in the left eye with a piece of glass. For two years he was confined to a dark room under medical treatment, and when he came out gradually he became totally blind.

REBEL FORCES WON.

Venezuelans Lost a Battle In Neighborhood of Caracas.

Willemstad, Curacoa, Monday, April 6.—News has been received here that the Venezuelan revolutionists have defeated the forces of the government in the neighborhood of Caracas and captured two cannon and a large quantity of ammunition. They have also captured the city of Barquisimeto, which is the key to the western part of Venezuela, taking many prisoners. Heavy fighting, undecisive as yet, has taken place at Coro.

Direct cable communication between this city and the United States is delayed on account of the revolution in Santo Domingo.

Killed a Hundred Moros.

Manila, April 11.—Captain Pershing's force captured Bacolod, island of Mindanao, Wednesday, killed a hundred Moros and wounded many others. Three Americans were wounded. Pershing was surveying the west shore lands when the Bacolodians opposed his advance and provoked the fight. Pershing surrounded and attacked their stronghold, first shelling them, and then, rushing his troops forward, charged gallantly. After crossing a deep moat and entering the fort, the Americans engaged the Moros—bayonets against krisses. The killed includes the datto of Panandungan. After the capture of the fort it was destroyed.

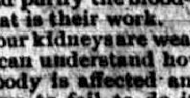
An Equine Curiosity.

The anatomical museum of the Military Veterinary institute of Vienna contains the skeleton of a horse which lived forty-five years. It belonged to a pensioned major who bought it in 1852 when it was five years old and used it in several campaigns. Until two years before its death it could still trot with a buggy.



Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

FRIGHTFUL STORMS.

Pittsburg, Pa., and Sections of Illinois Suffered Greatly.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 13.—With terrifying swiftness the thunderstorm which came out of the west last evening crashed over Pittsburg, pouring miniature rivers through streets, flooding cellars and inflicting damage that will reach thousands of dollars. One man was killed by lightning and many buildings were struck. Irvin T. Wilson of Dubois, Pa., while walking from one building to another at the Dixmont insane asylum where he is employed, was struck down by a bolt. He was dead when picked up.

In Wilkinsburg the cloudburst poured through the valley. People were driven into the second stories of their homes. Loss to property in the Thirty-seventh ward was great. A house in Coal street was almost swept from its foundation. Street car tracks were lost under two feet of water. Thousands of feet of lumber were carried away.

Springfield, Ill., April 13.—One death, a fatal injury and a score or more of injuries resulted from a tornado that swept over Logan, Dewitt and Piatt counties Sunday afternoon. The fatality occurred in the Halsadarzer settlement, a little farming community three miles from Atwood, Piatt county. The home of Clifford Halsadarer was demolished and afterward his infant son was found dead 500 feet from the house. His wife was hurled across the village street and fatally injured. Mrs. J. B. Martin's home was destroyed and several guests were severely injured.

Deer creek, in Logan county, where the storm first struck, was swept dry of water. Reports from this district state that three houses were destroyed and a number of persons more or less injured.

WAS HE MURDERED?

Bullet Found In Brain of Little Charlie Polmann.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 13.—Little 7-year-old Charlie Polman, whose headless body was found Friday night lying, horribly mangled, across the Lake Shore tracks, was undoubtedly murdered. A postmortem examination has revealed a 22-caliber bullet in the brain. Near the place where the body was found was later picked up a sack on which were evidences of blood stains. It is thought the sack was used by the perpetrators of the crime to carry the body to the tracks, across which it was placed in the hopes that evidences of the crime would be obliterated when the almost due freight had passed over it.

The police and sheriff have charge of the case, but so far have made no progress. It is the general belief that the boy was killed by some young companions with a Flobert rifle, either accidentally or in anger.

THESE ARE NEW ONES.

Washington, April 13.—Michigan pensions granted Saturday: Original—Sarah V. Cheney, Grand Rapids, $8; Bert D. Smith, Charlotte, $6. Increase—William G. Fletcher, Evart, $12; Joseph Beecher, Escanaba, $8; Jacob Stezler, Vand[illegible], $8; John Vincent, Cheboygan, [illegible]; Flavel L. Sheldon, Bay Shore, $10; Alfonso Brooks, Larks, $1[illegible]. Widows—Frances A. Bennett, [illegible], $8; Samantha J. McKibben, [illegible], $12; Katrina McQueen, By[illegible]; Louisa Landon, Sturgis, $8; Josephine A. Adams, Morrice, $12.

Accidentally Shot His Son.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 13.—Walter Green, the 15-year-old son of a well-known piano tuner, was the central figure in a wild west show, in which an old revolver was unloaded, and the father and others gave realistic imitations of shooting Indians. The family was suddenly startled by the gun being discharged. The bullet hit Walter in the back of the head and he may not recover.

Softening the Blow.

The cashier of a certain firm had absconded, and the staff of clerks were deciding on a fit and proper person to acquaint the head of the firm of the fact on his arrival.

Ultimately the matter was left in the hands of the head clerk, possibly because none of the others cared to undertake the responsibility.

There had been a dogfight in the street, and a small crowd was just dispersing as the chief's carriage dashed up.

"What's that crowd after, Jorkins?" demanded the head of the firm.

The chief clerk thought he recognized a chance of breaking the news gently and seized it.

"The vacancy, sir," he replied.

"Vacancy? What vacancy?"

"Cashier, sir."

"But we want no cashier, Jorkins."

"Beg pardon, sir; but we've a vacancy for one!"

"Jorkins, are you mad?"

"No, sir. That is, sir, I don't know, sir. Fact is, sir—all the cash is gone and—and"—

"Well?"

"The cashier's gone with it, sir."

From the way the old man took it the clerk thought he might just as well have blurted it out at the start.

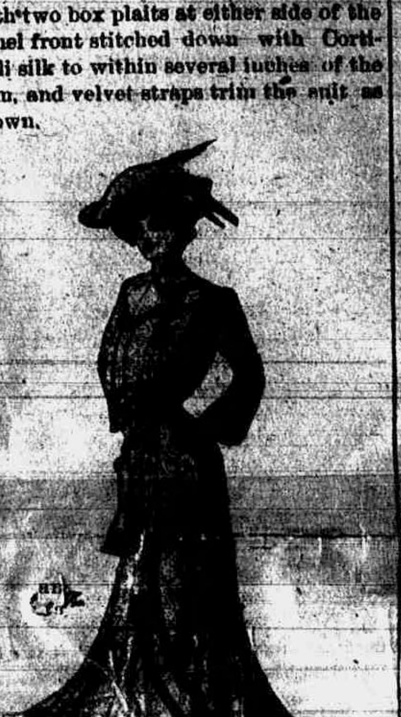
Hurled Forty Feet and Killed.

Novi, Mich., March 26.—Spencer Hammond, a respected and well-to-do citizen of this village, was instantly killed Wednesday morning by being struck by the southbound Pere Marquette express train, which does not stop at this station. Hammond was walking along the main track, near the depot, and it is supposed a freight train on the siding made so much noise that he failed to hear the approaching passenger. He was picked up by the pilot of the rapidly moving locomotive and hurled forty feet through the air, his body being crushed to a pulp.

LATEST FASHION NOTES.

Gown of Royal Blue.

Very smart and youthful is this promenade costume. Following the general preference for rough-surfaced goods it is made of royal-blue mixed suiting, trimmed with velvet bands and with straps of beige cloth stitched with beige Corticelli stitching silk. The Eton jacket is ornamented with straps in box-plait effect, velvet straps passing over the shoulders and meeting the cloth straps on the back and front. The straps of beige cloth trim the jacket in yoke effect, edge the fronts and form the revers. The skirt is made with two box plaits at either side of the panel front stitched down with Corticelli silk to within several inches of the hem, and velvet straps trim the suit as shown.



Most of fall jackets are finished with a short basque frill, shaped to fit the hips, with just the slightest elongation in front. Some of the fronts are bloused, much or little as may be most becoming to the figure; and not infrequently this blouse effect is accomplished by two box plaits, one on either side of the front, and in others the rolling revers are shaped in such a manner that a slightly bloused effect is the result.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Boys Were Drowned.—Frank Miller and Harvey Neber, boys, were drowned Sunday at Seaside Park, N. J., by the capsizing of their sailboat. Both resided in Philadelphia.

Believe They Were Murdered.—Mr. and Mrs. John Church, formerly of Omaha, who have been missing from their ranch near Moorcroft, Col., are believed to have been murdered.

Stricken Down While Praying.—Rt. Rev. Mgr. Michael Bouchet, vicar-general of the Roman Catholic diocese of Louisville, is dead. He was stricken with apoplexy while on knees in prayer and passed away after only four hours' illness.

Rather Stay in Prison.—The people imprisoned in Monterey for being partisans of Francisco Reyes, candidate for governor of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, have been offered their liberty, but prefer remaining in prison to accepting the terms offered them.

Alleged Trusts Settle Up.—The five Missouri packing companies which were fined $5,000 each on March 20 for violation of the anti-trust law, have mailed to the Missouri supreme court a draft of $27,316 in payment of fines and costs incident to the action against them.

ADJOURN MAY 14.

End of the Legislative Session in Sight.

MEMBERS ARE SUSPICIOUS

Some Think It a Plot to Defeat Primary Election Bill—A Conference Committee to Decide on That Measure Now Probable.

Lansing, Mich., April 15.—The concurrent resolution introduced by Representative Combs of Lenawee, fixing the business adjournment of the session for May 8 and final adjournment for May 14, is most acceptable to the leaders of both houses, and provided it passes the lower house will probably have no trouble in going through the senate. This will leave three full weeks after the coming Friday's recess for active business.

Some of the primary election men fear this is part of a senate plot to choke off any final action on the reform movement. The situation now certainly foreshadows a conference committee, and the possibility that adjournment day might come without any agreement having been reached between the two houses is so strong that several primary men say they will not vote to fix any date for adjournment until the great issue of the session is in a fair way for settlement.

In committee of the whole the bill appropriating $5,000 a year for two years to the Michigan Agricultural society was agreed to after an ineffectual effort on the part of Representative Anderson to make the West Michigan society an equal beneficiary.

Representative Neal's bill, by which summer resort associations are empowered to hold 700 acres and property of the value of $2,000,000, was agreed to. The object is to permit the associations at Point aux Barques and Harbor Springs to own property directly, instead of by trustees. The acreage is increased from 320 and the value from $1,000,000.

The Siggins bill, changing the age limit for the Coldwater school from 12 to 14 years, has, according to the author, already passed the house.

The house passed the Detroit water board bill. It provides for the handling of all moneys of the water commission through the city controller and city treasurer, the same as in all other city departments, and for the making of appropriations for said board through the common council and board of estimates. It completes and makes uniform the whole financial system of the city. It also provides for the issue of all bonds for water purposes by the city instead of by the board. It does not change or abridge the power of the board to fix or collect rates.

A BIG INCREASE.

Asylum and Prison Appropriations Larger Than Two Years Ago.

Lansing, Mich., April 15.—The ways and means committee of the house has decided to report out the following appropriations for the state asylums and prisons for the years 1903 and 1904 to cover the regular expenditures of these institutions for 1901 and 1902:

	1903.	1904.
Pontiac	$160,865 12	$162,786 80
Kalamazoo ...	188,824 17	197,4[illegible] 45
Traverse City.	165,938 87	171,195 60
Ionia	42,160 75	46,699 71
Newberry	58,337 12	55,122 58
Wayne asylum	48,745 95	52,521 61
St. Joe Retreat	1,353 82	588 89
	$666,720 69	$695,402 12

The prison appropriations for 1899 and 1900 were $70,000 and $68,000 and asylum appropriations for the same years $540,724 and $623,214.

Detroit Is Active.

Detroit, Mich., April 15.—Thirty-eighty prominent Detroit business men and firms have already signified that they consider it worth $100 each to become identified as charter members with the proposed big commercial body which shall include the Merchants & Manufacturers' Exchange, the Chamber of Commerce and all public-spirited firms and citizens who desire to unite. Literature setting forth the plans and the objects of the new organization was sent out only last Saturday, and this quick response, embracing as it does well on to half of the 100 responses which are required to make the $10,000 fund with which it is desired to commence operations, is very gratifying to those having the matter in charge.

Michigan's March Death Record.

Lansing, Mich., April 15.—The death record of the state for the month of March, according to the returns in the department of state, was 3,034, the rate being 14.4 per thousand. Important causes of death were as follows: Tuberculosis of the lungs, 197; other forms of tuberculosis, 40; Typhoid fever, 48; diphtheria and croup, 34; scarlet fever, 22; measles, 29; whooping cough, 24; pneumonia, 403; diarrheal diseases, under 2 years, 51; influenza, 140; cancer, 143; accidents and violence, 150.

Farmers Oppose Twine Plant.

Lansing, Mich., April 15.—At the weekly meeting of the Legislative Farmers' club last night the proposition of installing a binder twine plant in the state prison at Jackson was discussed. About 75 per cent of the members seemed opposed to the idea. Several object to the idea of the state entering into competition with an industry operated by free workmen.

Kalamazoo Citizen Stricken.

Kalamazoo, Mich., April 15.—Albert Conklin, a well-known resident of this city, dropped dead in the saloon of Peter Van Peenen. He was playing pedro, when he exclaimed, "Oh, God, I'm sick!" and fell over in his companion's arms. Death finished out the hand. Cause, apoplexy.

Burned Wrong Negro.

New Orleans, La., April 15.—The Times Shreveport special says: It has been established beyond any cause for debate that the negro who was killed Saturday and whose body was burned at an early hour Sunday morning, as the murderer of Mrs. Alice Matthews, was innocent of the crime.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at C. A. Wright's drug store.

WAR ON UNIONS

New Orleans Convention Sounds the Keynote.

POSITION CLEARLY DEFINED

Labor Commissioner Wright Pours Oil on the Troubled Waters and "Golden Rule" Jones Boldly but Vainly Championed Organized Labor

New Orleans, April 16.—The particular interest in Wednesday's session of the National Association of Manufacturers was in the report of the resolutions committee embodying a declaration of principle on the labor question and the definite and positive stand of the association on the vital question.

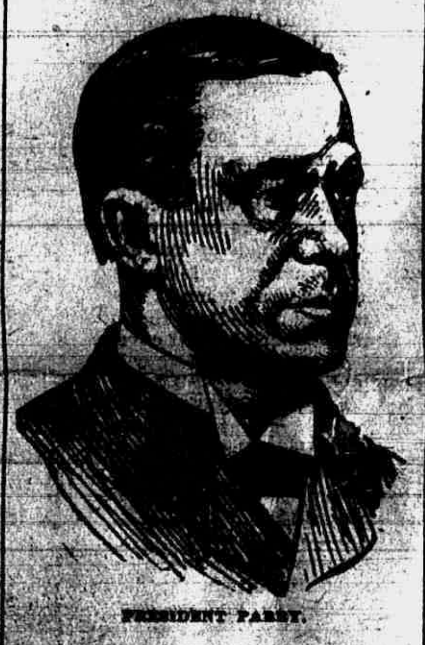
At noon the committee announced its report as ready. The labor question immediately came to the front in the shape of a resolution declaring against boycotts and lockouts, recognizing the right of labor to organize, but "without interference with the liberty of employers or employe," denying the right of unions to fix wages, and pledging the association to oppose all legislation not in accord with the foregoing principles.

A motion to adopt the resolutions brought a protest from James F. Taler of Cincinnati, who demanded that the resolution be printed and held over until today. Mr. Taler was supported by Mayor Jones of Toledo, and a rising vote was demanded. The motion to defer action was lost by a heavy vote and the resolutions were adopted, as follows:

Resolutions Adopted.

"1. Fair dealing is the fundamental and basic principle on which relations between employes and employers should rest.

"2. The National Association of Manufacturers is not opposed to organizations of labor as such, but is unalterably opposed to boycotts, blacklists and other illegal acts of interference with the personal liberty of employer and employe.



PRESIDENT PARRY.

"3. No person should be refused employment or in any way discriminated against on account of membership or non-membership in any labor organization, and there should be no discrimination against or interference with any employe who is not a member of such organizations.

"4. With due regard to contracts, it is the right of the employe to leave his employment whenever he sees fit, and it is the right of employer to discharge any employe when he sees fit.

"5. Employers must be free to employ their workpeople at wages mutually satisfactory, without interference or dictation on the part of the individual organizations not directly parties to such contracts.

"6. Employers must be unmolested and unhampered in the management of their business and in the use of any methods or systems of pay which are just and equitable.

"7. No limitation should be placed upon the opportunities of any person to learn any trade to which he or she may be adapted.

"8. This association disapproves absolutely of strikes and lockouts and favors an equitable adjustment of all differences between employers and employes.

"9. The National Association of Manufacturers pledges itself to oppose any and all legislation not in accord with the foregoing declaration."

Wright's Speech.

President Roosevelt had been invited to attend the convention, but owing to his enforced absence named Commissioner of Labor Carroll D. Wright to represent him. Mr. Wright spoke on the relations between employer and employe, touching on modern business combinations, and defending organized labor, so bitterly assailed by President Parry Tuesday. Mr. Wright said in part:

"Some of the methods of the labor union are to be condemned. So are some of the methods of the capitalistic organization to be condemned, but because they cannot get on together does not mean that either or both should be destroyed. They must get on together. That is the necessity of the time, and it is to the intelligence of the leaders of both interests that society at large looks for the development of industry on a basis of social progress.

"The great question for employers and employes is, will they in the conduct of their mutual affairs excite the militant spirit or invoke that peaceful consideration which leads to the adoption of the highest elements of business interests?"

Are Not Deceived.

Washington, April 15.—The department of justice has no information to indicate that the Northern Securities company will abandon its case. On the contrary, all the information in the possession of the department is to the effect that the company will appeal to the United States supreme court and contest the case to the end.

Embezzler Captured.

San Francisco, April 15.—Christian Senf of Louisville, Ky., late assistant cashier of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis road, accused of embezzlement of $2,000 of the company's funds, is under arrest in this city, awaiting the arrival of an officer from Kentucky with extradition papers.

BY DIRECT VOTE

The Colby Bill Now Before the Legislature

TO ELECT U. S. SENATORS

A Complete Outline of the Plan Proposed by the Bill Which the Committee Has Agreed to Report Out at Once.

Lansing, Mich., April 16.—The house elections committee has agreed to report out Representative Colby's bill, providing for the nomination of candidates for United States senators by direct vote. Mr. Colby, chairman of the committee, says he will send copies of the bill to Senators Alger and Burrows and ask them to express an opinion on it.

The bill provides for the election of candidates at each November election preceding a session of the legislature, at which senators are to be elected. The nominating ballot will be attached to the regular election ballot, and no vote for the selection of a candidate for senator will be counted unless the voter marks his ballot for at least three-fourths of the names on the Republican ticket. The names of candidates for United States senator are to be printed below the names on the county ticket. Each candidate, to get his name on the ticket, must file a petition with the secretary of state at least forty days before election. Returns are to be canvassed precisely as in the election of governor. The concluding sentence of the bill says:

"The secretary of state shall transmit to each house of the next legislature, within five days of the opening thereof, a correct statement of all lawful votes cast within the state for United States senator of each political party, as herein provided, as shown by the canvass made thereof by the state board of canvassers, which shall be spread at length upon the journal of each house."

"This bill does not provide the machinery for the election of United States senators by popular vote," says Colby. "That would be beyond our power. But that legislature which will go behind the returns from the people in order to set up a candidate for the United States senate will be a legislature such as has never been elected yet."

Not Ready to Adjourn.

The house of representatives is not ready to adjourn. When the Combs concurrent resolution, fixing the final date of the session of 1903 for May 14, Representative Morrice moved that the resolution be referred to the elections committee. Representative Anderson moved an amendment that it be sent to the labor committee, of which he is a member, and of which Representative Duncan of Detroit is chairman. Combs voted alone in favor of the resolution. Representative Colby and the other primary election men will do all they can to prevent the fixing of the date of adjournment until the senate at least shows signs of doing business on primary election legislation. The only signs so far manifested from the upper house indicate that nothing is to be done this week at least, the Colby-Powell-Stone bill having been sent by the senate back to the house for reprinting.

In the senate, Senators Burns and Baird again attempted to rush through the Burns-Westover bill. Senator Lockerby pointed out two serious defects in the bill, one of which gave the state game warden authority, upon the payment of $10, to let individuals owning lands, or members of clubs who maintain game preserves in the state, to ship certain parts of their game to their friends outside of the state. It provided for the payment of the $10, but made no provision for the game warden to turn the money over to the state. It was voted to refer the bill to the committee on judiciary.

The senate committee on public health have reported out favorably a bill prohibiting druggists from using physicians' prescriptions unless authorized by the doctor writing the prescription.

The Combs bill, to abolish the office of game warden, will be reported out of the house committee without recommendation.

It begins to look as if a stiff fight will be put up for the passage of the bill pending in the senate for the Sunday closing of theaters. A committee, representing a large association of actors, with headquarters in New York and Chicago, wish to be heard. They say the purpose of their organization is to relieve the overworked members of the profession by reducing the number of days on which they have to work from seven to six. They claim the only way they can do this is to compel Sunday closing. They are making a fight in several states this year and hope to include Michigan.

Ministers Get Jobs.

The Wabash Raging.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 16.—Thirty families in central Terre Haute were compelled to abandon their homes on account of the sudden rise of the Wabash river. The water stands nineteen feet [illegible] and is still rising.

Railroad Bridge Collapsed.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 16.—Because the piers were weakened by the flood, the west span of the Grand Trunk bridge over the Grand went down under a train of freight cars being switched across. Trains will be sent over the Pere Marquette to Lowell.

Makes a Clean Sweep.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures burns, sores, bruises, cuts, boils, ulcers, skin eruptions and piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by C. A. Wright, druggist.

NICE AGUINALDO.

His Pleasant Plan to Assassinate General Otis.

Washington, April 16.—While examining an immense quantity of papers captured from the Filipino insurgents, Captain John R. M. Taylor of the Fourteenth infantry, acting under the direction of Colonel Edwards of the department of insular affairs, a few days ago discovered a remarkable document indorsed on the back with a direction to kill General Otis. That indorsement Captain Taylor insists is in the handwriting of Aguinaldo, the insurgent chief. A translation of the document is as follows:

"Our honorable president: We, the signers, who subscribe the declaration appended; by these presents protest against the American proclamation; we recognize no authority but that of God and the revolutionary government and we offer our lives and property for the independence of our country.

"FELICIANO CRUZ."

"Manila-San Miguel-Jan. 12, 1899."

Twenty-five signatures follow.

On the back is written, in the handwriting of Aguinaldo: "Leberino Kotjonko, Feliciano de Cruz, to kill General Otis. Commissioned."

Captain Taylor called the attention of the chief of the bureau of insular affairs to this document in the following letter:

"Sir: I have the honor to enclose herewith a copy and translation of an important document I found among the records of the Philippine insurgent government yesterday. The note on the back is in the handwriting of Emilio Aguinaldo, a handwriting with which I am familiar and one of such peculiar mannerisms that it cannot be mistaken by one who has seen much of it. I have a quantity of holographic letters and notes in my official possession, the most cursory comparison between them and the handwriting of this note will show its identity.

"On Jan. 4, 1899, a proclamation was issued by General Otis, in which he declared the sovereignty of the United States over the Philippines. Many protests were drawn up in the Philippines against this, most of them drawn up by order of the insurgent government, but this letter was probably an unsolicited evidence of the adhesion of some Katipunan lodge, or of one of the popular clubs in Manila organized by Sandico while in the pay of the United States government; clubs whose name covered their real purpose, the formation of groups ready at a given signal to attack the Americans within the city."

THE OMAHA TRAGEDY.

Police Think They Are Close to Solving the Mystery.

Omaha, Neb., April 16.—The Knight mystery has settled down to the work of two searching parties, one for Frank K. Knight and the other for the body of his wife. Several seeming clues to the location of the body of the supposedly dead woman have been followed, but without success. The latest is a report that a wagon containing two men was seen late Saturday night near the river in North Omaha. Detectives have found where a wagon was driven to the river's edge and turned sharply. They believe this find will develop something very soon.

Anxious relatives of Mrs. Knight have telegraphed and written Chief Donahue for information of the missing woman, and all have notified him that they have had no letter from her for ten days.

It has been learned that Knight purchased a new spade a few days before the disappearance of his wife, but the detectives have been unable to locate it. Neighbors saw Knight using it and to one of them he remarked that he had just purchased it.

Million-Dollar Fire.

Beaumont, Tex., April 16.—A careless workman kicked over a lantern at one of the Caldwell oil wells on block 38, Hogg-Swayne tract, on Spindle Top and started a fire that resulted in the loss of property valued at $1,000,000 and the bankruptcy of twenty or more of the smaller companies. There were 175 wells on the three blocks, and only five of the derricks and pump houses are left standing. Every company that had property in the Hogg-Swayne tract is a loser. The fire swept the three blocks covered with derricks and pump houses clear of all its buildings. The derricks left are on the edges and are few and far between. None of the companies had a cent of insurance. The fire started near the southern edge of block 35 and spread three ways. Pumping stations, derricks and pipe lines all fell before it. Large engines and thick pipe melted in the heat. It is estimated that seventeen of the wells sustained an average direct loss of $3,000. This is exclusive of half a million dollars more, the aggregate loss on production and other indirect damages. Among the losers are: London Oil & Pipe Line Co., Saldwell Oil Co., Spindle Top Power Co., Central Power and Equipment Co., Pumping Station Dividend Oil Co., Detroit-Beaumont, Palestine-Beaumont, Sun Co., Advance Oil Co., Queen City, Queen of Waco, Drummers, Alamo, Buckeye, Ground Floor, Manhattan, Borealis and Buffalo.

Sensational Testimony.

Frankfort, Ky., April 16.—Frank Cecil, who has been away from Kentucky since his indictment last year as accessory to the murder of Governor Goebel, and who recently surrendered, gave sensational testimony in the trial of James Howard. Cecil corroborated Culton, Broughton, Golden and others as to the alleged conspiracy. He also said that Caleb Powers, then secretary of state, told him that a man had been secured to come here from the mountains to kill Goebel. If this man failed to arrive, Powers told him he (Cecil) would be paid $2,500 if he would fire the shot. Cecil says he declined. Governor W. S. Taylor, he testified, called him into his private office and told him the same thing. Taylor said he had saved $2,500 from his campaign fund, and that he would pay immediately. Taylor also mentioned Youtsey to the witness and referred witness to him.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at C. A. Wright's drug store.

When you hear a great deal of one side of a story, the other side receives from you a great deal of sympathy.

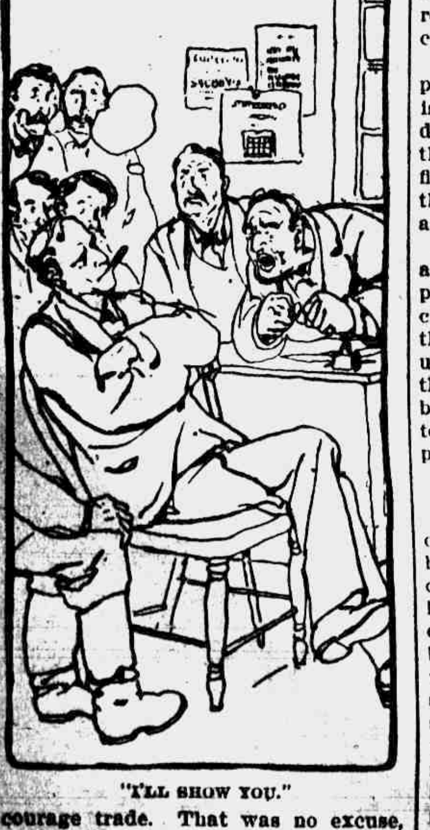
BILL HOOPER'S LEGAL LORE

...By George F. Canis

Copyright, 1901, by G. F. Canis.

Lawyers had poor picking in Deadwood in the hurrah days of the camp. Somehow the motley crowd there got into the habit of settling disputes out of court—mostly with six shooters and Winchesters. Homicides were of frequent occurrence—in fact, the "man for breakfast" schedule was observed. But vigilantes often interfered and persisted in dropping the killer, even though discussion of the incident was continued. Then, too, when a shot was taken at a claim jumper, that was considered a privileged communication, according to the unwritten law. Except for the fashion and common practice of the camp all the lawyers in it—and there were lots of them—would have had a case apiece and at short intervals. As matters stood, however, it wasn't often that any one of them was able even to arrange for a fee.

When Bill Hooper took a case for $25, his law partner seriously objected, though it was the first either had had in weeks. Bill said he did it to encourage trade. That was no excuse, for while human anatomy might be carved with impunity or any sharp instrument, prices couldn't be cut. Bill expressed the opinion that his client was a fool for employing a lawyer anyway, for he didn't have a ghost of a show of winning his case, and to take his gold was just like finding it. These were also trivial matters, he was informed. As for finding gold, wasn't that what brought them all to the camp? No one expected to work for it.



"I'LL SHOW YOU."

Bill wanted to stand well with his partner, who had kith or kin somewhere from whom he thought he could borrow money if it came to the pinch. Bill was lame. As the roads to Cheyenne and Sidney were both long and dusty, he preferred to ride on a stage rather than walk out of camp. From the looks of things, unless business picked up one means or the other would have to be resorted to before long. It was policy for Bill to humor his partner. He went to the saloon keeper who had mashed the head of a man with a bottle and told him he would have to charge him $100 instead of $25 to take charge of his case. When the client remarked something about it being a holdup game and declined to be robbed, the lawyer told him there was no defense, for the assault had been unprovoked and $100 would be dirt cheap to get him off. Bill pointed out that the victim was likely to die, in which event the place to which the ginmill man would go was not noted for laying up treasures. Finally a bargain was made, with the understanding that a hundred dollar fee would be paid if the case was dismissed or the accused went free; otherwise no charge was to be made by Bill.

The trial was held in the office of the justice of the peace, and the room was packed. Preliminaries over, the justice asked who appeared for the defense. No one answered. Everybody looked at Bill, who was standing in the doorway. He continued smoking, but made no other sign. When questioned, the prisoner said Bill was his counsel.

"Nop."

"The prisoner says you agreed to."

"He's mistaken."

"Do you intend to take part in this case?"

"Nop."

"Do you refuse to appear in this case?"

"Yep."

"What do you mean, Counselor Hooper, by taking a man's money and then refusing to do your duty to your client?"

"Didn't see the color of his money," was the only comment of Bill. He and the justice were ancient enemies. The latter thought he saw a chance to put the lawyer in a hole. He conferred with the prisoner and then fairly roared: "Hooper, you ought to be turned out of court and out of camp. The prisoner says he hired you to defend him and took you for a man of your word and depended on you and consulted nobody but you when there are piles of men in this camp what knows more law than you."

Bill waited till the justice exhausted himself and sank back in his chair. Puffing away at his cigar so he wouldn't have to waste more time and matches on it when ready to resume his smoking, he exclaimed:

"You see it was this way: Jim come to me and wanted me to take this case. I told him I didn't want to take his money for nothing, but just to humor him said he could give me a hundred if I got him off. I knew there was no use trying a case before this court and didn't fool away my time fixing for it. It's just like I told Jim—a man can't get justice in this camp till we're rid of the duffer what thinks he knows law and don't know a little bit."

"You did, did you?' howled the justice.

"That's what I did," blandly remarked Bill.

"So you go 'round telling the boys I don't know nothing 'bout law, do you?"

The crowd guffawed in chorus, either because Bill's estimate was common property or the expression of it by the justice himself gave them a chance to concur therewith. Here the temper of the justice boiled over. He thumped his desk and yelled out, "Did you tell this prisoner he couldn't get justice in this court?"

"This is no court," was the comment.

Without seeming to notice the sarcasm or implied insult, the justice repeated his question. It called forth this response: "Yes, I said just that, and, what's more, I believe it, too, and so does everybody in this camp. A man can't get justice while"—

Gasping with rage, the justice threw himself on top of the desk, whacking it with his fists till the boards cracked and delivered this decision: "I'll show you, you clubfoot duffer, that a man can get justice in this court; I'll show this camp what a liar you are, Bill Hooper—the prisoner's discharged."

Outside the office the man who was released from custody paid Bill $100, as he had promised, and then took the next stage out of Deadwood, for he was afraid of vigilantes.

Foiling the Common Enemy.

The widow of an English army officer was visiting me with her son, a charming little fellow about five years old. The mother told me with pride how honorable he was, how high minded, and that she had never for an instant seen in him indications of any traits that were low or base.

The child was put to bed every night at 6. We dined at 7. I was sitting in the drawing room one evening before dinner. The room was dark, the doors open, and my seat commanded a view of both the stairway and the dining room. The table was set, and in the center was a dish of tempting peaches.

Presently there came to my ears the patter of little bare feet, and a childish figure clad in a nightgown stole down the stairs, through the hall, into the dining room, up to the table. Small fingers seized the topmost peach from the dish, and the little fellow turned and trotted away up stairs again.

As I sat in the dark in an agony of apprehension there came again the patter, patter of little feet, and a white clad figure stole down the stairs, through the hall, into the dining room, up to the table. Small fingers replaced the stolen peach just where it had been, and a stubborn little voice muttered, "Done again, old devil!"—Harper's.

Freaks In Hunting.

The biggest authenticated bag secured at one shot of which I have ever heard consisted of one rabbit (the cause of the shot), one beater, one onlooker (a French cook), a boy and a dog. I once shot nine snipe at a shot, but this was in South America. They were on the ground, and they were shot for the pot. I have read of a sportsman (not Baron Munchausen) who shot a bumblebee and a butterfly right and left, and indeed sometimes a large bumblebee does for an instantaneous second look uncommonly like a distant advancing grouse, just as, when on the alert for partridges, the fieldfares breasting the hedge often cause a nervous twitch of the gun.

Curious circumstances sometimes occur out shooting. A friend walking in line down a turnip field saw a startled hare running fast and straight toward him up a furrow. He stood still, waiting for her to turn, but the hare with her peculiar vision did not see him and ran her head plump against his shin, killing herself and very seriously bruising his leg.—Fortnightly.

Love is doubted when it leaves the cost-mark on the present.

IN OLDEN TIMES

Today the Herald will print the second article on

OLD TECUMSEH

And it will be read with interest.

Editing a country newspaper in the old days must have been like all other branches of labor, somewhat more difficult than those tasks have now become if we are to accept the old HERALD files as authority. In 1863 THE TECUMSEH HERALD blossomed out with a motto, "The Constitution, the Union and the Enforcement of the Laws," and the editor says "At the head of our columns we have placed this motto, three distinct propositions but politically inseparable as long as our republic shall continue to exist. We have some views to present on each of these propositions and as it stands first in order we commence with the constitution." Then follows a column and a half of "views" on the subject in which the whole range of ancient history is searched for examples to substantiate his ideas.

The next week follows a fine essay on "The Union," concluding with a grand Phillepic in the next issue on the "Enforcement of the Laws." He quotes Plato, Aristotle, Demosthenes and Algernon Sidney in glowing eloquence and contiguous to this oration (but in another column) puts in a wild appeal to his subscribers to bring him potatoes, apples, onions, "in fact any sort of farm produce will be taken for delinquent subscriptions.' Evidently his lines had not fallen in easy places.

Some sort of moralizing seems to be expected of him every week, and he is fully up to the public expectation for he runs the whole gamut of social religious and political questions with convincing and scholarly eloquence and then in the end has to beg for his onions and potatoes.

The date of this issue is July 2, 1863, and two important events have taken place in our village. "A commencement has been made on the new Methodist church and the foundation is laid and they are now awaiting the brick. This will be when completed one of the largest and finest churches in this county, and speaks well for the enterprise and public spirit of our Methodist friends."

"Messrs. Patterson and Steele have about completed their pleasure steamer, entitled the Pearl, and in the absence of other amusements on the coming Fourth, they will be on hand at the Globe Mill pond to aid those who wish to enjoy that day apart from the busy scenes of life and the dust and heat of a crowded assembly. As this is the first steamboat ever launched in our place, may it be liberally patronized."

P. W. Adams contributes an article on the annual meeting of the alumni of the Union School in which he says "Mr. Scoval Stacy, of the Michigan University, in a pleasing manner introduced his subject, 'Ernest Men,' and was also prevailed upon to recite his humorous original poem, 'The Man in the Moon,' which not only contained much humor but also much sense." The Tecumseh string band were in attendance and added much to the entertainment.

The editor remarks that this same band serenaded him last Monday night and adds, "In our time we have attended many musical entertainments and in none of which we must confess has it been our lot to visit one that could excel the string band in Tecumseh in playing. We have taken the liberty to publish the names of this excellent quoir. They are as follows: C. Anderson, B. Roberts, W. Gray, S. Beers and C. Burridge, each of whom will accept our thanks." (We should think it was taking a liberty with their names to mention them in connection with such unique spelling and atrocious grammar.)

"A box of hospital supplies has been forwarded by Mrs. C. M. Bissell to Detroit, consisting of canned and dried fruits, twenty jars; slippers, two dozen pairs: several half worn shirts, sheets, handkerchiefs, stockings, magazines and papers. For dried fruit we are indebted to the Sabbath-school scholars in District No. 6. We saw on some packages the ages of children 3 and 7 years who had busied their little hands in drying cherries for the suffering soldiers. Will not other children commence drying apples and sending in and they will be forwarded promptly."

"Donation in money from Ridgeway by Mr. Eaton $22.20. By J. DePuy collected in the street at the celebration of the fall of Vicksburg $4.00. Purchased with the above 190 yards calico. This calico is being made into shirts by the ladies as rapidly as possible, for we have heard that many soldiers are lying in the hospitals with nothing on but their blankets and we feel sure that this expenditure will meet with the approbation of the doners and be gratefully received by the suffering soldiers.

C. M. BISSELL."

The editor adds, "If there was ever a true and tried friend to the sick and wounded soldier, it is Mrs. C. M. Bissell of this village No one or in fact the whole town put together, has used the exertion to procure supplies that she has and we have no doubt many a poor fellow in his silent prayer has pronounced her name blessed."

"Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Strong wish to have inserted in your valuable paper this card. Last Saturday evening we were unexpectedly but agreeably surprised with a visit from our friends Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wishard, Drew Lilley, Bidwell, H. C. Conkling, G. W. Ketcham, Baxter, E. Tindall, Hicks, LeBaron, Bills, Adam, and A. D. Hall. Rev. Wishard, in behalf of the others, presented an elegant set of silver, consisting of tankard, two goblets lined with gold and a slop bowl, as a token of their appreciation of his services as leader of the choir of the Presbyterian church."

The editor says the roads are very dry and dusty and the weather exceedingly hot yet he asks his subscribers to bring him wood and says he is very much in need of it. Doubtless his patient wife had never heard of a gasoline stove nor ever used any prepared breakfast food.

"We noticed a runaway last week of a horse with a lumber buggy. We can learn nothing of the particulars more than what we saw, and that was the buggy pretty well torn to pieces and the pickets on the fence of Capt. Hugh Richard pretty well riddled. The horse brought up in front of the bank where he was secured without any further damage. The horse is said to have belonged to Chas. Strong." He does not explain what a "lumber buggy" is or why he needs any particulars in regard to the accident when he was an eye-witness of the same.

July 16, 1863, we find the item, "We noticed the farmers were using their sickles last week in the grain fields" and on the 23rd he says "Last Saturday was a gaily day in Tecumseh. The streets were a perfect jam of teams and people. Farmers we should judge were about through with the cutting of wool grass and wheat this year," also, "We understand that the Board of Council of Tecumseh passed a resolution that a sidewalk be laid from the corner of Chicago street to the depot on Railroad street, west side; a very sensible resolution."

"Found, in the street opposite Smith & VanTynes workshop in Brownville on the morning of the 22nd, a ladies brown cloth Talma. The owner can have the same by paying for this notice" Would'nt we like to see that "Talma" and know just where she wore it. July 30. "Six or seven cows walked into the garden of Peter Sherman last night the gate being left open and entirely distroyed it. We supposed there was an ordinance restraining cattle from running at large in the night time." We presume it was the garden and not the gate which was destroyed, though the writer is a little vague on that point.

It is announced that "a curiosity may be seen at the room of Mr. S. B. Fuller in Wm. Richards new block in shape of a knitting machine. It will knit a pair of socks or stockings almost as quick as a streak of lightning will shoot. If you don't believe it call on Mr. F. with the yarn and he will show you."

Evidently some of the editors wild appeals to his subscribers for onions and potatoes had taken effect for he acknowledges as follows, "Horace Eaton of this town will please accept our thanks for a peck of the largest pears we have seen in many a day. He remembers the poor printer, Go thou and do likewise. Mr. Horton of Raisin, sent us a Panama watermelon weighing 20 lbs. this morning, the first we have seen in market this season (Aug 13) We were presented by our friend Daniel Gillett, with two gallons of nice new cider. (Aug. 6) Thanks for remembrance of good things to the printer."

"That same Pennington of Macon, presented us with some splendid apples, words will not express our thanks," and Dan Soper of Hillsdale, is thanked for a piece of new music 'Babylon is fallen', it is a sequel to Kingdom Coming" and after all these substantial evidences that he is affectionally remembered by his readers he has the nerve to publish the sharp answer to his cricics.

"No apology. We had three hands engaged on our paper last week and forsooth that we did not do the work ourself it was not issued on the proper day. It may be possible that others feel a deeper interest in the issues of the HERALD than we do, if so they can have the establishment by merely paying us for our time that we have spent for the last 16 weeks and securing Mr. Richards his rents, the laboror is worthy of his hire. We know that we paid ours, so there was no excuse for the non-support of the paper." He also states that an article on "slander" was received too late for this issue and will appear next week.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

FORCE

Society of Christian Endeavor, Denver, 1903.

The Passenger Department of the Chicago & North-Western Railway has issued a very interesting folder on the subject of the Christian Endeavor meeting to be held at Denver, July 9th to 13th, together with information as to reduced rates and sleeping car service, as well as a short description of the various points of interest in Colorado usually visited by tourists. Send 2-cent stamp to W. B. Kniskern, Passenger Traffic Manager, Chicago, for copy.

Make the Most of Your Gifts.

Personality has done wonders with both heredity and environment. It has made moderate gifts accomplish marvelous things. Men with moderate gifts, by patient and persistent application have put to shame the splendidly equipped, who have indolently frittered away their patrimony. Out of the most untoward surroundings men have found their way to the grandest achievements. The boy from the log cabin has outstripped the boy from the palace. The barefooted boy has outstripped the boy of pampered indulgence. The plodder has outstripped the genius. The tortoise has passed the hare. Whether a man be richly endowed or moderately endowed, his success will depend on the use he makes of what God has given him.—Independent.

Spoke From Experience.

A man who tries to uphold all his statements with the prop of personal experience is pretty sure, sooner or later, to find himself in difficulties.

"What kind of posts should you say I'd better have for my piazza?" asked a summer resident of the oracle of Bushville. "Cedar?"

"No," was the instant reply; "not 'less you want to pay for poor stuff. Git pine. Pine will last you a hundred years."

"Are you sure?" asked the summer resident doubtfully.

"Sure!" echoed the oracle. "I never state a thing without I can prove it. I've tried 'em both. Tried 'em twice on my south porch, I tell you!"

Try This—Drop a Penny.

Have you ever noticed the interest that money attracts even if it is only a single cent? The next time that you see a copper coin dropped in a street car just observe. Every eye in the car will turn to the spot where it dropped, and there will be manifested a real general concern over its recovery. Two or three heads are likely to come in contact over the point of its disappearance, and then their owners will draw suddenly back and try to appear unconcerned, but in another second they are again leaning forward.

The man who dropped the cent is usually the first who appears to have brushed memory of the trivial occurrence aside, but just as soon as the eyes in the car have turned from him his own are sure to go back to the floor in the hope that the truant coin will be seen.

When he has gone, there is a renewed interest among the passengers, for the stage of "finders keepers" has arrived, and those near the spot of disappearance become quite diligent until they are aware they make a center of attraction. But interest in that little coin is not lost while there is a passenger left, and when the car is empty the conductor takes his turn and resurrects the cent.—New York Herald.

Lamb Gourd of Samara.

In a book called "The Duke of Holstein's Travels Into Persia and Muscovy," published in 1636, there is an account of a curious vine product called the 'lamb gourd,' which runs as follows: "In the neighborhood of Samara, Russia, there grows a gourd which closely resembles a lamb in all its members. It changes place in growing as far as the stalk will reach, and wheresoever it turns the grass withers and dies. This change of the gourd plant the Muscovites call 'feeding.' They further say that when it ripens, the stalk withers and that the outward rind of the gourd is then covered with a sort of wool, which they use [illegible]

Scaliger also makes mention of the lamb gourd and says that it grows until the grass fails and that it then dies for want of nourishment. He also says that the wolf is the only animal that will feed upon it.

An Interesting Animal.

Proprietor of Menagerie—Walk up, ladies and gentlemen, and see our famous lion, Mustapha. He is as sensible as any human being. A French sergeant once pulled out of his foot a thorn on which he had stepped. What do you think the noble creature did? It devoured, one by one, in order of rank, all the superior officers of our sergeant until the latter found himself promoted to the grade of colonel. Walk in, gentlemen. Only a penny.—From the German.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when good medicine is so much needed as in the Spring.

The blood is impure, weak and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength, and want of animation.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Make the blood pure, vigorous and rich, create appetite, give vitality, strength and animation, and cure all eruptions. Have the whole family begin to take them today.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has been used in our family for some time, and always with good results. Last spring I was all run down and got a bottle of it, and as usual received great benefit." MISS BEULAH BOYCE, Stowe, Vt.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

When a man starts out to reform himself, he has undertaken a job that will keep him busy for life.

A Lesson in Health.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. J. J. ORR.

When a man has run his race in this world and the end comes he is out of breath.

"Itching hemorrhoids were the plague of my life. Was almost wild. Doan's Ointment cured me quickly and permanently, after doctors had failed." C. F. Cornwell, Valley Street, Saugerties, N. Y.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Al. W. Martin's $30,000 production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will appear at New Bradley on Monday April 20th. Mr. Martin has successfully solved the problem of combining the old and the new "Uncle Tom's Cabin" into a big spectacular play that leaves out nothing worth retaining of either the straight method or the circus method.

All the worthy features of the old land marks are retained, while the thread of the story has been cleverly reconstructed making it more coherent; this with the introduction of a host of high class specialties thoroughly in keeping with the piece, goes far toward forming an evening's entertainment. It will be a real loss to miss witnessing. Over sixty people are with the company and three Pullman palace cars each 60 feet in length are used to transport this mammoth aggregation from city to city. A spectacular street parade showing the enormous resource of this attraction will be given.

AN ADDRESS

To All Christian People of Tecumseh and Clinton.

That the Christian Church does not in this, our day, command the respect and exert the influence in the world which she should as "The Church of the Living God, the Pillar and Ground of the Truth," (1 Tim. 3:14) must be apparent to any observing and thinking man. That the Church is divided into so many different "religious persuasions" is sufficient evidence that the fault in great part lies with the Church herself. Christian people are not agreed among themselves as to the very principles of the Gospel which they are to proclaim unto the world. (Witness for instance the fundamental differences represented by the various churches with which you are familiar.)

It will be admitted at once that this state of affairs may not be laid to the charge of Almighty God. If He has undertaken to set forth to man a Way of Salvation, a Way opened at such great cost indeed, it must be assumed at once that He has been at sufficient pains to set forth that Way so plainly that no man need err therein. The fact that so much difference of opinion now exists over the Way of Salvation seems clearly to indicate that it is we, ourselves, who are responsible; we have in some way wandered or suffered ourselves to be led astray from the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Not long since I asked a certain Sunday School what Jesus Christ preached about when He was here on earth. Not one in the school, scholar or teacher even, could give the proper answer. That experience might have been repeated I suppose, speaking with moderation, in half the Sunday Schools of the land. And yet what Jesus preached about is told us on nearly every page of the Gospels. (See Math. 4:17, 33; 9:35; 10:7; Luke 9:2; 10:9; Acts 1:3; etc. See also the Parables.) And of those who might have given the correct answer few would have been able to explain to what He referred. The conclusion is that the Church herself, has, to a large extent, lost sight of the real Way of Salvation, and has neither taught intelligently in her Sunday Schools nor preached intelligently in her pulpits the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Is it any wonder she has lost much of her influence in the world and seems to be in danger of losing all?

Here then I hold is the root of all our trouble. Just as soon as the Church recognizes that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the Gospel of the Kingdom of God, and returns to preaching the Kingdom of God as Jesus preached it and set it up on earth, all our differences in doctrine will begin to disappear, and the barriers of division based upon these differences will give way; and, becoming strong in union, and preaching the "truth as it is in Jesus," the Church will experience such a revival of interest and power as can hardly be imagined. Indeed, I hesitate not to say that we are on the verge of a movement before which even the Reformation itself will pale. For the Reformation was only a beginning. While it broke away from error it did not fully discover the truth, the real Gospel of Jesus Christ, viz., of the Kingdom of God. Thus it left us divided in both doctrine and polity; with the result that things thus bad to begin with have gone on to worse, until they are as we find them today. In the doctrine of the Kingdom of God we have the true Standard of the Cross about which all the scattered forces of Christ may and must rally, following which we shall attain unto the glorious liberty of the Gospel, and shall be in a position to conquer the world.

All movements must start somewhere. So much interest has been manifested in the Gospel of the Kingdom by the members of my congregations, and by others indeed who have come into contact with that Gospel, that one is encouraged to believe this great movement may begin with us. It must come sooner or later, and will involve the whole Church and the whole world. For the Lord is in it; because the Gospel of the Kingdom of God is the very Gospel of Jesus Himself, and He has pledged His cooperation. (Math. 28:18, 20.)

At any rate I have but done my duty, (2 Tim. 4:2; 1 Cor. 9:16). My object is not to provoke religious controversy, but to awaken interest in a subject of vital importance to us all.

Respectfully, your Servant in the Gospel. C. C. KEMP,
Rector of St. Peters', Tecumseh and of St. John's, Clinton. Easter 1903.

THE CHURCHES.

University of Michigan men will speak in the several churches Sunday morning and also at Ridgeway and Tipton. A special meeting for men only, at the opera house at 3 p. m. Sunday, Sunbeam Quartet. At the same hour in the Methodist church will be a meeting for boys conducted by the General Secretary of the University Y. M. C. A. Union Young Peoples' meeting at the Baptist church at six o'clock and farewell union meeting at the Presbyterian church at seven o'clock.

There will be no service in St. Peter's church next Sunday.

Welcome News.

Mt. Morris, N. Y.

MR. STACY:—I hasten to write you after my card of last week, that the delinquent numbers of the HERALD have come and with them that excellent and prised number of the organization of the Presbyterian church.

I enjoy any thing from Mrs. E. B. Wood's pen and these are always retained. I have a poem of her's written in 1855, Feb. 20th, taken from that Tecumseh paper nearly 50 years ago and I have welcomed the old home news without interruption all that time.

Yours,
M. A. TALLMAN.

Crop Report.

The weather during March was fine for that month. The temperature was uniform all over the state and much much above the normal. The departure varied from 8.9 degrees in the southern countries to 10.3 degrees in the northern countries. The average temperature for the state was 9.4 degrees above the normal. The ground was practically bare all the month.

Conditions during March were very favorable for wheat. The crop grew during the month and in most cases suffered no damage, although there was but little snow to protect it. Some damage was done on low ground by heaving and on high ground by the dry weather. Considerable wheat was sown very late last fall and is consequently small for this time of the year.

Reports concerning fruit vary some, especially in regard to peaches. In some localities the buds seem to be badly killed. The recent cold weather may have injured buds since the warm weather in March had a tendency to open them up. More accurate estimates can be given next month when the buds will have developed more fully.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that lace, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free.

A WORD TO FARM TOILERS.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Home Friend of the Farmer and His Family.

After the labors and toils of the summer time, and harvesting of crops in the early autumn, many of our farmers, their wives, daughters, and sons, find themselves in a condition of health demanding careful attention if suffering is to be avoided later on. Many experience kidney trouble in some form; with some the liver is torpid; there is biliousness, nausea, and vomiting, with loss of appetite and depression of spirits. Thousands who have been exposed to cold, damp winds and rains while toiling in the harvest fields, now feel the twinges of terrible rheumatism; others run down by worry, overwork, and irregular dieting, are tormented with the pangs of dyspepsia.

To the thousands of run down, sickly, and half dead men and women in farm homes we recommend with all honesty and confidence the worker's friend, Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that can quickly and fully restore strength to the weak body and vigor to the muscles. Paine's Celery Compound tones the stomach; it removes poisonous acids from the blood which cause rheumatism; it feeds the weak and diseased nerves and banishes neuralgic tortures; it purifies the blood and gives true vitality and life. The use of Paine's Celery Compound in autumn means the establishing of a perfect physical vigor to withstand the rigors of a severe winter.

TO BE DEPENDED ON

Because it is the Experience of a Tecumseh Citizen and can Readily be Investigated.

A stranger lost in a large city would place far more dependence on the directions given him by a local resident than the guidance of another stranger like himself. This is a natural consequence of experience; it's like a ship in a strange port— a trusty pilot familiar with the harbor is always called upon to bring her safely to her moorings. So it is with endorsement; we doubt the sayings of people living at distant points because we can't investigate, but the public expression of local citizens can be depended on, for 'tis an easy matter to prove it. Evidence like the following is beyond dispute.

Postmaster J. W. Wightman, well known to every reader of this statement, says: "I have no hesitation in endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills procured at C. A. Wright's drug store. They have been used in my family and the most satisfactory results followed the treatment. They proved to be a remedy of merit. You can use my name to that effect if you think proper."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Early to bed and early to rise, makes little boys very tired.

If there is one thing more than another that a man is up to his neck in it is his shirt.

Bodily pain loses its terror if you've a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the house, Instant relief in cases of burns, cuts, sprains, accidents of any sort.

Stand fast, but never stand still.

A religion that makes no change in the life of a man has not made any change in his heart.

Let us not be too particular. It is better to have old second-hand diamonds than none at all.

The world is full of people who want to do good, but are in no hurry to start.

It is strength, not length, that succeeds in prayer.

PERE MARQUETTE CHANGE.

Agnew, Doyle and Ashley Have Resigned For Various Reasons.

Detroit, Mich., April 16.—Several important changes in the Pere Marquette were made known in Grand Rapids Wednesday. John Doyle, superintendent of tracks; Supt. J. K. V. Agnew of the Grand Rapids division, and Trainmaster A. E. Ashley have all resigned. Superintendent Doyle will become a partner of John C. Carland, a railroad and street paving contractor of Toledo. Superintendent Agnew gives ill-health as his reason for leaving the company, while Trainmaster Ashley intends to go to Oregon.

The announcement is also made in the Detroit offices of the road that George W Heath, chief clerk under General Superintendent Smith, will soon leave for Saginaw to become chief clerk in the office of Division Superintendent P. N. Place. Mr Heath was in the office at Saginaw for a number of years and has been with the Pere Marquette since 1891.

GRATIOT COUNTY SCANDAL.

Serious Outlook For County House Keeper Davis.

Ithaca, Mich., April 16.—At the investigation of the charges against Keeper Davis of the county house by the superintendents of the poor, at the court house, Lucy Hinkle of Lansing, a former inmate, testified that during his former administration Davis had criminal relations with her, under the promise to get her a home out of the county house. Other witnesses testified to abuse of inmates by Davis.

There is talk of a grand jury should the superintendents exonerate Davis.

A BETTER JOB.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Becomes a Banker.

Washington, April 15.—Milton E. Ailes, assistant secretary of the treasury, has severed his connection with the department to accept the vice-presidency of the Riggs National bank of Washington, one of the oldest and most prominent financial institutions in this section of the country. Following is President Roosevelt's letter accepting Mr. Ailes' resignation:

"White House, March 31.

"My Dear Mr. Ailes: I shall be away when your resignation comes in, and I shall ask you to consider this letter as accepting it in advance.

"I trust I need not assure you of the very great regret I feel at your going. Of course, I understand that you cannot, in justice to yourself, refuse such an offer as has been made you, but both the secretary and I will feel your going as a personal loss to us as well as to the service.

"With all good wishes for your future and heartiest thanks for all you have done in your present position, I am faithfully yours,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Secretary Shaw wrote: "I am fully advised that your retirement from public service is because of new responsibilities which you are about to assume, and while I congratulate you upon this merited recognition, I regret exceedingly that it should become necessary for you to sever your connection with the department during my incumbency. Our relations have been more than agreeable; they have been cordial and most pleasant. You certainly have my best wishes, and I predict for you a most successful career in the field of commercial activity which you have chosen."

WITHOUT SERVANTS.

Vanderbilts Spending Honeymoon Without Even Their Nurses.

Boston, April 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Claypool Vanderbilt began their honeymoon in this city and are occupying apartments at Hotel Somerset, in the back bay view here. They arrived from Newport. Their special, consisting of an engine and a passenger coach, only came as far as the Roxbury Crossing station, where the young couple alighted and took a carriage in order to avoid the curious, who were watching for them. Their suite is not the bridal suite that was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt on their bridal tour here in January, 1901, but is one of equal elegance, which commands a broad view of Commonwealth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt brought no servants and their luggage, consisting of three trunks and a grip, came on the regular Newport train, being brought to the hotel last night.

It is not known how long the young couple will remain in this city.

Poor Millionaire.

Lafayette, Ind., April 15.—Moses Fowler Chase, the young Lafayette millionaire who has been confined in the insane asylum in Paris for four years by his aunt, Mrs. Charles H. Huhme, and who has arrived at New York, where he was met by his father, Fred S. Chase, will arrive here Friday and will be taken before Judge Dehart, when his father will make application to be appointed guardian of his son's possession. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duhme of Cincinnati will also be in Lafayette with their attorneys and will contest the appointment of Fred S. Chase, who was recently made guardian of his son's property in Indiana.

Cuba's Permanent Treaty.

Havana, April 15.—President Palma has summoned a conference of administration senators, at which he will explain the United States new proposition for a permanent treaty, and will ask the leaders their opinions before proceeding therewith. It is possible that the naval station agreement may be recalled from the senate and incorporated with added provisions, with the permanent treaty. Archbishop Chapelle of New Orleans and apostolic delegate to the West Indies, has sailed for New Orleans on a brief visit.

Good For Cuba.

New York, April 15.—Sir William Van Horne has arrived by the steamer Morro Castle from Havana. Sir William says that he is busy building railroads in Cuba. "We are also building a fine hotel at Porte Principe and shall build an up-to-date hotel in Havana on the site of the old jail as soon as we can get control of the property. This hotel will have 500 rooms and be a modern hotel in every particular."

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

How About Your Heart

Feel your pulse a few minutes. Is it regular? Are you short of breath, after slight exertion as going up stairs, sweeping, walking, etc? Do you have pain in left breast, side or between shoulder blades, choking sensations, fainting or smothering spells, inability to lie on left side? If you have any of these symptoms you certainly have a weak heart, and should immediately take

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

Mr. F. H. Oaks of Jamestown, N. Y., whose genial face appears above, says: "Excessive use of tobacco seriously affected my heart. I suffered severe pains about the heart, and in the left shoulder and side; while the palpitation would awaken me from my sleep. I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and soon found permanent relief."

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

BIG GOULD DEAL.

Three Trunk Lines to Be Built Across Nebraska.

Beatrice, Neb., April 16.—The Gould interests, as represented in the Missouri Pacific railroad system, have decided upon the construction of three trunk lines in as many different directions across the state of Nebraska.

The starting point will be Virginia, a town of 150 inhabitants, on the prairie in the southeastern part of the state, and one of the present terminals of the Missouri Pacific in Nebraska. The construction of a line from Virginia to Beatrice is now under way. The title of the road, as incorporated under the laws of Nebraska, is the Kansas City, Beatrice & Northwestern. Beatrice is the first junction point of the new trunk lines. One of the lines wyill be built due west to Denver.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Canal Treaty Doomed?—A private cable dispatch received from a British source at Bogota, Colombia, says the ratification of the Colombia-United States Panama canal treaty is extremely doubtful.

Collision at Sea.—The White Star line steamer Celtic and the British steamer Heathmore, collided in the Mersey Wednesday. The Celtic was damaged amidships, but it is expected she will be able to sail for New York Friday as scheduled.

Sentenced to Death.—The Albanian soldier who shot M. Stcherbina, the Russian consul at Mitrovitza, inflicting a wound from which the latter subsequently died, has been sentenced to death, the Russian embassy at Constantinople having demanded a revision of the sentence of fifteen-years' imprisonment.

Discharged For Eating.—Because they took time for lunch at the noon hour, fifteen drivers were discharged at Primrose colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company at Mahoning City, Pa. A general strike of drivers, patchers, doorboys and loaders followed, forcing the plant to suspend operations. Several hundred men any boys are affected.

Bad Storm on Coast.—At Atlantic City and Asbury Park the severest northeaster that has visited that part of the Jersey coast since 1895 has been raging for twenty-four hours. The tide was the highest known for eighteen years. Huge breakers crashed against the piling beneath the piers and pavilions and in some places the board walk with tremendous force. Heavy timbers from the board walk have been ripped up by the incessant bombardment of the waves and carried out to sea.

Approved by the Governor.

Lansing, Mich., April 16.—The following bills have been approved by the governor:

H. B. 54 (Robinson): To regulate the method of procedure and the practice of the law in the circuit court for the county of Wayne, providing for a new jury panel each month.

H. B. 825 (Greusel): To regulate the levy and collection of special assessments to defray the cost of opening streets in the city of Detroit in cases where land has been deeded or dedicated for a part of such streets.

Probably Still Smoking.

Michigan City, Ind., April 16.—At 12:07 this morning Matthew Alexander, a negro, was hanged in the Indiana penitentiary for the murder of George Burke at Terre Haute last September. Alexander slept the early part of the evening and when awakened to prepare for the scaffold he smoked a pipe of tobacco and walked unassisted to the death room.

Town Panic-Stricken.

Howard City, Mich., April 16.—This town was thrown into a panic on account of dog though to be afflicted with rabies. Several people were chased and had to seek shelter, but luckily no one was bitten. After a two hours' chase the dog was finally shot by Sheriff Underhill. A wholesale killing of dogs is expected now, as it is though several were bitten.

MISFORTUNE OF MONEY

Rich People go to Hot Springs, Germany, and Have Special Treatment, but Still Have Their Rheumatism.

We poor people feel sorry for the rich,—they won't get something because it's cheap or advertised.

It's high-toned to spend small fortunes, and a luxury to be sick. It's "improper" to be cured at a dollar a bottle, although we have many rich clients, who are sensible and wouldn't be without Athlophoros.

In fact, Athlophoros was originated for a rich man by one of the most famous physicians. It gets at the Uric acid and dispels it. When that is done the Rheumatism is gone. It works every time.

The Uric acid clogs and poisons the blood, disables the body more or less. Athlophoros is as soothing as "oil to a burn," and especially in acute attacks will allow the breadwinner to get back to his work. It saves lots of needless suffering, and makes life worth living. All druggists sell it, or The Athlophoros Co., New Haven, Conn., will send a bottle for one dollar. It is within the reach of everyone and makes health possible to all.

WOMAN SHOT DOWN

Pistols Were Used at a Dance Near Bay City.

OFFICER SHOT IN THE FOOT

Man Named Hodge Opened Fire on Place—His Wife Shot While Departing—Hodge Put Up Desperate Fight to Escape Arrest.

Bay City, Mich., April 20.—A woman shot dead, with a bullet through her heart, a constable shot through the foot, and two other men carrying holes through portions of their wearing apparel are the net results of a shooting affray that occurred at about 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning in front of the Arbeiter hall, in Amelith, Frankenlust township, this county, following a dance given by the Arbeiter society. Two men, Marshall Hodge, aged 23, and his brother-in-law, Frank Bardwell, aged 42, are prisoners in the county jail pending an investigation by the coroner and sheriff.

Saturday night the Hodges and the Bardwells attended a dance at Arbeiter hall. Prior to going, Hodge borrowed a six shooting Colt revolver of 38 caliber, from a miner named Elliott. As near as can be learned there was no serious trouble during the dance. Mrs. Bardwell struck a man with a beer glass, she says, because he insulted her, but her husband was not implicated in it and did not know anything about it until after it was over.

Began Firing at Random.

The Hodges and Bardwells started for their homes about 2:30, the former leading. When outside of the hall Hodge, it is alleged, began firing his revolver toward the building.

Leonard Roth and Herman Martins, constables, attended the dance. As soon as the shooting began they ran out the front door.

The Hodges and Bardwells passed out of the yard, and when on the walk ten feet from the gate, Mrs. Hodge fell to the ground, uttering a cry that she was hurt. The Bardwells ran back and assisted Hodge in getting the woman on her feet. Hodge told her that she was not hurt and asked her to walk, but she was then in a dying condition, and when the house of John Korman, 300 feet east, was reached, where the wounded woman was taken, she was lifeless. A bullet had entered her back below the scapula and penetrated or grazed the heart.

Desperate Battle.

While Hodge was at the side of his wife on the lounge in the sitting-room of the Korman home, Constable Martins entered the house to arrest him, but he gave battle. The two men were of about the same weight and age and it was a fight to the finish. Hodge, with the strength of an ox, managed to break away from the officer and disappeared.

In the meantime Bardwell had been arrested and sent to the county jail. Sheriff Kinney and Deputy Glaza were notified and went to the scene of the shooting, and after a search of the Hodge home, near the Pittsburg mine, found Hodge in bed apparently asleep. He was ordered to dress and accompany an officer to the county jail.

Hodge's story is that while he did some of the shooting, someone else used a revolver, and that while he was walking away from the dance hall with his arm around his wife, some one shot from behind, striking his wife in the back, and she sank to the ground and died.

G. WILLIS BEMENT DEAD.

Was Stricken With Paralysis While Responding to a Toast.

Lansing, Mich., April 20.—G. Willis Bement, secretary-treasurer of the E. Bement's Sons company and treasurer of the board of control of the state School for the Blind, died last night, aged 52 years. Friday night he was stricken with paralysis while responding to a toast at a Knights Templar banquet. A widow and two sons survive him. He had lived in Lansing for the past twenty-five years and was known in manufacturing circles all over the country.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at C. A. Wright's drug store.

IT IS NO SECRET

Primary Election Bill Is a Doomed Measure.

CANNOT PASS THE SENATE

There May Be a Compromise, but It Will Not Be Allowed to Abolish the Good Old State and County Conventions.

Lansing, Mich., April 18.—In the last few days the anti-primary election senators have talked quite freely and complacently about their chances for getting their own way with the legislature. They make it appear, at least, that they are confident that the outcome will be to their liking and that the session will not be protracted by any fight over the details of the measure. Here is the way Senator Doherty puts it:

"Whatever bill passes the senate you can rest assured there will be none of this nominating by direct vote about it. We are going to reform the caucus system, but we are not going to abolish county or state or any other conventions. We may, on a compromise, be willing to go as far as electing delegates to state conventions by a direct voting system. We have not got together on the details of the kind of bill we want, but we will shortly, and when we do it won't take more than a day or two to wind up the question. Some people will be surprised to find how few men there are in the house who will fight to the finish for the Colby-Powell-Stone bill compared to the number that voted for it. The house is not nearly as radical as it was supposed to be. I don't believe there will be any big contest on over this affair at all."

The administration senators will caucus early next week, and Doherty says several who are supposed to be in favor of the Colby bill are asking to come into the conference of the elect.

The Kelly bill, which the senator from Muskegon announced last Monday he had ready and which proposed to abolish city and county conventions, does not seem to have caused the other members of the elections committee any thought. Kelly's statement that he would be willing to champion the nomination of a governor by direct vote has not been received by his machine colleagues with very good grace. Asked if the senate would pass a bill containing a provision of the kind, Senator Doherty quickly and vociferously replied, "I should say not."

It is because Senator Fuller will be absent for at least a part of next week, leaving Senators Moriarty and Woodman, who are sure to oppose the Colby bill, may have to go to Stillwater, Minn., to investigate the state prison binder twine plant there, that no immediate action will be taken by the election committee. The administrationists claim they are making converts every day and they are in no hurry to bring the fight on until they have plain sailing ahead of them. Then they hope to show the house such a vote in favor of their milk-and-water bill that the Colby-Powell-Stone people will be easily induced to take the best they can get and quit. Said Doherty: "When the test comes there won't be nine senators voting for the Colby bill."

Representative Colby and his lieutenants say the senate will not find the house as easy picking as the sanguine administrationists expect. Colby is lamenting the absence of Senator Cook, a primary election champion, through illness.

He Forfeited Freedom.

Lansing, Mich., April 18.—Alfred Kinna, who has spent several years in Jackson prison, is about to be returned to that institution, being unable to appreciate the joys of a free man. Kinna was sent to Jackson from Sanilac county in 1896 for seventeen years for murder in the second degree. He was paroled by Governor Pingree in March, 1900. For some time he has been working in this city under the supervision of L. J. Currie, his brother-in-law and first friend under the parole law. Kinna's crime was committed while he was drunk, and lately he has taken to drinking again. Recently he became unmanageable and a night or two ago threatened to kill his wife and other members of his family. The result was that Governor Bliss ordered his return to Jackson prison to serve out the balance of his sentence.

Distressing Accident.

Grand Ledge, Mich., April 18.—The drowning of Albert and Marvin, seven and five-year-old sons of Jesse Williams, in Grand river Friday is one of the saddest tragedies that has ever occurred here. The children were enjoying a boat ride above the dam in charge of William Thompson, who lost an oar when so close to the dam that he could not prevent the current from overpowering him, and they were carried over. The man seemed to lose his head and judgment, for he swam ashore, seemingly without an attempt to save the little fellows. The body of the younger lad was recovered.

For Good Roads.

Northville, Mich., April 18.—Secretary of State Warner's home town of Farmington has the credit of being fist in the state to adopt a good roads system. At the last election the proposition carried by a vote of 396 to 131, and hereafter farmers and others will pay into the treasury a direct cash tax and a road commissioner appointed by the town board will see that systematic road work is done. The innovation is largely due to the personal interest of Warner, who made a personal canvass of the town.

His Head Smashed.

Port Huron, Mich., April 20.—Emory Wethey met a terrible death at the boiler shop connected with the Jenks Shipbuilding company's plant, while his working mate, Charles Strong, received crushing injuries that may also terminate fatally. A massive boiler head was being hoisted by a windlass, when one of the chains parted and the great weight came down on the two men. Wethey received the blow squarely on the head and his skull was crushed to a pulp.

No Parole For Ashley.

Lansing, Mich., April 20.—Frank Ashley, who was convicted of the murder of James Magee, a brother of Alderman Magee, must continue to serve time in Jackson for his crime, the board of pardons having refused to recommend that his sentence be commuted and a parole issued. Ashley was sentenced Dec. 23, 1896, to Jackson prison for life.

MARTIN IS GUILTY

Another Indianapolis Grave Robber Convicted.

JUSTICE SLOWLY MOVING

Most Revolting Series of Crimes in the History of the State to Be Punished With Long Terms of Imprisonment.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 18.—After a sensational episode at the close of the trial of Sam Martin for grave robbing, the jury within a half hour after leaving the courtroom returned a verdict finding Martin guilty of robbing the grave of Johanna Stilz. He will be sentenced by Acting Judge Thornton probably Saturday. The penalty is three to eight years in the reformatory or state prison. As Martin is under 30 years of age, he probably will be sent to the reformatory.

In the concluding scenes of the trial the lie was given by Prosecutor Ruckelshaus to Attorneys Groninger and McGray, for the defense, and it was returned by McGray. Attorneys Ruckelshaus and McCray were each fined $5 for contempt of court.

Doctor's Rash Deed.

Chicago, April 18.—While making a levy at the office of Dr. John Kircher, 2359 Indiana avenue, Friday night, Constable William D. Krue was shot by the physician and it is thought mortally wounded. Kircher says he fired the shot fearing that his wife was in danger at the hands of the constable and two assistants. After shooting, the doctor handed the constable the revolver, saying, "You are an officer of the law and I surrender to you."

King Edward Busy.

Malta, Island of Malta, April 18.—King Edward Friday held a review of 10,000 soldiers. He afterwards visited the cathedral, where he was received by the archbishop of Malta and the chapter of the cathedral. In the afternoon he was present at a polo match between the army and navy members. Last night the town and the ships in the harbor were illuminated, affording a brilliant spectacle.

Killed His Wife.

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—George Miller, a bookbinder, shot and killed his wife and then committed suicide at their home in this city last night. They had not been on good terms and Miller went to his home in an intoxicated condition and finding his wife at supper shot her three times and then turned the pistol upon himself, dying instantly.

A Fort Wayne Fiend.

Fort Wayne, Ind., April 18.—Harry C. Kline, a grocer, last night shot and fatally wounded 13-year-old Lizzie Jackson, with whom he was infatuated, and then killed himself. The bodies were found in Kline's store, in the center of the business district, at midnight.

Big Fire at Dallas.

Dallas, Tex., April 18.—Fire has destroyed the branch buggy and implement house of Parlin & Orendorff, whose main office is at Canton, Ill. The loss is estimated at $180,000, with insurance of $70,000. Six hundred buggies were destroyed.

Spain Can Have Them.

Madrid, April 18.—Premier Silvela says it has been decided that the skeletons found in the hull of the Spanish cruiser Maria Christina, sunk by Admiral Dewey in Manila bay, shall be brought to Spain for interment.

Earthquake at Panama.

Panama, April 18.—A shock of earthquake was felt here at 3 o'clock Friday morning. It lasted fifteen seconds.

Another Big College.

Pittsburg, April 18.—Pittsburg is to have a great university that will rival the big colleges and universities of the east and west. For its endowment, it is said, the millions of Andrew Carnegie and twenty other wealthy Pittsburgers are pledged.

Makes a Clean Sweep.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures burns, sores, bruises, cuts, boils, ulcers, skin eruptions and piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by C. A. Wright, druggist.

A PLUNGER'S FINISH.

Spectacular Financial Smash at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, April 18.—Henry Herman, financier, capitalist and promoter of vast enterprises, has not been seen at his office in Milwaukee since last Saturday, and, according to his creditors, he has left behind him an indebtedness aggregating $600,000. This includes an alleged shortage of $37,000 in his accounts as assignee of the Plankington bank. Many of his creditors are unprotected, worthless papers being given as collateral for loans. A number of small estates are also involved.

While it will take many weeks to ascertain the exact amount of money which has been used by Mr. Herman from the immense interests which have been entrusted to him, an endless litigation will probably follow, as it is said that the collapse of all his schemes has left him as poor as when he began, and that he has not a dollar left of the money which has passed through his hands. His career in Milwaukee is known to many persons in the business world, but few of them were aware of the numerous schemes that he projected or of their daring nature.

One by one his enterprises failed, but he always gathered courage to originate new ones, until gradually his credit became impaired. When he saw that he was becoming hopelessly involved and that he could no longer borrow large sums of money at the banks, he made use of his friends and his personal following to raise money to keep his interests afloat. That his intentions were honorable at the start is the general belief of many people who had business dealings with him, and it was only when driven to extremity that he made use of trust funds confided to his keeping and was forced to float worthless securities.

There has been scarcely a business deal of any magnitude in Milwaukee in the last ten years that Mr. Herman has not had some connection with, and his operations extended all over the country. Several years ago he obtained a concession from the Mexican government for a right of way for a railroad in that country and invested considerable money in this project. He also lost heavily on a construction contract for the Baltimore & Ohio road.

A number of money lenders have been doing business with Mr. Herman, advancing him sums of money at exorbitant rates of interest, and these will stand to lose considerable sums.

SKULLS IN COURT.

Will Be Used in Fight For Fair Millions.

San Francisco, April 18.—Startling developments are promised in the Charles L. Fair case, now before the New York courts. It is alleged that facts have come to light here most damaging to the testimony given a few days ago in New York by Lucian Mas and Alfred J. Morane, the Frenchmen called to recount certain incidents attending the death of Charles Fair and his wife in France, which, if true, would strongly tend to establish as a fact that Mrs. Fair survived her husband and thus left her own relatives the direct heirs to the fortune inherited under these circumstances from her husband.

It has been learned that the skulls of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fair, whose bodies were shipped back to San Francisco after they had been relinquished by the French authorities, have been preserved and are now in the custody of responsible persons here, ready to be produced when the time comes for refuting the evidence given in New York.

When the bodies of the Fairs were received in New York from France they were discovered to be in such a decomposed condition that it was deemed advisable to hasten the funeral in San Francisco. It is now stated that the funeral was followed by an autopsy that included the decapitation of both bodies.

The testimony of Mas and Morane that Mrs. Fair was living when they approached the bodies and that blood was streaming down one side of her face is contradicted by concrete evidence—the woman's skull. It can be shown by the skull that such would have been an impossibility, it is claimed. The skull of Charles Fair, now in the safe-keeping of his friends, was not crushed in the manner described by the French witnesses. In fact, it remains intact, although showing a depression caused by a forceful contact, which resulted in concussion of the brain and subsequent death.

Attorney Charles Haggerty, who is identified with the litigation connected with the Fair estate, stamps as absurd and untrue the gruesome story to the effect that the heads of Mr. and Mrs. Fair were removed by decapitation to be used as evidence against the claims of the Nelson family.

Mr. Haggerty says that the accounts given of the alleged decapitations are canards and that the operation mentioned was never undertaken or even contemplated.

The Weather.

Washington, April 20.—Forecast for Tuesday:

Ohio—Fair; fresh to brisk north winds.

Upper Michigan—Generally fair; variable winds.

Lower Michigan—Fair except showers in the east portion; fresh to brisk north winds.

Diphtheria, sore throat, croup. Instant relief, permanent cure. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. At any drug store.

The man who lives all the time with his head in the clouds, generally has both feet squarely across some body's neck.

"Now good digestion waits on appetite, and health on both." If it does'nt, try Burdock Blood Bitters.

If you want your boy to be a preacher, don't lock him up to learn verses of scripture when the circus is in town.

Everything in Embroidery and Laces

This we say with some pride. We started the season with some 400 different patterns of embroidery, from 1½ in. to 12 in. wide, and our prices astonish all buyers. Two-thirds of it is put up in 4½ yard pieces, thus doing away with all piecing and cutting. Consequently there is no waste, and embroideries usually retailed at 25, 35c and 40c yd. sell on an average for 15, 17 and 18c, which is a big saving for you, while 4½ yds. is always the length most often needed.

Swisses as well as fine muslins are among the lot. Splendid value in the double edged insertings at 10c a yard.

Dainty ribbon beadings at 10c yard.

We also have edges and insertings from 5c yd. up to 30c, according to width and quality.

Pillow case lace from 4 to 8c yd.

Black lace, 2 and 3 inches wide, at 10, 12 and 15c

Lace beadings at 3, 4 and 5c.

Lace beading and edge combined at 6c per yd.

Fancy back combs in many designs and styles. Prices ranging from 10c to $2.49.

Florodora combs for holding up the stray locks, 8, 10, 15, 22 and 25c.

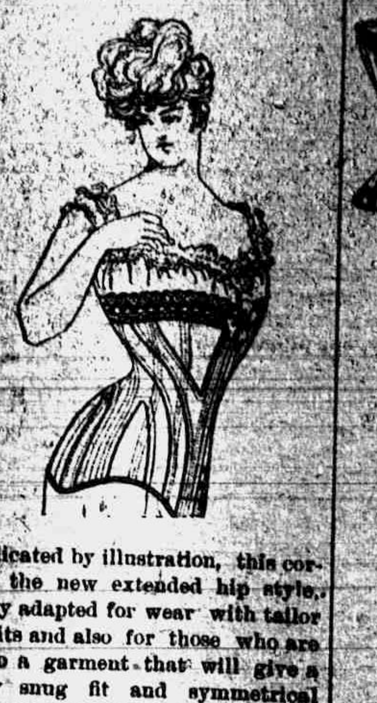
Pompadour combs, all styles, all prices, 10 to 25c.

Sunbonnets.

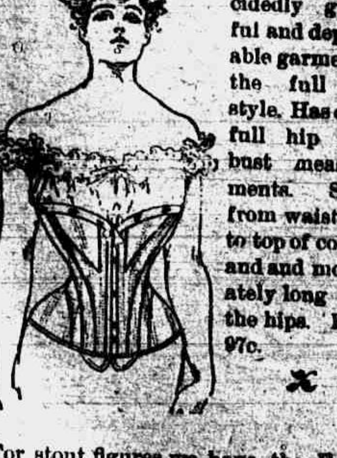
A large assortment of ladies' and misses' sunbonnets in percales and ginghams, both light and dark at one price, 25 cents.

Corsets of all Styles.

Every corset, except 25c ones, is sold under this most positive and unqualified warrant: "All corsets may be returned after four weeks' trial, if any defect shows up in that length of time." What can be more liberal? Yet we smash prices even with this.

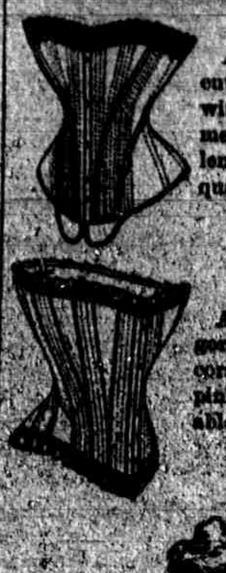


As indicated by illustration, this corset is of the new extended hip style, especially adapted for wear with tailor made suits and also for those who are partial to a garment that will give a perfectly snug fit and symmetrical curves at the hip line. Made of fine quality sateen. Unusual value for the money. Price $1.00.



Here is a decidedly graceful and dependable garment in the full hip style. Has quite full hip and bust measurements. Short from waist line to top of corsets and and moderately long over the hips. Price 97c.

For stout figures we have the F. C. style, made of extra heavy material with large bust and hip measures. No extra charge for big sizes. Price $1.00. The same guarantee covers these as well as the higher price garments.



A new model of bias cut full gored corset with full hip and bust measure. Medium length over hip. Best quality jeans. Price, 50c.

STYLE 196

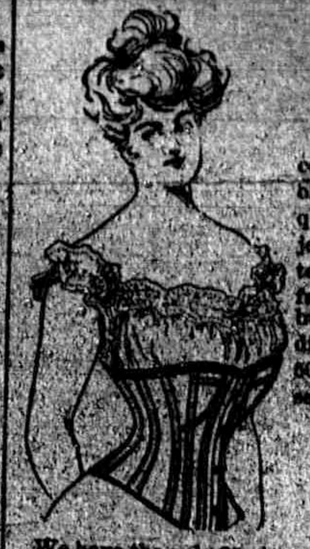
STYLE 209

The Empire shape made of figured Dresden sateen in white with pink rosebuds or black with tiny rosebuds. Has two side steels on each side. Price 47c.

Style 206 is same as 209 only shorter and is made of white batiste. Also at the popular price of 47c.



A nursing corset made of the best quality jeans. Patent snap fasteners on busts. Medium waist. 50c is the selling price.

We have the only 25c jeans corset on the market. Ask to see it.

Net summer corsets also 25c.

A widely advertised corset and one that never breaks down on the sides is the "Armorside." We have it at 98c.

The ladies' corset waist with shoulder straps at 98c.

The jeans waist for children is 24c.

The E. Z. waist for children is suitable alike for summer or winter wear. It is made of knitted webbing, is ventilating and does not get clotted with perspiration like thick cloth waists. Price, 28c.

Corset strings, per pair, 1c.

Elastic laces, per pair, 9 and 5c.

Corset stays with the double steel, 5c.

We also have the Venus corset shields which prevent corsets from breaking over the hips, at 25c per pair.

Aprons

A handy article to have and at prices as cheap, if not cheaper, than one can buy the goods and make them.

Black sateen aprons, one yard long, wide hem, 6 in. pocket, well finished, 25c

Good long white apron with wide hem at bottom and embroidery trimmed bib with shoulder straps at 25c.

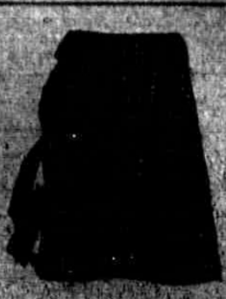
The sensible apron, a home made production, that covers the entire dress, made of the best gingham, only 25c. By far the most sensible for the housewife.

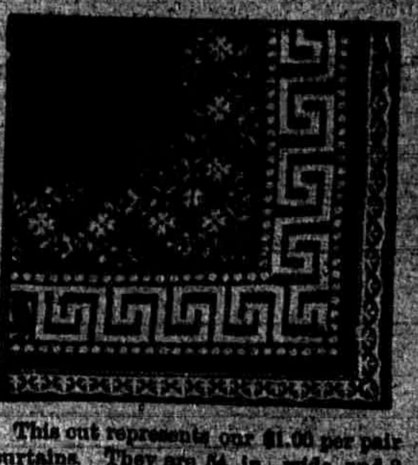


Ladies checked gingham aprons, browns and blues, good length at 10c.

Amoskeag gingham aprons, blue or brown, big size, well finished, 29 cents.

Something New Again.

One of our new departures this spring is a most desirable line of lace curtains. Adding a new department always means we must put forth a big inducement to get you headed our way and this is the why and wherefore of our big lace curtains with little prices.



This cut represents our $1.00 per pair curtains. They are 54 in. wide and 3 yd. long. The Grecian border pattern is always a very desirable design.

Curtains 54 in. wide and 3½ yd. long, with the very dainty bow knot design at $1.35 per pair. Other patterns at $1.19, $1.25, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50 per pair.

Ruffled muslin curtains at $1.00 and $1.35 per pair.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at C. A. Wright's drug store.

When you hear a great deal of one side of a story, the other side receives from you a great deal of sympathy.

Open the door, let in the air,
The winds are sweet, the flowers are fair,
Joy is abroad in the world for me,
Since taking Rocky Mountain Tea.

It won't help your own crop any way to sit on the ground and count your neighbor's weeds.

For a clear skin, clear all the way through, transparent enough to let sunshine—rosy cheeks show through—take Rocky Mountain Tea. This month, spring time. 35 cents. J. J. ORR.

A FINE LETTER

From away out in MONTANA

Written from Alma Cogswell, who used to be well known in Tecumseh and is still remembered by many loving friends here.

Wolf Point, Mont., April 2, 1903.

MY DEAR AUNT AND UNCLE:—How very easy it is to make good resolutions and how very easy it is to break them. I started in the new year determined to keep my correspondence up to date and here I find myself at the end of three months "snowed under," as it were, with unanswered letters. It is 9:30 a. m. and the work is all done and our little log cabin is "slick" and clean, and I'm at liberty to talk with you until time to make a lemon pie for dinner. We ought to have a good chat in an hour's time. I wish it didn't have to be on paper tho'.

This has been such a long, cold winter and we are longing for spring. The ice in the river is still solid and just now I noticed a few flakes of snow are falling. Yesterday was a bright, warm day and as the Indians were here for their rations, the place presented an animated appearance. It has been a hard year on stock and the ranchers have had to skirmish around after hay, buying all the Indians had to sell and giving good prices for it. Sherman started the season with 300 tons but had to buy more. It is an unusual thing to feed stock all winter, many winters it not being necessary to feed at all.

This has seemed to be the all-absorbing topic lately. I tell Sherman if it isn't cattle, it's sheep and if it isn't sheep, it is horses. When he brings a man in the house for dinner and they immediately plunge into this subject, I get "tired" and generally trot out some of my prettiest plants and change the conversation. You see I haven't owned any stock and so am not much interested, but the other day I was rash enough to invest some of my hard earned money in eight head of cattle (cows) and so after a time I, too, may talk of them in my waking hours and dream of them in my sleep.

If I am as successful as I have been in my only other business venture (that Bay View cottage) I'll not long have any cattle to trouble me. When I get to longing to get rich quickly, I remember the advice of a "self-made merchant to his son", "You must learn not to overdo a dollar any more than you would a horse. Three per cent is a small load for it to draw; six, a safe one. When it pulls in ten for you, it's likely working out west, and you've got to watch to see that it doesn't buck; when it makes twenty you own a blame good critter or a mighty foolish one, and you want to make dead sure which; but if it draws a hundred, it's playing the races or something just as hard on horses and dollars and the first thing you know you wont have even a carcass to hand to the glue factory."

Sherman has never encouraged me to invest any money out here and when I ask him why it is not as safe for me as for him, he says "I can afford to lose it and you can't, which is very true, so the little I've saved for a rainy day has drawn a "safe six per cent loan"in Michigan.

Uncle Joe is still in Washington with John, who has lately moved to Snohomish. They are building a new house and Sarah is to take it easy the rest of her life. She used to take boarders and work very hard. I think she must be a very good woman, Uncle Joe seems to think her perfect. John is doing well, I judge. I think he is county commissioner. We look for Uncle Joe back soon, although he hasn't said anything about coming. We have been so thankful that he escaped this hard winter. Some one appropriated our thermometer just before the coldest weather, but fifty miles west of us it was 46 degrees below zero at one time, so you may know we had it pretty cold. But in spite of the intense cold, I succeeded in saving my plants and had the loveliest hyacinths I ever saw.

Just now there is a buttercup oxalis in bloom that is a mass of bright yellow and that causes the Indians to stop at the window and gaze in open eyed wonder. Notwithstanding the cold, the isolation and the monotony, it has been a happy winter. Sherman said the other day that he was the happiest man in the country and he also declared that I was the best cook anywhere around, so you see my mission is right here. His digestion is evidently good, and that no doubt accounts for his rosy view of life.

I have come to the conclusion that an old maid is a necessary evil in a community. Let me illustrate At Christmas time the mission teacher resigned because of ill health. Mrs. King, (our missionary) had her hands full with the boarding school of twenty-six and no help, so I volunteered to teach forenoons till she could secure other help. Taught three weeks for her and then other help came. It made me step around lively to keep the household machinery going in the meantime.

Two weeks ago one of our neighbors was sick, so I did her baking one week and also a large washing and ironing for her and when she was better another neighbor took to her bed and I attended to her baking for a week. I tell you this so you will know that I am well and that I keep busy. In May Rev Lindsey and wife of Poplar, are to go to General Assembly in Los Angeles and I am going to take care of their eighteen months old baby during their absence. As he is a lively little fellow and scorns a high chair or buggy I expect he will be in all sorts of mischief and will keep me trotting after him. Hope to get housecleaning done before then.

But am forgetting the lemon pie that I promised Sherman if he would be good yesterday and eat the somewhat stale remnant of mince pie. Think I'll leave you for a few moments and finish later. Wish I could bake a pie for you too Later. It is 11:30 and the pie is cooling on ice. It looks good. Wish you and Uncle Robert could step in and help us eat it. I often think of the little things I could do for you if I lived near. I might be some comfort, too. But if it hasn't been so I could help you in return for all you did for me when a child; I have tried to pass it on to others and so your kindness was not wasted. I shall never forget what your help and encouragement did for me when I was getting an education. Without you the outlook would have been a sorry one indeed and I'm afraid my spirit would have failed

I hear very little Tecumseh news. How is Mr. Marsden and all the other friends? I get a good motherly letter from Mrs. DeWolfe once in a long time. Give my love to them all and don't forget Aunt Lizzie and Uncle Joe. A kiss for you both.

Your own loving

DOLLY.

Our Visitors from the U. of M. and their Work.

The five days' evangelistic campaign in Tecumseh by the U. of M. men under the able leadership of Mr. Chas. Hurry, one of our most respected young men, has proven eminently successful in every way. To see eleven clean, strong, talented, cultured young men together in our homes, in our churches, in our places of business and upon our streets, lifting up before us by word and deed those things which are the noblest, purest and most powerful in God and man, is an object lesson in Christian living which will abide for many a day and month among the treasured store of our souls. By the very presence of these young men among us our thoughts have been turned for a few days from that which is so generally held to be manly and necessary, but which is truly debasing and unnecessary, to that which is manifestly noble and normal for humanity.

No such large audiences have filled our churches since I have been in Tecumseh as greeted these young men every night they were here. The singing was attractive and inspiring. The speaking was earnest, evangelical, and often eloquent. Every meeting on Sunday, in Tecumseh, Ridgeway and Tipton, was one that brought Christ very near to needy men and we are all such.

We wish to make special mention of the Sunday services. The men's meeting in the opera house, attended by nearly three hundred persons and addressed by Mr. Chas Hurry, was one of quiet power. Mr. Hurry got close to us and touched us where we most needed it. We believe a permanent impression was made on many a man there for his highest good.

The boys' meeting was attended by thirty-five of these young fellows. A good strong service was given them and nearly, or quite all, pledged themselves to the higher life.

It was a very suggestive sight to look into the faces of a church full of bright, strong, resolute young people in the Baptist church at six p. m. Its meaning for the future good of Tecumseh is almost incalculable, if they shall be true to the lofty standard there set up.

But above all the services held, the farewell meeting in the Presbyterian church at seven p. m., with the church packed every where and a hundred turned away at the doors for lack of room, was a delight for that hour and an inspiration that will abide. Mr. Haas' address was one of the best it has ever been our privilege to listen to. The farewell speeches of all the boys were spiritual gems, precious in faith and love, which made them the richer in giving and us in receiving. There were quite a number during the meeting who pledged themselves to Christian living, but we believe the larger results are yet to come from the splendid Christian influences set in motion which will go on after the names and faces of these young deciples of Christ, who have been among us for a few days, shall be long forgotten.

Perhaps it will be a satisfaction to many to have the names and church relations of the different young men, who were here, printed.

Mr. Keeler is from Pennsylvania and a Methodist, Mr. Smethers is from Pennsylvania and a Baptist, Mr. Bennet from New York and an Episcopalian, Mr. Haas from Pennsylvania and a Dutch Reformed, Mr. Dunlap from Iowa and a Presbyterian, Mr. Hale from Nebraska and a Congregationalist, Mr. Tontz from Illinois and a Congregationalist, Mr. Ewald from Michigan and a Baptist, Mr. Hector from Pennsylvania and a Lutheran, Mr. Stair from Colorado and not yet a member of any church, Mr. Hurry from Michigan and a Methodist. The last but not the least, one of our own young men whom we delight to honor. Great credit is due to Mr. Hurry for bringing these young men to us and conducting this campaign. We cannot show our appreciation better than to sympathize with and help support the cause he is so earnestly engaged in.

Divorces Granted to Tecumseh People Saturday.

A divorce was granted to Mrs. Chas. Avery from her husband, the Tecumseh farmer and saloon proprietor, on the ground of his intimacy with other women. It will be remembered that Stephen Avery secured a judgment of large proportions against Charles in the same court some time ago, for alienating his (Stephen's) wife's affections.

Another important divorce suit from Tecumseh was that of Mrs. Oscar P. Bills, who asked for separation from her husband, the late banker and capitalist on the grounds of non-support. The divorce was granted.—Adrian Telegram.

FATHER AND SON

W. H. Hopkins, of Lansing, and his Father, Wm. Hopkins, of Milford, Mich.,

DIED AND BURIED SAME DAY.

W. H. Hopkins is the Father of Mrs. Cleo Hall, of this Place.

Within a few hours after the death of W. H. Hopkins occurred at his home in this city, Thursday evening, word was received by the stricken family that the father of Mr. Hopkins, an aged man of about 90 years, had also passed away at his old home in Milford, Mich.

William H. Hopkins was born in Milford in 1843. In 1870 he was married to Mary Lamdin in Fenton and she with two children, Katherine E. Hopkins and Mrs. C. W. Hall, of Tecumseh, survive him. The family came to Lansing about 16 years ago and has resided in the eastern part of the city for many years.

Mr. Hopkins was a man of many friends. By occupation he was a lumberman, and during the 25 years he was engaged in that business he gained a reputation for honesty and integrity that made his word as good as his bond with all with whom he dealt. He was a man of kindly disposition with strong personal characteristics that gained him the respect of all his large acquaintance, and his life was full of good deeds and kindly words. One of his strongest traits was his love of his home, and in each declining year of his life this love increased. At the time of his death he was a member of the jury for the present term of the circuit court.

The funeral was held from the home at 201 Kerr street north, Sunday at 2 p. m., Rev. E. Sinclair Smith officiating, and during the afternoon the remains of the father will be laid to rest in Milford. Mr. Hopkins was a member of the Knights of the Maccabees.—Lansing Journal.

ROUND ABOUT US.

Measles are raging quite extensively at Clinton. The schools have been closed to prevent further spread of the disease.

John Hunter, who died in Macon March 31st, was 82 years old and was born in England, but has lived in Macon 62 years. He died on the farm that he located when 20 years of age. He had been twice married, and of the nine children born to the first marriage five survive.—Adrian Press.

A good old Quaker was milking a cow whose lively disposition often tried his patience severely. On this occasion she managed to overturn the pail, which was nearly full. The old man arose in righteous indignation and said: "I will not kick thee, neither will I beat thee, but I will twist thy durn tail!"

Harvey Smith is canvassing Hudson township, and selling life membership tickets at $10 each to the Lenawee Fair Association. A fund is thus to be raised to promote the fair. The city of Adrian proposes to contribute $1,000 and the farmers are to aid in swelling the fund by purchasing life memberships.—Hudson Post.

T. M. Camburn of Franklin, is to be a Tecumseh resident, having purchased the DeLong premises in that village. "Mase" was at one time a member of the legislature, and he wants to go somewhere and try and forget that event of his life. The next thing we know he will repent still more and try to atone still further by voting a democratic ticket.—Adrian Press.

Frank C. Andrews, sentenced to serve fifteen years for wrecking the City Savings Bank of Detroit, has discontinued his work as a bookkeeper in the box making department at Jackson prison, and is now attached to the hospital staff. His new duties are very light and give him a large measure of freedom within the prison walls. He dresses in a handsome suit of gray and looks anything but a prisoner.—Adrian Telegram.

Local option is not the only manufacturer of discord in Benzie county, by any means. Last week one of the linemen in looking for the seat of trouble on one of the farmer's party lines leading out of Frankfort, walked into a house and discovered an old lady sitting in a rocking chair—busily knitting—and with the telephone receiver tied to the back of her chair where she could hear all that was being said over the line. She was greatly provoked when censured, adding by means of defense that she paid for what she got and she was bound to get her money's worth.—Frankfort Patriot.

BEAUTY TRIUMPHS,
'Tis a Priceless Treasure.

Beauty is woman's greatest charm. The world adores beautiful women. A pretty woman dreads maternity for fear of losing this power. What can be done to perpetuate the race and keep women beautiful? There is a balm used by cultured and uncultured women in the crisis. Husbands should investigate this remedy in order to reassure their wives as to the ease with which children can be born and beauty of form and figure retained.

Mother's Friend

is the name by which this preparation is known. It diminishes the pain allied to motherhood. Used throughout pregnancy it relieves morning sickness, cures sore breasts, makes elastic all tendons called upon to hold the expanding burden. Muscles soften and relax under its influence and the patient anticipates favorably the issue, in the comfort thus bestowed.

Mother's Friend is a liniment for external application. It is gently rubbed over the parts so severely taxed, and being absorbed lubricates all the muscles.

Druggists sell it for $1 per bottle. You may have our book "Motherhood" free.

A WAY OPEN.

Many a Tecumseh Reader knows it Well.

There is a way open to convince the greatest skeptic. Scores of Tecumseh people have made it possible. The public statement of their experience is proof the like of which has never been produced before in Tecumseh. Read this case of it given by a citizen:

Vet. O. Austin, who lives with his son in the northeast section of Tecumseh, says: "I am more than thankful that Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice for they did me a great deal of good, in fact they stopped a dull aching pain in my back which had annoyed me for years, and also rendered the action of the kidney secretions normal which at times were too frequent and highly colored. I tried a number of so called kidney cures but I did not receive any benefit, before I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and I knew people who had used them so I went to C. A. Wright's drug store and got them. To say I entertain a very favorable opinion of them as a kidney medicine is putting it in mild terms. They are all and more than they are represented to be."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

One morning last week the guest in the Hotel Salsbury in Morenci, were seated at breakfast, when a section of plaster fell on one of the tables which was fortunately unoccupied, and smashed dishes, etc., in a manner which indicated an earthquake. The successful landlord is one who creates diversions for the benefit of his boarders.—Ex.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

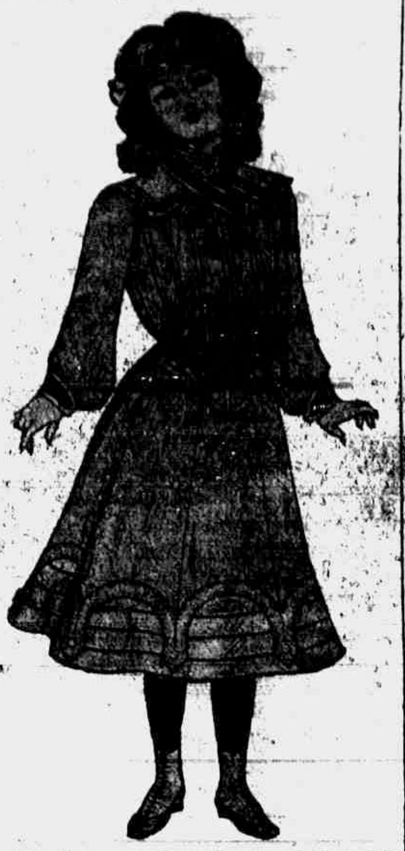
It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

LATEST FASHION NOTES.

A Girl's Dress of Red Serge.

A girl's frock of Indian-red serge has the new cape collar, headed by velvet, and fancified with embroidery. The waist is plaited with cord loops arranged at the center. The cuffs are of velvet and the gored skirt displays fancy strappings and buttons. Corticelli sewing silk is used throughout in the making of this pretty little gown.



For the every-day street or tailor suit the same materials which have served so well in the past, such as cloth, serge, vicuna and cheviot, will all again be worn this year. And for entire gowns, and in many cases for skirt and coat suits, camel's-hair and zibeline will be used, these two materials being especially nice for better gowns for the afternoon, as they lend themselves easily to the more fanciful ways of trimming; then, too, they are so light and supple in texture that they may be gracefully manipulated in the various flat models of skirts and jackets.

PEOPLE WHO CAN'T SLEEP.

Many people go to bed—not to sleep, but to think—to tumble and toss—to get up, walk about until tired Nature gives way and a few fitful hours of sleep are obtained just before dawn—a sleep that does not rest—a sleep from which one wakes weary and tired, wholly unfitted to take up the daily routine of household, shop or office duties. That this condition goes on uncared for is almost criminal, when the well-known, time-tried and tested powers of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to give restful natural sleep have been so fully proven in such cases.

Mrs. E. Anderson of Tecumseh, Mich., says:—"I was so nervous that I could not sleep at night and was weak and suffered from dizzy spells. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Chas. A. Wright's drug store and they were just what I needed. Since I used the medicine my nerves are steady and strong—I sleep finely—the dizziness is all gone and the general health, strength and vigor splendid. I think the pills a splendid nerve medicine and have no hesitation in recommending it strongly." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase M. D. are on every package.

It is seldom that God finds a man whom it won't spoil to have his own way.

Warning.

If you have kidney or bladder trouble and do not use Foley's Kidney Cure, you will have only yourself to blame for results, as it positively cures all forms of kidney and bladder diseases. J. J. Orr.

kills, not necessarily suddenly, but SURELY. It preys upon the intellectual powers more than we realize. It consumes the vitality faster than nature can replenish it, and we cannot tell just what moment a temporary or complete aberration of the mind will result. What is the Good of Using Protecto?

It is the great corn and vine vitaliser, and gives seed and young plants a taste and odor which absolutely repels crows, squirrels, cut worms and insects, for about five cents per acre. Read what a half dozen of hundreds of enthusiastic users say:—these are from leading farmers:

"It paid me big to use Protecto. I think it a good protection for the roots of corn from insects and it is a good fertiliser. I recommend Protecto to others and must continue its use." JAS. LARSON, Paxton, Ind.

"I used Protecto on two different pieces and got a fine stand on both. One piece I watched carefully, where squirrels and insects were bad. I could not find a missing hill. On my east side I noticed where some had dug down to the seed and ate a little of it, went to the next and dug down to the grain and left it alone, and I could find no more. It convinced me that they did not like it and gave it up as bad medicine." [illegible], Gosport, Ind.

"Cut worms cut my first tomato plants clean. On second crop I used Protecto and cut worms would not work where it was used. Protecto is a friend to farmers." ED. HUNT, Covington, Ind.

"I have good results from the use of Protecto on a piece of clover sod." W. BUCKNER, Calvertville, Ind.

The same unequivocal testimony comes from all quarters. Every user of last year will have it this year. Write for our Protecto booklet and learn more about it. The one named below is the local agent for this county. All inquiries will be cheerfully answered and supplies in any quantity furnished on application to him.

GO BACK TO WORK

Miners' Union Issues Orders to Anthracite Workers.

DIFFERENCES TO BE SETTLED

By Board of Conciliation—Miner Members of the Board Chosen—They Are Prepared to Meet Representatives of Coal Companies.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 22.—The executive boards of the three anthracite districts of the United Mineworkers of America, in committee here, issued instructions Tuesday that all mineworkers now on strike or locked out return to work immediately pending an adjustment of all differences by the board of conciliation provided for by the anthracite coal strike commission.

District Presidents T. D. Nicholls of Scranton; W. H. Dettry of Hazleton, and John Fahy of Shamokin were selected as the miners' representatives on the board of conciliation. The board is to consist of six members, three appointed by the operators and three by the miners.

"To all members of the United Mineworkers' of America in the anthracite coal fields: Gentlemen—The executive boards of districts No. 1, 7 and 9, having under consideration the situation in the anthracite region, have after careful consideration concluded that the best interests of our organization will be conserved by the resumption of work at all the mines where strikes or lockouts are now in force and the reference of all matter of dispute to the joint board of conciliation provided for in the award of the anthracite coal strike commission. In order that adjustments may be facilitated, we have selected the presidents of districts Nos. 1, 7 and 9 to act as our representatives on the board of conciliation, and we have decided to notify the presidents of the various coal carrying railroads that we are prepared to meet the representatives of the coal companies at the earliest possible date for the purpose of considering and adjusting all questions at issue growing out of the interpretation or application of the award. In pursuance of this action, all mineworkers are advised and instructed to resume work immediately and to continue all work in order that the differences may be adjusted in the manner as prescribed by the strike commission."

ANOTHER TRAGEDY RESULTS.

Charleston, W. Va., April 22.—Another tragedy, growing out of the battle between striking miners and deputy United States marshals at Stanaford City last February, occurred near that place Tuesday, when John Harless, one of the strike leaders, was shot and killed by John Laing and a man named George, who went with Deputy Marshals Cunningham and Summers to arrest Harless on a warrant issued by the federal court. Cunningham and Summers went to the home of Harless, accompanied by Laing and George.

As they approached the house the two latter were stationed some distance away to stop Harless in case he should try to escape. Harless, seeing Cunningham and Summers approaching, made an attempt to escape from the opposite side of the house. Laing and George called on him to halt, and as he continued to run, they killed him. Harless is said to have been one of the strike leaders at the Stanaford City fight. Further trouble is feared as the result of the killing of Harless.

Hard Blow to Wakefield.

Wakefield, Mich., April 22.—The Meteor mine, better known as the Comet, operated the last four years by Corrigan, McKinney & Co., is announced to shut down by the end of the month. This mine has been a hard proposition from its first inception and none of its many operators have made a cent. To Wakefield the close down of this mine will be quite a setback. It employs from 100 to 150 men and has always kept the best class of miners and other labor on its pay roll.

Took Himself to Prison.

Lansing, Kan., April 22.—A. E. Shaw of Hobart, Okla., who recently killed a rowdy who was annoying him and who was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to four years in the Kansas penitentiary, has arrived unaccompanied and informed the warden of his arrival. He will be a guest of the prison farm until the commitment papers shall arrive. Shaw is highly respected in Hobart.

Three Killed in Missouri Wreck.

Kansas City, April 22.—A passenger train on the 'Frisco system was partly wrecked near Everton, Mo., by a defective rail. The engine, baggage and mail cars went into the ditch and three men were killed as follows: E. R. Mead, engineer; Bert Coffman, fireman; C. B. Campbell, postal clerk.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

TOUR COMPLETED

President Reaches Fort Yellowstone After Six-Day Trip.

IN THE BEST OF HEALTH

Will Inspect Troops at the Fort—Party While Touring Used Sledges, Horses and Skis—Snow Was Very Deep and Getting in Bad Shape.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 23.—President Roosevelt has completed his tour of the Yellowstone park. He arrived at Fort Yellowstone about noon Wednesday from Norris, and today inspected that post. Secretary Loeb reports that he is in the best of health and enthusiastic about his trip through the park. The secretary issued the following statement:

"Major Pitcher states that the president and he have just returned from their six-day trip in the interior of the park. The party went on sledges but used horses between upper and lower Geyser Basins and skis around the canyon, where it was impossible to go without them. The snow was two to five feet deep on the level throughout the country traversed. It was getting into bad shape. This is the first time the interior of the park has ever been visited before the snow went off by anyone except the scouts or soldiers on duty at the various stations.

"LOEB, Secretary to President."

Lincoln, April 23.—President Roosevelt when he arrives here next Monday will be greeted by all the school children in the city. The First regiment, Nebraska national guard, will act as escort, and all the G. A. R. posts in the First congressional district will be in the parade. William J. Bryan will be with the state officials at the station to greet the president.

GANG OF SMUGGLERS.

Made Business of Bringing Chinamen into United States.

Buffalo, April 23.—The operations of a well-organized gang of smugglers who have, it is alleged, brought hundreds of Chinamen into this country over Niagara river, were disclosed Wednesday by James Fox, 22 years old, while on the witness stand. Fox was placed under arrest while riding on a street car with a "contraband" Chinaman. Upon the advice of his mother, Fox said, he would make a clean breast of all he knew concerning the smugglers and testified that there were regularly organized firms in Canada who make it a business to bring Chinamen across the Pacific to Vancouver, thence by rail to Toronto and finally across the border into the United States.

Upon the testimony of Fox the federal authorities have arrested George E. Judson of this city, who it is alleged, is the leader of the smugglers. The hearing was merely preliminary to a trial when, it is said, evidence will become public showing the smuggling operations and the participation therein of persons doing business in New York, Chicago and Toronto.

SERVED HIS COUNTRY WELL.

Alexander Ramsey, Ex-Governor of Minnesota, Is Dead.

St. Paul, April 23.—Alexander Ramsey, ex-governor of Minnesota, secretary of war under President Hayes and for two terms United States senator from Minnesota, died at his home in this city last night, aged 88 years. Governor Ramsey had suffered since the middle of February from an attack of gout.

Governor Ramsey was born in Pennsylvania in 1815 and came to Minnesota in 1849 as territorial governor. When the state government was organized Governor Ramsey took a prominent part in the deliberations of the constitutional convention and was elected governor in 1860. He was chosen by President Hayes as secretary of war in 1879 and served until the advent of the Garfield administration.

Gives Up Politics For Masonry.

Mobile, Ala., April 23.—Congressman James D. Richardson, Democratic leader of the house, who is here at the reunion of Scottish Rite Masonry of Alabama, when closing his speech last night at a banquet in the Battle house, announced that he had decided to quit politics and devote himself to the work of Scottish Rite Masonry. He said that he had been honored by re-election to congress nine times and also had been elected grand commander of the Southern supreme council 33d degree Scottish Rite Free Masonry, and that the duties of the two offices conflicted, so that it was necessary for him to give up one or the other, and that he had decided to give up politics entirely. The announcement was received with great demonstrations of applause.

Cable to Manila in June.

Honolulu, April 23.—The Commercial Pacific Cable company has chartered the Inter-Island Steam Navigation company steamer Midway Island, with material, supplies and men for the establishment of its cable station here. It is announced that the cable to Manila probably will be working by the end of June and that rates between San Francisco and Honolulu will then be cut 50 per cent and the Honolulu office will have fifteen operators and be open all night.

Lieut.-Col. Sprole a Suicide.

Washington, April 23.—Gen. Davis cabled the war department that Lieut.-Col. Henry W. Sprole, First cavalry, committed suicide at Manila Wednesday by shooting himself through the head. He was believed to be temporarily insane. Sprole was appointed to the military academy from New York in 1865.

Burned to Death in His Home.

Detroit, Mich., April 23.—John C. Akay, 22 years old, was burned to death yesterday in a fire that partially destroyed a house being built by Arthur Gauker, on McGregor avenue, in Delray.

Young Singer Went Insane.

New York, April 23.—As a result of overwork in her effort to perfect her voice, Julia Levine, 23 years old, of Louisville, Ky., was taken from a boarding house to Bellevue hospital last night for observation as to her sanity. Miss Levine is said to have a remarkable soprano voice. She came to this city last September to take up vocal instructions. She worked very hard during the fall and winter and the strain told on her.

WOULD'NT FIX DATE

House Undecided On the Time of Adjournment.

LIQUOR MEN MET DEFEAT

Colby Tacks Amendment Onto Personal Bond Bill—An Employment Institution For Michigan's Blind Is a Possibility.

Lansing, Mich., April 23.—Just sixteen members of the house are ready to fix the date of adjournment; sixty-five are not. That was the expression of opinion made Wednesday afternoon on Representative Colby's motion to indefinitely postpone the consideration of the Combs concurrent resolution, fixing the date of business adjournment for May 20. Representative Randall's proposition to fix the date for May 28 and June 5 was voted down.

The liquor men went down to defeat in the house committee of the whole in the afternoon in the long drawn out battle waged by the friends of the bill regulating personal bonds given by retail liquor dealers, against the Paddock-Rodgers contingent, who have been trying to authorize surety bonding companies to go on these bonds.

Representative Colby moved, in amendment to the amendment, that it be left in the discretion of the township board or city or village council as to whether a license should be granted to any saloonkeeper who had ever been convicted of breaking the law or running a disreputable place. Mr. Paddock cheerfully accepted the amendment, but Mr. Holmes would not. He accused Mr. Paddock of deliberately planning to kill the measure entirely by trying to bring his bill into disfavor with objectionable amendments. He did not believe the Paddock amendment was constitutional.

Representative Campbell raised the point that surety bonding companies could not go on liquor bonds if the bill did pass, because an act of 1897 distinctly prohibited this.

The Colby amendment carried and the Paddock amendment, with the Colby amendment attached, was lost by a vote of 40 to 36, and the bill now goes to third reading.

Senator Brown of Lapeer has won a victory from the Bliss-Doherty cohorts who have been plugging for the establishment of a colony for epileptics at Saginaw. Doherty could not pass this measure, and Brown, who had the votes, insisted that any colony be attached to the epileptic institution at Lapeer. Brown, however, voted Wednesday afternoon for the Moriarty bill for the establishment of the Michigan employment institution for the blind at a place to be designated by a board of three to be appointed by the governor to control the institution, the governor himself being a member ex-officio. Senator Scripps voted against the bill, 27 voting for it.

The senate finance committee reported the bill out favorably. It was placed upon the general order and passed the committee of the whole without amendments.

The bill provides for an institution to be designated as the Michigan Employment for the Blind in some city of not less than 10,000 inhabitants, and makes an appropriation of $137,000, divided as follows: $7,000 for the purchase of a site, $50,000 for buildings, $25,000 for machinery, power and fuel, $15,000 for current expenses for 1904, and $40,000 for current expenses for 1905.

The senate held an evening session last night and passed eight bills, one of them increasing the number of deputy oil inspectors from 22 to 26. This bill was fathered by Senator Glasier, who has, since introducing the measure, aspired to be the political exterminator of the chief oil inspector, "Silent Bill" Judson. Another bill passed amends the prison laws by giving second-termers in the Michigan prisons one day a month more time allowance on their sentences for good behavior.

The senate also passed the Detroit Casino bill, which went through the house in the afternoon.

Brew Their Own Beer.

Niles, Mich., April 23.—A peculiar brewing association is being organized at South Bend, in which Nilesites and other Berrien county liquor dealers are interested. It will be incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000. The association is made up of sixty saloon men, who own and control the stock. These dealers, as well as those who are not in the association, pay the company $6.50 a barrel for beer, and every six months the earnings are divided among the stockholders.

Will Prevent Another Coal Famine.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 23.—At the regular monthly meeting of the university regents Wednesday a plan was agreed on to prevent another coal famine. Regents Fletcher and Carey were appointed a special committee to see that a permanent store of 5,000 tons is maintained in reserve, to be used in cases of emergency. A storehouse will either be built or rented for the purpose.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, April 23.—Michigan pensions were granted Wednesday as follows: Original—Henry T. Calkin, Petoskey, $8; Austin D. Kibbee, Ludington, $12; Charles E. Rhodes, Saginaw, $6; Charles P. Bigelow, Grand Rapids, $12; Lewis F. Kreiss, Battle Creek, $10. Increase—Wm. Brooks, Linden, $8. Widows—Olive M. Corbus, St. Louis, $8; Mary A. Skinner, Rockford, $12.

Smallpox Cases at Ypsilanti.

Ypsilanti, Mich., April 23.—Two cases of smallpox are reported in this city, Lizzie Fahey, a Cleary college student, and Belle Tolbert, colored. Health Officer Wilcoxon says there is no cause for alarm, as few have been exposed.

He Must Go to Prison.

Lansing, Mich., April 22.—Ex-Representative Arthur Rich of Newaygo county will have to go to prison. The supreme court has affirmed his conviction of the crime of statutory criminal assault. He was given two and one-half years at Jackson.

Makes a Clean Sweep.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures burns, sores, bruises, cuts, boils, ulcers, skin eruptions and piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by C. A. Wright, druggist.

Michigan Patents.

Washington, April 22.—Michigan patents were allowed Tuesday as follows: Walter S. Austin, Grand Rapids, variable speed gearing; John Bethelen, Big Rapids, sash fastener; Theodore Courtland, Ludington, apparatus for packing salt; Fred P. Crockett and O. F. Johnson, Kalamazoo, trolley wheel; Richard De Wright, Saugatuck, crate; John F. Fitzsimmons, Hillsdale, fitting and case for ink and like bottles or vessels, also stopper and fitting for bottles; James B. Foote, Jackson, regulator; Martin Halfpenny, Pontiac, shaft coupling; Sylvester W. Higgins, Detroit, minnow net; Erastus L. Lewis and F. Luckey, Marshall, vehicle pole tip; Raymond Mancha, Grand Rapids, illuminating device; John T. Mohan, Detroit, railway ticket; Walter C. Pratt, Lansing, wire and slat weaving machine; August P. Provost, Monitor township, weeding tool; Albert Rommeney, Muskegon, mixing and bleaching engine; Daniel Warner, Bronson, gate; Frank J. Watt, Port Huron, variable speed mechanism.

Farmers In Hard Luck.

Hudson, Mich., April 22.—Farmers in this vicinity who have contracted acreage with beet sugar companies will have a hard time of it this season. The work of planting will be considerably delayed, because the land used for this purpose is nearly all low, and owing to recent heavy rains is covered with water and cannot be ploughed for several weeks. Again, it is next to impossible to get help on a farm. Many farmers are willing to pay $25 per month and board for men, but this offer seems to have little effect, and the result will be many acres of good land will not be worked this season.

In Session In Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., April 22.—The twenty-sixth annual session of the Grand Council Royal Arcanum of Michigan was called to order at the Stevens building Tuesday morning with D. R. Crampton, grand regent, in the chair, over 100 delegates from the different bodies in the state being present. The morning session was entirely taken up with the opening exercises, the introduction and seating of new delegates and appointments of committees. In the afternoon reports were read from the different delegates, all of whom, without exception, reported gains all along the line.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Lansing, Mich., April 22.—The supreme court Tuesday morning disposed of the following cases: Affirmed—The People vs. Dupounce, the People vs. Rich, Carveth vs. Wenegar. Reversed — Williams vs. Williams; Sreyts vs. Creyts, Spencer vs. Terry estate, McKay vs. Van Kleeck. Mandamus granted in Rockwell vs. Oakland circuit judge, and denied in Berrien Springs Water Power Co. vs. Perkins, circuit judge, and in Ross Beach, circuit judge. In the matter of William Stegenga, on habeas corpus, petitioner was remanded to serve out his sentence.

Grand Jury Returned True Bill.

St. Joseph, Mich., April 22.—After entertaining testimony for the past week, the grand jury has returned an indictment before Judge O. W. Coolidge against William O'Rourke, representing the Hammond Packing company, and George W. Watkins, representing the Kingan Packing Co. of Indianapolis, whom it is alleged attempted to assault Marie and Louise Loescher, aged 14 and 16, respectively, on the streets of this city Jan. 12.

Sues For Breach of Promise.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 22.—Miss Henrietta Adams of Caseville, Huron county, began suit for $50,000 for breach of promise in the Kent circuit court Tuesday against Stewart Baker, son of Mrs. Nelson R. Howlett of Spring Lake, who, two years hence, when his younger brother attains his majority, will come into possession of $200,000 left him by his grandfather.

Confessed Trying to Wreck Train.

Jackson, Mich., April 22.—William and Fred Johnston, aged 14 and 16 years, have been arrested at Wayland and have confessed to attempting to wreck a Grand Rapids passenger train at Hastings last Friday night. They say they did it for fun. Two crowbars were placed in a split switch, but were discovered by freight handlers "just in time."

Barbers Sent to Jail.

Adrian, Mich., April 22.—Frank M. Van-Horn, member of the state board of barber examiners, caused the arrest of Frank Aldrich and S. A. Lee for refusal to comply with the state law relative to qualifying. Both pleaded guilty and have commenced to serve fifteen days' sentence in the county jail.

Wants Damages For Alleged Slander.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 22.—Frederick Henselmann of Detroit has commenced a $25,000 slander suit against Charles Adrion of Manchester, on the grounds of alleged charges of unchastity made by defendant in the presence of Henselmann's family, April 2 last year, at his home, 312 Brady street, Detroit.

Michigan Postmasters.

Washington, April 22.—Michigan postmasters were appointed Tuesday as follows: Atkinson, Iron county, Cyrus H. Sensiba, vice Edward J. Atkinson, resigned; Melva, Benzie county, Edwin E. Rhinhard, vice Jessie Grant, resigned; Redstone, Midland county, Seymour McCarty, vice R. A. Davidson, resigned.

Chaplain of State Grange Dead.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 23.—Mrs. Mary A. Mayo, aged 56 years, chaplain of the Michigan State Grange, is dead at her home in Marshall township. Mary A. Mayo has been for years an active worker in the state grange and held the office of grand chaplain at the time of her death. She was formerly grand lecturer of the order and was highly esteemed by every member.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at C. A. Wright's drug store.

ANNIVERSARY

Last Monday was the SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF

The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harkness and the event was properly celebrated.

Richard and Deborah R. Harkness having been married sixty years on April 20, 1903, invited their near relatives and old friends and neighbors to their home in the southwest part of Tecumseh village. There were over forty present and a number sent regrets. One nephew, Edwin D. Harkness, from near Coldwater came, and those who were there had a delightful time together.

Richard Harkness was born in Peru, N. Y. August 24th, 1820. He came to Michigan with his father, David Harkness, in 1820 and settled at Raisin Valley, a mile north of the Friends' church. His wife, who was the only daughter of Elijah and Mary Crane, was born in New York City, May 24th, 1823. She came with her parents to Michigan in 1839 and they settled on the northeast corner near the Friends' church at Raisin Valley.

They have had twelve children, only seven of whom are now living, and three of them were present. A year ago six of them were present and the occasion then was enjoyed as a special family gathering. They have been members of Raisin Valley meeting ever since they came to Michigan and he has been a minister 44 years. A short program was carried out, among which was a family history by their oldest daughter, Mary C. Wood. They were the recipients of many tokens of love and regard, both from those who were present and those who could not come.

MARY C. WOOD.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, April 20, 1903.

The extent to which President Roosevelt has called upon the newspaper profession for officers of the government and the wholesome influence which the newspapermen he has selected have had upon Federal affairs constitute one of the striking features of Mr. Roosevelt's administration. One of the most prominent positions awarded to a young journalist is that of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury now filled by Mr. Robert Armstrong. Another is that of First Assistant Postmaster General, which the President awarded to Mr. Robert Wynne, for many years a prominent Washington correspondent. Mr. Henry McFarland, for many years correspondent of a leading New England paper has been appointed one of the commissioners of the District of Columbia and Mr. Harry West, political writer for magazines and for a local newspaper, has been selected to fill another vacancy in the District Commission. The present Commissioner of Pensions, Mr. Eugene F. Ware, was a newspaperman, as were also the chief of the Secret Service, Mr. Wilkie and several other government officials. In every instance the newspapermen appointed by President Roosevelt have rendered excellent accounts of themselves and it is generally conceded that they have proved of value in the positions to which they have been assigned.

While never a newspaperman himself, the President seems to have a keen appreciation of the value and the difficulties of "the craft" and always shows the utmost consideration. In the plans for his new office building he insisted that a comfortable room for the accommodation of the press be provided, the first "press room" ever established in the White House, and on his trips about the country he always takes along the representatives of the press associations and frequently those of several of the more prominent newspapers. When he is in Washington, Mr. Roosevelt is always accessible to the correspondents of reputable newspapers and when intelligent questions are propounded to him he invariably takes great pains to make himself understood and to impart, if possible the necessary information. It is part of the unwritten code of Washington correspondents that the President is never to be quoted, that is, his remarks made in private conversation, and for that reason the public is seldom aware of the source, even when it reads statements and news that has come direct from the President himself. Mr. Roosevelt always displays the utmost confidence in the correspondents and talks to them with entire freedom, although he not infrequently spoils a good "story" by sealing his interviewer's lips with an injunction of secrecy. This confidence has never been violated, even though it has more than once resulted in the recipients being "scooped" by some enterprising competitor who has dug out the facts without going to the President.

It is said at the Post office Department that the investigation still continues but no facts are made public and it is stated officially that none will be given out until the inquiry is completed. The entire affair, according to the Postmaster General, is in the hands of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow and Mr. Payne is not even acquainted with the charges as they come in. The utmost confidence is felt in the thoroughness with which Mr. Bristow will perform his duties, none the less because of the fact that every attempt has been made by politicians in the past to secure his dismissal. It is asserted of Mr. Bristow that he has no friend among the politicians of any party that he has held his position by sheer merit and that he is not, therefore, under obligations to any one, a fact which particularly fits him for his present work. That very grave charges are under consideration is known and the only question as to the effectiveness of the present investigation is whether the recommendations of Mr. Bristow and his inspectors will be carried out to the letter, when made.

Quietly, but none the less effectually, the president has been strengthening the civil service regulations of the government until today there are no places which are controlled by political influence. The only notable exceptions are what are known as presidential postmasters and members of the consular service. One of the strongest features of the new law which went into effect last week is a provision which forbids the payment of employees appointed or retained contrary to the rules of the civil service commission. As the auditors of the treasury department are personally responsible for every payment they approve, this order makes each of them an agent for the enforcement of the civil service regulations. The new rules make impossible the employment of persons as laborers and assigning them to clerical work. Only persons employed at manual labor shall be classed as laborers. A serious abuse which the new rules are designed to remedy is the appointment of political favorites as rangers and in other capacities on the forest reserves of the country. Hereafter all vacancies in this work will have to be filled with persons certified by the commission. It is also provided that all employees appointed for service in connection with the St. Louis exposition must be secured through the civil service commission, but it is said that the strongest pressure will be brought to bear on the president to rescind this portion of his new order.

Some amusing stories are already coming back from the president's special train. One is to the effect that one of the newspapermen provided himself with a most elaborate outfit to wear during the two weeks' stay at Cinnabar. Among other things he had a gorgeous pair of russet boots laced up with red silk cords. They attracted the attention of the president and he inquired what they were for. "To wear at Cinnabar," said the newspaperman. "That's too bad," said the president. "Why?" said Mr. Roosevelt, "There's snow out there and I am afraid the pretty things will get wet," and he returned to his private car amid the general laugh which greeted his remark.

Mortgage Sale.

Whereas, default has been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage (whereby the power of sale therein contained has become operative) made, executed and delivered by Benjamin F. Reynolds and Clarissa C. Reynolds, his wife, to John S. Strong, dated the 6th day of May A. D. 1893, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds, in and for the County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, on 15th day of May A. D. 1893, in Liber 139 of Mortgages on page 120; and which mortgage was duly assigned by said John S. Strong to Charles E. Williamson by instrument in writing dated the 19th day of June A D 1896, and recorded in said Register's Office on the 22nd day of June A D 1896 in Liber 143 of Mortgages on page 28; and which mortgage was further duly assigned by said Charles E. Williamson to Lorenzo D. Dewey by instrument in writing dated the 1st day of April A D 1898, and recorded in said Register's office on the 1st day of April A D 1898 in Liber 143 of Mortgages on page 291; upon which mortgage indebtedness there is claimed to be due at the date hereof the sum of fifteen hundred twenty-seven and 68-100 dollars (including the amount paid for insurance of the buildings on the premises described in said mortgage, with interest thereon, under authority given by the terms of said mortgage); and no suit or proceedings at law, or in equity, having been instituted for the recovery of the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that, for the purpose of satisfying and paying said claim, and the interest thereon, with costs of this proceeding (including a lawful attorney fee), I will, by virtue of said power of sale, on the 29th day of June A D 1903, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the east front door of the Court House in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee (that being the place where the Circuit Court for said County is holden), sell, at public vendue to the highest bidder, the following lands, in said mortgage described and conveyed, viz:—All that tract or parcel of land situate and being in the Village of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, to-wit:—Commencing in the south line of Kilbuck Street twelve rods east from the east line of Evans Street, such point of beginning also the north-west corner of the L. Drew homestead premises and now occupied by C. F. Coller as a residence premises, and being also the north-east corner of a parcel of land formerly deeded by one E. M. Lansing to Thomas Cummins, thence south on west line of said C. F. Coller land twelve (12) rods; thence west on south line of said E. M. Lansing land six (6) rods; thence north parallel with the first course twelve rods to the south line of Kilbuck Street; thence east on south line of Kilbuck Street six rods to place of beginning.

Dated: March 31st A D 1903.

LORENZO D. DEWEY,
Assignee of said mortgage.
FRED'K B. WOOD, Attorney for assignee.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee ss. Probate court for the county of Lenawee.

At a session of the probate court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the probate office, in the city of Adrian, on the 12th day of March in the year one thousand, nine hundred and three.

Present, Harry L. Larwill, judge of probate.

In the matter of the estate of WEBB HARRIOTT, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Willard C. Harriott, brother of deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to petitioner or some other suitable person.

It is ordered, that Monday, the 13th day of April next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

Commissioners' Notice.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, county of Lenawee, ss.

In the matter of the estate of WEBB HARRIOSS, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said county, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of W. S. Morden in the township of Macon, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the first day of June 1903, and on the first day of October, 1903 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 15th day of April, 1903, are allowed by said probate court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated April 15th, 1903.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system.

Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." MRS. IRA O. BROWN, Rumford Falls, Me.

A Notable Gathering.

New York, April 23.—Baron Speck von Sternberg, minister and envoy of the German empire, was last night the guest of honor at a dinner tendered him by Edward Uhl and Herman Ridder at the Manhattan club. Among those present were Senator Chauncey M. Depew, Mayor Low, Lyman J. Gage, Dr. Lewald, imperial German commissioner to the St. Louis exposition, Consul-General Karl Buenz and Thomas F. Ryan.

Proclaimed Emperor of Fez.

Madrid, April 23.—A special dispatch from Melilla, Morocco, says Muley Mohammed, the sultan's brother, has been proclaimed emperor at Fez. Advices from Ceuta, Morocco, say the Kabyle tribesmen besieging the port of Tetuan have sent an ultimatum to the pasha in command of the sultan's forces, demanding the dismissal of the sultan's tax collectors and saying that otherwise they will attack Tetuan.

Cruiser to Go to San Domingo.

Washington, April 23.—Because American interests at Monte Christi, San Domingo, are endangered by the revolutionary gunboat Valencia, the United States consular agent there has cabled the state department asking that an American man-of-war be sent to the relief of United States interests. The cruiser San Francisco, now at Pensacola, will probably leave for there today.

"MAN'S PROPER DIET"
PLEASING
FORCE

TART REPLY TO HANNA.

Parry Takes Exception to His Remarks Made at Labor Banquet.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 23.—"Mr. Hanna's rushing to the rescue of organized labor, when you come to think of it, is a somewhat astonishing spectacle," said D. M. Parry when asked for his opinion as to the attack made upon his labor position by Senator Hanna at the banquet of the Amalgamated Steelworkers at Columbus Tuesday night.

"If everyone has enjoyed the speech of the senator as much as I have," continued Mr. Parry, "it certainly cannot be claimed that he has not done his share in contributing to the era of general good feeling. Mr. Hanna, and I am glad to note that he has none against me, although I must confess that it is with some surprise that I read his declaration, that I display ignorance in my report.

"Of course I am aware that all this is not argument, but then there was very little argument in Mr. Hanna's speech. He takes up a paper which has met the indorsement of 98 per cent of the manufacturers of the country, as being a fair exposition of the socialistic tendency and what Carroll D. Wright calls 'the damnable practices of trades unionism' and makes what I think the country will hold as a poor attempt to answer it. He reads a section from this paper, then denies it is true and turns around, after sneering at the writer, and says in the manner of the ordinary stump speaker, 'boys, isn't that so?' Of course 'the boys' send up an uproarious shout of approval. Then he patted this man on the back and then that one, called Mr. Shaffer 'brother' and otherwise conducted himself as the presiding genius of a veritable love feast. This method of disposing of one of the most serious questions of the day probably takes with the kind of men that he was addressing, but I cannot help feeling that the rest of the country would have been better satisfied with a more dignified treatment of the labor problem.

"After the manner of a pettifogging lawyer, he picked out a couple of paragraphs of my report, held them up to ridicule, and then passed on to his own ideas as to joint agreement and the legal responsibilities of labor unions, evading all the main points brought out in my address. If there is anything more in Mr. Hanna's speech I fail to find it."

A. O. HYDE IS DEAD.

Interesting Criminal Proceedings Are Thus Closed.

Marshall, Mich., April 23.—Early Wednesday morning occurred the death of Augustus O. Hyde of this city. Mr. Hyde, who was 83 years of age, was for fifty years one of the best known men in the county.

In the death of Mr. Hyde an interesting career is closed and one of the most notorious criminal cases will pass into history. From 1877 until 1899 Mr. Hyde held the office of county superintendent of poor. His annual reports were accepted without the formality of auditing his books, and no one presumed to question his honesty.

It finally came to light through an investigation that Hyde was a defaulter to the extent of nearly $17,000. He acknowledged his guilt and refunded to the county about $5,000, but the balance he refused to pay back. Three criminal charges were lodged against him—false pretenses, embezzlement and forgery. The defendant employed the best counsel obtainable, and for the past four years has been playing a waiting game, it being conceded that it was only a question of a few months, or years at most, when he would be gathered to the great majority.

Mr. Hyde's peculations consisted chiefly in getting bills paid twice.

DETROIT'S FIRST GAME.

Over 16,000 Persons Saw Them Beat Cleveland at Baseball.

Detroit, Mich., April 23.—The Detroit baseball club won the first game of the season at Bennett park Wednesday, and 16,482 people, the largest crowd in the history of the game in Michigan, saw the contest played with the Cleveland team, jamming their way in through the turnstiles from 2 o'clock until 4, and sitting through with ardor unabated till the glorious finish in the eighth inning, when the game was won, as it proved.

It was one of the inspiring finishes that the Detroit teams of past years have been wont to hand out on opening days. With the beginning of the second half of the fifth inning Cleveland was the possessor of a big "2" on the scoreboard and Detroit had a string of ciphers. But at this point Detroit took a brace and won out with a final score of 4 to 2 in their favor.

Root Won From McCoy.

Detroit, Mich., April 23.—Only the shadow of Kid McCoy's old greatness in offense showed in his fight against Jack Root in the armory last night, and the Hoosier was an easy victim for the body punches of Jack Root of Chicago, who in every single round showed his superiority and failed of securing a knock-out only through the dilatory tactics of McCoy and his speedy footwork, the only relic of his former skill. It was hardly an exhibition of competition, and instead of affording the fiercest battle of the season, as had been expected, resolved itself into a contest in which one man merely tried to stay the limit. This McCoy succeeded in doing, but at the end of the tenth round the honors were declared entirely Root's. The battle was fought at catch weights and winds up the boxing events of Detroit for the season.

Detroit Man an Absconder.

Lancaster, Pa., April 23.—Before Judge Landis Wednesday, Frederick L. Baker of Detroit pleaded guilty to having absconded to Brazil last January with jewelry valued at $18,000 belonging to the Non-Retailing company of this city, by whom he was employed as a traveling salesman. He was sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the Eastern penitentiary and to pay a fine of $1,500. The Non-Retailing company recovered in all about $8,000 worth of their property.

Fatally Burned While Fishing.

Metamora, Mich., April 23.—While fishing Hal Rosman's gasoline jack exploded, covering him with burning oil. His clothing was entirely burned off and the injuries he received were fatal.

His Prisoner Escaped.

Detroit, Mich., April 23.—Charles Miller, well known as "Dutch Charlie," who was arrested in Northville for stealing twelve cheeses, made a daring escape from the hands of an officer Wednesday afternoon. Deputy Sheriff Perrin was bringing Miller in from Northville on a suburban car, and at the corner of Grand River and High street Miller jumped from the car. Perrin followed for four blocks and fired several shots, but miller got away.

TWO BURGLARIES

Burglars broke into safes at

HAYDEN'S MILL AND MOTT'S CREAMERY

Last night and secured very little money.

This morning when Norman Emmerson went to the Globe Mill to open up at five o'clock, he found that the safe had been broken into and immediately telephoned to Mr. Hayden. Levi Hayden at once went down and discovered that although the safe was unlocked the burglars had gone through it and took the combination from the lock of the inside door, which was open and put it on top the safe, with some blunt instrument had knocked off all the small locks and had scattered papers all over the floor.

In various places around the office in use for various purposes, there were about ten dollars in money which the burglars secured. There is always a sign placed on the safe saying, "Mr. Burglar, this safe is not locked and our money is all in the Lilley State Bank," but for all this the fool burglars are determined to think the mill is full of money and have broken into this safe five different times. Levi Hayden has lost nothing but is mad enough to bite a ten-penny nail in two that these dirty rascals should scatter his papers around so badly.

MOTT'S CREAMERY.

Was also burglarized the same night. Entrance was made through the window. They only secured a few cents and did little damage.

IT IS REPORTED

That after the work here was finished they next started for Adrian on a hand car on the Detroit Southern road, making very good time. Lesh & Young's lumber office was also entered by the same party, but only secured 68 cents. One of the supposed burglars was captured in Montpelier, O. this morning.

IN OLDEN TIMES

Today the Herald will print the third article on

OLD TECUMSEH

And it will be read with interest.

The Presbyterian church of Tecumseh Aug. 2, 1863, at the suggestion of their pastor, Rev. Mr. Wishard, resolved to send a letter of encouragement and sympathy to their friends in the army at Nashville, Tenn. A committee for this purpose composed of Rev. E. N. Nichols, John Tallman, Henry Conklin and P. Bills, Esq., were appointed to draft the same and S. C. LeBaron to act as secretary of the meeting called for this purpose. The result reported at the next meeting was a long letter very scholarly and verbose, well spiced up with several bits of poetry and loaded down with quotations from scripture and plenty of good advice to the boys in the field.

Rev. Wishard had previously announced his intention of visiting Nashville and so the letter was delivered by him in person. That it more than performed the good offices for which it was written is shown by a letter Sept. 9 from D. Boyd, who writing from Nashville says, "It rejoiced our hearts to meet the Rev. Mr. Wishard and have his hearty shake of the hand. The words of good cheer and kindly advice, written by the committee of the Presbyterian church to their friends and neighbors now in the army and published in your paper were to the mind and heart as the waters of the fountain bubbling through the fissures of a rock, beneath the cool shade of some friendly elm by the way side, is to the burning lips and parched throat of the soldier on the march under a sultry southern summer sun."

Evidently the learned committee were met more than half way on the well trodden field of composition and rhetoric by the soldier correspondent. A few weeks later there is published a request signed by a number of citizens for the publication of the Thanksgiving sermon preached by Rev. S. E. Wishard, in which they say, "Believing that were it (the sermon) placed in the hands of every family and every soldier in the army especially those who have gone out from us, it would be the means of much good in cultivating correct ideas relative to the destinies of our country and the sustaining and encouraging of our faithful soldiers," to which Rev. Wishard in reply says "If it will encourage a single desponding heart, or give edge to one sword drawn for our government you are welcome to use it."

The sermon follows and was dated August 6. That was before this state had adopted the custom of making the National, also the state Thanksgiving Day, and in this year of our Lord of which we speak, it fell upon an unfortunate date for the pumpkin pies, turkey and cranberry sauce with which we are wont to associate its celebration.

It is interesting to note that "the autumn term of the Union school will open in each department on Monday, Sept. 7, under the superintendance of the following corps of teachers: Prof. C. B. Thomas, principal of high school; Mrs. C. B. Thomas, preceptress; Samuel Rundell, assistant; Miss Lucinda Sharp, assistant; Miss Mary S. Bruce, Brownville primary; Miss Julia Hough, east primary; Miss Maggie Rosebrough, west primary.

The board feel confident the school opens under flattering auspices of success, believing no better corps of teachers are engaged in any school of its grade in this portion of the state, than now announced and that foreign scholars will find no better opportunities than our school offers them. Mrs. Reed who hitherto has successfully conducted classes in drawing at a room in the higher school building will continue her labors in that doctrine commencing with the term and the board cheerfully bespeak for her the patronage of all desiring instruction in that department. E. B. Wood, director.

October 1, 1863 The Methodist conference has just closed its session at Romeo and E. B. Hascall has received the appointment for Tecumseh church. Mrs. Bissell, the photographic artist has removed her rooms to her new residence opposite the new Methodist church, and will be happy to wait upon any who may favor her with a call at her new quarters. Ambrotypes, Melainotypes, etc. taken at all times.

J. T. Ketcham, the news dealer, advertises the current member of Atlantic Monthly just received. Among the contributors for October are Chas. Sumner, John G. Whittier, R. W. Emerson, J. P. Quincy and G. B. Prescott and our former townsman remarks that "these articles alone are worth price, of the magizine."

We should think they were. Here indeed did our fathers have the advantage of us in their magizine reading. Think of Mr. Dooley, John Kendrick Bangs and the dialect stories of the present time in comparison with the October number of Atlantic in 1863. Shades of Emerson and Sumner pity us, but this is meat for babes in comparison with that. October 1, 1863. C. M. Burlingame announces that he has purchased Mr. Castle's interest in the Herald and henceforth will continue to run it under the same motto, "The Union, the Constitution and the Enforcement of the laws." We shall write nothing ourselves and we desire our correspondents to write nothing in contravention of this general principle.

Among the locals of this first edition of Mr. Burlingame's paper we find: Mr. Elijah Anderson and family last Monday left this village for California via Panama with the intention of making that their future home. Mr. Anderson was a pioneer in the settlement of this village it having been his home for thirty years. In their departure we have lost one of our most worthy citizens and society has met with a loss not easily repaired.

President Lincoln issues his Thanksgiving Proclamation signed by Secretary Seward, in which he says, "the year that is just drawing to its close has been filled with blessing of fruitful fields and healthful skies" and recommends another day of Thanksgiving and prayer the last Thursday of November. This was during the darkest days of the war and the same paper contains the President's proclamation for a draft in the states failing to furnish their quota of the 300,000 men called for that time.

The drawing for Lenawee Co. took place, but Tecumseh filled her quota by volunteers and no one from this township was drawn. A war meeting was called of which Dr. M. A. Patterson was president and Lucius Lilley secretary to assemble at Union hall in this village Saturday evening, Nov. 13 at 7 o'clock to consider measures to avoid the January draft. So that no sooner were they safely past one dark hour than another was upon them. Yet the editor of the paper is disposed to smile at the situation and cheerfully announces "The draft has been postponed to Nov. 3, 1863 and when it does take place this office may be cleaned out by it. The d—l is our only employe who is not enrolled in the first class. The editor is included in the 'liable' and may be lucky enough to draw a prize. If the paper don't appear next week our patrons may surmise what it is that 'ails Hannah.' If we are drawn we may find relief in the words of our poet:

'Why should we mourn conscripted friends
Or shake at Drafts alarms.
'Tis but the voice that Abra'am sends
To make us shoulder arms.'

An Inexpensive Trip to California.

Fifty Dollars will be the price of a ticket to San Francisco or Los Angeles, and return, from Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and Union Pacific line, leaving Chicago May 3, or any day from May 12 to 18, inclusive. Tickets will be good to return until July 15. Less than three days from Chicago to San Francisco is the time of the new overland service via this line.

If you are ever going to visit, California you should go this summer. Not only will the cost be nominal, but you will find the month of May a most pleasant season for the trip. There is no more delightful summer resort in the United States than Los Angeles with its mountains fifteen miles north and its sea-coast fifteen miles south. There is no more fascinating city in America than San Francisco.

A sojourn on the Pacific Coast will put new breath in your lungs, richer blood in your limbs, and greatly increase your knowledge of the country you live in.

Literature descriptive of the new overland service to California, as well as information about tickets and train service, promptly forwarded on request.

A Woman's Wealth.

Paine's Celery Compound

GIVES VIGOR AND STRENGTH TO DEBILITATED AND RUN DOWN WOMEN.

It is maintained by many distinguished writers that the greatness of a nation depends much upon the physical condition of its women. The general conditions which contribute to health and long life, are those which do not imply a rapid and unequal exhaustion of those powers by which life is maintained. While we assert that the women of our land stand peerless for beauty and the virtues that make them lovable, we cannot hide the fact that there are thousands in our midst who, owing to overwork, worry, household cares, and an unequal exhaustion of life power, have become weak, nervous, sleepless, and debilitated.

We bring to the attention of all weary, despondent, hopeless, and sickly women earth's great rescuer and health builder, Paine's Celery Compound. Thousands of healthy women around us owe their present vigor, activity, and robustness to Paine's Celery Compound. Mrs. Stephen Smith, St. Paul, Minn., tells how she was snatched from the grave; she says:—

"I had a bad attack of la grippe this spring and was at death's door, and no one ever expected me to recover. I was so weak that as soon as they brought me out of one faint I was in another. I could not take any nourishment, and doctors' medicines did me no good. A friend advised my husband to get me a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, which he did, but had no faith in it. The second day after taking the Compound, I began to get real hungry and took an interest in things. I had everything that money and loving care could supply, and with that and Paine's Celery Compound, I am now doing my own work, while three months ago I was almost in the grave. I know that I owe my health and strength to Paine's Celery Compound, and shall always recommend it."

Austin, who live[illegible]th his son in the northeast section of Tecumseh, says: "I am more than thankful that Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice for they did me a great deal of good, in fact they stopped a dull aching pain in my back which had annoyed me for years, and also rendered the action of the kidney secretions normal which at times were too frequent and highly colored. I tried a number of so called kidney cures but I did not receive any benefit, before I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and I knew people who had used them so I went to C. A. Wright's drug store and got them. To say I entertain a very favorable opinion of them as a kidney medicine is putting it in mild terms. They are all and more than they are represented to be."

PEOPLE WHO CAN'T SLEEP.

Many people go to bed—not to sleep, but to think—to tumble and toss—to get up, walk about until tired Nature gives way and a few fitful hours of sleep are obtained just before dawn—a sleep that does not rest—a sleep from which one wakes weary and tired, wholly unfitted to take up the daily routine of household, shop or office duties. That this condition goes on uncared for is almost criminal, when the well-known, time-tried and tested powers of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to give restful natural sleep have been so fully proven in such cases.

Mrs. E. Anderson of Tecumseh, Mich., says;—"I was so nervous that I could not sleep at night and was weak and suffered from dizzy spells. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Chas. A. Wright's drug store and they were just what I needed. Since I used the medicine my nerves are steady and strong—I sleep finely—the dizziness is all gone and the general health, strength and vigor splendid. I think the pills a splendid nerve medicine and have no hesitation in recommending it strongly." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase M. D. are on every package.

You cannot afford to disregard the warnings of a weak and diseased heart and put off taking the prescription of the world's greatest authority on heart and nervous disorders—

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

If your heart palpitates, flutters, or you are short of breath, have smothering spells, pain in left side, shoulder or arm, you have heart trouble and are liable to drop dead any moment.

Major J. W. Woodcock, one of the best known oil operators in the country dropped dead from heart disease recently at his home in Portland, Ind., while mowing his lawn.—The Press.

Mrs. M. A. Birdsall, Watkins, N. Y., whose portrait heads this advertisement, says: "I write this through gratitude for benefits I received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I had palpitation of the heart, severe pains under the left shoulder, and my general health was miserable. A few bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me entirely.

Worrying about things you can't help is as foolish as to throw stones at the sun when its shining doesn't suit you.

The world is full of people who want to do good, but are in no hurry to start.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

NO MERCY SHOWN

NEAR AN ILLINOIS TOWN

Thebes, Ill., April 27.—An unknown negro, aged about 17 years, was lynched by a mob of angry farmers near the village of Santa Fe Sunday afternoon for attempting to assault the 10-year-old daughter of Farmer Branson Davis, and this was followed by a general onslaught upon a colony of negroes living in tents, who were engaged in bridge construction work. The tents were burned and many negroes were shot, but so far as known none were killed. Hundreds of shots were exchanged, but no whites were hurt.

Branson Davis lives half a mile east of Santa Fe, a small village near here. While his 10-year-old daughter was in the barnyard the negro accosted her. She ran but he seized her, and her screams brought her mother to the rescue. The negro fled. Officers were notified and were soon in pursuit. News of the assault speedily spread among the neighboring farmers and resulted in an angry mob starting in search of the assailant. The negro, meanwhile, had been captured by officers and was being brought to Santa Fe when the mob of farmers was met. A fight followed, during which the farmers secured the negro. He confessed to the crime but begged for mercy. Without a word the mob started with the prisoner toward the new bridge being constructed across the Mississippi, where he was hanged to an oak tree, without ceremony or delay. After the body had dangled in the air a few moments it was riddled with bullets.

Attacked Negro Camp.

A rush was made for a colony of several hundred negroes employed on bridge construction work and living in tents near the bridge. The negroes saw the mob coming and opened fire. A fusillade followed and the whites fired with effect, as many of the negroes were shot down. None of the mob was injured, and it is not known how seriously the negroes were wounded. The mob pressed forward, notwithstanding the steady fire, until the negroes turned and fled toward a nearby wood, taking their wounded with them. The mob then fell upon the tents and burned them. After accomplishing a general work of destruction the mob dispersed. Excitement is intense.

HORSE IN WHITE HOUSE.

Pony Belonging to President's Son Taken to Lad's Room.

Washington, D. C., April 27.—Archie Roosevelt, who is recovering from an attack of measles, had a visitor the other day whose call will do more to restore his to health than all the medicine the doctor can give him. Soon after Archie began to convalesce he begged to be allowed to see his spotted pony, Algonquin, which is his constant companion when he is well. It was too soon for Archie to leave his room and Mrs. Roosevelt was compelled to decline the request. Charles, the groom, who looks after Algonquin, and who also is a great chum of Archie, thought the matter over and concluded that if Archie wanted to see his pony he should do so.

Without confiding his plan to anyone he led the pony the other day into the White House and along the corridor into the elevator. The attendants were too much surprised to say a word until after the elevator had disappeared. When the second floor was reached Charles led the pony to Archie's room and ushered it in. To say that Archie was delighted expresses it mildly and the pony also seemed to enjoy the visit. This is the first time that a horse has ridden in a White House elevator.

Bliss Commutes His Sentence.

Lansing, Mich., April 25.—Governor Bliss has commuted to fourteen years the sentence of Fred Meister, sent from Ingham county to Jackson prison in 1896 for twenty years for statutory assault. A parole has also been granted and Meister will be released June 1. In order that he may accept a position which awaits him in Chicago, Governor Bliss has commuted the sentence of Willis Hewett, sent from Berrien county in March, 1900, to Ionia prison for four years for forgery.

Feared a Lynching

St. Joseph, Mich., April 25.—William A. O'Rourke was brought back from Chicago on a bench warrant issued by the grand jury. O'Rourke is charged with criminal assault on Louise Loescher, and the whole community has been aroused against him. He gave bonds of $3,000 at a special session of court called for the purpose. O'Rourke was spirited out of town, as it was feared attempts would be made to lynch him.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." Famous Declaration of Independence to Be Seen No More.

BE PUT UNDER LOCK AND KEY

Written With Poor Quality of Ink—Only One or Two Signatures Can Be Made Out—A Copy Taken in 1820 Injured the Original.

Washington, April 26.—The declaration of independence is to be seen no more by the house. An order has been issued that henceforth the historic manuscript shall be kept under lock and key in a great fire and light-proof safe. The declaration will never be exhibited again at any of the great international fairs. This decision has been reached as the result of an examination of the document by a committee of the American Academy of Sciences, now in session in this city, who acted at the instance of Secretary Hay, whose attention had been called to the sad state of the famous document by Andrew Allen, librarian of the state department. Most of the text of the declaration is still legible, but only one or two of the signatures can be made out. There is only a trace of the autograph of John Hancock, the first to sign.

The committee, equipped with powerful microscope, made a careful examination of the declaration. It was found that the ink used was not of the first quality. The fact that the engrosser (now unknown to history) used a sharp pen and bore steadily upon it, accounted in a measure for the better preservation of the text and compared with the signatures. The great damage sustained, however, was in 1820, when a copy was taken by the crude letter press process. This was done in order to secure a facsimile for the surviving signers (one of whom was Thomas Jefferson) and their families.

SPEAKER MILLER OUSTED.

Illinois Legislators Declare "No Confidence" in Him.

Springfield, Ill., April 25.—The Illinois house of representatives Friday, by a vote of 72 to 60, declared "no confidence" in its presiding officer, Speaker John H. Miller, whose alleged unwarranted use of the gavel in furthering a proposed enactment affecting Rich street railway franchises in Chicago, led to a riot Thursday. A committee of five, all personal followers of the speaker, had been appointed by him to investigate the charges of attempted bribery in connection with the passage of the Mueller traction bill. It is the intention of the house to interrogate him regarding the facts, upon which an editorial in the Inter-Ocean of Chicago, alleging bribery in connection with the Mueller traction bill, was based.

The anti-Miller men came into Representative hall Friday determined to force the speaker to prove his charges. If he could not readily be induced to act they had decided that no business should be transacted in the house until he had complied with their demand.

They had their own way in everything from first to last, and the speaker's forces were defeated at every point.

GAS IN MINE EXPLODES.

Four Workmen Killed and Others Hurt in Glace Bay, N. S.

Glace Bay, N. S., April 25.—A gas explosion brought death to four men and probably fatal injuries to another in the Reserve colliery Friday, while firedamp overcame a score or more men, who are now in St. Johns hospitals.

The dead are: Michael S. McNeil, miner; Henry Jackson, loader; Joseph King, helper, and Wm. King, driver.

Probably fatally injured: — Whilsway, miner.

The explosion took place in the French slope of Reserve mine. Some gas had accumulated in the level, but had been partially removed. On this level it is customary to work with naked lights. The five men were at work when the gas ignited from a lamp and the explosion followed. Whilsway was found alive, but he is frightfully burned.

A rescue party went into the mine and brought out the bodies, the work being dangerous owing to firedamp, and a large number of men suffered in consequence. There is no sign of fire in the mine and work will be resumed as soon as it is cleared of gas.

Carnegie Praises Washington.

New York, April 25.—Just before leaving for Europe Friday Andrew Carnegie said respecting his gift of $600,000 to Tuskegee institute: "Booker T. Washington is doing a great work for humanity and for his race. His race have more than ordinary disadvantages to overcome and he is leading them toward a settlement of their troubles through lifting them by education. The race problem will be settled, I believe, by education, and in such a way as Mr. Washington is now directing that policy."

Passengers Robbed of $1,000.

Lincoln, Neb., April 25.—Passengers on a Burlington passenger train were robbed of $1,000 early Friday morning, as the train was leaving the Burlington Union station in Lincoln. The presence of the robbers was first discovered by a woman. She screamed and the people in the waiting room gathered around. Investigation proved a majority of them had been robbed. The confusion permitted the robbers to escape.

Injured Lad Is Dead.

Jackson, Mich., April 25.—Little Carl Kehoe, whose left leg was wrenched from his body by a wagon wheel, died from the shock of the accident and subsequent amputation.

NO PRIMARY VOTE

Senate Delays Action on Account of Prison Junket.

THE CREDITS TAXATION BILL

Be Up For Third Reading May 5—One of Most Important Measures of Session—Estimated Budget of Session Will Total $8,000,000.

Lansing, Mich., April 25.—On Monday evening the prison junket will start for Stillwater, Minn., to investigate the binder twine plant in the state prison there and report to the legislature as to whether it would be advisable to institute such a plant in Jackson prison. The great problem is whether the cordage trust has control of all the raw material. The special junketing party seems inclined to believe they will get a straight tip on that point better at Stillwater than anywhere else.

But the junket part of the program is not the interesting thing just at present. The nub of the situation is this: With Senators Moriarity, Woodman and Cannon away, the senate elections committee will not take any action on the primary bill until the week after next, as the junket party will not reach Chicago on the return trip until next Friday. It is well understood that the house will not stand for any adjournment until some action has been taken on the primary bill. The result is that the senate elections committee, while developing their plans for defeating the Colby-Powell-Stone bill, and while knowing what was necessary for the past two months, are asking the people of the state to pay for one week more of a session which would close quickly enough if the primary bill were out of the way.

An Important Measure.

On May 5 the house will vote on one of the most important measures of the session. According to a resolution passed yesterday, the Ward-Randall-Campbell bill, for the exemption of all taxes on credits, will come up for third reading on that date.

The history of the bill is this: The senate passed a bill introduced by Senator Kelly, exempting all mortgage and land contracts from taxation. The house had several bills before it, all bearing on the question of exempting mortgages and land contracts and all other credits from taxation. One which had been drafted by Representative Campbell, provided for a stamp tax on credits to take the place of the revenue the state would lose by such exemption, but the committee on taxation decided to strike this clause out. Mr. Campbell evidently thought such a tax would be constitutional. In this matter he differs from Representatives Hemans, Wade and several other attorneys in the house, who believe a constitutional amendment would have to be made before either a stamp or any kind of specific tax could legally be imposed on credits. Mr. Hemans says he can find no statutes in any other state in the northwest or New England which exempt credits entirely from taxation without supplying something in the place of such a tax.

The house state affairs committee Friday morning reported favorably the grain inspection bill, which provides for the appointment of inspectors at $85 and weighmasters at $75 per month, to be paid from fees.

The committee also reported favorably the bill for which ex-Senator Horatio S. Earle has been working, providing for a good roads commissioner at $2,000 per year.

In round numbers, including the amounts raised by taxes fixed by statute, the legislature of 1891 called for $7,500,000 for the two years for which the sum was raised. It will not be less than $8,000,000 that the taxpayers will be called upon to raise, in direct and indirect ways, for the administration of the state for the next biennial term according to the budget which is now being made up.

Of Interest R. F. D. Carriers.

Saginaw, Mich., April 25.—President C. C. Eaton of the State Association of Rural Mail Carriers of Michigan says: "I am contemplating the issue of a call for a national convention of rural mail carriers, to be held in Saginaw some time in July, for the purpose of organizing a national association upon the same lines as the present state organization. County associations in this state may secure charters by applying to H. E. Crum, secretary of the state association, whose address is Hillsdale, Mich."

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, April 25.—Michigan pensions were granted Friday as follows: Original—John Fearce, Quinnesic, $6; Frederick Ackerson, Menominee, $6. Increase—Ellis McGary, Kalamazoo, $12; Ebenezer Van Buren, Buir, $12; James M. Travis, Grand Rapids, $17; Lafayette Miller, Leslie, $10; Hibbert S. Slawson, Lansing, $17; Henry Sheicher, Grand Rapids, $10; August Ehlert, Detroit, $8; Arthur H. Lett, Owosso, $8. Widows—Annie Thayer, Detroit, $8; Mary Brown, Butman, $8; Elizabeth Clark, Lacey, $12.

Wants $10,000 From G. R. & I.

Kalamazoo, Mich., April 25.—Mrs. Alice Warren has brought suit against the G. R. & I. railway for $10,000 damages. Mrs. Warren claims that while alighting from train at Petoskey last summer it started too soon and her arm and side were so badly wrenched that paralysis resulted and she has since been an invalid.

Crusade at Mt. Clemens.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., April 25.—Sheriff McInnis has closed all gambling houses in the city. During the past two weeks tin-horns, four-flushers and flim-flammers have been crowding into the city at an uncomfortable rate and it became necessary to call a halt.

Cornerstone Laid.

Marquette, Mich., April 27.—Under the auspices of the Masonic grand lodge of Michigan, the cornerstone of Marquette county's new courthouse was laid Saturday afternoon with elaborate exercises.

THEY CANNOT TALK

Peculiar Malady Seizes Residents of Traverse City.

MADE DUMB IN A NIGHT

Doctors Don't Seem to Understand It—Disease Has Lasted a Month With Some—Good Thing For Old Gossips of the Town.

Traverse City, Mich., April 27.—A peculiar malady is abroad in Traverse City. The doctors are not saying much about it because they don't seem to understand it, while the sufferers say nothing at all, for the reason that they have been stricken speechless. The most recent victim is Louis Strack, who retired in perfect health Friday night and woke up Saturday morning unable to speak a word. Now he is recovering sufficiently to begin to talk in a whisper. There seems to have been an epidemic of this strange malady here of late, quite a number of persons having been affected. Some of those who lost their vocal powers have been in that condition nearly a month.

Nobody seems to know the cause of the trouble, but some wag has suggested it would be a good thing if it were communicated to some of the old gossips of the town. The disease is believed to be the same that puzzled Saginaw physicians a few weeks ago, when Dr. C. W. Stowe, a well known veterinarian, was the victim. His symptoms were precisely the same as those exhibited by sufferers in Traverse City.

Two Engineers Killed.

Lenox, Mich., April 27.—In a head-on collision between Grand Trunk passenger train No. 5, running from Port Huron to Detroit and a local freight train, which occurred near this place at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, two men lost their lives and one was painfully injured. In some way the switch leading into the yards, on which the freight was standing, was left open, and the light which should have marked that fact was not placed. Before anything could be done to avert the accident the passenger train crashed into the freight, killing the engineers, Neil and Patterson, almost instantly. About 150 passengers were on the train, and for a time a panic was threatened, but when the cars did not leave the track order was soon restored. The shock threw many of them against the seats in the coaches very forcibly, and a number of persons were slightly bruised and shaken up. One lady had her arm broken.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, April 27.—Michigan pensions granted Saturday: Increase—Charles Forbes, Kalamazoo, $24; Charles M. Johnson, Dundee, $24; J. P. Niles, Grand Junction, $30; Silas Hemingway, Altona, $8; Henry S. Bush, Saginaw, $8; Michael Smith, Calumet, $8; George W. Graves, Ridgeway, $1. Widows—Melvina V. Lozier, Ransom, $12, Mary A. Marsh, Lyons, $8; Fannie W. Sackrider, Marinette, $8; Martha J. Wright, Croten, $8; Anna O. Brush, Detroit, $12; Emily Andrus, South Haven, $8.

Grand Rapids Man Missing.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 27.—Thomas DeVries, one of the best known salesmen in this city, in the employ of Steketee & Sons, has been missing two weeks and his employers and family do not know his whereabouts. He left home as usual at noon after dinner, and that was the last seen of him. He had no family troubles and his business relations were harmonious.

Competition With Cupid.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 27.—So many of the school teachers in the city have been married within the past two years that it is difficult to keep enough for the grades. The school board has unanimously decided to raise the salary of every teacher at the rate of 10 per cent. The competition with Cupid promises to become very lively.

Kidnaped His Children.

Kalamazoo, Mich., April 27.—Irving Hale, rural mail route carrier, carried out a sensational kidnaping incident. After a scene with his wife, Hale drove to the Woodard avenue schoolhouse, picked up his two children and took a train for Helena, Mont., where he has a sister living. He is said to have been insanely jealous of his pretty wife.

Victim of Unknown Enemy.

Bay City, Mich., April 27.—W. H. Foster, living three miles south of Coleman, Midland county, was perhaps fatally injured by an explosion of dynamite, a stick of the stuff having been placed in his chimney by an unknown enemy. A reward has been offered for information leading to the arrest of the perpetrator.

Small Fruits Injured by Frost.

Niles, Mich., April 27.—Farmers throughout this section will lose thousands of dollars as the result of a hard frost Saturday night. Early strawberries, as well as plums, cherries and other small fruits, were damaged to a great extent.

State Music Teachers.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 27.—Great preparations are being made by the local musicians for the entertainment of the State Music Teachers' association, which holds its convention in this city June 23-4-5.

Now 's the time to take Rocky Mountain Tea; it drives out the microbes of winter; it builds up the stomach, kidneys and liver. A wonderful spring tonic that makes sick people well.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind. knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at C. A. Wright's drug store.

THE NEW YORK STORE

is run on the principle of the Golden Rule. We tell you the plain truth about our goods. We do not misrepresent anything. We give you the lowest price possible at the beginning and never vary for fear of losing a sale. Everyone is treated alike and no partiality is shown. Everybody's dollar is of equal value. We always buy the best goods on the market and sell it to you at a small profit, thus giving you much benefit. We allow no goods out on approval unless paid for. If not satisfactory, money is refunded when goods are returned. We ask but fair treatment and in return always give fair treatment. This is our story, plainly told, and undoubtedly the following prices will interest you. Cash is our motto, so do not ask for trust.

Shoes.

We are still hustling the shoe business and all because we have never failed to give exceptional values for your money. Your own judgement urges you to buy of us as soon as you see our first class goods and are told our prices.

For men we have a first class work shoe in buckle, lace or congress seamless, both pegged and sewed for $1.33.

The Congress shoe is becoming very popular again for every day wear. So easy to put on or take off. We have them at $1.23, $1.48 and $1.98. All very good values for the money.

Men's dress shoe of chrome calf, acknowleged superior to the finest kid made, always stays soft no matter how often it gets wet. Price $2.69, regularly sold at $3.00.

The genuine Vici kid shoe at $3.25. A Patent Colt Kid Shoe, with glove finished kid top, no dressier shoe on the market, unusually sold for $4.25, our price $3.75.

We carry a complete line of "Gibraltars," the name that carries with it fame; the year round good wearer, all solid stock. "They are hard-working shoes, live long, last well, look good, give comfort to tired feet and die hard at a good old age" that is why they are so popular. Men's sizes $1.48 and $1.98.

If you are hunting for a servicable shoe for small sons, buy the "Gibraltar." It is probably the strongest boys' shoe made, and is intended for the lad who is extra hard on his shoes. We have sold a good many pairs of them and they have always filled the bill. The price is small, but the value is big.

Youth's sizes from 10 to 2 at $1.23.

Boy's sizes from 2 to 5½ at $1.43.

Our desire to satisfy does not come in streaks for our reputation depends on the excellence of workmanship and materials in the shoes we sell [illegible]

[illegible] styles at different [illegible]

The Old Ladie's Home Comfort shoes are only $1.49. They are made of very soft and pliable leather, a shoe made to fit the foot and need no breaking in.

The Radcliffe, a shoe for women, is the most widely advertised, popularly priced shoe in the country. It is a "natty shoe for natty women," up to date in style and workmanship, patent or stock tip. $2.50 the price the world over, but our price is $2.35. Buy a pair and you will want no other.

The Josephine, a lady's shoe combining comfort and grace. Perfect fitting and very serviceable. A shoe with a good reputation and all for $1.98. Ask your neighbor about the pair she bought and then remember we don't sell one extra good pair of shoes and then a half dozen mediocre ones.

The best children's shoes on earth are the "B. D." shoes. Are made from chrome tanned stock,—the best of stock that can be put into shoes and are guaranteed to give good and satisfactory wear. They are priced as follows:—63 cts., 83cts., $1.00, $1.25.

A baby's shoe that wears well at 50c. For the young miss: shoes will cost 69c, 98c., $1.25, $1.35 or $1.69. No better shoes on the market for the money.

PARKER PENS

ARE GOOD PENS

The Parker pen has always been a good pen, but since the bell-shaped lucky curve improvement has been added it has increased its good qualities at least 30 per cent. The lucky curve not only feeds the ink perfectly to the point of the pen and in the exact quantity desired, but it drains the ink from the feed channel back into the reservoir when the pen is carried in the pocket so that the owner will not be annoyed with wiping off the end of the pen when he next uses it, or failing to do so, having inky fingers. The lucky curve feature is patented and is used exclusively in the Parker.

Prices from $1.50 to $3.50.

Umbrellas—large assortment, 26 and 28 inch, plain wood, silver, pearl or horn trimmed handles from 40c to $2.50.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at C. A. Wright's drug store.

ROUND ABOUT US.

Next year will be leap year again. It has been a long time between leaps, but we are told that the calendar will not serve the girls such a trick again for two hundred years, and but a few of those who suffered from the present interval expect to be here then.

Some weeks ago a gentleman and his intended bride appeared at the county clerk's office and applied for a liscense. As required by law the clerk asked the man to raise his right hand and be sworn to the facts in the license. He did. And the lady raised her hand at the same time and answered the same time and answered the same as her intended spouse. Clerk Barnes did not think anything of the proceedings, as many had done likewise before, the applicants for liscense supposing both had to take the oath, when it is only the man who does. He had forgotten the incident and one day several weeks afterward was surprised to receive a visit from the couple and still more surprised when the man asked him if he had not married them when they had applied for and received their liscense. They almost took his breath away when they told him they supposed he had, that they had been living together as man and wife since. After the clerk had recovered from the shock he told them they had better go and see a minister or justice and be married. They took their departure remarking as they went "That's what the neighbors told us."—Allegan News.

Poison of the Centiped.

The centiped is popularly supposed to carry a sting on each foot, but I have several times handled them, after their heads were removed, without the claws producing any result. It is the first pair of claws only that are venomous, being hollow and provided with poison bags like a snake's fang. The largest I ever saw was eleven inches in length, a grewsome creature. A bite from one of this size would most likely have been fatal to a man in weak health.

The tarantula, though his powers of offense are nothing like those of the scorpion or centiped, is, however, a more unpopular character than either. The horror of these large spiders entertained by many people is curious and unaccountable. I have seen Australian bushmen, who in everyday life scarcely seemed to understand danger, turn white as a sheet at the sight of a small "triantelope," as they called it.—Chambers' Journal.

Favorable Point.

"Will there be any honor for the man who discovers the north pole?"

"Certainly. He will be a great life saver."

"A life saver?"

"Yes. Explorers will cease going then."—Chicago News.

"MAKES PROPER DIET PLEASING"

FORCE

Wit on the Stump.

It must have been rather disconcerting to the inflammatory speaker who, despising all technicalities, tried to storm his hearers by sheer force of eloquence, but who on uttering the words "In the book of nature it is written" was interrupted by a quiet looking gentleman with a mild request that he would "name the page." Sometimes, however, the interrupter receives a "retort courteous" he hardly bargained for, and a capital story illustrative of this is told of Lord Palmerston. His lordship, who was an inveterate joker, possessed a readiness of repartee and a quaint sense of humor that often stood him in good stead. Once when canvassing Hampshire in conjunction with Sir George Staunton he held a meeting at a hotel which was but dimly lighted at each end by two small windows.

During the noble lord's speech he was frequently interrupted by cries of "No! No!" proceeding from a little fat man in one of the windows, who was butler to an old admiral in the neighborhood. There were loud calls to bring him forward, but Lord Palmerston promptly said: "Pray don't interfere with the gentleman. Let him remain in the window. Providence has denied him any intellectual light. It would be hard indeed to deprive him of the light of heaven!"—London Standard.

Self Respect.

Maintain your self respect as the most precious jewel of all and the only true way to win the respect of others, and then remember what Emerson says, for what he says here is true: "No young man can be cheated out of an honorable career in life unless he cheats himself."

A Bet and Its Odds.

A notorious gambler, who died some time ago, once wagered a thousand dollars to one that six would not be thrown with a pair of dice ten times in succession. His offer was taken up by a fellow clubman. The dice were brought, and his opponent actually threw six nine times in succession. The gambler then offered $470 to be free of the bet. The other man declined, had his tenth throw and failed to get another six.

Just to show how very little the average man knows about the doctrine of chances a well known mathematician has pointed out the real odds about this bet. The chances were no less than 60,466,175 to 1 against six being thrown ten times in succession; therefore the real bet should have been about $600,000 to 1 cent against such a thing happening.—Pittsburg Gazette.

A Drawback.

"Well, James, how are you feeling today?" said the minister to one of his parishioners, an old man suffering from chronic rheumatism. "You are not looking as brisk as usual."

"Na, sir," replied the old fellow sadly. "I've been gey unfortinit the day."

"How, James?"

"Weel, sir, I got a letter fra a Glasca lawyer body this mornin' tellin' me that ma cousin Jock was deid an' that he had left me twa hunner poun'."

"Two hundred pounds!" repeated the minister. "And you call that hard luck? Why, it is quite a fortune for you, James."

"Aye," said the old man sorrowfully, "but the stipid lawyer body didna pit eneuch stamps on his letter, an' I had a hale saxpence to pey for extra postage."—London Tit-Bits.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Cubans Protest Against Taxation.—Protests are being made throughout the entire island of Cuba against the taxes imposed by the newly created provincial governments.

Negro Lynched.—News has been received of the lynching at Carthage, Tex., of a negro named Hensley Johnson, charged with criminally assaulting a 4-year-old white girl of that place last Friday night.

Fireman Lost His Life.—Fire destroyed the Brunson and Union Clothing company buildings, at High and Long streets in Columbus, O., entailing an aggregate loss of about $600,000. Daniel Lewis, captain, was caught under a falling wall and killed.

Immigration During April.—During the present month 89,610 immigrants have arrived at the port of New York, and with the steamers due this week the total immigration for the month is expected to reach 100,000, as against 74,541 during April of last year.

Chinese Exposition Money.—The commissioners of China to the St. Louis exposition have met in Pekin for their first conference. They had audiences with the empress dowager and secured a liberal appropriation, 600,000 taels, equivalent to about $400,000, for the Chinese exhibit.

Peasants Fight For the Monks.—In the provinces of France Sunday numerous disorderly occurrences resulted from the dispersing of unauthorized congregations. In La Roche sur Foron 500 peasants guarded a Capuchin convent in which the monks had barricaded themselves. They stoned and seriously injured three magistrates.

Cannot Be Awakened.

Bay City, Mich., April 27.—Miss Pearl Flynn, 17 years old, is asleep at her home, 1110 Columbus avenue, and all efforts to keep her awake have been unavailing since Thursday night. At long intervals she can be aroused, and she invariably answers that she is feeling comfortable and well. The physician says it is not a trance but a nervous affection of another kind.

Spring Humors

Come to most people and cause many troubles,—pimples, boils and other eruptions, besides loss of appetite, that tired feeling, fits of biliousness, indigestion and headache.

The sooner one gets rid of them the better, and the way to get rid of them and to build up the system that has suffered from them is to take

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Forming in combination the Spring Medicine par excellence, of unequalled strength in purifying the blood as shown by unequalled, radical and permanent cures of

Scrofula	Salt Rheum

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free.

THREE CAPTURED.

Give their Names as Thomas Burke, Ed Ryand and Bert Rogers and are now in Adrian Jail

AFTER FORTY MILE CHASE.

It is the Greatest haul made in Several Years. They had in their Possession a Complete line of Nitro-glycerine, Dynamite, etc.

The three burglars who have been doing work in Lenawee county were captured in Montpelier, Ohio, Friday morning. They give their names as Thomas Burke, age 42, of Cleveland, Ed Ryan, age 28, of New Orleans and Bert Rogers, age 20, of Indiana. They were captured by Detective McHugh after a forty mile chase, and were brought to Adrian by Sheriff Shepherd of Adrian, and Sheriff Youse of Williams county, and placed in the jail.

After the two had been taken yesterday morning by Detective McHugh young Rogers escaped by swimming the river and ducking into the swamp on the other side. He waded through the swamp a mile until he came to a sugar bush, where he dried his clothes. He was finally gotten track of and chased until late in the night, when he was again lost. He led the armed posse of nearly fifty farmers to within two miles of Bryan and then apparently became turned around and retraced his steps. Early this morning he appeared at the tower house at the little block station of Artic, Ind. Sheriff Youse had notified every place in the county of the fellow's escape and had given them a description of him. The operator at Artic at once recognized the young man from the description and at once notified the officers who had returned to Montpelier. They were furnished a pony engine and Sheriffs Youse and Shepherd, Deputy Holt, and Detective McHugh, went to Artic, which is fourteen miles west, and captured the young man, who had given them such a chase. He confessed to the work both at Tecumseh and Adrian.

The party had in their possession a complete outfit for cracking safes which showed them to be a desperate band. About $12 mostly pennies, was found on their persons.

Thomas Burke, who was shot in the leg by the detective is suffering from the effect. The bullet was located by Dr. Williams, he also found that the bone of the leg was splintered.

Ed Ryan is thought to be the one who shot a man at Warren, Macomb county, one night last November. The sheriff of Macomb county and one of his deputies were in Adrian Sunday looking the gang over. He seems to think that Ryan, the second oldest, answers the description he has.

ANNUAL BANQUET

Was held Tuesday evening at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Slayton

BY WIT AND WISDOM CLUB.

Dr. George Howell acted as Toast Master and an Excellent Program was Carried out.

The annual banquet of the Wit and Wisdom club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Slayton Tuesday evening, April 21. Refreshments were served by J. M. Heirs.

Dr. Geo. Howell acted as toastmaster and the following program was carried out:

Quartette—H. C. Conkling, Dr. and Mrs. Maddox and Mrs. J. J. Orr.

Mrs. Rector, who has been president two years, then called the new president, Mrs. Waring, to the chair. The club gave her welcome to which she responded in a very happy manner.

The officers for the ensuing year are:
President—Mrs. Albert Waring.
Vice Pres.—C. A. Slayton.
Secretary—Miss Lamb.
Treasurer—J. L. Anderson.
Critic—Miss Alice Wimple.

Five Foot Fence.

For some time the Anthony Fence Co. have been making a five foot fence, but about a week since they started the loom that is manufactured to weave a four foot fence and Friday of this week they shipped out the first lot of fence of this size. The mechanics are now working on another loom which will weave three foot, four foot or five foot fence and when this machine is completed any height of fence that is used can be made.

So far the company has not been able to make as much fence as it could sell, every farmer who has seen this new fence is delighted with it and already the orders are far ahead of the supply that the machines have been able to weave. With the four foot loom more can be made and when in about two months more the other loom is started, then something in the fence line will surely be done. The Anthony Fence business has been starting slowly but surely and before many years it will be a large factory and likely to employ hundreds of men. The making of wire fence is only commenced, the Anthony people have the fastest and best looms and it will take only a short time to put this fence on the market and sell miles of it.

Reputation is what a man has the name of being, but character is what God sees he is.

MARRIED

George Tiffany of Tecumseh, and Miss Thomas of California, were married

IN ALASKA

The latter part of February. Mr. Tiffany is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tiffany of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tiffany received a letter from Rampart, Alaska, from their son, George, stating that he was married the latter part of February to Miss Thomas, of California, who has been visiting her sister at Rampart.

Mr. Tiffany left Tecumseh for Alaska about two years ago and has had charge of station for a Transportation company at that place. He and his bride have the best wishes of his many Tecumseh friends.

A wedding in Alaska is a novel feature and there were great doings in Rampart the day of the event.

A Lesson in Health.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the wole system. J. J. Orr.

A number of men who believe in signs had gathered in the Standard office the other day. Some believed in one sign and some in another and all believed in a free lunch sign when they see it. But one of the interesting articles of belief was that a nutmeg, with a hole in it and suspended about the neck by a string, is a cure for rheumatism. Of course it is difficult to determine whether it is the nutmeg, the hole in it or the string that works the wonder, but anyway all three are cheap, especially the hole, so no one need hesitate to try it.—Chelsea Standard.

ROUND ABOUT US.

The Long Island preacher who sometime ago quit the pulpit to become bartender has acknowledged the error of his ways and wants to be reinstated in the church. He evidently don't know what he does want, but his place never should be the pulpit, that's certain. He was mentioned some time ago in this paper as a former resident Rollin township.—Onsted News.

Miss Ester Evans and Michael Shea, two members of Tom Marks Dramatic Co., which opens an engagement in this city, were married here yesterday, but today called a stay of proceedings in their honeymoon arrangements to debate the question of validity of their marriage. In obtaining the necessary license from the county clerk the bride gave her stage name instead of the one she had been known by in private life. After the solemnization of the marriage it occurred to the newly married couple whether the giving the stage name in the liscense was legally sufficient and a second ceremony was considered. However up to this evening no further steps had been taken.—Detroit Free Press.

An Inexpensive Trip to California.

Fifty Dollars will be the price of a ticket to San Francisco or Los Angeles, and return, from Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and Union Pacific line, leaving Chicago May 3, or any day from May 12 to 18, inclusive. Tickets will be good to return until July 15. Less than three days from Chicago to San Francisco is the time of the new overland service via this line.

If you are ever going to visit California you should go this summer. Not only will the cost be nominal, but you will find the month of May a most pleasant season for the trip. There is no more delightful summer resort in the United States than Los Angeles with its mountains fifteen miles north and its sea coast [illegible]. There is no more fascinating city in America than San Francisco.

A sojourn on the Pacific Coast will put new breath in your lungs, richer blood in your limbs, and greatly increase your knowledge of the country you live in.

Literature descriptive of the new overland service to California, as well as information about tickets and train service, promptly forwarded on request.

THE THIEF OF BEAUTY
Is Captured by Bradfield's Regulator.

Thousands of young women are awaking to the fact that inherited comliness has been stolen, and instead of glowing cheeks and bright eyes, the tell-tale wrinkles of pain have taken their place. These are the warning feelings! Weak and tired in the morning, no life to enter upon their former pleasures, irritable, cross, dull headaches, general dispirited feeling, sleepless nights, cold feet, "bearing down" pains. All these, symptoms indicate deranged and weakened organs, and exhausted energies follow the weakened condition of the female organs as surely as night follows day. Save yourself from worse results by taking

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

The most invigorating menstrual regulator in the world. It relieves painful, profuse, obstructed or suppressed menstruation, nervousness, headaches, et cetera. Beauty of face and symmetry of form are the results of its use. Of druggists $1. Our book, "Perfect Health for Women." free.
THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

The kind of religion that doesn't cost any thing is not the kind the good Samaritan had.

IT WILL COME BACK.

Some Tecumseh Residents have learned how to keep it away.

Your back may not ache very long,
But the ache will return shortly,
Comes oftener—stays longer,
Unless the kidneys are relieved.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Tecumseh people endorse them.

Mr. Henry Keyser, retired farmer and capitalist, residence in the southwestern section of Tecumseh, says: "I am thoroughly convinced of the superior merits of this popular remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. They deserve naught save the highest praise. Before going to C. A. Wright's drug store for a box I had a dull aching pain in my back which had annoyed me for some time and the secretions from the kidneys were unnatural and irregular. To say that I was surprised at the effect is putting it very mildly. In a very short time the trouble disappeared. I never knew a medicine that worked so quickly and satisfactorily."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Worrying about things you can't help is as foolish as to throw stones at the sun when its shining doesn't suit you.

NO LIFE, NO ENERGY, NO AMBITION.

These are common expressions nowadays and the finger posts that point with unfailing accuracy to a nervous system robbed of its vitality by over exertion, overstrain or excess of some kind. That anyone should allow this condition to go on to complete mental physical or sexual ruin as it surley must if neglected, is a positive crime when the cure is at hand in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—a medicine designed expressly for this condition—a medicine that cures to stay cured by resupplying the very essential of life—Nerve Force.

Mrs. John Perrin of Tecumseh. Mich. says: "As a remedy for nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches and a run down system I consider Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills sold at C. A. Wright's drug store a spendid medicine as I used the pills myself for the above ailments with the very best of results, my nerves are steady and strong again, the headaches all gone, I sleep finely and feel generally strong and robust and have plenty of life and ambition."50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. ASCHER CONVICTED.

Four Times Tried For Murder of Valmore C. Nichols.

Detroit, Mich., April 27.—After deliberating for thirty-four hours and forty minutes the jury in the Ascher trial returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree at 10 o'clock Saturday night, and a few minutes later Recorder Murphy sentenced Ascher to life imprisonment in the state prison at Jackson. It was a dramatic climax to one of the most sensational criminal events in Detroit's history and ends Ascher's last ray of hope of ever again obtaining his liberty.

Ascher was arrested on Aug. 19, 1898, charged with the murder of Valmore C. Nichols, whose body was found in the Detroit river. He was tried the following December, but the jury disagreed. At his second trial he was convicted, but the case was taken to the supreme court and another trial granted. This proved his final trial, a life sentence being imposed.

READY TO DO BUSINESS.

The Week's List of New Michigan Corporations.

Lansing, Mich., April 27.—The following corporations filed articles of association with the secretary of state during the past week: Michigan Salt Works, Cotrellville, $10,000; Cable Piano Co., Detroit, $5,000; Hugh McDonald, Co., Detroit, $5,000; Rapid Motor Co., Grand Rapids, $100,000; Wolverine Saw Co., Detroit, $5,000; H. H. Pike Sons, Topinabee, $25,000; Michigan Automobile and Carriage Body Co., Detroit, $10,000; A. W. Frantz Co-Operative Association, Adrian, $30,000; Majestic Theater Co., Grand Rapids, $45,000, Macatawa Bay Amusement Construction Co., Holland, $6,000; Poole Brothers, Chicago and Holland, $100,000; Reading Telephone Co., Reading, $2,500; Youngs Lake Mining Co., Sault Ste. Marie, $30,000.

Non-Capitalized Corporations.—International Accountant's Society, Detroit; Manhattan Club, Battle Creek; German Evangelical Lutheran St. John's church, Kingsley; Methodist Protestant church, Genesee.

Robbers Caught.

Adrian, Mich., April 27.—Thomas Burke, aged 42, of Cleveland; Ed Ryan, 28, of New Orleans, and Bert Rogers, 20, of Indiana, are the names given by the three burglars brought here to jail from Montpelier, O. Upon their persons a most complete line of safe-cracking stuff was found. In addition to this, money of a character proof positive to their work at Tecumseh, Adrian and Clinton was found. Young Rogers owns up to the jobs.

Men Charged With Murder.

Bay City, Mich., April 27.—Two charges of murder have been made in the Marshall Hodge shooting scrape, in which Mrs. Hodge was killed Sunday morning, April 19, at Amelith during a shooting affray at a dance. The second complaint is against Frank Bardwell, a brother-in-law of the dead woman, who has been held in the county jail thus far on the supposition that he would be an important witness.

MICHIGAN BRIEFS.

Detroit Boy Chosen.—Eugene Marshall of Detroit, a colored student, has been chosen to represent the University of Michigan at the Northern league oratorical contest, to be held at Minneapolis next Saturday.

Threw Herself Into the Lake.—Mrs. Ephraim Partridge of Plymouth, an inmate of the Wayne county infirmary at Eloise, threw herself into an artificial lake and was drowned before assistance could reach her.

Library Without Books.—Mayor J. J. Sourwine of Escanaba has vetoed a resolution of the council, appropriating $2,500 for books for the new Carnegie library. The mayor says the council has no legal right to appropriate money for such use.

Want Less Carnegie Money.—The Detroit library commission will ask Andrew Carnegie to reduce his $750,000 offer for libraries to $500,000, in order that the stipulation for branch libraries can be cut out, and that a new building be erected on the site of the present library with the money.

Dr. McKinnon Acquitted.—After being out four hours, the jury in the McKinnon manslaughter case at Port Huron brought in a verdict of "not guilty." The defendant, Dr. George W. McKinnon of Oxford was charged with performing a criminal operation upon Mrs. Sadie England of Lapeer who died from the effects of alleged malpractice about a month after her marriage.

The Weather.

Washington, April 27.—Forecast for Tuesday:

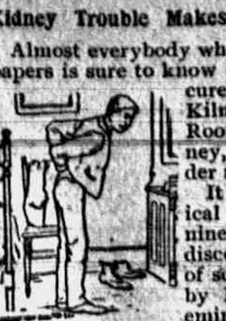
Upper Michigan—Showers and cooler; winds becoming east and brisk.

Lower Michigan — Partly cloudy, probably showers and cooler in west and north portions; winds becoming southeast and brisk.

Ohio—Fair, warmer; variable winds becoming southeast and brisk.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.



Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

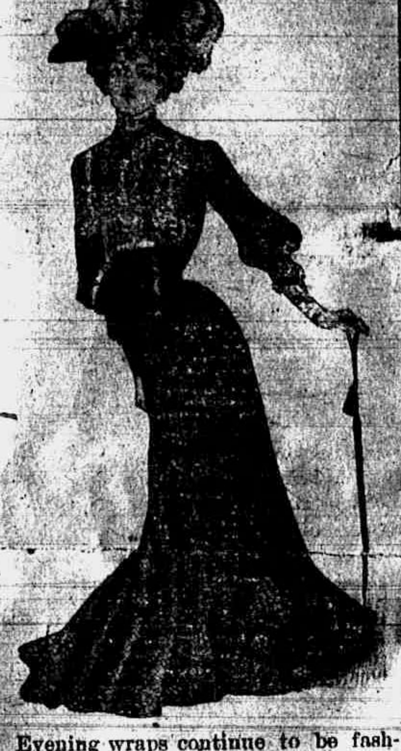
LATEST FASHION N[illegible]

A Dainty Caurch Gown.

Of a pretty mixed suiting is the material of this gown the foundation color of which is a deep rich blue flecked with scarlet and white; the blouse jacket has a vest of white cloth stitched with white Corticelli stitching silk and shows on each side a row of small ornamental gold buttons. Over the shoulders are bretelles of caracul framed with white cloth straps embroidered with black, and a simulated pocket appears on each front. The sleeves are puffed above the tightly-fitting cuff, and the skirt is arranged in box-plaits the intervening spaces being ornamented with lapped bands of caracul framed with cloth.



Evening wraps continue to be fashioned of both silk and broadcloth, and in the latter in alabaster white with a prodigal use of Irish lace medallions over sky-blue velvet, is particularly pleasing to the feminine eye. Red, in the new brilliant coronation color, is also smart, and with a lining of gay pompadour brocade or fur is a desirable adquisition to any wardrobe. Cape collars may be added to give the required breadth to the shoulders, and these may be edged with either fur. Russian applique, or one of the new fiber braids.

Salt in the sermon may smart, but it will heal.

A Miraculous Feat.

"It seemed that nothing short of a miracle could save my little daughter from an untimely death," says City Marshall A. H. Malcolm, of Cherokee, Kan. "When two years old she was taken with stomach and bowel trouble and despite the efforts of the best physicians we could procure, she grew gradually worse and was pronounced incurable. A friend advised and after giving it a few days she began to improve and finally fully recovered. She is now past five years of age and the very picture of health."

Turkey to Assemble Big Army.—"Turkey has decided," says the Salonica correspondent of the London Daily Mail, "to concentrate an army of 210,000 men in Macedonia. The troops are pouring in daily."

Chinese Laundrymen Struck.—Three hundred Chinamen employed in the laundries of Butte, Mont., struck for higher wages. They demand $4 a day.

Rush Orders For British Cruiser.—The British cruiser Retribution left St. Johns, N. F., hurriedly Friday afternoon. It is understood she has received rush orders to proceed to the Caribbean sea because of local conditions.

Recaptured in a Swamp.

Lapeer, Mich., April 25.—An inmate of the home for feeble-minded, who left the institution some time ago and was located at Richmond, made another dash for liberty Friday. While other inmates were at dinner at the farmhouse, he stole a suit of clothes and went to the barn. Here he discarded his female attire and escaped into the woods. An alarm was given and a swamp where he secreted himself surrounded. He was soon rounded up and brought back.

ANOTHER DEMAND

Reported Russia Wants Restrictions of Navigation.

CHINA'S REFUSAL ONLY FORM

Pekin Correspondent Says Only Force Will Prevent Russia's Occupation—Ambassador Cassini Assures Safety to American Interests.

London, April 30.—A dispatch from the Pekin correspondent of the Times says that, in addition to the demands concerning Manchuria already enumerated, Russia, in another dispatch, demands that the navigation of the Liau river, which under the Inland Navigation rules is open to vessels of all nations, shall be restricted to vessels flying the Russian and Chinese flags. Russia also demands that all engagements entered into by the Manchurian provincial authorities with Russia during the Russian occupation shall be recognized by China.

"China's refusal of the Russian demands," concludes the correspondent, "is simply a stereotyped refusal and does not change the situation.

"Even if Russia withdraws her demands, the fact remains unaltered that only force will prevent Manchuria from becoming a Russian province.

"Admiral Alexieff has published a proclamation, declaring that as Russian troops have been withdrawn, foreigners may now travel in Mukden province without Russian passports. In view of the fact that Russia was never in more complete military control of that province than at present, and that she is increasing her strength there daily, this proclamation is apt to be misleading."

Washington, April 30.—Russia's part in what has come to be known as the Manchurian incident was explained last evening by Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, to a representative of the Associated Press, and because of the conflicting reports which have come to Washington regarding the Russian-Chinese negotiations at Pekin, Count Cassini has consented to the publication of the in interview.

Of the Manchurian incidence, [illegible] more especially of its relation to the United States and Russia, the ambassador said:

"Acting under instructions from my government, I have officially assured the secretary of state not only that American interests in Manchuria, trade and industrial, will be thoroughly safeguarded, so far as Russia is concerned, but also of the unfortunate erroneousness contained in Minister Conger's dispatches several days ago from Pekin relative to the course of Russia in Manchuria.

"Those acquainted with conditions in Manchuria will bear me out in the statement that the country needs the importation of American goods for its upbuilding. And certainly Russia, who is doin gall she can to develop that great territory, would be the last to stand in the way of an increase in this trade."

Actor Stuart Robson Dead.

New York, April 30.—Stuart Robson, the veteran actor, died last night of heart disease at the Hotel Savoy. He was 67 years old and had been on the stage for thirty-one years. Mr. Robson was taken ill early in March and was obliged to rest completely for two weeks. He resumed his engagement on March 19, and after playing in New York and Brooklyn appeared in various towns in the upper part of this state. A few days ago he was taken ill in Auburn, N. Y., and was then brought to this city. The interment will take place at Cohasset, Mass., on Friday.

Goebel Case to Jury.

Frankfort, Ky., April 30.—The case of James Howard, twice tried and convicted as a principal in the murder of William Goebel, was submitted to the jury again Wednesday afternoon at the conclusion of the argument in the third trial. Adjournment was taken till today, when a verdict is expected. In closing for the state, Attorney Granklin administered a merciless excoriation of the defendant and at one point dramatically exhibited to the jury the bloodstained clothing which Governor Goebel wore when he was shot.

Deering Employes Strike.

Chicago, April 30.—After 4,000 employes of the Deering branch of the International Harvester company had yielded to the spirit of revolt and joined the strike, which began with a walkout of metalworkers Monday morning, the company, unable to continue the process of manufacture, shut down the works and 6,300 men and women are now in idleness. With the prospect of a bitter siege a serious result of the strike threatens the country in a binding twine shortage.

Many Schools Enter.

Chicago, April 30.—Thus far 160 high school athletes have entered for Horace. Butterworth's interscholastic meet, to be held at Sheppard field, Evanston, Saturday. Entries from high schools in Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana and Illinois have been received. Butterworth expects the list to be swelled to at least 200.

Horticulturists to Meet.

Adrian, Mich., April 30.—The Michigan State Horticultural society will meet in conjunction with the Lenawee County Horticultural society at Adrian Tuesday, May 12, and arrangements have been made for a large meeting. The Lenawee society is one of the strongest of the state.

FORESTS BURNING

Flames Sweeping Timbered Lands of Northern Michigan.

AGGRAVATED BY HIGH WINDS

Alpena Furnishes Fire Engine—Homes in Danger—Alarming Reports Come From Traverse City, Cheboygan and Ishpeming.

Alpena, Mich., April 29.—Late reports from the surrounding country indicate that forest fires are raging and that unless the high winds cease and the woods are drenched by a heavy rainfall, the damage will amount to many thousands of dollars.

Tuesday afternoon Alpena lumbermen sent a crew of men to the vicinity of Valentine lake, Montmorency county, to fight the fires. Already considerable timber has been burned and many thousand dollars' worth more is right in the path of the fire.

Many small towns and villages along the northern extension of the D. & M. are in imminent danger of complete annihilation. The fire has reached their very doors. It is in that section of the country that the fire is at its worst, and all the inhabitants are out fighting it. The air in Alpena is thick with smoke, while in the country it is almost unbearable.

Logs Are Burning.

At 4:30 in the afternoon Onaway telegraphed Alpena for a fire engine and a quantity of hose. The fire is eating its way into an immense lot of logs right near the city limits.

Traverse City, Mich., April 29.—Forest fires did much damage in the woods between this city and East Bay, threatening resort cottages owned by Traverse City people on the east shore. A large force fought the fire until late into the night, the cottages catching a number of times. Several buildings are reported burned on the other side of East Bay. Fires are raging in several sections of the county.

Cheboygan, Mich., April 29.—The forest fires are raging in the southern part of this county, and many places are said to be in danger. Both sides of Mullet lake are encompassed by the fires. If rain does not come soon vast damage will result. Old-timers say it has not been so dry at this season for many years.

Ishpeming, Mich., April 29.—Forest fires are raging twenty-five miles west of this place. High winds during the past two days have spread them over a considerable territory on the South Shore right of way. The damage up to this time is confined to farm houses and barns. Frank Brown of Michigamme has lost buildings, grain and implements worth $5,500.

Work on Bridge Begins.

Detroit, Mich., April 29.—Actual work on the proposed bridging of the Detroit river was begun Tuesday when Engineer George S. Morison, the bridge expert in the employ of the railroads, established two observatories, one at the roof of the Michigan Central elevator farthest down the river and the other on the Canadian side in the top story of the malt house belonging to Walker, Sons & Co. at Walkerville. River statistics will be gathered from these points of vantage by trained observers, who will let no floating craft or river movement escape them until the most complete record of the river life has been made.

Frauds in Drain Orders.

Bay City, Mich., April 29.—Supervisor George Harding, one of the special committee appointed to investigate alleged frauds in connection with the county drain orders, says they have already found in the neighborhood of $20,000 worth of such orders which have been cashed by county treasurers in the past, and of which there is not the slightest record, not even the order stubs being found by the committee.

Suffocated in a Hotel Fire.

Detroit, Mich., April 29.—Bernard Doyle, aged 65, lost his life by suffocation during a fire in the River View hotel, Biddle avenue, Wyandotte, Tuesday morning. Seven others got out, although William Fitzpatrick, who is the hotel barkeeper, was forced to jump from the second-story window. Miss May Voligny, the 16-year-old daughter of the host, was heroically rescued by spectators, who raised a ladder to her bedroom window.

Ascher in Prison.

Jackson, Mich., April 29.—Edward Ascher, sentenced for life for the murder of Valmore C. Nichols, is in state prison. He arrived Tuesday. His actions upon his arrival at the prison were those of one familiar with his surroundings. He talked lightly and gave no sign of embarrassment. He was promptly fitted in the prison garb and put through the regular program.

He Saved His Child.

Boyne, Mich., April 29.—While the home of Henry Wilbur was in flames Wilbur rushed into the burning building and saved his child. In doing so he was severely burned about the head, face and hands. The child was uninjured.

To Burn Mother's Home.

Lansing, Mich., April 29.—Morse and Perry White, brothers, aged 25 and 15 years, are under arrest charged with setting fire to a house occupied by their mother, with whom the older boy has frequently had trouble.

Unknown Man Found Drowned.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 29.—The body of a man about 60 years old was found in the river below this city. It was well dressed, with a small amount of money in the pocket, but nothing to identify it. It is thought to be a case of suicide.

In the Supreme Court.

Lansing, Mich., April 30.—The supreme court disposed of the following cases: Affirmed—New Era Association vs. Mactavish, Crane vs. Waldron, Acme Electrical, Illustrating & Advertising Co. vs. Van Derbeck, Frisk vs. Hughes, Scandinavian Sveas Benevolent Society vs. Linquist. Mandamus was granted in White vs. Lapeer Circuit Judge, and in A. Harvey's Sons Manufacturing Co. vs. Mosher, Circuit Judge. Rehearing was ordered in Corliss vs. Village of Highland Park for May 12, and an oral argument ordered. Rehearing was denied in McAllister vs. Des Rochers. Order to show cause was granted in Attorney-General vs. Wayne Circuit Judges. Writ of certiorari was allowed in Brown vs. Brown.

MOUNTAIN FELL

Horrible Catastrophe Visits British Columbia Mining Town.

MANY LIVES CRUSHED OUT

Men Buried in Mines—They Finally Escape—Falling Rocks Block River and Floods Threatened—Explosion of Gas the Cause.

Chicago, April 30.—Information concerning the disaster was obtained from Edward B. Liagre of Frank, who is in Chicago. Mr. Liagre said there was an explosion of gas, which burst out of the side of the mountain, and this led to rumors of volcanic eruption and earthquakes.

Vancouver, B. C., April 30.—Overwhelmed by countless thousand of rock shortly after 4 o'clock, and with probably 112 of its inhabitants killed almost instantly, the little mining town of Frank, in southwestern Alberta, is threatened with complete destruction by flood. Old Man's river, which flows through the center of the town, is dammed up by the fallen rocks to the height of nearly 100 feet, and the entire valley above the town is flooded for miles. A big body of water is pressing with force upon the dam, the only protection the town of Frank now has, unless the river shall find another channel. Should this impromptu dam break the entire village will be swept away. A dispatch from Frank says:

Millions of Tons of Rock.

"A tremendously loud reverberation shook the whole valley of the Old Man's river Wednesday morning at 4:10 o'clock, and scarcely half the inhabitants of this town awakened to a realization of the impending danger when, from the top of Turtle mountain, overlooking the settlement, millions of tons of rock were hurled.

"The Frank mines, operated by the French Canadian Coal company across the river from the town, were seen to be buried under hundreds of feet of rock just as the morning light was breaking. Inside of five minutes from the first thunderous shock and before half of the town realized what had happened, a small force of men had started to the relief of the miners, despite the great risk they ran of being buried under the rocks, which were still being precipitated from the lofty mountain top. The volunteer relief force was unable to [illegible] mine, but managed to get [illegible] to determine that not a man [illegible] workings had escaped death, many being fearfully mangled.

"The disaster was merciful to those men who were employed above ground, in that they must have been killed instantly, while those men in the workings of the mine may yet be alive if they have air to breathe. If all the air shafts to the mine were closed up under the awful avalanche, all the men (between 18 and 50) must have died by the afternoon. The disaster was not confined to the vicinity of the mine alone, for many of the dwelling houses in the town of Frank were demolished by the falling rock. Some of the occupants of these houses escaped death, but many others were instantly killed. It is conservatively estimated that the loss of life will exceed 100, and the latest returns place the number of dead at 112."

The Earth Opened Up.

When reports concerning the magnitude of the disaster and details concerning it commenced to come in from reliable men who had been out prospecting for news, it was discovered that the earth opened for three quarters of a mile and many feet in width and that the whole northern face of Turtle mountain slipped from its place.

The shock resultant upon the precipitation of the millions of tons of rock into the valley, while only actually demolishing comparatively few of the houses, shook the foundations of a majority of the dwellings in the town so that they are unsafe to live in, and many hundreds of people will have to live in the open or under such temporary shelter as may be procurable.

At dusk last night the rock was still being thrown on the town from Turtle mountain, and it is impossible to venture within a half mile of the mine's workings. It is certain that eighteen men are buried in the workings. All hope for them has been abandoned. The streets are crowded with the relatives and friends of those known to be entombed. It is generally thought that the disruption of Turtle mountain was brought about by a seismic disturbance, although some persons declare that the origin of the upheaval was volcanic. No lava has been seen, and aside from the smoke from the mountain, the atmosphere is clear. There is, however, no explanation for the upheaval of rock. The eruptive influences seem to center at the crown of Turtle mountain.

At 4 o'clock the following conservative estimate of the loss of life was made:

Miners working outside the mines and instantly killed, 12.

Imprisoned in the mine, 18.

Another dispatch from Frank at 7:30 p. m., the latest information, is somewhat more reassuring, in that there now seems to be less danger than was at first anticipated of an extensive disaster. The threatened flood, which bid fair to duplicate the Johnstown disaster, seems less probable. A large force of men has been at work trying to create a new channel that the dammed up water of the Old Man's river may be run off. It is hoped that the water will be running through the new channel before long.

Most of the men imprisoned in the mine, whose death at first seemed certain, got out alive last night. There were seventeen men in the mine. Two died from suffocation, but the other fifteen worked their way out.

HOUSE ON RECORD

Another "Internal Improvement" Resolution Turned Down.

ON THE HIGHWAY QUESTION

Representative Wade Declares Money Is Being Wasted by the State—Senate Passes Bill Creating Board For Licensing Osteopathists.

Lansing, Mich., April 30.—The house placed itself squarely on record Wednesday against the state engaging in any work of "internal improvement."

The Wade joint resolution for the submission to the people of a constitutional amendment, permitting the state to engage in "the improvement of public highways," was voted down on third reading by 39 to 36, sixty-seven being necessary for its passage.

The debate took a humorous turn when Representative Colby offered this amendment:

"The legislature may authorize any city, upon the same being voted for by a majority of the electors thereof voting at any election, to become a party to, or interested in, and to carry on any work of internal improvement within its corporate limits."

"It is a part of our original constitution," said Colby, "that no part of the state shall be permitted to engage in any work from which the state itself is debarred; but if we are going to amend the constitution so as to take care of the state highways, suppose we go far enough to take care of all highways, whether in cities, villages or townships."

Said Representative Wade, with some heat: "Will the gentleman from Wayne please tell the house what difference there is between this amendment and the Greusel resolution, which was voted down here a few days ago?"

"We thought the other resolution was too narrow," replied Colby, good-humoredly. "The Greusel resolution only allowed us to run street railways, but as the courts haven't told us just exactly what 'highways' are, they might mean a canal or a steam road, or any old thing of that kind."

Says State Wastes Money.

Mr. Wade urged that the state was wasting $1,000,000 every year on highways. The legislature could stop this, he said. Massachusetts had tried the construction of highways by the state [illegible] a great success.

The house came within four ayes in the afternoon of voting to abolish the office of chief deputy game warden and to reduce the game warden's salary from $2,000 to $1,200. The vote stood 47 to 31, a majority of the members-elect (51 being necessary to pass the bill.

Representative Combs, father of the bill, read from the reports of the legislative committee which investigated the game department in 1901. "The chief deputy charged the state for 389 trips by rail in one year of 365 days," he said, "besides 'bus fare, parlor car chairs and extras. He gets $1,500 a year, and what excuse on earth has such an office for existence?"

Another bill offered by Representative Combs proposing to repeal the act establishing the game department, was killed, only 39 voting for it and 33 against.

The senate in the afternoon passed the Moriarty bill, creating a state board for the licensing and registration of osteopathic practitioners. It provides for a board of five osteopaths, to be appointed by the governor. Applicants for examination must be graduates of osteopathic colleges having a three years' course of nine months each, and pass the same examinations that regular physicians pass, with the exception of materia medica and therapeutics.

Two Houses Clash.

The first real clash between the senate and the house over the amendment of bills came Wednesday, when the house returned the Gardner bill, amending the drain laws. This bill provided for the taking away of certain powers of drain commissioners in five counties and placing them under the control of the supervisors. The senate amended the bill by including all the counties in the state, and the house refused to concur. When the bill was returned the senate refused to recede, and Senator Waterbury moved the appointment of a conference committee.

Senator Bangham, whose meat inspection bill was laid out cold by the house, did a very diplomatic little stroke of business Wednesday. Representative Masters of Kalamazoo moved that the vote by which the bill was killed be reconsidered, explaining an amendment not incorporated in the printed bill, which protected the farmer and the regular retailer from interference by meat inspectors unless their stock was known to be diseased. Then Rev. Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane of Battle Creek took the rostrum for five minutes and captivated the house. The vote was reconsidered and the bill placed on the order of third reading.

Governor Bliss has appointed Chas. M. Mack of Hastings probate judge of Barry county, to succeed the late J. B. Mills.

The committee of the whole of the house agreed to the house substitute for the Moriarty probation bill, allowing judges, in cases where the law gives them discretion as to length of sentence, to parole first offenders after their conviction, but not after they are sentenced.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, April 30.—Michigan pensions were granted Wednesday as follows: Original—Brant R. Hargar, Detroit, $17; David H. Magaw, Gooding, $6. Increase—John M. Savage, Detroit, $17; William H. Lake, Dowagiac, $17. Widows—Nancy O. Bliss, Albion, $8; Lucretia J. Cornish, Chippewa Station, $8.

Seven Turks Killed.

Berlin, April 30.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Lokal Anzeiger says it is reported from Kars, Asiatic Russia, that a squadron of Turkish cavalry crossed the Russian frontier seventy versts from Sara-Kamysh, Trans-Caspian territory, and showed intention of advancing. A Russian frontier post gave the alarm to a regiment of Cossacks, which fired on the Turks, killing an officer and six troopers. The Russians suffered no loss. The Turks then retreated across the frontier.

Postmaster Winship Not Guilty.

Detroit, Mich., April 30.—The trial of Lewis Winship, postmaster of the little village of Holloway, who was charged with padding his accounts, came to an end in the United States district court last evening, when the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. Winship and his wife received the verdict without a smile, but when the jury dispersed each juror received a hearty handclasp from them. "It was only a just verdict," was Winship's sole comment.

BAD POETRY IN A... GOOD CAUSE

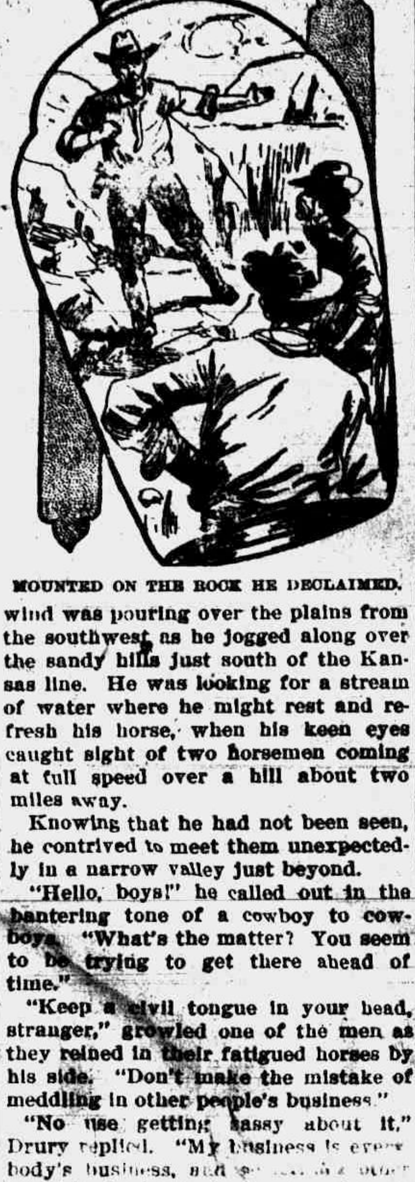
By C. M. Stevans

Copyright, 1901, by C. M. Stevans

Big Foot Drury was admitted to be the most ungainly as well as the most accomplished man hunter that ever brought criminals into Fort Smith. He was a continuous vaudeville long before that variety mine had ever been thought of by the theatrical managers.

Envious deputy marshals claimed that the renegades were simply overcome by the power of his elocution. In any event his prisoners accounted for their capture in so many instances as a result of his elocutionary overpersuasion that it became a generally accepted fact that Drury's mouth was of more advantage to the court than his guns.

In the spring of 1877 he was sent down into the territory on a search for Jim Powell, wanted in Cincinnati. Unable to find any trace of his man, he decided to report at Topeka. A hot wind was pouring over the plains from the southwest as he jogged along over the sandy hills just south of the Kansas line. He was looking for a stream of water where he might rest and refresh his horse, when his keen eyes caught sight of two horsemen coming at full speed over a hill about two miles away.



MOUNTED ON THE ROCK HE DECLAIMED.

Knowing that he had not been seen, he contrived to meet them unexpectedly in a narrow valley just beyond.

"Hello, boys!" he called out in the bantering tone of a cowboy to cowboys. "What's the matter? You seem to be trying to get there ahead of time."

"Keep a civil tongue in your head, stranger," growled one of the men as they reined in their fatigued horses by his side. "Don't make the mistake of meddling in other people's business."

"No use getting sassy about it," Drury replied. "My business is everybody's business, and [illegible] other people's business is mine. [illegible] you have no honest business to ride your horses to death as you are doing."

"I reckon they're our horses," replied the other man in a surly tone, "and if we want to ride them to death it don't cost you nothing."

In the midst of this reply the man hunter had seen a significant thing through a narrow line of valleys that stretched away between the hills to the northwest. Half a dozen horsemen had crossed the line, going hard. As near as he could judge they were about three or four miles away. If he could cause these two men to dismount, and be able to hold them thirty minutes, the half dozen horsemen would reach the top of the hill less than a hundred yards away before the cowboys could see them. That these two men were attempting to escape justice appeared more certain from the sharp lookout both of them kept over the valleys and hills to their rear.

The moment the two men stopped the horses put down their heads and began to bite off huge mouthfuls of grass, as if it had been long since they had been properly fed.

"No offense, boys," said the man hunter in a conciliatory tone, "but it's a shame if you don't let those poor critters rest and eat a bit. My horse don't need it a fourth as much as yours, but I'm going to set a good example."

He alighted and pushed his horse out into the rich grass.

One of the men drew a flask from his saddle pouch. This among the cowboys was like the Indian's pipe of peace.

"Well, stranger," said the man with the flask as both men alighted and turned their horses into the grass, "your advice is purty good, and as you seem to be a good natured, harmless sort of a cuss suppose you take a nip with us."

Drury took the proffered article of peace.

"Here's to friendship in a flask of good old whisky," he said holding it aloft, while he recited a bit of verse. The boys forgot themselves as they listened.

> "Gie him strong drink until he wink,
> That's sinking in despair,
> For liquor's guid to fire the bluid,
> That's prest wi' grief and care.
>
> "Then let him brouse and deep carouse,
> Wie bumpers flowing o'er,
> Till he forgets his loves and debts
> And minds his griefs no more."

Each took a drink.

Drury reached again for the flask and it was returned to him.

"Here's to the liquor that makes us kings, our horses thrones and our guns scepters of death to our enemies. But be warned that more than enough has been too much for many a poor devil of the plains."

One drink made Sam Fling friendly, with the third he was confidential, at the fifth he was inclined to argue, as the seventh went down he began to boss the ranch, when the ninth arrived he pulled his gun and he didn't last a minute. It was of this that the poet spoke when he exclaimed:

> "At the punch bowl's brink
> Let the thirsty think
> What the people say in Japan:
> First, the man takes a drink,
> Next, the drink takes a drink,
> Then the drink takes the man."

An uncomfortable thought just then tingled through him. What if the posse of angry citizens whom he knew to be rapidly approaching on the trail of these men should suddenly appear over the hill and open an indiscriminate fire that would include the entertainer as well as the audience? A bit of sandstone rock jutted out from a blow out in the hill a few steps away and he saw a chance to make a distinction between speaker and hearers that might be recognized by the coming avengers.

"Drink, gentlemen, to our fortunate meeting," he said, passing the bottle around, "and I will mount this natural stage and give you a touch of the most realistic and elegant poetry that ever poet spun. My pardner wrote it on the wall of his cell with a bit of crayon that a schoolboy threw at him. His jailer was so taken with it that he copied it and handed it around to his friends to show what a rare bird he was boarding. I saw one of the copies of the poem, recognized the handwriting, and for the first time in months of weary search learned where my beloved friend was sojourning. That night he raised the window and came out into my arms. I can never forget the noble words of his immortal verse. I will now repeat it for your entertainment and enlightenment."

> "Life is but a game of cards
> Which each one has to learn,
> Each shuffles, cuts and deals a pack,
> And each a trump doth turn.
> Some turn a high card at the top,
> While others turn a low;
> Some hold a hand quite full of trumps,
> While others none can show.
> When, last of all, a spade is turned
> By the hoary hand of time,
> It always closes up the game,
> In every land and clime.
> No matter what a man may win
> Or what a man may save,
> The dreaded spade turns up at last
> And digs the player's grave."

The boys had forgotten their peril and they wanted another drink. The man hunter, desiring to keep his present distance from them, swung the flask over his head and tossed it to them, saying, "Here's to the man who can catch and drink while the other smells."

His keenly practiced ears had caught the almost imperceptible sound of distant horse hoofs beating the earth in rhythmic measure. With dramatic gesture and intonation of voice, he sought to hold their attention a little longer.

> "Here's again to the fearless men
> Who range the plain through storm and rain,
> With friendship true to the cause they hold
> They guard their trust as men guard gold."

One of the men, who was turning the almost empty flask over his mouth, paused an instant. Then he sprawled out upon the grass with his ear pressed closely to the ground. But the earth was no longer needed to convey the sounds of beating hoofs. The air bore them on like the rapid strokes of a fevered heart upon the human chest.

"Listen!" cried the elocutionist. "I'm drawing a crowd. Thank goodness, there is not much of our good whisky left for them."

The men sprang up with an oath and ran for their horses.

"Say, boys," Drury cried. Both men turned to look into the muzzles of two revolvers. "This harmless good natured cuss ain't quite ready yet to let that good whisky get away. It's not polite to leave a friend in such a hurry."

The hands of one of the men flew to his belt.

"Stop it or I'll drop you," came the command re-enforced with a revolver whose unerring aim was between the cowboy's eyes.

The men stood as if dazed at the unexpected attitude.

"Up with your hands!" came the command. "No fooling!" Four hands went up just as six horsemen appeared at the top of the hill.

The posse understood the situation at once and the marshal recognized the man hunter. As they came down the hill they gave a rousing cheer.

Mexican Fred, marshal of Englewood, Kan., soon had the desperadoes handcuffed and on their way back to the town where they had provoked a fight and killed a man.

The man hunter went on his way to Ashland concocting new rhymes for the next occasion.

Courtesy and Good Manners.

Good manners are the key to advancement in life. The tactful person makes a study of the character of others and wards off unpleasant words, avoids argument which is sure to lead beyond the fields of pleasantness and is polite and considerately courteous. "Manners aim to facilitate life," writes Emerson. "They aid our dealing and our conversation. These forms very soon become fixed, and a fine sense of propriety is cultivated with the more heed that it becomes a badge of social and civil distinction." He also writes that a beautiful behavior is "the finest of the fine arts." Society demands an element "which it significantly terms good nature, expressing all degrees of generosity, from the lowest willingness and faculty to oblige up to the heights of magnanimity and love."

Didn't Act the Part.

"I wonder if he's the janitor," said the new tenant.

"Oh, no," replied his wife. "His tone wasn't in the least dictatorial."—Chicago News.

Had Right to Shoot Intruder.

Boston, April 29.—Holding that her action in defending herself and family against an intruder into her home at dead of night was entirely justifiable, Judge Ely of the municipal court has discharged Mrs. Isabella Viola, who was arrested on Sunday for shooting Lieutenant Kelly of the fire department. Kelly, who had been calling in one part of the house where the Violas live, went away leaving some personal property behind him. He returned to get it, but being in liquor, it is claimed, tried the wrong door. When admittance was refused Kelly burst in the door, which was that of the apartment occupied by the Violas, and attacked Mr. Viola, who opposed him. Mrs. Viola, seeing that Kelly was overpowering her husband, seized a revolver and shot him.

Omaha Threatened With Strike.

Omaha, Neb., April 29.—Nearly 3,000 members of trades unions threaten to strike next Monday unless their demands for increased wages shall be conceded by employers. These unions include teamsters, leather workers, waiters and cooks, brewery workers, structural iron men, freight package handlers, carpenters and plasterers. About 750 are already on strike and 850 teamsters already have declared a strike in case a settlement shall not be reached. Efforts are being made by many of the employers to settle with the men, while others refuse to discuss the matter with the men.

Protocol Agreed On.

Washington, April 29.—Venezuela and the allies have agreed upon the terms of the protocol submitting to The Hague tribunal the question of preferential treatment, and this convention will be signed next Monday upon the return of Signor Mayor des Planches, the Italian ambassador, from St. Louis. This was decided upon at a joint conference at the British embassy between Mr. Bowen, Venezuela's plenipotentiary, the Italian and British ambassadors and the German minister.

IN OLDEN TIMES

Today the Herald will print the fourth article on

OLD TECUMSEH

And it will be read with interest.

The interest manifested in the locating of the new library building gives the comparison of the aspirations of our townsmen of forty years ago in this direction an added interest. The HERALD of Feb. 4, 1864 contains this notice. "Tecumseh Lecture and Library Association. There will be a meeting of those who have already given in their names (and of all who desire to do so) as members of the association for the purpose of perfecting said organization at Bidwell's hall on Thursday eve, Feb. 18, 1864 at 7 o'clock.

The general plan of the organization contemplates making it a permanent benefit and attraction to the place. It's funds are mostly to be derived from an initiation fee of $3 and a premium note of $30, running without interest and liable to an annual assessment of $3 only. It will embrace a library, lectures, a library and reading room containing papers and magazines, and the library open for reading two or three evenings in the week during the winter, as the society shall direct and books drawn from the library to be returned every two weeks in such manner and under such restrictions as the association shall direct.

Public lecturers of ability and note, from abroad will be engaged for the winter course. The gentlemen will engage in Lyceum Debates and the ladies with essays for the same. All, both gentlemen and ladies who would secure for themselves increased facilities for intellectual and literary enjoyment, are cordially invited to take part in the undertaking. It is proposed to commence with one hundred members and by the terms of its organization, its permanent existence is as you see, secured for at least fifteen years." More than twice fifteen years have passed since that praiseworthy effort began, which supplied us with our public library and though that institution has passed through many vicissitudes, it is still with us and on the eve of greater development than the city fathers and mothers at that time dreamed.

They "builded better than they knew" in many directions of public improvement. In the spring of 1864 an especial effort to set out shade trees was made, and the HERALD urges each lot owner to place one or more trees in front of their residence, and be careful about putting them far enough out so that when walks shall be built every where in our fine village, as they undoubtedly [illegible] will, the trees will [illegible] have to be sacrificed to the sidewalk.

The editor says "the good work has begun but it should be continued and future generations will rise up and call you blessed" and we do every time we find it possible to walk in comfort from one end of the corporation to the other, unprotected in the sunniest days by a sun umbrella. We often wonder whose thoughtful and unselfish hands planted this luxurious shade that appeals to the eye of every stranger who visits our beautiful town. This was in the darkest days of war time and yet there was thought for libraries and shade trees for those who were to come after. There was time for amusements too.

A gift entertainment at Union Hall is announced for Friday evening and a later issue says "The following is a list of the lucky ones who drew first prizes. Hub Stout gold watch valued at $100, Mrs. E. Carson, cutter $65; Mrs. J. A. Merritt, silver watch $25; T. Cummins, silver watch $20; H. Westcott album $10 There were a number of other gifts drawn varying in value from $6 to 16 cents.

J. Davenport's farewell ball is to be given at Evans lake on the 22nd. He has sold out to Frank Lancaster of the Exchange. There will be a donation for the benefit of Rev. J. L. McLoud at Odd Fellows Hall on the 16th and one for E. R. Hascall at the same place on the 17th. The Methodist social will be held at the residence of S. C. Blinn on the 19th. That was before the day of church kitchens and the ladies who furnished the supper were also obliged to furnish the dishes for the repast.

Real estate was also active in that spring of long ago. John Sherman purchased the residence of George Curtis, Esq., cor. Chicago street and Maiden Lane for $1300 George Curtis purchased of A. Hanford corner Pottawatamie street and Maiden Lane a house and lot valued at $1800, and A. Hanford that of George Ketcham corner Chicago and Oneida streets at $3000. W. P. Smalledge has purchased the new meat market of Phelps and Weeks. Call and see him.

This item of interest is also found. A few days ago we were shown a beautiful sword and scabbard which were presented to Lieut. E. Gray by the members of Co. B. 7th Mich. Cavalry on 15th Dec. 1863. It is a splendid sword. The scabbard is made of German silver with rich gilt mountings and bears the following inscription. Presented to E. Gray, 1st Lieut. Co. B. 7th Mich. Cav. for faithfulness to us on the march and in camp and for bravery on the battle fields of Warrenton Junction, Hanover, Thoroughfare Gap, Gettysburg, Monterey, Boonsboro, Hagerstown, Williamsport, James City, Brandy Station, Mortons Ford. Lieut. Gray has been enjoying a short furlough in the village, with his many friends, and starts today to join his regiment. May good luck be his where'er he goes and when this cruel war is over, may he return to his home and friends to enjoy a ripe old age."

The trustees of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this village take much pleasure in publicly acknowledging the receipt of fifty dollars as a subscription to their new church edifice from the glorious Mich. 4th sent by Lieut. Allen. It is pleasing to know that while they are fighting the battles of their country they are not forgetful of the cause of religion at home and we earnestly pray that the blessing of God may attend their efforts in the cause of freedom and humanity. E. R. Hascall.

A committee is appointed to solicit donations for furnishing a dinner to the regiment on its arrival home. We hope the good citizens of Tecumseh will not be backward in this move, but will see to it that a fair contribution shall be made to what remains of one of Michigan's bravest regiments." From Clinton we find, "Henry Sterns arrived in town this evening on a furlough of twenty days, to visit his relatives and friends, from whom he has been absent with the army of the Cumberland nearly eighteen months. He seems to be enjoying good health and speaks in the most cheering manner of matters and things on the Cumberland." The war feeling was intense at this time and a poem, "The New Year and the Old" by B. L. Baxter rings with the sentiment of the time:

> Another year is dead,
> Gone to the unreturning past,
> And leaves us in its stead
> A New Year like the last.
> And yet who knoweth that the year to be
> Shall liken that gone to eternity?
>
> Nor you nor I can tell
> What it may bring or fail to bring,
> If sorrows gloom or pleasures spell
> Shall gild or cloud its wing.
> Yet this we know and this can surely tell
> He ruleth it who doeth all things well.
>
> The last year hath its wail
> (Mingled indeed with hope and trust in God)
> As o'er the mountain top or in the vale,
> Where'er we turn, we see the burial sod
> Of those who in their country's hour of need
> Failed not in her defence to do and dare and bleed.
>
> Like those old heroes of Thermopylæ
> And Marathon, like Wallace, Bruce and Tell,
> The demi-gods of ages shall they be,
> And consecrate the ground whereon they fell;
> And the proud pages of our country's fame
> Shall brighten as her children speak their name.
>
> But for the year to come,
> We hail its hopes, and heritage, and trust
> To shout its soldiers, as its harvests, home;
> And that our brethren soiled with toil and dust,
> War's fearful work and carnage, waste and wear
> And labor o'er, its glorious victories won,
> Shall come once more our homes and hearts to share,
> And all the land rejoice that freedom's work is done.
>
> 'God and the Right,' they said,
> Those stern old heroes in our father's day;
> And He of old, who led
> His chosen people on their devious way
> Through wilderness and waste hath led us too
> Thro' a Red sea of carnage though it be,
> And He will lead us if we prove but true
> To Him and His, to peace and victory."

ONAWAY OUT OF DANGER.

Saved From Spreading Forest Fires by Welcome Showers.

Onaway, Mich., April 30.—After an awful night of fire fighting, during which the city seemed in constant danger, rain began falling Wednesday morning and gave prayed-for relief. Citizens fought the flames to keep them from the yards and plant of the Lobdell & Bailey Manufacturing Co. The lumber camps were surrounded by fire and a high wind prevailed. Log trains on the O. & N. M. railroad were kept busy all night bringing in people rescued from the fire along the track. The smoke was so dense as to be suffocating and cinders and charred embers filled the air.

Alpena, Mich., April 30.—Rain Wednesday and a cessation of the high winds of the past few days has practically terminated the forest fires in this section.

Cheboygan, Mich., April 30.—Forest fires destroyed [illegible] wagons, camp outfits and supplies to the amount of nearly $10,000 belonging to Haak Bros., in the southern part of this county. Their mill property, which is located between Haakwood and Rondo, being across the river from the fire, was not damaged. One farmer named Cole lost everything because his clearing was not large enough to protect his buildings.

SHOT BY A PLAYMATE.

Mystery of the Death of Charlie Pohlman Explained.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 30.—Henry Hasse, aged 14, has confessed that he shot and killed 7-year-old Charlie Pohlman on the evening of April 10, and with the assistance of his younger brother, Otto, carried the dead boy in a bag to the Lake Shore railroad and placed the body upon the track. The Hasse boys claim the shooting was accidental, occurring in the Hasse home, where the boys were playing with a small rifle.

Body Found in the River.

Detroit, Mich., April 30.—The body of a man, presumed by the clothing to be a sailor, was found floating in the river at the foot of Hastings street about 7 o'clock last evening by Frank Lane, a clerk in the slip dock office of the Grand Trunk.

Brakeman a Hero.

St. Joseph, Mich., April 30.—Chester Lessing, aged 7 years, fell into the St. Joseph river and was going down for the third time when William Riley, a brakeman, leaped from a moving train into the river and rescued the drowning boy.

Declared Insane.

New York, April 30.—Philip Doblin, who achieved notoriety from his testimony in the investigation in Washington of the purchase of submarine boats, has been declared insane.

KIND PASSENGERS

We consign to your tender care

RAYNOR LOVEY ANDERSON

and

JULIA DOVEY HICKS

Just married. Watch them with loving care for they are leaving pa and ma and us and going to Boston to eat beans and gaze into each others eyes.

After the Hicks—Anderson wedding Tuesday evening the young people were really outdone with the rice throwing part of the program. The happy couple were expected to take some train and leave town that night. A portion of the guests and relatives were prepared with horses and carriages, old shoes and rice to tender them an affectionate and appropriate farewell, but the bridal couple quietly went to Webster Anderson's residence and there remained. The young people, some of them, waited outside nearly all night to get a chance to throw the rice, but were completely outdone, but "He who laughs last, laughs best," 'tis said.

The next day the bride went home leisurely packed her trunks and made arrangements to leave for their Boston home on the train that pleased them, unmolested by rice throws or anything else. Their friends thinking it not right that a young couple should leave on a long journey without proper leavetaking and to go amongst strangers without proper instruction, kept careful watch and followed the bridal couple over the country to Adrian, where they took the 6:45 Wabash train for Buffalo.

In the meantime the young men patronized the printer and secured neat little hand bills which contained the following announcement:

Kind Passenger:
We consign to your tender care
Raynor Lovey Anderson
and
Julia Dovey Hicks,
Just married.
Watch them with loving care for they are leaving Pa and Ma and Home and Us and going to Boston to eat Beans and gaze into each others eyes.

The passengers on the train all received these bills of introduction, the boys not even skipping the train crew. Pounds of rice were left on the train and the baggage was appropriately decorated for the occasion. When Lovey and Dovey celebrate their golden wedding they will plainly remember the farewell at Adrian on April 29th.

The following telegram was received at Tecumseh this morning, showing that all are well and at this time happy:

"RISS BREWER & CO.,
Tecumseh, Mich.
Well cared for by passengers. Thanks to all. LOVEY AND DOVEY.

LEAS-TAYLOR.

Miss Annetta E. Leas of Adrian, and Ben Howard Taylor

WERE QUIETLY MARRIED

At the Bride's Home in Adrian, Wednesday Evening. They will make Tecumseh their Home.

29

A very quiet home wedding was consummated Wednesday evening at 41 Frank street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Leas, the principals being the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leas Annetta E. and Ben Howard Taylor, the latter the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas Taylor of Clinton, himself an employe of the foundry at Tecumseh, and a resident of that place. The event was wholly without ostentation, as has been the life of the bride, a most charming young woman, who was born at the same home where her nuptials were last evening celebrated, and who has always lived in this city. Rev. J. I. Nickerson, pastor of he Broad Street M. E. church, performed the ceremony, at 7 o'clock sun time. The company was only a small one, illness in the families of each detaining several of the nearest of the relatives at home.

The natural beauty of the bride was enhanced with her gown of white batiste, with its silk and lace applique trimmings. She carried bride's roses. The home was simply decorated in cut flowers. A delicious course supper was served in conclusion, with carnations as souvenirs.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left last night for Tecumseh, where they will board at the Coller House for some time. Mr. Taylor has a lucrative position there and is esteemed by those who know him. Mrs. Taylor received her education in the public schools of this city, which she supplemented with a course in German at St. John's Lutheran school. She has been secretary and noble grand of Enterprise Lodge, No. 4, Rebekah degree, executing her duties with credit and is well regarded by her associates in the lodge. She is also a member of the Independent club, recently organized from among the Rebekahs and was an officer at the time of her marriage. The Adrian friends were kept in the dark with regard to the date of this event, and in consequence there was less rice in the air than there would otherwise have been. Their congratulations will be none the less hearty. The Misses Lottie and Maude Taylor of Clinton, sisters of the groom, were present.

The Lowest Price.

If you are able to take in coal now and wish to avail yourself of the low price, which in our judgement is the lowest which will prevail during the coming season, we will be pleased to fill your order.

If you desire any information regarding the coal situation and will phone our office we will be pleased to send some one to see you.

Thanking you for your patronage in the past and hoping to hear from you at your early convenience.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, April 25, 1903.

Sensational developments in the Post office investigation have been the chief source of public interest in Washington during the past week. The wife of Judge Tyner, attorney general for the Post office Department, accompanied by her sister and a safe expert, entered the office of the law division of the Post office Department and abstracted the entire contents of the safe. Judge Tyner has been stricken with paralysis and his resignation was demanded last March, not only because he was physically incapable of transacting business but because grave irregularities had been discovered under his jurisdiction. The Post master General secured the resignation but permitted it to take effect on May 1, with the understanding that the Judge was to perform no official act in the interim. The sister who accompanied Mrs. Tyner on the expedition was Mrs. Barrett, mother of Harrison J. Barrett, whose conduct as law clerk of the Post office Department is under investigation and whose affiliation with a turf investment concern which has been disrupted by the Missouri authorities, is well known.

It now transpires that, notwithstanding the fact that the law division has been so long under investigation, the Post office officials had never examined the contents of this safe and therefore they are unable to say if Mrs. Tyner has removed Government papers and prosecute accordingly. It is intimated by the officials that the meshes of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow's dragnet are closing around Superintendent Machen and that he will be forced to resign at a comparatively early date. Numerous investigations having Superintendent Beaver's administration under examination have been conducted and some most sensational discoveries are alleged although all details are withheld from the press. How much will eventually be made public depends on Mr. Payne who admits that a full and complete report will not be given out.

Advices received at the White House are to the effect that the President feels greatly benefitted by his two weeks rest in the Yellowstone Park and that he has enjoyed every minute of it. He has had many adventures, some of them of a dangerous nature as for instance, the breaking of a pistol which threw its cartridge back into his face inflicting an ugly but not deep wound. Judging from the accounts received here the President's rest has been of a most strenuous character, including tramping miles through the snow and riding days at a time, but evidently it was precisely what Mr. Roosevelt desired and therefore probably afforded him more benefit than any other form of recreation.

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw has gone west and will meet the President at Shenandoah, Iowa, tomorrow and will travel with him while he remains in Iowa. The greatest interest attaches to what the President will say on the tariff question when he speaks this week in Des Moines from the same platform as Governor Cummins, the father of the Iowa Idea," which Mr. Roosevelt condemns.

Nearly half of the $100,000,000 worth of 2 per cent bonds which the Secretary of the Treasury recently offered to exchange for bonds bearing a higher rate of interest have been taken up and many have been deposited with the Treasury Departmen as security for national bank currency. This is regarded as a triumph for Mr. Shaw's scheme and as auguring well for the money market this fall when a scarcity of currency has been feared. The entire issue of Philippine loan certificates, amounting to $1,500,000 has been subscribed, which is indicative of the prosperous condition of the people generally.

It is believed in Washington that the President has intimated to all government officials of prominence that he regards it as in bad taste to extol the excellence of the military and naval forces of this country as compared with those of other and friendly nations, and that especial caution has been given regarding giving offence to Germany. The feeling of resentment occasioned by the recent hostilities in Venezuela has not passed away, but many prominent men are beginning to believe that German officials were more to blame for the attitude assumed at that time than was the government itself. At all events, the President deprecates bellicose utterances.

It is said at the War Department that the Secretary of War has definitely determined upon the new style of army rifle which was recently recommended by the Board of Ordnance. This rifle is to be 24 inches in length of barrel, instead of 30 inches, the length of the former rifle, and it will be served to cavalry as well as infantry, taking the place of the carbine now in use by the former. As this is doubtless the style of gun which state militia organizations will be expected to use the decision is of especial int res .

There is distress in the German Embassy because the credentials of the German Ambassador have failed to arrive and it is feared that at the St Louis exposition ceremonies, to which he will go this week, he will have to accept the rank of a Min ster on extraordinary business and take his seat between Chekib Bey, the Turkish Minister, and Senor Pulido, the Venezuelan charge d' affaire. So humble a position would prove most trying to the special representative of the Kaiser.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright druggist. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c, $1.00.

What is won with prayer must be worn with praise.

WINSHIP TRIAL

Lewis O. Winship Ex-Postmaster of Holloway

IS BEFORE THE COURTS

In Detroit, charged with padding his accounts. Mrs. Carrie Buddington is her father's star witness and lays the blame to Harry H. Osgood.

Detroit Journal, 28: Mrs. Carrie Buddington was the star witness of the defense in the case of the U. S. vs. Lewis O. Winship, ex-postmaster of Holloway, Lenawee county. Winship is charged with having padded his accounts during his service, which began in 1897, and Mrs. Buddington, his daughter, testified that the entire work of the postoffice was done by her. She also declared that she had done the work to the best of her ability, and had been honest.

Ex-Congressman Henry C. Smith of Adrian, who represents her father, drew from her statement that her father's disgrace was brought upon him by H. H. Osgood, formerly postmaster of Holloway, who made a strenuous effort to get back the position, after F. G. Florance, the Democratic postmaster, had gone out of office. She also said that certain Wabash agents had conceived a dislike for them ever since her father filed a complaint referring to their negligence in delivering mail.

"We did work up a good business," she said with great composure, "Altho the milkmen brought us mail and in spite of opposition we receive mail from Dutchtown, Ridgeway, Wellsville and all the surrounding towns. I kept the cancellations as systematically as possible, and our books were always open for inspectors. A number of drop letters were received by us each day from secret societies sending out invitations and the like, but I recorded everything accurately and did not defraud the government in any way.

"All this time Osgood was soliciting mail from the people in Holloway and vicinity to cut down our salary, and father found forty letters inside the mail trap on the Wabash that he had left there to be mailed. From the time we took charge of the office this man and his allies worked against us.

LATER—Jury at Detroit acquitted Winship Wednesday.

Rescued from Suffering and Death by

PAINE'S Celery Compound

THE GREAT MEDICINE.

MR. ALFRED BROWN,
A Prominent and Popular Citizen, Says:
"After the Use of Paine's Celery Compound, I Am Now in the Best of Health."

The greatest of modern physicians, Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., after years of long practice and close scientific study, gave to suffering and diseased men and women his marvelous, life giving prescription, with the conviction and positive knowledge that it had peculiar virtues and ample powers to cure.

Thousands of the strongest testimonials from the best known and most reliable men and women of our country fully sustain the claims made by Dr. Phelps regarding his incomparable Paine's Celery Compound.

One of the most convincing proofs furnished, comes recently from a gentleman widely known in the capital city of the Dominion of Canada. We refer to Mr. Alfred Brown, 91 O'Connor St., Ottawa, Ont. Mr. Brown's letter fully demonstrates the fact that the greatest sufferer may cast off his or her burden of disease and become well, strong, and happy. It proves, too, that the great medicine maintains more fully than ever before its unrivaled place in the estimation of people of wealth and social standing as well as with the masses. Mr. Brown says:—

"I acknowledge with thankfulness and pleasure the fact that I have been cured of a very painful illness of eight years' standing by use of Paine's Celery Compound. I had, during the years of my illness, tried almost all the advertised medicines without deriving any good results. I was also treated by several of the best doctors of this city, hoping to find that one of them, at least, would understand my case.

"I was getting worse, and was told I was incurable. I was indeed in a critical condition. I could not go from the house alone, as I was liable to sudden collapse. I tried hospital treatment, but no relief or good results came to me. I could not sleep; anything that I ate increased my agonies; I was extremely weak, restless, tired, and despondent; was obliged to walk about with my hands pressed firmly into my left side to ease my pains; my feet and hands were cold continually; had inclination to vomit, had profuse, cold sweats, quick breathing, and would be racked with pain for hours at a time.

"After the regular use of Paine's Celery Compound for a time, I am now in the best of health, have good appetite, and can use any kind of food. Thank God I am my old self once more, all through the use of Paine's Celery Compound."

IT WILL COME BACK.

Some Tecumseh Residents have learned how to keep it away.

Your back may not ache very long,
But the ache will return shortly,
Comes oftener—stays longer,
Unless the kidneys are relieved.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Tecumseh people endorse them.

Mr. Henry Keyser, retired farmer and capitalist, residence in the southwestern section of Tecumseh, says: "I am thoroughly convinced of the superior merits of this popular remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. They deserve naught save the highest praise. Before going to C. A. Wright's drug store for a box I had a dull aching pain in my back which had annoyed me for some time and the secretions from the kidneys were unnatural and irregular. To say that I was surprised at the effect is putting it very mildly. In a very short time the trouble disappeared. I never knew a medicine that worked so quickly and satisfactorily."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Worrying about things you can't help is as foolish as to throw stones at the sun when its shining doesn't suit you.

NO LIFE, NO ENERGY, NO AMBITION.

These are common expressions nowadays and the finger posts that point with unfailing accuracy to a nervous system robbed of its vitality by over exertion, overstrain or excess of some kind. That anyone should allow this condition to go on to complete mental physical or sexual ruin as it surley must if neglected, is a positive crime when the cure is at hand in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—a medicine designed expressly for this condition—a medicine that cures to stay cured by resupplying the very essential of life—Nerve Force.

Mrs. John Perrin of Tecumseh, Mich. says: "As a remedy for nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches and a run down system I consider Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills sold at C. A. Wright's drug store a spendid medicine as I used the pills myself for the above ailments with the very best of results, my nerves are steady and strong again, the headaches all gone, I sleep finely and feel generally strong and robust and have plenty of life and ambition." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by all druggists.

RICH AND POOR ALIKE

Uric Acid Makes Rheumatic Pains Without Regard to Station.

It is very democratic—Rheumatism is no respector of persons. It attacks old and young, rich and poor.

Uric acid in the blood causes all of the trouble, and until it is removed Rheumatic pains will continue. As it continues and increases more or less disability will follow. We can remove the Uric acid with Athlophoros, and can tell you how to keep your system free from it after you are cured.

Immediate improvement will be seen with Athlophoros. It goes directly to the seat of the trouble and dissipates the cause. You will note better circulation, greater appetite, freer bowels and a generally better feeling.

Uric acid is responsible for more physical disorders and creates more complications than most people think. You will find that your general health will be better if you can once get it out of your system. Athlophoros will do it, and one bottle will show marked improvement. It won't cost much to prove it, and we know you will be benefited. If your druggist doesn't sell it send $1 to The Athlophoros Co., New Haven, Conn.

PRISONERS ESCAPE

Bold Dash For Liberty Made by Ionia Asylum Inmates.

FOUR OF THE MEN ESCAPED

Two Recaptured—Keeper Knocked Down and Keys Taken From Him—Soldier Prisoners at Fort Wayne Try to Escape.

Ionia, Mich., May 2.—A daring attempt to escape by inmates of the Ionia asylum occurred last evening, although it was frustrated by prompt action by the authorities. It is, however, the most dastardly affair of the kind since the foundation of the state asylum.

At 6 o'clock, at the north side branch of the institution, a gang of the insane inmates were being taken in to supper, on the second floor. The keeper, George Heald, was at the rear of the line. He stepped to the lavatory to see if all were out, when four convicts jumped at him with a towel roller. He was knocked senseless and his head cut. As he fell they quickly went to his pockets, got his keys, and in less time than it takes to tell it had escaped by a side door.

The four who escaped were Frank Temple, a twenty-year man, sent from Pontiac in 1899 for burglary; George Gregory of Van Buren county, serving three and a half years for burglary; John Chandler of Grand Rapids, a five-year man sent to Ionia prison in 1901, and Charles Ross, an ex-convict from the Kalamazoo asylum.

Temple and Gregory were captured within an hour, a few miles north of the institution, by Ionia prison officers. Temple had the keys on his person. The other two are still at large. Superintendent Long says there is no doubt but it was a concerted plan to escape, as it could not otherwise have been so successful.

Detroit, Mich., May 2.—Twenty general prisoners confined in the old barracks at Fort Wayne, most of them in for desertion, made a daring attempt to escape at midnight, and the entire number succeeded in breaking out of their cell and stealthily creeping out upon a back balcony. Private Tully of Company L had the outside guard. He discovered what he took to be a human head peering over the top of the porch. He gave the alarm and in a few seconds the courtyard about the barracks was filled with soldiers, who, under the direction of the sergeant of the guard, surrounded the prisoners and escorted them back to the cell.

TRIED TO KILL HER.

Farm Hand Attacks Employer's Wife With an Ax.

Dearborn, Mich., May 2.—Joe Brown, a young Pole in the employ of John Ellis, a farmer living a mile and a half southwest of here, brutally attacked Mrs. Ellis Friday morning with an ax, striking her on the head and arms and inflicting injuries which will likely prove fatal.

The motive for his actions seem to have been robbery. The deed was committed while Mr. Ellis was out of the house, and after striking down his victim Brown took a gold watch and shotgun and fled. Officers were immediately notified and the search began. All day Mrs. Ellis' assailant was chased across the country toward Detroit, but at a late hour last night had not been caught.

Little is known of Brown. He came to Dearborn only a short time since. Ellis took pity on him and gave him employment.

Noted Manufacturer Dead.

Detroit, Mich., May 2.—Captain J. B. Ford, aged 92 years, founder of the plate glass industry of the United States, is dead at Creighton, Pa., of cancer, from which he had been a sufferer for some years. Captain Ford was one of the country's captains of industry. He was born in Danville, Ky., in November, 1811. In 1890 Captain Ford came to Wyandotte and began the manufacture of soda ash, extensively used in the manufacture of plate glass. To him perhaps more than anyone else is due the great upbuilding of the district south of the Rouge.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, May 2.—Michigan pensions were granted Friday as follows: Original—David Casey, Reese, $6 (war with Spain); John Cohenburn, Lake Ann, $6; Fred Hunt, Bedford, $6; Stanley Damarski, Bay City, $6. Increase—James Trowbridge, Lake Odessa, $24; Frank Clemence, Dowling, $8; William Anderson, Caseville, $12; Charles W. Bloker, Luther, $8. Widows—Antoinette Dyphante, Bay City, $12; Susanne Huff, Marion, $12; Ella Francis, Tekonsha, $8.

Strum's Wife Granted Divorce.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 2.—Mrs. Helen Strum has been granted a divorce from Professor Bernard Strum, formerly head of the violin department of the University School of Music. There was no contest.

Freight Handlers Struck.

Detroit, Mich., May 2.—Forty freight handlers went out on a strike Friday morning at the D. & C. docks, just as a load of freight came in. The men want 10 cents more a day and refuse to go back to work for less.

King Didn't Pay Premiums.

Berlin, May 4.—The Netherlands Insurance company has canceled a policy on the king of Servia's life because of failure to pay the premiums, which are unusually heavy on account of fears of assassination. The Netherlands was the only company which would accept the risk.

UNKNOWN BOY. About nine years old, light hair, blue eyes.

UNKNOWN WOMAN. About 23 years old. Supposed to be wife of wounded man at Emergency hospital.

UNKNOWN MAN. Body badly mangled. Apparently a Pole.

MRS. CHARLES L. PALICKI, 45 Bronson street, Toledo.

UNKNOWN MAN. Died at Grace hospital.

STANISLAUS ORSZHOLSKEE, 12 years old, is missing.

THE INJURED.

James Paloiaczyk, Mike Broski, John Malkoski, Mrs. Annie Obites, Mrs. Mary Shapranski, Mrs. Frank Otremba, Joseph Waszink, Joseph Nitz, Joseph Kazruski, Rosa Adamski, Peter Orszhalski, Mrs. Peter Orszholski, Martha Orszholski, Elson Orszholski, Joseph Lzafranski, all of whom reside in Toledo. Two persons, Joseph Zakrzewski and John Bush, who were injured, reside in Detroit. Four others, whose names could not be learned, were injured, one of them fatally.

Detroit, Mich., May 4.—A shocking railroad catastrophe occurred about 8 o'clock last evening at the grade crossing of the Grand Trunk railroad and Canfield avenue, as a result of which at least eight persons lost their lives and nearly a score were wounded.

A swiftly moving passenger train plowed through a crowd of Sunday excursionists, throwing them in every direction.

It came as a climax to a Polish festival held yesterday at St. Josaphat's church and Harminia hall, which was attended by about 1,000 Polish excursionists from Toledo. While boarding their train to return home a Grand Trunk flyer from Chicago, via Durand, crashed into the crowd of people and created terrible havoc, killing five outright and wounding others so that they died at various hospitals shortly afterwards.

About 7:20 the excursionists, accompanied by several thousand of friends, formed up at Harmonia hall and paraded to the corner of Canfield avenue and the railroad, where it had been arranged that the party should embark for home. The empty excursion train of fourteen cars came up on time and farewells were being taken of Detroit friends. For two blocks from Canfield avenue to Superior street the people were thickly scattered, talking in merry tones and bidding each other good-bye.

A number had gotten on the train, while many others were hurriedly making their way toward the cars to secure seats when the calamity occurred.

A passenger train from the north hove in sight and bore down upon the crowd. A few sighted it in time to jump from the tracks to places of safety, but about 400 people were hemmed in on one side by the standing excursion train and on the other by a freight train. A number were directly on the tracks as the train came sweeping down upon them.

Terrible Scene Followed.

Plowing through the crowd, the train hastened on and left a terrible scene of carnage in its wake. Heaped along the tracks for fully a block were the prostrate bodies of excursionists, some dead and others groaning loaudly from their injuries.

Hands, legs and even one ghastly head were lying about on the ground near their former owners. Pieces of clothing and small bundles were scattered in all directions. Peering into the faces of the dead and injured were frantic people, endeavoring to identify them as their friends.

The work of recovering and identifying the bodies then began under the supervision of Lieutenant Lindsey of the Chene street station. Most of the Poles were determined that their friends should be taken to their homes, and a riot was prevented by good advice given by Dr. W. K. Kwiecinsky, a former city physician, who advised that all the injured be sent to the various hospitals for treatment, while the dead were sent to Maney's morgue at 43 National avenue.

All the city ambulances were instantly summoned. The victims were taken to Harper, Grace, St. Mary's, Red Cross and Emergency hospitals and the Sanitarium. A number of people who had minor injuries were attended to in neighboring houses.

It was nearly 10 o'clock before the excursion train pulled out with its load of disheartened and bereaved people. Large numbers of them were related, and scarcely any but had some relative among the dead or injured. Several thousand people continued to throng the vicinity.

The ambulances had to make a number of trips each before the wounded were conveyed to resting places.

Patrolman Fred Schultz of the Chene street station, who was an eye-witness to the accident, declares he is sure that the on-coming train did not whistle. In further describing the accident he said:

"It was a horrible sight when that train got past. Bodies were piled up for many feet, some as far as a block away. The engine threw most of them towards the west—that is, those that were not crushed underneath."

Philip Boyeck of 836 Russell street and Joseph Bauer of 241 Superior street were eye-witnesses of the affair and both asserted that the Grand Trunk passenger train failed to blow its whistle, and to this each attributes the awful catastrophe.

Days of Chivalry Gone.

Husband—What's the matter now?

FAITH IN BROTHER

Father Reichlin Seeks to Clear From a Brother Priest

AWFUL CHARGE OF MURDER

Fr. Walser Arrested Charged With Murder of Reichlin's Sister—Authorities Denounced in Strong Language From Steps of the Altar.

Lorain, O., May 4.—The Rev. Charles Reichlin, pastor of St. Joseph's church in this city and brother of Agatha Reichlin, who was murdered last Thursday night, made a sensational denunciation of the authorities for the arrest of Rev. Ferdinand Walser on the charge of murdering his sister. The occasion was at the services Sunday morning in that church, and the place was from the altar steps.

Fr. Reichlin was greatly affected over the happenings of the week and could hardly speak.

Fr. Reichlin's statement was in part as follows:

"Various events have happened during the past week. No doubt they are a lesson to us. The lesson is that we should always be ready for death, for we know not when it will please the Lord to call us to himself. Avoid sin and do good. The lesson also is how little we can trust the world.

"I am sorry to see that Fr. Walser is connected with the murder of my sister. I am sorry because I am convinced before God that he is absolutely innocent and that, no matter how strong public opinion is, how spiteful, how atrocious that public opinion may be, it cannot make him out a murderer, the murderer of my sister.

The Bloodhound Story.

"The time will come when I will give my version of the bloodhound story, upon which the character of public opinion seems to be based. My friends, I believe Fr. Walser innocent until he is proven guilty. Personally, I must say that I do not know which assault is most brutal, the assault of the murderer upon my sister, or the assault upon the reputation of Fr. Walser, the assault made by public opinion upon that good priest.

"In your prayers pray for my good sister. Pray also for Fr. Walser. Let us help him carry his cross, and, heavy though it be, let us act with fortitude and as becomes Christians."

Elyria, O., May 4.—Rev. Ferdinand Walser, assistant of the Church of the Sacred Heart at Toledo, lies in the county jail here charged with the murder of Miss Agatha Reichlin, sister of Rev. Charles Reichlin, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church at Lorain, O. It is charged by the authorities [illegible], who was a guest at the home of the latter, entered the young woman's room at the parsonage Thursday night during the absence of Rev. Fr. Reichlin and crushed her head with a big paving stone.

Twice Attempted Suicide.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 4.—Ada Saraven, aged 18, attempted suicide Sunday, first by hanging and then by drowning. She became demented a few days ago. Hearing a noise in the attic, her mother found the girl trying to hang herself with a rope fastened to the rafters. Later, when the family was not looking, she ran to a pond near the family home and threw herself into the water. The girl's father was insane and hanged himself in a jail cell.

Memorial Day.

Lansing, Mich., May 4.—General orders have been issued by Commander Anthony of the Michigan G. A. R. calling upon the posts throughout the state to properly observe Memorial day. The general orders say: "Let the sacredness of the day be upheld by discouraging all efforts on the part of selfish interests to make it a day of sports and games. The day is sacred to the memory of our noble dead. Let us strive to keep it so."

Bay Has a Sinking Fund.

Bay City, May 4.—After several attempts in the past ten years, the board of supervisors has created a sinking fund for the county, with which to take care of bonds as they fall due. The present indebtedness is about $450,000, covering bonds issued for bridges and stone roads, and a debt owed the state. The first money to go into the fund will be the accrued interest and bonus on recently authorized refunding bonds.

Doesn't Know Why Arrested.

Bay City, Mich., May 4.—Deputy United States Marshal Tobias has brought to the county jail from Chicago Adam Cataline, Jr. Cataline was formerly postmaster at Whittemore. The prisoner professes ignorance of the cause of his arrest. He says when he left the office he settled in full with the government. He will have a hearing on Tuesday, when the federal court opens here.

Railroad Across South America.

Washington, May 4.—In a report to the state department Counsel Mansfield, at Valparaiso, says that during the last session of the Chilean congress, which adjourned in February, a bill was passed which provided for the construction of a railway over the Andes mountains, to connect Buenos Ayres with Santiago and Valparaiso. This will be the first line to cross the continent of South America.

State Camp of Modern Woodmen.

Owosso, Mich., May 4.—Next Wednesday and Thursday, May 6 and 7, the state camp of the Modern Woodmen of America will be held in this city. Owosso camp No. 1008 will give the visitors a banquet in the Light Infantry armory Wednesday evening and the local degree team will lead candidates through forest Thursday evening to their satisfaction.

Secretary Root in Columbus.

Columbus, O., May 4.—Elihu Root, secretary of war, arrived here last night to attend the meeting of the Interstate National Guard association, which will be held this week. Many distinguished military men are expected to attend.

Made Young Again

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again" writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for liver, stomach and bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at C. A. Wright's drug store.

RAISE TAX RATE.

Supreme Court Grants Mandamus Against Tax Commission.

Lansing, Mich., May 2.—The contention of the Detroit board of education, that the state tax commission's functions are ministerial and not judicial, is upheld in the opinion of the supreme court, which Friday granted a mandamus in the case brought before it involving the rate of taxation for corporations, and ordered the commission to reconvene and assess railroads, express companies, etc., in accordance with the strict letter of the law.

The opinion was written by Justice Montgomery, and the sole question involved was whether the state board has power to determine the actual value of the property of the state for the purpose of fixing the rate to be levied upon railroad property, the state assessors having exercised such power by arbitrarily assuming that local assessors had undervalued such property. By this means the average tax rate was materially reduced.

The tax levied against railroad companies for the current year will be $3,888,162, an increase of $563,996 over the previous levy.

Express companies will pay $18,414, an increase of $3,186, and car loaning companies $6,436, an increase of $1,113.

The aggregate increase due to the court's action is $573,250. The average rate will be increased from $13 68 per $1,000 of valuation to $16 55.

SEVERE FROSTS.

Early Fruit Badly Injured by the Cold Snap.

Benton Harbor, Mich., May 2.—Anxiety is felt here for the fruit crop on account of Thursday night's frost. Peach and cherry trees are in full bloom, and at this season blossoms are very susceptible to the cold. The temperature was 5 degrees below freezing Friday morning. It is conceded that early strawberries are killed and cherries injured.

Quincy, Mich., May 2.—The extreme cold wave is said to have almost destroyed the early fruit in this section, especially that in blossom. One-half inch of ice formed.

South Haven, Mich., May 2.—The cold snap injured the fruit crop. Growers report early pears, strawberries, gooseberries and other small fruit almost killed. Late pears are badly injured. Peaches were not injured.

Decatur, Mich., May 2.—The cold wave which struck this vicinity was accompanied by snow. Water was frozen a quarter of an inch thick, and as a result fruit which is in blossom has been damaged to the amount of thousands of dollars.

[illegible]terville, Mich., May 2.—Ice was three-quarters of an inch thick in pails and tubs here. Farmers report young clover and the strawberry crop badly damaged.

Bangor, Mich., May 2.—Thorough investigation shows all kinds of fruit badly injured by freezing. Cherries, strawberries and plums are hurt the worst.

NO SESSION IN SENATE.

House Passed Ten Bills on Third Reading.

Lansing, Mich., May 2.—The senate session was a blank Friday morning. The house passed ten bills on third reading, among them being Representative Hunt's juvenile court bill for Detroit. Mr. Hunt's desk was decorated with two "stars and stripes" and a large vase of roses, it being that gentleman's 48th birthday.

It is extremely doubtful whether anything will be done with the primary election bills in the senate next week. Chairman Baird says the elections committee will report out a bill on Tuesday or Wednesday and that "if it can be printed" it will be brought up for discussion before the senate on Thursday. Baird says the bill as reported out will go no further than the Galbraith substitute, which the house voted down by 79 to 14.

The house Friday morning reconsidered the vote by which the Rodgers bill was defeated Thursday, and sent the measure back to the committee. The bill provides that township treasurers must pay bills presented by school teachers out of the first primary school funds they receive, instead of using it for other purposes.

Scared Children Away From School.

Owosso, Mich., May 2.—A fight among sewer diggers Friday morning resulted in Almon Monroe being terribly pounded and cut about the head with a shovel. Isaac Reese is the man charged with the deed, and officers are looking for him. With clothing torn and face covered with blood, Monroe staggered into a German school nearby, determined to get witnesses of the assault. "Man ferecht" (crazy man) shouted the teacher, making a wild dash for the back door. Frightened children, screaming at the top of their voices, overturned benches and smashed windows in their endeavor to escape. When Monroe was finally led out of the schoolhouse the children had scattered to their homes. Monroe is seriously injured. He is an epileptic and has the reputation of being quarrelsome.

Cream Puffs Didn't Set Well.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 2.—A considerable portion of the city dined on cream puffs the other night and soon after every cream puff eater needed the service of a doctor or more, and for six or seven hours such stomach aches! Now the authorities are looking for the milkman who furnished the cream to the baker.

Patient Hanged Himself.

Battle Creek, Mich., May 2.—John Frey, a patient of the sanitarium, was found dead in one of the cottages Friday by an attendant, having committed suicide during the night by hanging himself. A shawl strap was buckled around his neck and the end passed up to a hook in the ceiling.

Cash in State Treasury.

Lansing, Mich., May 2.—Notwithstanding the presence of the legislators the state treasury showed $5,250,186 90 on hand at the close of business Thursday afternoon.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by all druggists.

WALKING AND SHIRT WAIST SKIRTS.

We get you your skirt direct from manufactures, made to your measure, in 3 days' time, if we have not your size in stock. A skirt made over is never a perfect fit. Fit and workmanship is guaranteed by us. Style, quality and price are the three principal requirements we aim to give you. Our sample line is quite extensive, comprising both light and dark colored skirts in the new spring materials. As for values we can safely say that our prices are fully 15 to 35 per cent lower on an average than the same goods can be bought for elsewhere. Our prices are from $2.00 to $7.75, and in materials we have grays, blacks, browns, blues and the new black spotted with white and all are made in the newest of spring styles, and we will be glad to show them to you.

BLACK PETTICOATS POPULARLY PRICED.

Our line of petticoats grows bigger every season. The styles are all new while the mercerized sateen that is put into our skirts this season is superior to any that has been used before, the luster being finer. Every garment is made full with all seams neatly fixed. Five different styles at a dollar each, gives you a good chance for a selection when you need an every-day skirt.

Less fancy ones and not so heavy at 79 and 89c.

One of the prettiest this season is black with a small white polka dot, of very heavy and fine luster sateen, made in style of the silk petticoats, for $1.98.

Fourteen stitches to the inch, consequently cannot rip, patent adjustable and fitted bands, velveteen binding on the bottom which is a great protection, made of an excellent quality of sateen that will not crack, very pretty patterns, this describes our $1.25, $1.38, $1.69, $1.79, $1.98, and $2.69 skirts.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

Oregon Pioneer Dies Suddenly.

The following brief sketch of one who was once a Lenawee county pioneer, must be of interest to many readers of the HERALD. General Stevens' first wife, referred to as Miss Mary Adams, was a sister of the Hon. Peter R. Adams and is buried in the Adams lot in Tecumseh cemetery. A daughter of that marriage lived to middle age and will be remembered by many of our older citizens as Mrs. Mary Ellsworth, who is well known in Tecumseh.

La Grande, March 30.—(Special)—General J. H. Stevens, one of the most widely known of the early pioneers of the northwest, died from heart failure in this city at 4 o'clock yesterday morning at the advanced age of 97 years.

General John Hazelton Stevens was born in Jamaica, Windham county, Vermont, March 26, 1806. Being one of a large family, this "Green Mountain Boy" by hard work obtained a sound academic education, taught school and finally engaged in the mercantile business in Boston. Cast by nature in a large physical, mental and spiritual mould, he excelled as a winner in the athletic contests of his day, such as collar and elbow wrestling, and was successful, as well, as a teacher and business man.

Fearlessly brave, generous and kind, a typical American, the young man followed for some time the perilous business of logging in western Pennsylvania from thence, in 1830, going to the then western state of Michigan.

The same year he married Miss Mary Adams, who died in 1838, and a few years later he married Miss Harriet M. Pierce, of Vermont.

He conducted a prosperous stage line, was brigadier general of the Michigan National guard, and for ten years, as sheriff of Lenawee county, in which territory there were 4500 Pottawatamie Indians, handled some of the most desperate of American and Canadian criminals. As captain of an emigrant train General Stevens crossed the plains to Oregon in 1852. He conducted a hotel at Champoeg, near Salem, and later at La Grande; also was operator of a 50-mule pack train in freighting supplies both summer and winter from the Columbia river to the eastern Oregon and Idaho gold mines. In 1856 he was chief packer under General Isaac Stevens in the bloody Yakima Indian war.

He was a member of the last territorial legislature of Oregon, and by appointment of President Grant, was eight years register of the United States land office at La Grande. The last active occupation of General Stevens was in stockraising and farming on a fine 1200-acre ranch, owned by himself and son, Jasper H. Stevens, in full possession of his mental faculties. General Stevens has passed his sunset years in the comfortable home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper H. Stevens, at La Grande. The general's only other surviving child is Mrs. D. C. Kelley, of La Grande. He leaves a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

General Stevens was a high degree Mason, having joined the "brethren of the Mystic tie" 57 years ago; he was also a faithful member of the Episcopal church. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Masonic temple here, under the auspices of the Masons and Dr. C. W. Turner, pastor of St. Peter's church.

Mayor Frensdorf is the proud possessor of a pair of elk antlers, an election present from Byron Dopley, of St Johns. They are on exhibition in the window of the Frensdorf store. They were found in the channel of Maple river, north of the village of Bridgeville, and are the only set ever found in Michigan so far as known. They measure 6 feet 10 inches from tip to tip, and are valued at $10.

8 Cents

Eight cents a pound is what a young woman paid for twelve pounds of flesh.

She was thin and weak and paid one dollar for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion, and by taking regular doses had gained twelve pounds in weight before the bottle was finished.

Eight cents a pound is cheap for such valuable material. Some pay more, some less, some get nothing for their money. You get your money's worth when you buy Scott's Emulsion.

Mr. Joseph Pominville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by all druggists.

Ten Years in Bed.

R. A. Gray, J. P., Oakville, Ind., writes, "For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys. It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me."

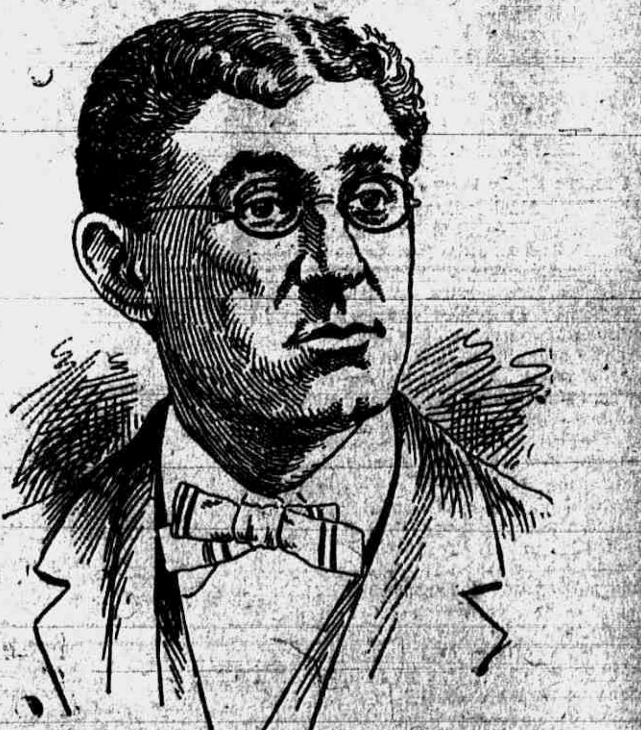
When you hear a great deal of one side of a story, the other side receives from you a great deal of sympathy.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for dyspepsia, indigestion constipation and kidney trouble. Try them. Only 50c at C. A. Wright's.

It doesn't do a man any harm to be thrown on his own resources. The difficulty is that it always happens when he hasn't any.

Give the children Rocky Mountain Tea, this month, makes them strong, makes them eat, sleep and grow. Good for the whole family. A spring tonic that makes sick people well. 35 cents.



M. F. STEIN

THE FAMOUS OPTICIAN of Detroit,

The eye, when properly cared for affords the keenest delight because of the pleasures we are able to enjoy through its medium. When not cared for and its warnings are unheeded, it becomes an instrument of torture. Headaches, eye pains, burning, itching Sensation, strained vision, nervous troubles and many bodily ills are the results accruing from over worked eyes, eyes that need help. My examination reveals all hidden troubles, and it is my province to fit the right glasses to any and all defects of vision.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when good medicine is so much needed as in the Spring.

The blood is impure, weak and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength, and want of animation.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Make the blood pure, vigorous and rich, create appetite, give vitality, strength and animation, and cure all eruptions. Have the whole family begin to take them today.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has been used in our family for some time, and always with good results. Last spring I was all run down and got a bottle of it, and as usual received great benefit." Miss Beulah Boyce, Stowe, Vt.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

JUNIORS

Delightfully entertained the SENIORS

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kellogg last Friday evening.

Amid the blending of class colors, old rose and white, and dark red and white, about sixty juniors, seniors and prospective seniors enjoyed the reception given by the juniors at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kellogg last Friday evening. Every junior put forth his best effort, that the reception of their class for "Naughty-three" would far excel any before given and well may they be proud of their efforts, for a better time was never enjoyed by a class of seniors.

A very entertaining program was arranged and consisted of vocal selections by Mr. Robinson, recitation by Olive McBride, violin solo by Kenneth Anderson, vocal selection by Miss Raye McKenna.

Among noteworthy guests may be mentioned Booker T. Washington and Fred Douglas and although each showed some partiality to a junior or senior, they were favorites of all present. Let us here state, in order that our readers may not be misled, that the above names belonged respectively to a junior and senior cat, each wearing the respective colors.

An elaborate four course supper was served, after which, at a late hour, the guests departed. A return reception will be given by the seniors to the juniors May 15.

William F. Sisson.

Last Saturday evening, May 2nd, occurred the death of W. F. Sisson. He had been very sick for several weeks and for some time not expected to live from day to day. In fact, his sickness commencing at the time of the death of his daughter, Gladys, which occurred one year ago last Sunday. He never seemed to recover from her loss and commenced to decline from that time, has really not been well since. Then he was a strong well man, having never seen a sick day.

W. F. Sisson was a member of the K. of P. lodge almost from its organization in Tecumseh, was very much interested in its work and a good member. He also belonged to the Episcopal church, and to these two societies, his family and business he devoted his life. But he was a man especially devoted to his children. Until a year ago they had two beautiful young girls, the pride of father and mother, when death took Gladys away from them.

Will Sisson had few intimates wherever he lived still many very warm friends who will miss his genial smile and kind disposition.

W. F. Sisson was born at Benizet, Pennsylvania, May 14, 1855, and died at Tecumseh, May 3, 1903, of kidney trouble. He was married to Miss Cora Bliven May 7, 1884, who with one daughter, Bernice, survive him. They have spent their lives in Petersburg, Chicago Adrian and Tecumseh, having been engaged in the broom handle business in Adrian nine years. He died in a beautiful home finished only last spring for their comfort and enjoyment.

Until his sickness of the last year, he conducted a prosperous furniture business in Tecumseh and it almost seems as if the life of this strong, useful man had been cut too short.

The funeral, conducted by the K. P. lodge was held from his late residence this forenoon at 10 o'clock. Services by the rector, C. C. Kemp.

His mother was unable to come on account of sickness.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, May 4, 1903.

Postmaster General Payne will spare no steps to bring the abstraction of official papers from Tyner safe before the courts, and a preliminary step has made President Roosevelt acquainted with all the details of the case to date, in order to have the Chief Executive cognizance and cooperation in all the steps taken. Mr. Payne feels that his kindness to Judge Tyner was seriously abused, and had he not tempered justice with mercy the latter official would have been dismissed in disgrace some time since instead of being allowed to resign, thoroughly aroused, the more so since his clemency has been made the basis of insinuations that he has not been in earnest in regard to the current investigations. He has recommended that the Tyner case be taken to the courts and has advised that the matter go to the United States Attorney having jurisdiction in the District of Columbia, with instructions to submit the case to the grand jury. President Roosevelt's reputation as a reformer points to a vigorous campaign against official offenders as soon as he can return to the field of action.

In addition to the Tyner matter there has been disclosed the fact that a number of clerks performing services which should come under the classified lists of the Civil Service Commission, are on the rolls as "laborers," being appointed to those rolls in order to escape examination. This is a direct violation of the law. It prevents the appointment of eligibles who have passed examinations, as the positions are filled by the so-called laborers, and in some cases promotions are made from these same laborers to positions under civil service rules. The result of the disclosures has been that a number of persons have been dismissed, others have been given the choice of getting out or actually performing manual labor, and there has been a wholesale holding up of promotions which were to have gone into effect July 1.

General Miles' report on conditions in the Philippines as he found them did not provoke as much interest as such a document from the commander of the army might have done under other circumstances. In the first place, it really disclosed nothing new and contained nothing sensational. The only information it gave in addition to matters threshed out many times before, was that some irregularities existed in dealing out supplies, but these charges have yet to be proved. In the second place, the War Department, in issuing the report saw fit to incorporate with it the reports of the chief officers of all departments which came under General Miles' observation, and these documents were practical refutations of the latter's findings. Whatever political use partisans may make of the document, it can be said that the hunters for sensational Philippine atrocities will not find this a storehouse of abuses and misconduct.

The decision of the Supreme Court, made early in the week on the disfranchisement of the negro voters, leaves the question still in abeyances, and in much the same status as before. The way pointed out is that the redress for a political wrong lies wholly in the political field and that the voters of the country themselves, either directly or through their Congressmen can make any redress which may be necessary.

Colonel Bingham, long superintendent of public buildings and grounds in the city of Washington, left this week for his new post at Buffalo, New York, being succeeded by Col. Thomas W. Symons, who is well and favorably known in Washington, it will not be a long time before he can gain the place in the esteem of Washingtonians, long held by his popular predecessor. Col. Bingham's last official act tells rather a pretty little story. It seems that a fond bridal couple from Virginia, on their wedding tour to the national capital, visited the Washington monument as the first point of interest, and while there the doting groom scratched on its marble walls the name of his fair lady. An argus-eyed watchman of the big shaft caught him in this act and haled him before the nearest peace officer, where jail was threatened unless the unlucky groom should deposit $25 for his appearance for trial. The pretty little bride, now thoroughly grief stricken with the clear sky of their happiness clouded over, told the officer that their modest tour had not provided for any such financial outlay as that, and that they really did not have that much money. As a last resort they were carried before Col. Bingham, who moved to pity by the tears of the bride and the absence of any vandalistic intent on the part of her husband, dismissed them with a warning, bringing sunshine in to their lives again and adding two more persons, at least, to a long list of friends who will always hold him in greatful remembrance.

Mr. Robert L. Lerch, of the Hydrographic office, who has charge of the mariner's bulletin and charts which guide the trans-Atlantic sea captains on their way, tells your correspondent that he has been kept busy charting the queerest derelict with which his office has ever had experience. Some six weeks ago Jingo the largest elephant in captivity died in transportation and was thrown overboard from a steamship, and now the carcass floats on the surface of the ocean, a serious menace to navigation, as the body weighs more than five tons and would give no slight shock to the vessel which happened to strike it. It is in the direct line of steamers and the different records of the times it has been sighted shows that it has drifted 300 miles in the six weeks it has been at sea. When asked if the Navy Department would send a vessel to blow up the derelict in question, as is sometimes done with other obstructions to navigation, Mr. Lerch said he thought not, as natural causes would take care of its destruction before long.

Today there goes into effect an anti-expectoration law in the city of Washington, which in this respect has been behind a number of the more progressive cities of the country. Visitors have remarked on the fact that Washington, otherwise a remarkably clean city, had no such regulation. Major Sylvester chief of police, has evolved a novel scheme in the enforcement of the law. First offenders will not be arrested, but will be handed a neat card setting forth the new law and its reasons. After that the rule will be rigidly enforced in regard to sidewalks, public buildings and conveyances.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright druggist. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c, $1.00.

to most women is a term of anxiety, serious thought and sweet anticipation. With the cessation of pain necessary to childbirth, there comes calm nerves, sleep and recuperation.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

does diminish the pain accompanying maternity. With its aid mothers can and do bring healthy, sweet dispositioned and ideal babies into the world.

Morning sickness, sore breasts and excruciating pains caused by the gradually expanding organs, are relieved by this penetrating and relaxing liniment.

Among the manifold aids to childbirth Mother's Friend has grown in popularity, and gained a prestige among rich women as well as poor; it is found and welcomed in the mansion as well as in the cabin.

By lessening the mother's agony of mind and diminishing pain a beautiful influence is wrought upon the child, and instead of peevish, ill-tempered and sickly forms you have healthy, laughing humanity, remaining a blessing ever to you and its country.

ABSOLUTE FAITH.

You can Depend upon the Word of this Tecumseh Citizen.

He has had the experience.
He has thoroughly tested the article.
He found it as represented.
He has absolute faith in its merit.

Mr. Chas. Bartholomew, proprietor of the bicycle repair shop in the south eastern section of Tecumseh, says: "Some eighteen years ago the doctors said I had diabetes and that I could not live. I got better but I have been troubled ever since with the kidney secretions, particularly retention of the same which caused me considerable anxiety. I tried all kinds of medicines said to be good for kidney trouble but the annoyance still remained. Finally my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got them at C. A. Wright's drug store. They are splendid. They gave me more relief and acted quicker than any remedy I ever used. From my experience I can say they are a valuable remedy and I consistently recommend them."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

NERVOUS HEADACHE BREEDS INSANITY.

Many a person's whole pleasure in life is ruined by the fear of nervous headaches. Any little excitement, no matter what, business or social, brings them on. The feet and hands grow cold, the head is hot, the eyes stiff, the temples throb, and only in the quiet of a darkened room is relief obtained. This condition must be checked or it means complete mental ruin. To those people Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills come as a blessing. They do not stop, they cure the headaches. They do not blanket, they build up. They put the nervous system in a strong, vigorous, sturdy condition—a condition that gives one resistive power and enables them to again enjoy life's pleasures.

Mrs. J. F. Burtch of Tecumseh, Mich., says: "I was troubled with severe nervousness and nervous headaches. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Chas. Wright's drug store and after using two boxes I can say I am cured, my nerves are again strong and steady and the headaches all gone and I feel well in every way. As a nerve and general tonic I think the medicine unequaled." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase M. A new carriage, owned by Brooks, a calf and a few other articles were destroyed.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it; "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." A healthy Christian is better than a wealthy sinner.

Society of Christian Endeavor, Denver, 1903.

The Passenger Department of the Chicago & North-Western Railway has issued a very interesting folder on the subject of the Christian Endeavor meeting to be held at Denver, July 9th to 13th, together with information as to reduced rates and sleeping car service, as well as a short description of the various points of interest in Colorado usually visited by tourists. Send 2-cent stamp to W. B. Kniskern, Passenger Traffic Manager, Chicago, for copy.

AGAINST THE MILITIA.

Chicago German Society Forbids Its Members Joining.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 4.—Members of the Chicago Turn Bezirk who obey the laws of the order must not become members of any state militia, pursuant to a recommendation unanimously adopted at the closing business session of the forty-sixth convention in Turner hall, in this city, Sunday. This is a matter of great importance, especially to the state of Illinois, where there are several thousand members. Grand Rapids Turn Verein is included.

Albert Marckwardt of the local verein, who was elected secretary of the convention, made the following statement to the Herald explanatory of the action taken in forbidding members to join the militia:

"The Turners believe that the state militias are organized more for the service of capital than for the laboring man. They believe that if a strike is declared, the militia called out and trouble occurred, all Turners who might be members would be fighting against their own people and their own interests if any were concerned in the strike."

It was unanimously decided to hold the next convention in Garfield Verein, in Chicago, next November, at which time the annual election of officers is to be held.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

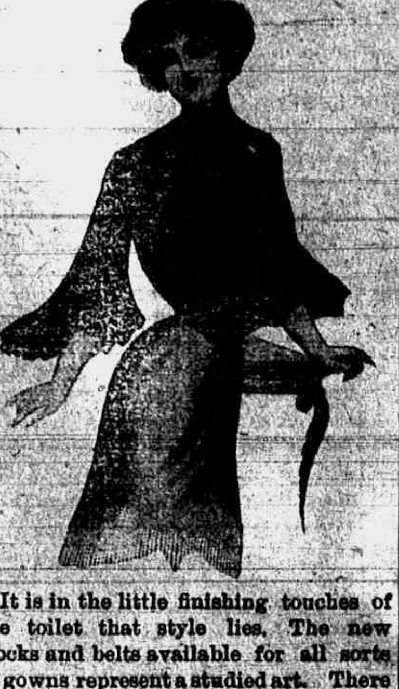
LATEST FASHION NOTES.

A Stylish Black Waist.

Black peau de cygne is the material of which this corsage is developed. It has a deep yoke of heavy lace and is simply trimmed with straps of the silk stitched with white Corticelli stitching silk. Particularly attractive are the flowing sleeves.



It is in the little finishing touches of the toilet that style lies. The new stocks and belts available for all sorts of gowns represent a studied art. There is a hint of the coming invasion of plaids in crush belts, in gay Tartan patterns in silk, the buckles being of severe plainness, in gilt, silver, or black enamel. Persian panne in its softly harmonizing colors and various back-grounds, is prominently displayed as well, and narrow belts of white, red or black suede thickly studded with cut steel nail heads or emeralds are in evidence.

Sentenced to Serve Seven Years.—O. G. Milne, postmaster at Taclohan, Island of Leyte, Philippines, who recently was convicted of misappropriating government funds, has been sentenced to seven years' imprisonment.

Threatened With Destruction.—The thickly settled portion of Kennebunk, Me., was threatened with destruction Sunday by a fire which raged for three hours among the mills and business blocks and which caused a loss of $100,000.

A Triple Tragedy.—News has been received of a triple tragedy at Bristol, Tex. Mrs. Lineburger and her son were found dead, both having been chopped to pieces with an ax. The husband and father, W. C. Lineburger, was found on his farm, four miles north of Bristol, his brains blown out with a shotgun.

Miners Didn't Get Increase.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 4.—A mass meeting of rock miners was held in this city Sunday to take action on the 10 per cent advance decreed by the coal commission, which the men claim they are not receiving. This class of miners are now all members of the United Mineworkers' union, but as they work for individual contractors they have not received the advance given to the other miners. The rock men now propose to have an understanding, and if the advance is not given them within the next two weeks they will all go on strike.

President Greatly Impressed With Grand Canyon of Colorado.

CONSTANTLY ON THE GO

Given a Warm Welcome and Met Many Rough Rider Comrades—Addressed Words to Indians, Who Listened to His Speech.

Grand Canyon, Ariz., May 7.—Arizona welcomed President Roosevelt here Wednesday, and the welcome it gave him was a warm one. A special train from Flagstaff brought a large crowd and people also came in from the surrounding country on horseback and in wagons. The president's train arrived here at 9 o'clock in the morning, and until it left, at 8 o'clock in the evening, he was constantly on the go. Horses were in waiting at the station as the train pulled in, and after the president had greeted a number of members of his old regiment he mounted and took a twelve-mile ride. Then he returned to the hotel, where he made a brief address to the people and presented diplomas to the graduates of the Flagstaff school.

"It was from Arizona," said the president in opening his address, "that so many gallant men came into the regiment that I had the honor to command. Arizona sent men who won glory on hard-fought fields, and men to whom came a glorious and an honorable death fighting for the flag of their country. As long as I live it will be to me an inspiration to have served with 'Bucky' O'Neill."

The president also paid a compliment to Governor Brodie, who was a member of his regiment and who introduced him to the audience.

Speaks of Grand Canyon.

Speaking of the grand canyon, the president said he believed it was absolutely unparalleled in the world.

"I want to ask you to do one thing in connection with it," he said. "In your own interest and the interest of all the country, keep this great wonder of nature as it now is. I hope you won't have a building of any kind to mar the wonderful grandeur and sublimity of the canyon.

"You cannot improve upon it. The ages have been at work on it and man can only mar it. Keep it for your children and your children's children and all who come after you, as one of the great sights for Americans to see."

The president also extended a word of greeting to the Indians, a number of whom were in the crowd.

"Some of them were in my regiment," he said. "They were good enough to fight and die and they are good enough for me to treat as squarely as any white man. There are a great many problems in connection with them. You have got to save them from corruption, from brutality, and I regret to say, at times we have to save them from certain eastern philanthropy."

He spent the remainder of the afternoon inspecting the canyon and at 5:30 o'clock received the members of his old regiment in his car. At 8 o'clock his train left for California.

Emperor Leaves Rome.

Rome, May 7.—The people of Rome gave the German emperor a touching farewell on his departure Wednesday. They seemed to want to show their appreciation of all his manifestations of friendship, which have had the effect of making him extremely popular. The streets from the Quirinal to the railroad station were lined with many thousands of people, cheering, waving handkerchiefs and shouting "Long live William." After several unmistakably affectionate embraces between King Victor Emmanuel and the emperor the latter sprang upon the platform of the car and the train moved away, amid repeated rounds of applause, while the band played the German hymn.

Will Sail May 19.

Washington, May 7.—Messrs. Hanna, Jenkins and Conant, who compose the commission which will represent the United States at the international monetary conference, will sail from New York for London on May 19. While enroute the commission will map out a detailed program for the work which takes them to Europe. After a stay in London the commission will visit Berlin, Paris, St. Petersburg and the Hague, where conferences will be held with the officials who have to do with the colonial possessions of the several governments. The commission hopes to be able to return to the United States not later than Oct. 1.

Monument to Noted Mason.

Portland, Me., May 7.—A monument erected to the memory of Josiah H. Drummond, who was a past grand master of the general grand chapter and general grand council of the United States, and a honorary member of supreme council of the northern jurisdiction of Masons of the United States, was unveiled by the grand lodge of Maine at Evergreen cemetery Wednesday. Subscriptions for the monument were received from many parts of the world.

Once Millionaire—Died in Poverty.

New York, May 7.—Colonel Asa P. Stanford, 81 years old, a brother of the late Senator Leland Stanford of California, died here Wednesday. Colonel Stanford has been ailing for the last four years and his death was due to nervous prostration and heart failure. At one time the deceased was a millionaire, but according to his second wife, who survives him, he died in almost absolute poverty.

His Arm Torn Off.

Traverse City, Mich., May 7.—By the catching of his sleeve in a planer at the Wells-Higman basket factory, Fred Pilsher, aged 21, lost an arm, the member being torn from the shoulder.

BUT NINE FRIENDS

Has the Colby Primary Election Bill in the Senate.

CONCUR IN A SUBSTITUTE

Special Order For May 12—Nip and Tuck With the Opposition—Bill Abolishing Deputy Game Warden Office Passes Senate.

Lansing, Mich., May 7.—The Colby-Powell-Stone primary election reform bill, which passed the house by a vote of 79 to 13, had just nine friends in the senate. A compromise measure, giving a fair portion of primary reform, will be found to have almost twice as many friends, howbeit possibly not enough to give it effect in the upper house.

The cannonading in the upper house was begun Wednesday afternoon when Senator Charles C. Simons of Detroit, in a speech that thrilled and stilled the enemies of primary reform, told why he refused to concur in the substitute offered by the committee, on elections. The ammunition was all with the friends of the Colby bill, but the strength was with the opposition. Before the vote was taken the enemies of the bill had ceased to defend themselves against the unflagging assault and sat stolidly back in their chairs conscious of their power in numbers, if not in debate. The vote on concurring in the substitute resulted as follows:

For—Baird, Cannon, Curtis, Doherty, Glasgow, Glazier, Goodell, Jones, Kelly, Lafamboy, Moffat, Moriarty, Sovereign, Sleeper, Smith, Van Aiken, Vaughn, Waterbury, Westover, Woodman and Fuller—21.

Against—Barnes, Burns, Cook, Farr, Lockerby, Scripps, Scullen, Simons, Weeks—9.

Brown and Baugham were not present.

The substitute was made the special order for Tuesday, May 12, at 3 p. m.

It is nip and tuck with the opposition in the upper house whether they will be able to have their own way or not. At least half a dozen senators who voted against the Colby bill will support a bill for the nomination of governor and members of the legislature by direct vote.

Adjournment In Sight.

The action taken by the senate at noon brings the date of adjournment in sight. The important measures of the house are almost cleaned up and business could be concluded in a day or two after the primary bills are out of the way.

The senate passed the bill raising salaries of Detroit justices of the peace from $2000 to $2,500 a year.

By a vote of 21 yeas to 6 nays the senate passed the bill to abolish the office of chief deputy game and fish warden, now held by Charles H. Brewster of Grand Rapids. The measure is now up to the governor.

The house Wednesday afternoon by 66 to 19 voted for the establishment of a new normal school in western Michigan. The bill has passed the senate, but was amended in the house to provide that the school must be erected on a site at least twenty acres in extent. The senate must concur in the amendment before the bill goes to the governor. The state board of education is to select the location, which several western Michigan towns are trying to get. The bill carries an appropriation of $37,000.

The house, in committee of the whole, agreed to the Colby bill, providing for the choice of candidates for United States senator by a direct voting system. Colby says the bill will get at least 75 votes in the house on third reading.

Combine Michigan Weather Stations.

Washington, May 7.—Secretary Wilson has approved a recommendation of Chief Moore of the weather bureau, to combine the government weather stations at Grand Haven and Lansing, Mich., into a large station to be located at Grand Rapids. The headquarters of the climate and crop reporting service of the state also has been established at Grand Rapids. Charles F. Snyder, who has been the section observer at Lansing, has been appointed in charge at Grand Rapids. The change is made in order to give better service to southwestern Michigan. Grand Haven will be continued as a storm signal display station for marine interests.

Both Given Heavy Sentences.

Detroit, Mich., May 7.—William Allor, charged with burglary of Fireman Tungkaus' house and assaulting the fireman's wife, was found guilty in Judge Phelan's court Wednesday and sentenced to serve twenty years in the Detroit house of correction. Arthur Kratz, Allor's accomplice, was sentenced to serve eight years at Jackson.

State Congregational Meeting.

Cadillac, Mich., May 7.—Cadillac is preparing to entertain the sixty-second annual meeting of the Home and Foreign Mission society of the Michigan Congregational association. The meeting will be held here Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 19, 20 and 21.

Howell Pioneer Dead.

Howell, Mich., May 7.—Charles Curtis, one of Howell's most prominent citizens, is dead. He has lived in Livingston county more than fifty years; has been vice-president of the State & Savings bank for a number of years and was one of the pillars in the Baptist church.

Derrick Broke—Two Men Killed.

Pittsburg, May 6.—By the breaking of a derrick boom at the southern end of the Mount Washington tunnel of the Wabash road Tuesday afternoon two men were killed and two others fatally hurt. The dead are: John Vallerio, aged 25 years, an Italian; Robert Byers, colored, aged 27. The injured are: Antonio Merdo, aged 34; I. Petrola, aged 40 years. The derrick was lifting a huge tub of cement when the derrick boom broke and the tub fell on Vallerio and Byers, killing them instantly. A piece of the boom then struck the other men, injuring them.

Charged With Assault.

Rapid City, Mich., May 6.—Benjamin Pickard has caused the arrest of Professor A. Tyner Woolpert, charging him with having taken liberties with his 13-year-old daughter Dottie. The alleged offense was committed two months ago, but the child had only just told her parents. Woolpert denies the accusation.

FOUNDERS IN A FOG

Fifteen American Fishermen Go Down to Watery Graves.

OFF COAST OF NOVA SCOTIA

Their Ship Lost on Ragged Rocks—High Seas Prevented the Seamen From Making a Landing—Three Men Manage to Reach Safety.

Canso, N. C., May 7.—The American fishing schooner Gloriana, Captain George Stoddard, of Gloucester, Mass., ran ashore during a thick fog on the cliffs at Whale Cove, near White Point Ledges, Tuesday night and fifteen of the crew, including the captain, were drowned, out of a total of eighteen. The survivors are John Richards, Eugene LeBlanc and Frank Nickerson.

The drowned are: Captain George Stoddart of Gloucester, Armsworth Thomas, Eli Manson, Ansel Goodwin, Reuben Surrette, Harry French, Fred Doucette, Thomas Frasier, George V. Mulsee, Martin Goodwin, Alex Benson, Charles Pierce, John Moulsong, Arthur Bonaghan, one unknown.

The Gloriana left the northeast bar of Sable Island Tuesday afternoon, bound for Canso. There was a heavy easterly gale blowing, with thick fog. The vessel was kept under short sail and it is presumed that Captain Stoddart believed he had plenty of sea room. When the Gloriana struck on the ledges she passed over the outer bar but brought up on the inner reef, butted against a cliff of rocks and then fell off into the sea. When the vessel struck the cliff Richards, LeBlanc and Nickerson were on deck and they ran forward, rushed out on the bowsprit and climbed up the cliff of rocks to a place of safety before a receding wave carried the vessel off again. Others of the crew who were below rushed on deck half clad and started to lower the dories. As soon as each boat touched the water it was smashed into pieces.

Seas Broke Over the Vessel.

The high seas were breaking clean over the vessel and she swung broadside on the ledges and commenced pounding heavily. Lines were thrown ashore from the schooner several times, but they were either broken or torn from their fastenings on the rocks by the surging of the vessel. Four of the crew jumped overboard and attempted to swim ashore, but they were caught in the breakers, dashed against the rocks and killed in the attempt. The others who were on the vessel took to the rigging and clung there while their strength lasted but the heavy seas were more than they could battle against, and one by one they were swept away. The three men on the rocks could see their companions clinging to the rigging and hear their shouts for help above the roar of the sea, but it was impossible to do anything to save them. The three survivors spent a terrible night on the cliffs.

One Man Clung to Rigging.

When daylight dawned they saw one man still clinging to the rigging and made their way to the mainland for assistance. The shore folk hurried to the scene of the wreck and the man was taken from the rigging, but he was dead.

The place where the Gloriana was wrecked is one of the most dangerous on the Nova Scotia coast. It is less than a mile from where the steamer Blaamanden was totally wrecked last year, and only a half mile from the scene of the wreck of the steamer Tiber in February, 1902, when twenty-two lives were lost.

Chloroformed and Robbed.

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 7.—A dispatch from Ponce says Charles Jacobs, a shoe salesman, representing A. J. Bates & Co. of New York, was chloroformed in his bed at the Hotel Francis, Ponce, Monday night and was robbed of $1,000, clothes and jewelry by a man who was hidden in his bedroom. The sum of $800 in checks was subsequently found in the street, but the $200 in gold and other property are missing with the thief.

Killed Himself in Jail.

Cleveland, May 7.—Ludwig Sedlasky, a prisoner in the county jail charged with the murder of Anna Heffner and the serious wounding of her husband, committed suicide in his cell by hanging. Sedlasyk was indicted for murder in the second degree and his trial began Monday. Sedlasyk boarded with the Heffners and had trouble with them over money matters, as a result of which he shot Mrs. Heffner.

Auto Went Mile in 1:02.

Cleveland, May 7.—Alexander Winton, in a trial run with his gasoline automobile, "Bullet II," has covered a mile at the Glenville track in one minute and two seconds, or one-fourth of a second better than the world's record. Winton will enter the 300-mile race with this machine for the Gordon-Bennett international cup in Ireland July 2 next.

Bubonic Plague Increasing.

Washington, May 7.—The state department has received a cablegram from United State Consul-General McWade at Canton, saying that bubonic plague is increasing in Canton, Shuntak, Honan, Yeoungkong and Yuengshan. The famine is increasing in Kwangsi and an American missionary reports that the body of a victim had been eaten.

Negroes in State Convention.

Montgomery, Ala., May 7.—The Republican party of Alabama held a state convention Wednesday, in which negroes, who had been denied admission to former state conferences, were invited to participate. About 100 negroes took seats upon one side of the hall, with the white delegation upon the other. Only registered voters were admitted to seats.

Back Broken by Falling Slate.

Bay City, Mich., May 6.—Alexander Sardinski, miner at the Pittsburg diggings, is lying at Mercy hospital with a broken back, having been caught under a chunk of falling slate while at work. His death is liable to occur at any time.

MODERN WOODMEN.

State Camp is in Full Swing at Owosso.

Owosso, Mich., May 7.—The meeting of the Modern Woodmen's state camp is in full swing and the city is crowded with representatives and visitors. Besides the delegates about 400 other Woodmen are present.

The convention opened at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the Armory. Mayor A. L. Arnold made an address of welcome, to which State Consul A. M. Fleishhauer responded. There was little other business at the forenoon session.

The secretary's report showed that during the past two years there has been a gain in this state of 11,000 in membership. In Illinois, the Woodmen's home state, they have a membership of 130,000.

The election of the delegates to the head camp, the culminating struggle of the convention, will take place on Thursday afternoon, and the state consul and state secretary will also be chosen at that time.

Owosso camp No. 1003, M. W. A., gave a banquet to the visitors last evening in the Armory.

Lost His Life For Beer.

Bay City, Mich., May 7.—Because he and some companions took by force beer denied them by the woman in charge, David Trombley of West Bay City was shot and instantly killed and Harry Schindehette was slightly wounded at Wisner, Tuscola county. Mrs. Alson Roworth, who did the shooting, is the wife of the proprietor of a summer resort. The men had been in the resort in the afternoon and returned in the absence of Roworth and demanded more liquor, which was refused on the ground that they already had enough. Declaring that they would take it themselves, they forced an entrance, and Trombley seized some bottles of beer. Mrs. Roworth grabbed a gun and began beating the man with it. In the fracas the weapon was discharged, taking effect in Trombley's neck, a few scattering shot hitting Schindehette. Mrs. Roworth gave herself up to the authorities at Unionville.

Trapper's Strange Mania.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 7.—A Norwegian, who has just paid a fine of $50 and $15 costs for shooting deer out of season, is a puzzle to the game department, which has other charges against him. The man is a trapper, whose hut is near Floodwood, Dickinson county, and his trial disclosed the fact that for more than a year past not only has he killed every deer he has been able to hit, but that he leaves the carcasses on the ground, taking neither hide nor meat. It is estimated that he has killed forty deer the past year.

D. A. R. at Lansing.

Lansing, Mich., May 7.—The third annual state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held here Wednesday. The delegates were entertained by the local chapter at the home of Mrs. Charles C. Hopkins. At the first business session yesterday an address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. Charles M. Turner, regent of Lansing chapter, and responded to by Mrs. W. J. Chittenden of Detroit, state regent.

Mausoleum For Pingree.

Detroit, Mich., May 7.—Ex-Governor Hazen S. Pingree's remains are to find their last resting place in a family mausoleum that is now being erected by Mrs. Pingree in Woodlawn cemetery. The foundations have been laid and the mausoleum, which is to be a handsome granite structure to cost about $10,000, will be completed in about two months.

Body Scattered Along Track.

McBain, Mich., May 7.—David Osborn, known as "Shoot the Cat," was killed some time during the night by an Ann Arbor train two miles south of this place. He was seen intoxicated at 9 p. m. The body was scattered thirty rods along the track. He was 40 years old and his parents live in Detroit.

Holbrook's Trial Postponed.

Lansing, Mich., May 7.—Prosecuting Attorney McArthur has consented to a postponement of the trial of Ex-Senator John Holbrook, charged with attempting to bribe the Sutton jury, until the September term of the circuit court.

Both Legs Cut Off.

Bay City, Mich., May 7.—Frank Rogers, a pupil in the Bay City high school, attempted to jump on a Pere Marquette train to ride to school, a distance of only two blocks. He missed his footing and fell under the train, both legs being cut off.

Starving In Guayaquil.

Kingston, Jamaica, May 7.—A number of Jamaican laborers who were taken to Ecuador by the J. P. McDonald company, the American contractors engaged in the construction of the Guayaquil-Quito, to work on the line are reported to be starving at Guayaquil. They have petitioned the Jamaican government to send them home, and the governor of Jamaica has authorized the British minister to Ecuador to send the men back at the expense of the colony.

Many Persons Injured in Riot.

London, May 7.—A dispatch to the Central News from St. Petersburg says a riot occurred Monday in connection with the strike of seamen at Kronstadt. Infantry was called out and clashed with the strikers. Two hundred and sixty-two persons were injured.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by all druggists.

A Startling Test

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for dyspepsia, indigestion constipation and kidney trouble. Try them. Only 50c at C. A. Wright's.

Few men are brilliant enough to make it necessary for us to use smoked glass while looking at them.

Mr. Joseph Pominville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by all druggists.

Father Walser Not Retained For Murder of Agatha Reichlin.

CORONER RENDERS A VERDICT

Victim Was Killed by an Unknown Person—Fr. Walser, With Moistened Eyes, Expresses Thanks — Mayor King Makes a Statement.

Elyria, O., May 6.—At the end of a rather complete investigation into the cause of the death of Agatha Reichlin, who was murdered last Thursday night, Coroner French of this county last evening gave as his conclusion the verdict: "That Agatha Reichlin came to her death from wounds inflicted by a stone in the hands of a person unknown." The conclusion reached by the coroner resulted in the freeing of Fr. Walser.

Lorain, O., May 6.—Father Ferdinand Walser, arrested last Saturday morning in connection with the murder of Agatha Reichlin, was brought to this city last night from the county jail at Elyria and discharged from the charge of murder, which was placed against him at that time. Mayor King went through the formality of reading the warrant for Walser's arrest and his attorney, E. G. Johnson, entered a plea of not guilty. Prosecuting Attorney Stroup, addressing his honor, said in substance:

"After having listened to the evidence presented at the inquest, I can see that there is not sufficient evidence to hold the defendant. The action taken on the part of the officers in arresting Fr. Walser has been in accordance with their duty."

Mayor King's Statement.

Mayor King then stated that as the prosecuting attorney had remarked there was not sufficient evidence to hold the accused, and "I have nothing to do but discharge him from custody. The prosecutor and myself thought the arrest of Fr. Walser necessary for his protection, that he might be safe from any attack that the excited people might make upon him. Who killed Agatha Reichlin no one knows but the murderer himself and his God."

Fr. Walser arose, and with moistened eyes addressed Mayor King, saying in part:

"You cannot say a word against me, you have hurt me a great deal. Agatha Reichlin is the last person I would have killed; I can't kill anybody. I could not kill a chicken. I thank the officials for their courtesies extended me. I thank all Catholics in general and the people of St. Mary's and St. Joseph's churches in particular."

Fr. Reichlin, brother of the murdered girl, listened attentively to the proceedings, and upon adjournment of court was the first to approach Fr. Walser with a hearty handshake.

Conductor Prevented Tragedy.

Lexington, Ky., May 6.—By locking Tom Cockrell in the negro compartment of the smoking car Tuesday, the conductor of a L. & N. eastbound train prevented a meeting between the sole survivor of the Cockrells, a young man not far in his twenties, and Alex. Hargis. Cockrell killed Ben Hargis about one year ago, when the Hargis-Cockrell feud was especially bitter. Realizing instantly that a meeting would probably mean a tragedy, the conductor locked Cockrell in the negro compartment at Walker Creek, a small flag station. Cockrell sprang from the window of this coach, leaped behind the depot and secured rest for his pistol, covering the line of windows in the coaches. Hargis was not in sight as the train passed on. Whether Cockrell intended to be the aggressor or to be on the defensive in his actions cannot be stated.

Acquitted of Arson.

Muskegon, Mich., May 6.—Mort Kratz, accused of burning the steamer Ida by his jealous sweetheart, Anna Trost, has been acquitted. The boat was burned in September, 1901, and the woman said he had confessed being the incendiary to her.

Fire Destroyed a School.

Three Rivers, Mich., May 6.—Fire Tuesday morning destroyed that portion of the building occupied by Professor C. H. Sage's Commercial College and Normal School, involving a heavy loss, upon which but $2,000 insurance was carried.

Young College Man Missing.

Cambridge, Mass., May 6.—William Whitfell, a Harvard senior and substitute guard on last year's 'varsity eleven, has been missing from college since Feb. 27. His whereabouts are unknown.

Three Men Charged With Murder.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 4.—John Masulis, a resident of Plymouth, who was held up at an early hour on Wednesday morning by four members of the notorious Bull Run gang and beaten in a most horrible manner, is dead. In his dying declaration he implicated Thomas Thomas, John McDermott, David Thomas and Charles Edwards as the assassins. They were all arrested and are now in the county prison charged with the murder.

Wounded Brother—Killed Himself.

Nelsonville, O., May 4.—At Sand Run, a mining village five miles north of Nelsonville, Charles Dunkle probably fatally wounded his brother, John Dunkle, the result of a quarrel. Believing his brother to be dead, Charles shot himself in the head and died almost instantly. The wounded brother is reported to be dying. Both men were miners.

Killed in the Mine.

Bessemer, Mich., May 4.—John Ellard, a German miner, was killed and Gust Hill, a Finlander, was seriously injured by a powder explosion at the Mikado mine.

The Walking Fern.

The walking fern has a most original way of getting over the ground. It bends its slender frond and starts a root by extending the tip of the midrib. So it sets up a new plant and is anchored fast on all sides by its rooted frond tips, covering the ground with a rich carpet of verdure. The variety of runners along the ground is as great as the climber. All motion of the plant is a form of growth. The plant grows by day and by night, but more by day, as light and heat are incentives to growth.—Youth.

Counterpane.

The word "counterpane" is a corruption of "counterpoint," which is itself a corruption of the Latin term "culcita," which means a wadded wrapper or quilt. When the stitches were arranged in patterns, it was called "culcita puncta," which in French became "courte pointe," corrupted into "contra pointe, counterpont," where point is pronounced "poyn," corrupted into "pane."

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Council chamber, village of Tecumseh. Special meeting held April 27, '03.

Present, President Smith, Clerk Moore, Trustees Heck, James, Marsh, Smith, Wright and Wagner.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

The following petition signed by eight merchants was presented.

"We the undersigned, respectfully petition your honorable body to take action in regard to the Detroit Southern and the D. T. & M. railway companies and try to have them stop blocking the streets for more than the lawful time. They are in the habit of standing their trains for 15, 30 and sometimes 40 minutes at a time, so that our delivery wagons can't get through to the south side of the tracks, which is a great inconvenience to us." Resolved, by Trustee James, that a notice be served on the Detroit Southern and D., T. & M. railway companies to heed the laws of the state in this capacity or action would be taken against them. Carried.

Resolved, by Trustee James, that the clerk be instructed to write the Chief Engineer of the L. S. & M. S. railway company and accept their proposition of leasing a sufficient portion of their land on the D. T. & M. railroad so that village coal shed will not encroach on the land of the D. T. & M. company.

Several accounts were presented and referred to the finance committee.

The following accounts were referred back by finance committee with recommendation that they be paid.

The Tecumseh Electric Co.	$203 00
Paynes Book Binding	5 50

On motion the Clerk was instructed to draw orders for the amounts.

Resolved, by Trustee James, that notices be served on Mrs. Robert Stretch, J. C. Satterthwaite est., L. M. VanTyne, Geo. Zeluff, Mrs. A. L. Millis and Mrs. Jennie Hall to rebuild or repair sidewalks as recommended by marshal. Carried.

Resolved, by Trustee Wright, that the bond of J. J. Orr with Thomas Elliott and L. G. North as sureties, be accepted. Yeas, Heck, James, Marsh, Smith, Wagner and Wright.

Resolved, by Trustee James, that the liquar dealer's bond of Walter Lowry with Eugene Service and Thomas Lowry as sureties be accepted. Yeas, Heck, James, Marsh, Smith, Wagner and Wright.

Resolved, by Trustee Smith that the liquor dealer's bond of Eugene Wickoff with Fred Kolkloesch and George Teachout as sureties, be accepted. Yeas, Heck, James, Marsh, Smith, Wayner and Wright.

Resolved, that the matter relative to amending ordinance regulating board of water commissioners, be referred to ordinance committee. Carried.

Resolved, that the matter of allowing Tecumseh band use of room adjacent to council room, be referred to committee on public grounds and buildings. Carried.

Resolved, that ordinance committee draft an ordinance to prohibit tacking signs on telephone and electric light poles in the village. Yeas, Heck, James, Marsh, Smith, Wright and Wagner.

President Smith named Alfred James, member of water board of commissioners, in place of M. A. Zimmerman resigned, and Frank D. Avery, member of cemetery board.

Resolved, that the appointments be confirmed. Carried.

On motion the council adjourned.

HARRY C. MOORE,
Village Clerk.

For Your Vacation Trip.

The Yellowstone Park, the nation's playground, is larger than the State of Delaware and nearly twice as large as Rhode Island. As in size it exceeds all other national parks of the world combined, so in grandeur and scenery it is unequaled. Here are located the eight great geysers of the world. Mount Washburne, one of the peaks in the park, has an altitude of 10,388 feet. The whole park is an area of wonders unparalleled. It is from 1,000 to 5,000 feet above the level of the sea and is therefore within the zone of two seasons.

But to really know this wonderland you should take a trip through there. You cannot spend a vacation season more profitably or more pleasantly. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway offers choice of routes to and from Yellowstone Park. If you are interested, complete information about the cost of the trip, choice of routes, train service and tickets will be furnished on request.

IN OLDEN TIMES

Today the Herald will print the fifth article on

OLD TECUMSEH

And it will be read with interest.

March 3d, 1864, the HERALD says, editorially, "It seems strange to say the spring has commenced for we have not yet had any winter except for a few days about the first of January and again early in February which were extremely cold. Without winter and without sleighing we do not seem ready yet for Spring's rapid advent. * * * So far as Tecumseh is concerned it bids fair to prove a season of unusual business activity. Notwithstanding the high price of labor and materials there is more building contracted to go up here this spring than has been attempted in any one season for many years before. The Baptist society are gathering together the materials for their new church at the corner of Union and Chicago streets, and also on the lot next east of that upon Chicago street, the materials are being collected together for a new dwelling house, to be put up by Messrs. Murray and Temple the present season, as well as two other dwellings in the east part of town by the same builders. Mr. Salmon Crane is also hurrying up a house for our friend, E. B. Wood Esq., and how many others we cannot tell. The Presbyterian society at a regulary called meeting for that purpose on Tuesday evening took a formal vote to build a new church and to proceed at once to take the necessary steps toward carrying out that purpose and directed a committee to procure, if possible, propositions for the purchase of a suitable site.

Petitions are also pouring into the Common Council for the laying of new sidewalks upon streets where they do not already exist, although we have already more good plank walks in this village, than there is in any village of its size with which we are acquainted in the state, and let us not forget to plant an addition to our forest and evergreen shade trees. This is a mode of ornamenting and improving our village, so cheap as to be within the reach of every one, to do at least something that will last not only for the present, but will pass down to future generations and be to them still more than to us a source of comfort and lasting pleasure."

Largely to the appeals of the HERALD there is this generation debtor for the comfortable shaded streets of our town. Our numerous plank walks were a scource of pride to the enterprising editor, but even his progressive spirit and prophetic vision had never dreamed of anything in the way of village improvemens so startling as Johnny Green with his cement walks and patent sifter to aid in their construction. Our village fathers indeed sought to make this a Eutopia in various ways, and at this period public sentiment was very much aroused on the saloon question.

At a public meeting resolutions were adopted denouncing the liquor traffic in all its forms and viewing with alarm the advent of a billiard room into our midst which had the audacity to paint boldly upon its windows a sign telling of the amusement within. It is stated at this meeting, over which P. R. Adams presided, that it has for some time been known to many persons that such a place was in existence here, but kept somewhat in the dark, or not seen fit publicly to proclaim itself. Your committee are constrained to call your attention to this evil, taking deep root and expanding itself in our village by its influence and effects demoralizing a portion of our community and indirectly leading them into habits of idleness, gambling and intemperance.

This evil only exists by indifference. It has been long prohibited by our law. In our compiled laws are recorded its prohibition and punishment. The penalty for keeping a billiard table on your premises, for the purpose of, or the letting it be played on, for hire is $100 and the players are subject to $2 as a penalty for each game." It is well for their peace of mind that when they saw us walking in the shade of those trees they planted forty years ago, they could not see our amusements, their children's children setting up pins for candy and cigars and their grand-daughter's daughters playing progressive pedro or "bridge."

On Monday last was held one of the most hotly contested elections ever held in this village. The issue was not a political one, but simply one of Temperance or anti-temperance." The result was satisfactory to the temperance people. The following are the corporation officers elected: For president, Horace Brewer; Trustees, S. C. LeBaron, Albert Anderson, Robert Culbertson, Geo. Curtis, William Haydon; Recorder, E. B. Wood; Treasurer, Thomas Cummins; Marshall, Jarius P. Slayton; Assessors, Alonzo Murray, Moses Wright.

The students of the Union school will give an exhibition in Bidwell's Hall, Wednesday, Mar. 23, 1864, admission 15 cents. "It is perhaps a new feature to demand an entrance fee at a school exhibition. Our reasons are briefly as follows: For many years natural philosophy, one of the most important branches taught in our school has been pursued without the aid of apparatus. From this want the recitations of large classes have been deprived of their greatest attraction and the study has been made purely theoretical, whereas with suitable apparatus it might be made eminently practical. The funds received at this exhibition will be used to procure such apparatus."

Next edition announces $100 to be the receipts of the exhibition. At a meeting of the new village board Harris Hyde was appointed street commissioner. Maple sugar is announced as legal tender for the HERALD and quoted at 25c a pound, but butter is "up" and the editor says "Who can afford to eat the greasy stuff much longer. We used to think it a tolerably fair palate tickler but have made up our mind that it don't amount to much after all. It is now retailing in our market at 30c to 33c a pound and the balloon being inflated there is no telling when and where it will stop. There is no good reason for this extravagant rise. There is at present plenty of butter in the country, and the prospects for the future are to say the least fair. The price of no article can be controlled for any great length of time against reason and we shall expect to see some of the less cute operators get sorely oit before they get through with this attempt, (were there no trusts in sight at this period.)

People of ordinary means can't afford to use butter at present prices, and they shouldn't try. We go in for an Anti-butter-eating-society." Among the locals we find, "Charley Blood told us last week to insert his marriage notice" which gives the editor an opportunity to be funny and poetical in the following rhyme:

"Six dollars to printer and priest
No sensible man can refuse
Five dollars to render him blest
And one to publish the news."

ROUND ABOUT US.

At the Lenawee now it is a common occurrence to see four generations around the family table of Landlord Whitney and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lawrence, parents of Mrs. Whitney; Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, parents of Mrs. Lena Mead and her son a child of two years. The great grand parents bear their honors with a degree of pride equaled only by that of the grand parents, and all endeavor to merit the good will of the youngster at his meals. —Adrian Press.

The present game and fish protection laws of the state make the closed season for the black bass from April 1 to May 20, it being assumed that the fish are protected spawning season. Whoever is responsible for this knew little about black bass, as they do not spawn until May 15, or even later. An amendment has been handed to Rep. Hunt making the closed season from May 15 to June 15. He has promised to get it before the committee.

The Michigan Central yard engine which went over the Windsor slip into the river last winter, because of an open switch, was finally brought to the surface Wednesday from the mud of the river bottom. In raising the engine the heavy chains broke, badly injuring one of the workmen named Sidney Smith. New claims were immediately harpooned around the monster, and it was at last brought safely to land. The engine is in pretty bad shape from its long hibernation in the river bottom, but it will be taken to the St. Thomas shops for reconstruction.—Detroit Journal.

The Passenger Department of the Chicago & North-Western Railway has issued a very interesting folder on the subject of the Christian Endeavor meeting to be held at Denver, July 9th to 13th, together with information as to reduced rates and sleeping car service, as well as a short description of the various points of interest in Colorado usually visited by tourists. Send 2-cent stamp to W. B. Kniskern, Passenger Traffic Manager, Chicago, for copy.

8 Cents

Eight cents a pound is what a young woman paid for twelve pounds of flesh.

She was thin and weak and paid one dollar for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion, and by taking regular doses had gained twelve pounds in weight before the bottle was finished.

Eight cents a pound is cheap for such valuable material. Some pay more, some less, some get nothing for their money. You get your money's worth when you buy Scott's Emulsion.

We will send you a little free.

THE FAMOUS OPTICIAN of Detroit,

The eye, when properly cared for affords the keenest delight because of the pleasures we are able to enjoy through its medium. When not cared for and its warnings are unheeded, it becomes an instrument of torture. Headaches, eye pains, burning, itching Sensation, strained vision, nervous troubles and many bodily ills are the results accruing from over worked eyes, eyes that need help. My examination reveals all hidden troubles, and it is my province to fit the right glasses to any and all defects of vision.

Those from out of town who attended were, Misses Mable and Gertrude Raymond, of Macon; Miss Jessie Hitchcock, of Temperance; Fred Mecha, Roy and George Starkey, of Toledo and Leon Bailey, of Ann Arbor. The bride and groom leave tomorrow for their home in Wheeling, W. V., where Ernest has a position as clerk in a bank. Good wishes of Mr. Mize's boyhood friends attend them.

COMPLAINT

Has been made to The Herald

BY NO LESS THAN FOUR

Different People

That of late so many different merchants of Tecumseh put so many goods on the sidewalk that it is impossible to pass along in front of the stores, especially at night and when the usual Saturday night crowd gets in there seems to be room for nothing except the goods. These four people desire that the HERALD should stir the matter up or soon there will be no room for the people on the side walk at all.

He claims that there is a Tecumseh ordinance which prohibits goods of any kind on the walk to extend more than three feet in front of the store. This include signs on the walk or anything in that line. This man also claims that merchants have three hours only to unload goods on the walk and that after that time all goods and boxes must be removed. He also quotes that there is also an ordinance prohibiting the putting up of a sign that extends into the street more than three feet. If there are such ordinances in effect it is the business of the marshal to order all goods removed from the walk that in any way obstrust them, and all signs on the walk or above the business places if they are put too far into the street, removed.

If there are no such ordinances all the merchants should do as they like about signs and display of goods on the walk and the HERALD will shut up, no matter how many people complain.

But one thing is certain, one merchant has the same moral right as another and, no doubt, all of them desire to do the right thing if they know what is the right thing to do. While stirring up the marshal it might be well to state that a number of people have lately commenced riding bicycles on the sidewalks and an arrest or two would put an immediate stop to this. The HERALD thinks it would do no harm to allow people to ride on the walks during the winter months but as the law says no either keep off the walks or change the law.

John W. Vogel's Big Minstrels.

At the opera house Wednesday, May 13, marks the fourth annual appearance of John W. Vogel's Big Minstrels in Tecumseh. The organization is a large one and comprises the foremost artists in the minstrel sphere and the world of novelties. Arthur Rigby is a principal comedian of the company, and we are pleased to note that as a star he shines more brilliantly than ever. Arthur is the prince of good fellows and possibly has more friends than any comedian on the minstrel stage. As a performer he is brilliant, refined [illegible] bears the distinction [illegible] only end men who is free from all vulgarity, has a splendid voice, is graceful in action, in short, we consider him one of the most artistic black-face comedians now before the public. Rigby's associates are hardly less clever than himself, for Manager Vogel seems to have had first choice when selecting the corps of artists found with this clever company.

The scenery and effects are on a grander scale than is generally seen with a minstrel show, the first part being spoken of as a veritable eye feast.

Will Study at Naples.

The Board of Regents of the University of Michigan at their April meeting granted leave of absence for the year 1903-04 to Dr. Herbert S. Jennings, assistant professor of zoology. Dr. Jennings will spend the year at the International Zoological Station at Naples, Italy, in prosecuting investigations on the behavior of the lower organisms, containing researches on which he has been engaged for some years. For the furtherance of this work the Carnegie Institution has made a grant of $1,000 in addition to the sum of $950 granted last fall, together with the use for the year of one of the tables maintained by the Institution at the Naples Zoological Station. Dr. Jennings expects to leave for Italy at the close of the summer session in August.

Mrs. Jennings was formerly Miss Mary Burridge, sister of Chas. Burridge of this village.

A Credit to Adrian.

Last week I was in Adrian one afternoon and took supper at the New Lenawee hotel. Dwight Whitney is making of this hotel a model place to stop or get meals. It is clean and neat and well run, facts that have not been true of Adrian for many years.

Besides this I saw in the dining room that evening, four generations of people sitting at the same table. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Whitney and Mr. and Mrs. Whitney's daughter and grandchild. So it may be seen that our friend, Dwight Whitney, not only runs a good hotel, is the same good natured chap as of old and keeps beside him three generations of the family that no one may be forgotten.

Chase & Sanborn's Sign.

On the west window of Avery & Co.'s store has recently been put a translucent sign of Chase & Sanborn's coffee. It is a beautiful piece of work and quite a novelty. These signs are made in Germany and can be read from either front or back view. Quite an addition to the store.

AN ADDRESS

To all Christian People Concerning the Kingdom of God.

"Jehovah shall be King over all the earth in that day," Zech 14:9.

It will be an everlasting Kingdom, a universal empire throughout all the earth, for we are told, the earth abideth forever, and also that there shall be princes (rulers) throughout all the earth, and that they shall shine forth as the stars forever when the Kingdom shall be perfected and turned over by the Son to the Father.

In God's repeated promise to restore and bless mankind after they had come under the just penalty of sin, there is also an expression of his purpose to establish a kingdom and a ruler with might and dominion, by whom and through whom God will accomplish the great work of restoring and blessing for which mankind have been kept in expectation and hope for six thousand years. God's mode of procedure and preparation for establishing the Kingdom is a part of the mystery of God kept hidden from ages and from generations.

When Jesus came as a babe to Bethlehem the Gospel age began, so also did the development of the Christ, the anointed, which includes the development of his body, the Church; and all the years of the Gospel age have been required for the secret hidden plan of God to seek out the full, complete number of the members of that body. And so as the mystery unfolds we find that God ordained before the world unto our glory, to raise up not only a Deliverer, but a Deliverer composed of many members.

Jesus said to his immediate followers and to the consecrated believers of the Gospel age, "I appoint unto you a kingdom as my Father hath appointed unto Me, that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones judging (ruling) the twelve tribes of Israel." In this statement we have an assurance of a Heavenly or spiritual kingdom of rulership, and an earthly human dominion to be ruled and governed.

The spiritual kingdom will be everywhere present and everywhere powerful, but nowhere visible. The establishment of this phase of the Kingdom is far advanced and when the last or feet members of the body of Christ are "changed in a twinkling" to glorified spirit beings, great events will follow, because the Holy City, Zion, which John saw coming down from God will be complete. Perhaps the very first event will be the resurrection of all the people of God who have gone into death and who have gotten no farther as Christians than the life of justification by faith. These all will enter into and have a sore severe trial in the Day of Judgment; these all will miss the highest prize of the high calling of God; these all have avoided the narrow, thorny, rugged way of life by coquetting with the world: these are they who have not their lamps trimmed and burning and are not ready to enter in to the marriage supper of the Lamb. These will be known as the great blood-washed throng serving God in his temple and round about his throne.

To have "lamps trimmed and burning" is only another expression for being "sealed in the forehead" with the light of the knowledge of present truth. This sealing this knowledge comes only to the wise, as it is written, "the wise shall understand." The parable of the wise and foolish virgins is a figure of the entire spiritual phase of the Kingdom. The wise virgins are saints, of whom it is said, "they shall be mine in that day when I come to make up my jewels." These have their judgment day in this life, being counted by the world, "fools," for Christ's sake. The foolish virgins are the "unripe wheat," justified by faith and have peace with God, but have gotten no further in the divine life, and have not an intelligent appreciation of the riches of the glory of the inheritance of the saints.

THE CHURCHES.

Baptist church Sunday morning, "Equipment." Evening, "How the Devil helped a Saint."

At the Universalist the subject Sunday morning "Have women robbed men of their religion?" Evening, "The relation of Religion and Life."

On Sunday, May 10, at St. Peters Episcopal church Rev. C. C. Kemp will begin a course of sermons on "The Kingdom of God", the subject being "A Review of the Situation." The doctrine of the Kingdom of God is a thousand fold more important than any other subject before the church or the world at the present time and if you are interested you should not fail to attend this series of sermons. Mr. Kemp would be pleased to answer any questions and if you will place them on the plate or hand them to him they will receive his attention and he will answer them on the following Sunday. There will be special music by the vested choir and all are cordially invited to attend.

Morning subject at the Presbyterian church Sunday will be, "The Great Calling of the Diciples of Christ. Evening subject, "Aims of Life."

Sunday morning the pastor of the M. E. church will preach on the subject, The Christian Church Faithful or Unfaithful. Evening subject, How God's Truth effects the Diciple of Righteousness.

The Universalist Society.

Have secured Miss Harriett Baker of Manchester, to fill the pulpit every other Sunday and will commence her work here next Sabbath. For the first month services will be held morning and evening on the days she comes to Tecumseh, after that time in mornings only. Miss Baker has officiated several times in Tecumseh, is an able and pleasant speaker and very well liked by all who have heard her.

Did you ever notice that when you meet a doctor he says: "How are you?" A newspaper man inquires "What do you know?" But the lawyer hits you on the back and ejaculates "What have you got?" The preacher asks "Where are you going?" and that is the hardest to answer.—Ex.

ROUND ABOUT US.

A few months since county clerk Blum was applied to for a marriage license by a man who had previously been married. In giving the name he made mistake and gave the name of his deceased wife. The following day the genial clerk received a visit from the wife-to-be who was anxious to get matters righted.

An Indiana man thought he would scare his wife, so he kissed his children goodbye then went into a bedroom, locked the door and fired two revolver shots at the ceiling. Finally some neighbors came over and broke in the door, he looked for his wife among them but she had gone calling and knew nothing about the affair.—Ex.

It was reported on the streets Saturday morning that a colored girl had come from Ann Arbor and gone to one of the tenant houses of Warren Lewis and that she was sick with smallpox. Deputy Sheriff Redman and Supervisor Howe went there and quarantined the place. Dr. Mesic was called and he pronounced the case to be chicken pox.—Milan Leader.

Nearly two years have passed since the young lad at liberty, (Fish by name and a son of Erman Fish) took a gun upon his shoulder and started for Clarks Lake to have a tooth pulled. It was found he never had visited the lake and he failed to return. Searching parties were organized and the woods and swamps were thoroughly searched but no trace was ever found. He has long since been given up as dead but S. J. Fish the other day received a short letter from the boy. It contained little information as to his whereabouts since he ran away but stated that he is now at Montgomery City, Mo. This clears up quite a mystery as there have been many ideas advanced as to what became of him, some claiming that he had accidently shot himself, others that he had been made away with.—Ousted News.

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, pneumonia and consumption. Try it, It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright druggist. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c, $1.00.

BUDS AND FLOWERS OF HOME LIFE.

Paine's Celery Compound Makes and Keeps the Children Well and Strong.

Mothers Make It the Home Medicine For the Little Ones.

The children, God bless them, are the buds and flowers of our homes. Without their prattle and hearty laughter, our homes would be desolate. They should ever be carefully tended in childhood and youth, if we expect them to ripen into perfect men and women.

In the home and at school, the children have their times of ill health and suffering. We often note the pallid and bloodless cheeks, heavy eyes, nervous movements, and twitchings of limbs and muscles. They complain of headache, drowsiness, weariness, dyspepsia, and indigestion. All such symptoms and ailments mean that the seeds of disease will have a fast and firm hold, unless proper measures are taken to restore a perfect condition of health.

Thousands of wise and prudent parents have made their children happy, healthy, and vigorous by giving them nature's medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. In many severe and complicated cases, Paine's Celery Compound has restored health when the little ones were given up by physicians.

If your dear ones are not as hearty, strong, and rugged as they should be, try the health giving virtues of Paine's Celery Compound. It makes and keeps the children well.

ABSOLUTE FAITH.

You can Depend upon the Word of this Tecumseh Citizen.

He has had the experience.
He has thoroughly tested the article.
He found it as represented.
He has absolute faith in its merit.

Mr. Chas. Bartholomew, proprietor of the bicycle repair shop in the south eastern section of Tecumseh, says: "Some eighteen years ago the doctors said I had diabetes and that I could not live. I got better but I have been troubled ever since with the kidney secretions, particularly retention of the same which caused me considerable anxiety. I tried all kinds of medicines said to be good for kidney trouble but the annoyance still remained. Finally my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got them at C. A. Wright's drug store. They are splendid. They gave me more relief and acted quicker than any remedy I ever used. From my experience I can say they are a valuable remedy and I consistently recommend them."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Why doesn't some enterprising explorer advance the theory that the north pole isn't there.

NERVOUS HEADACHE BREEDS INSANITY.

Many a person's whole pleasure in life is ruined by the fear of nervous headaches. Any little excitement, no matter what, business or social, brings them on. The feet and hands grow cold, the head is hot, the eyes stiff, the temples throb, and only in the quiet of a darkened room is relief obtained. This condition must be checked or it means complete mental ruin. To those people Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills come as a blessing. They do not stop, they cure the headaches. They do not blanket, they build up. They put the nervous system in a strong, vigorous, sturdy condition—a condition that gives one resistive power and enables them to again enjoy life's pleasures.

Mrs. J. F. Burtch of Tecumseh, Mich., says: "I was troubled with severe nervousness and nervous headaches. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Chas. Wright's drug store and after using two boxes I can say I am cured, my nerves are again strong and steady and the headaches all gone and I feel well in every way. As a nerve and general tonic I think the medicine unequaled." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase M. D. are on every package.

It hurts you when you ask for the girl's hand and get the old man's boot.

"Watch the Kidneys."

"When they are affected, life is in danger," says Dr. Abernethy, the great English physician. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

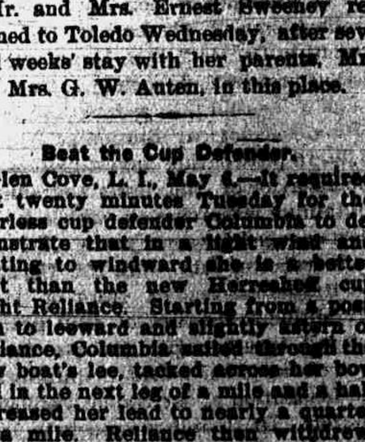
Beat the Cup Defender.

Glen Cove, L. I., May 6.—It required just twenty minutes Tuesday for the peerless cup defender Columbia to demonstrate that in a light wind and beating to windward she is a better boat than the new Herreshoff cup yacht Reliance. Starting from a position to leeward and slightly astern of Reliance, Columbia sailed through the new boat's lee, tacked across her bow and in the next leg of a mile and a half increased her lead to nearly a quarter of a mile. Reliance then withdrew. When the Columbia went through her lee the Reliance kept off and voluntarily gave up the advantage of her windward position, but she was none the less decisively and emphatically outsailed. This was the first brush between the rivals.



Nobility Recommends Nervine.

The above portrait is that of Countess Mogelstud, of Chicago, Ill., whose gratitude for the benefit received from the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine prompted her to make this statement:

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to the very excellent merits of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Although I am past 80 years of age I find it soothes the tired brain, quiets the irritated nerves and insures restful sleep. I never feel contented without a bottle of it in the house." Gratefully yours, CHRISTIANA MARIA, Countess Mogelstud.

ELECT OFFICERS.

Grand Encampment of Oddfellows in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., May 6.—The three links of Oddfellows, friendship, loyalty and truth, are being effectively exploited at the fifty-fifth annual session of the Michigan Grand Encampment now being held in this city. Yesterday's session was characterised by fraternal spirit characteristic of gatherings of the kind.

After a two hours' secret session in the convention hall of the Normandie the members of the department council announced the following officers elected: President, Thomas E. Robinson, Detroit; vice-president, Colonel E. H. Sellers, Detroit; secretary and adjutant-general, A. D. Black, Detroit; treasurer, Peter Betsing, Pontiac; officer of the day, W. G. Bogart, Alma; aide, O. H. Shaver, Grand Rapids; chaplain, J. Hendershot, Muskegon; guard, M. Thompson, Bay City; sentinel, S. H. Palmer, Detroit; picket, W. Imerson, Caro.

The secretary's report showed a membership of 842, divided among 26 cantons, making a gain of three cantons and 74 members for the year. A balance of $632 in the treasury, a gain of $273 over last year, was reported.

Rebels Secretly Murdered.

Victoria, B. C., May 6.—The steamer Olympia brings news that one of the leaders of the revolutionary movement during the last Chinese war was secretly assassinated in Hongkong and the corpse conveyed to Canton for the inspection of the authorities. The victim was a very prominent rebel leader surnamed Hung. It is suspected that other revolutionists who are missing were secretly murdered by emissaries of the Chinese government.

Struck Down With a Wrench.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 6.—James McGowan was assaulted in the engine room of the Benwood mill with a heavy wrench, wielded with such force that his skull was crushed. Death was almost instantaneous. Robert Ritchie, who had threatened to avenge a whipping given by McGovern to Ritchie's chiend, was arrested shortly after the murder and admitted having had a quarrel with McGovern. He is in jail at Moundsville.

AN EXCESS OF RAIN

Fell During the Month of April Says Monthly Crop Report.

WAS FAVORABLE FOR WHEAT

Farm Work Delayed—Three Per Cent of Wheat Will Be Plowed Under—Fruit Conditions Uncertain—Farm Labor is Scarce.

Lansing, Mich., May 11.—In the official monthly crop report Secretary of State Warner says the weather during April was favorable for wheat and grass. The average temperature was a little below normal, while the precipitation was largely in excess, being 4.66 inches, the greater part of which fell in the first half of the month. This wet weather delayed farm work materially.

The condition of wheat is about the same as one month ago. Some correspondents report fly, but as yet no great amount of damage has been done. The average condition in the state and southern counties is 89, central counties, 87, and northern counties 93. One year ago the condition was as follows: State, 82; southern counties, 80; central counties, 85; northern counties, 88.

The per cent of wheat sown that will be plowed up because winter killed in the state is 3.

The total number of bushels of wheat reported marketed by the farmers in April at mills is 145,[illegible] and at elevators [illegible]8,923, a total of [illegible]. The total marketed in the nine months, August-April, is 3,201,431, which is 420,576 bushels more than reported marketed in the same months last year.

Meadows and Pastures.

The condition of meadows and pastures in the state is 94; in the southern counties 95, in the central counties 93, and in the northern counties 92. The acreage of clover sown in the state and southern counties, as compared with 1902, is 93, in the central counties 93, and in the northern counties 96. The acreage of clover that will be plowed up because winter killed or otherwise destroyed in the state 4, in the southern counties 3, in the central counties 5, and in the northern counties 2.

The weather during April was very unfavorable for oat seeding. The acreage sown, as compared with 1902, is 97.

The per cent of spring pigs saved compared with 1902 is 92, and of lambs 93.

The average monthly wages, with board, in the southern counties is $21 23, central counties $20 [illegible], northern counties $21 [illegible], and in the state $21 [illegible]. The average wages by the day without board, in the southern counties is $1.[illegible], central counties $1 [illegible], northern counties $1 24, and in the state $1 23. The average wages by the month last year was $20 20, by the day $1 23. Many correspondents report farm laborers very scarce.

The condition of fruit was very uncertain. The freezing weather which occurred during the last days of April injured some kinds of fruit seriously. Early strawberries, some varieties of peaches, plums and cherries were affected, but the extent of the damage cannot be fully determined until next month.

The following table will show the prospect for a crop of the various kinds of fruit at the present time:

	State.	South.	Cen.	North.
Apples	71	70	67	86
Pears	65	63	65	78
Peaches	53	46	63	75
Plums	73	72	72	78
Cherries	77	73	81	87
Small fruit..	78	74	88	91

Great Time For the Editors.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 11.—The Soo Evening News announces a great time for the State Press association here in June. Messrs. Otto Fowle, M. J. Magree, W. M. Snell, M. A. Hays an W. F. Knox have been appointed a general committee to make necessary arrangements for the entertainment of the editors who will spend three days at the Soo on their midsummer excursion. The Chamber of Commerce has made a generous appropriation, which will be supplemented by individual subscriptions, for defraying the expenses of the committee.

Galloway Jury Couldn't Agree.

Jackson, Mich., May 11.—The jury in the Galloway case, which retired at 10:45 Saturday, was discharged late last night, having been unable to agree. Galloway, who conducted a religious home for the poor, was charged with a statutory offense by a young girl, the daughter of one of the inmates of the institution, the mother being also charged with abetting his offense.

Twin Cities Were Dry.

St. Joseph, Mich., May 11.—The effect of the grand jury was felt more Sunday than on any day since it convened. Saloons and drug stores were closed tighter than ever known before. The mayor and officers declare the liquor laws will be strictly enforced. Prosecuting Attorney Riford made complaint against a Benton Harbor saloon, which immediately closed.

Threw Away Good Powder.

New York, May 9.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald says: Forty thousand dollars' worth of smokeless powder ammunition was thrown overboard from the battleship Olympia off the Gulf coast of Honduras last March because it was supposed to be defective. A board of powder experts has reported that the ammunition was good. The investigation has not ended.

Locked the Young Strikers In.

Lancaster, Pa., May 9.—Eighty boys and girls employed in the spinning-room of the Columbia silk mill at Columbia struck Friday for an advance of 33⅓ per cent. The management locked the strikers in the spinning room, but the boys got out by means of a fire escape. The girls then battered down the doors and left the building.

Quick Arrest.

J. A. Gulledge of Verbena, Ala. was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at C. A. Wright's, druggist.

COURSES ARE DEFICIENT.

School Superintendents Believe More Practical Teaching is Needed.

Lansing, Mich., May 9.—The annual meeting of the State Association of City Superintendents of Schools was held here Friday, about fifty educators from various parts of the state being in attendance. Papers were read and discussed by L. H. Jones of Ypsilanti, J. D. Hiller of Niles, Kirkland of Flint, Waite of Kalamazoo, Elson of Grand Rapids, Whitney of Ann Arbor and Superintendent of Public Instruction Fall. In all of the addresses the speakers favored a change in the present system of education, maintaining that the course of study is deficient in that it educates too little along more rational practical lines.

Principal Waite outlined a plan for introducing manual training in the smaller schools and advised an arrangement for the joint employment of a special teacher by such schools. The discussion showed that the educators generally were in favor of more practical training.

ATE WILD PARSNIPS.

Mother Dead, Girl Dying and Boy Dangerously Ill.

Bay City, Mich., May 9.—Mrs. Fred Bachman of this city, with her son and daughter, went to Crump, Bay county, Thursday to visit relatives. Yesterday they ate wild parsnips, and information has come to the police department that the woman is dead, the girl dying and the boy dangerously sick. A doctor has been sent to them.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, May 9.—Michigan pensions were granted Friday as follows: Original—Edgar Marsh, Ionia, $10. Increase—Eustum M. Hinman, Hastings, $12; George P. Johnson, Ludington, $12; James E. Kibler, Berrien Center, $16; S. D. Stone, Petoskey, $10; A. V. Smith, Charlevoix, $12; J. H. Noah, Sheridan, $24; Daniel McConnell, Grand Rapids, $12; Isaac Galion, Pompeii, $17. Widows—Flora B. Townsend, Marshall, $8; Lorinda Foster, Lansing, $8; Mary J. Conklin, Bear Lake, $8; Rachel M. Harper, Flint, $8; Alice P. Gavin, Traverse City, $8.

Can They Accept Carnegie's Offer?

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 9.—The $20,000 library offered the city by Andrew Carnegie cannot be accepted unless a guarantee is made that $2,000 a year will be expended for care and books. The Ann Arbor school board and the Ladies' library spend about $2,000 for books. The two organizations are anxious to pool interests and secure the library, but the right of the school board to bind its successors to such an expenditure is questioned. Attorney Laurence is drawing up an opinion on the matter.

Returned More Indictments.

St. Joseph, Mich., May 9.—The grand jury adjourned last evening, after a four weeks' session, to meet again Sept. 10. Eight cases under consideration will be carried over until then. Eight indictments were returned just before adjournment, three [illegible] men for violation of the liquor laws, one for gambling, two for gambling dens in Benton Harbor, one in St. Joseph, and for one Benton Harbor liquor dealer. Twenty-five indictments were returned during the session.

Immense Sums For Water Power.

Ishpeming, Mich., May 9.—In addition to operating the pulp mill which the I. Stephenson company is to build at Wells, Delta county, this summer, the water power to be developed at Chandler Falls, near Swanzy, Marquette county, will, it is announced, also provide power for the street railway at Escanaba. The cost of the dam and power plant, together with the transmission line to Escanaba, is estimated by the engineers at a quarter of a million.

Killed While Returning From School.

Detroit, Mich., May 9.—Benigena Schiets, eight years of age and living with her parents at 10 Baldwin street, was struck by the Cleveland flyer on the Lake Shore tracks Friday afternoon, near the Solvay Process company grounds, while on her way home from school. Her companions saw her danger and ran after her; the little one was caught before she could escape. The Solvay ambulance took her to her home, but she died while on the way there.

Charged With Arson.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., May 9.—Leonard Wood, living at 1290 Wabash avenue, Detroit, was arrested at his home Friday afternoon and brought to this city. He is charged with having on July 12, 1899, set fire to the livery barn of Charles Henderson of Memphis, in this county. At that time Wood was running a livery barn there and Henderson started an opposition stable.

Hanged Himself to a Bridge.

Detroit, Mich., May 9.—Sick and out of work, brooding over his troubles, Charles J. French of 457 Fourteenth avenue at a late hour made his way to the Michigan Central viaduct, between Tenth and Twelfth streets, on River street, and there hanged himself, evidently by lowering himself over the railing. His body was discovered at dawn in the morning swinging over the tracks at the end of a rope nearly twenty feet long.

Echo of the Andrews Case.

Detroit, Mich., May 9.—Just before the City Savings bank went to the wall Frank C. Andrews made out two notes in favor of the bank on the Commercial National bank. One was for $57,000 and the other for $50,000. As the Commercial National had none of Andrews' money on deposit Andrews was sued, and Friday judgment by default was taken for $108,387 50 by the Union Trust company as receiver.

Found Dead in His Cellar.

South Lyon, Mich., May 9.—William Blackwood of this village, a retired farmer and highly respected, was found dead in his cellar. He had been in poor health for some time. The cause of death was heart trouble.

Safecrackers Get Heavy Sentences.

Adrian, Mich., May 11.—Upon their plea of guilty in the circuit court, Judge Chester gave the three safecrackers sentences that will keep them out of mischief for some time. Bert Rogers drew five years at Ionia. Ed Ryan will spend ten years at Jackson. Thomas Burke was given ten years at Ionia. The trio are the most desperate characters that Lenawee's bastile has housed in many days.

K. of P. Convention.

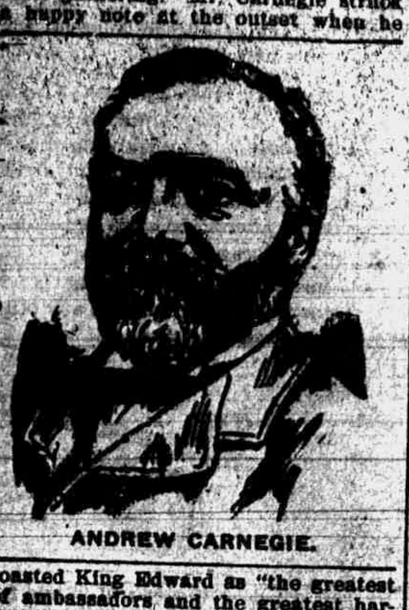
Saginaw, Mich., May 11.—The thirty-first annual session of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias will be in session May 12-14, and the grand lodge assemblage of Rathbone Sisters the same dates. A large delegation is expected.

CARNEGIE PRESIDED

Notable Gathering of Iron and Steel Magnates of England.

London, May 9.—Andrew Carnegie presided at the annual dinner of the iron and steel institution last night at Hotel Cecil. Prime Minister Balfour was seated at the right and the Duke of Devonshire at the left hand of the chairman. The 550 guests present included Ambassador Choate, Secretary White, Lord Alverstone, Sir Henry Fowler, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, John Morley and James Bryce.

Seldom has a citizen of a foreign country been the center of a more brilliant gathering. Mr. Carnegie struck a happy note at the outset when he toasted King Edward as "the greatest of ambassadors and the greatest harmonizing force" and kept Premier Balfour in merry mood with his American anecdotes.



ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Almost all the speeches eulogized Mr. Carnegie, Sir Henry Fowler practically referring to his priceless services in promoting the friendship of the United States and Great Britain. These allusions were all warmly cheered. The toast to Mr. Carnegie's health was received with the singing of ::For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and three cheers and "another for Mrs. Carnegie." Mr. Carnegie's response was in a humorous vein and elicited constant laughter.

Ten Bodies Recovered.

Roanoke, Va., May 9.—A special from Bluefield, W. Va., to the Roanoke Times says: Further information from the Eggleston tunnel disaster show that ten dead bodies have been recovered from the debris so far removed. It is claimed that there still remain several bodies in the tunnel which there is no hope of being taken out alive. A report current here is to the effect that nineteen men in all were killed, while three were fatally injured and several slightly hurt. The tunnel has been the scene of several serious accidents and has given the railroad company considerable trouble in the past few years.

"For the Good of the Service."

Washington, May 9.—Secretary of War Root has accepted the resignation of First Lieutenant Charles P. Faulkner of the [illegible] infantry, indorsing his action "for the good of the service." Faulkner while serving in Alaska was charged with misappropriating funds belonging to enlisted men and also with being short in his accounts. The money losses were made good by the young man's father, ex-Senator Faulkner of West Virginia. Leniency was shown because of the good record of the officer in the Philippines.

A Double Hanging.

St. Louis, May 9.—Henry Wilson and Sampson Gray, negroes, were hanged in the jail yard Friday. Gray was condemned to death for killing another negro for money, and Wilson was convicted for the murder of Thomas Mooney, a levee saloonkeeper, whom he attempted to hold up.

Clear $5,000,000 on a Cotton Deal.

New York, May 11.—The speculative cotton syndicate, of which Daniel Sully, the bull leader, is the head, is fast disposing of its holdings of about 500,000 bales of May, to clean up an estimated profit of $6,000,000. Sully's personal profit in the gigantic deal is estimated at $1,000,000. The net profit for the syndicate, it is estimated, will be in the neighborhood of $5,000,000.

GENERAL MARKETS.

IN BEAUTIFUL SPOT.

President Spent a Quiet Sunday Away From the Curious.

Hotel Del Monte, Cal., May 11.—President Roosevelt Sunday spent one of the most restful days he has had since his trip began. In one of the most beautiful spots in California, two miles from the nearest city, unhampered by curious crowds, he had a chance to thoroughly rest and prepare for the present week, which promises to be one of the busiest of his journey.

His train arrived here at midnight, but he did not leave it until about 9 o'clock in the morning. At that time Colonel Ward and a detachment of the Fifteenth infantry, who are stationed at Fort Monterey, arrived at his car. After the president had greeted the colonel and his staff he was escorted to the hotel, where he and his party had breakfast. At the conclusion of the meal the president and a small party rode horseback over the famous seventeen miles' drive along the sea. Governor Pardee and some others of the party drove over the route in carriages. The weather was perfect and the trip was greatly enjoyed by the president, who was enthusiastic over the scenery.

In the afternoon he attended St. John's chapel, on the hotel grounds. The services were conducted by Rev. Hobart Chettwood, the chaplain. At the conclusion of the services the president, Secretary Moody, President Butler of Columbus college and President Wheeler of the University of California spent two hours strolling about the hotel grounds.

The president passed the evening quietly at the hotel. The start for the north began at 8 o'clock this morning.

San Francisco, May 11.—H. M. S. Garfton, the flagship of the British squadro nof the Pacific, with Admiral Bickerford on board, arrived here last evening from Esquimault to take part in the reception to President Roosevelt on Tuesday afternoon.

A feature of Tuesday's parade will be the part taken by the British sailors, who will march side by side on American soil with the sailors of the United States navy.

PERSHING RETURNS.

Moral Effect of Fight With Dattos Will Be Far-Reaching.

Manila, May 11.—Captain Pershing and his column have returned to camp Vikars, Mindanoa, from the expedition through the country east of Lakelanao. The column experienced no opposition after the fighting at the Taraca. The prisoners captured at Taraca took the oath of allegiance to the United States and were released. Among the Moros killed in the Taraca forts were nine Dattos and one sultan. The moral effect of this fight will be far-reaching and it is doubtful if there will be any further hostility in the Lakelanao country.

Captain Pershing estimates the population of Taraca at 20 000 and that of the district at 100,000. He says the population of the Lakelanao district has been underestimated. Four natives have been found guilty of the murder of three American marines at Olangapo, Subig Bay, last September and have been sentenced to death. The Ladrones situation seems to have materially improved. In Albay province it is still unsatisfactory, but the other districts which recently have been disturbed are quieter.

Brothers Met After Fifty Years.

Milwaukee, May 11.—By a strange coincidence Charles and Henry Lierman, inmates of the National Soldiers' home in this city, have been reunited after a separation of half a century. It was a chance remark of William Brandt, the chief cook at the home, who said that the Liermans, who are acting in the capacity of waiters, look enough like to be brothers, which established their identity. Charles said he came from Wiasmar, Germany. Henry, who had appeared to take a like interest, remarked that Wiasmer was his former home. Question followed question until Henry, satisfied of his relationship, clapped the new arrival in his arms and excitedly exclaimed: "Charlie, you are my brother, whom I left fifty years ago and have never seen since." Then the brothers embraced, tears streaming down their grizzled cheeks.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Hinted There Was Trouble.—"While addressing his party last Friday concerning Manchuria," says the Tokio correspondent of the London Daily Mail in a dispatch, "Marquis Ito hinted that there was trouble ahead."

Dredging Companies Combine.—Twenty dredging companies of the great lakes have combined in an association and opened offices in Chicago. The companies interested are the biggest on the lakes.

Student Drowned While Canoeing.—Charles W. Sherrerd of Scranton, Pa., a student in the senior class of the Rennselaer Polytechnic institute, was drowned at Troy in the Hudson while canoeing. A sudden squall upset the craft.

Big Reward For Murderer.—A man whose name is withheld sent $4,000 to J. J. Mahoney of the Knights of Columbus of Lorain, O., to be offered as a reward for the murderer of Agatha Reichlin. This sum will be added to the $1,000 already offered by the county.

Won't Preach Where There's Music.—Because the congregation of the Second United Presbyterian church of Pittsburg voted to install an organ in the church the pastor, Rev. J. S. Littell, D. D., resigned his charge, to date from the day of the organ installation. He says the innovation is opposed to the laws of the church.

Greek Prince Betrothed.—The betrothal of Prince Andreas, fourth son of King George of Greece, and Princess Alice, eldest daughter of Prince Louis of Battenburg, is officially confirmed. It was arranged at the time of King Edward's coronation. Princess Alice was Queen Victoria's favorite great grandchild.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near her came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by all druggists.

Pocket Knives and Razors

In this department we handle the Griffon goods, mostly, whose manufacturers have the reputation as makers of the best grade of jack-knives, pen-knives and razors in the country. The blades are made of the highest grade of English cutlery steel, tempered by a special process, file and wire tested, enabling the manufactures to warrant all knife blades free from flaws and of a temper to take and keep a keen cutting edge.

A dozen or more different patterns, 50c

Selected pearl handled at 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.75.

A good pocket knife, though not the Griffon, at 25c.

"Boy's Favorite" with chain, 10c.

Griffon safety razors, $1.50 and $2.25.

The safety razor is the razor of the future, even though in the past there have been objections to them owing to the great amount of trouble necessary in their usage, all of which has been overcome by the Improved Griffon Safety Razor. It is the only Safety razor which is made with "automatic self adjusting clamps" and "safety shoulders. The clamps being set automatically, the blade is self-adjusting, while the "shoulders" which can be adjusted either for close or ordinary shaving, also prevents the blade from projecting beyond the safety point, making it absolutely impossible to cut the face while shaving. It is difficult to realize that a razor can be so constructed that it will shave smoother, better and closer than the ordinary razor, and at the same time the cutting or irritating of the face, no matter how the razor may be used, is impossible, but such is the case of the Improved Griffon Safety Razor.

The blades of these razors are hand forged from the highest grade of steel and full hollow ground, and when used in connection with a good stropping machine, will hold their edge for years without requiring honing. The Improved Griffon Automatic Stropping Machine with strop combined at $1.50.

The Tourist's Case, containing the Improved Griffon Safety Razor and automatic stropping machine, comes at $3.25.

Leather case, plush lined, containing Griffon Safety Razor with two blades and automatic stropping machine, at $5.00 for the case.

Wade & Butcher Razors. A razor with world wide reputation and fully warranted at $1.50.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for dyspepsia, indigestion constipation and kidney trouble. Try them. Only 50c at C. A. Wright's

Few men are brilliant enough to make it necessary for us to use smoked glass while looking at them.

Mr. Joseph Pominville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by all druggists.

Erratic Editor Killed Himself.

Galesburg, Mich., May 11.—News has been received here of the death of Bert Smiley, for many years the erratic editor of the Enterprise. Some few months ago he went to his father's home, Kendallville, Ind. Last Wednesday night he bade good-bye to his parents and was not seen again until found by a farmer in the woods about two miles from Kendallville, shot through the temple, his revolver under his body. He was still alive and was taken to his parents' residence, where he died two hours after without regaining consciousness. He leaves a widow, who lives in Augusta, two young daughters and a son.

Neglect of Trainmen Caused Wreck.

Port Huron, Mich., May 11.—A coroner's inquest on the death of Gus Plager, the baggageman killed in the Pere Marquette wreck at Mayville Monday last, was held by Coroner Falk and a verdict rendered that the victim came to his death through the negligence of the crew of the eastbound train, which had run by Mayville, the meeting point. The testimony disclosed that the order delivered to the eastbound train calling for its passing the other train at Mayville had not been read by either the conductor or engineer before pulling out from that station.

A Dozen Indictments.

Saginaw, Mich., May 11.—The grand jury, which has been in session almost continuously since March 23, has reported to Judge Beach in the circuit court. As near as can be determined about a dozen indictments were returned relative to municipal doings. The court gave explicit instructions that no one concerned give out any information whatever. Those indicted will be served with notice to appear in court. There are a good many nervous people in the city, as it is not known who is to be called upon the carpet.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Scott's Emulsion is the means of life and of the enjoyment of life of thousands of men, women and children.

To the men Scott's Emulsion gives the flesh and strength so necessary for the cure of consumption and the repairing of body losses from any wasting disease.

For women Scott's Emulsion does this and more. It is a most sustaining food and tonic for the special trials that women have to bear.

To children Scott's Emulsion gives food and strength for growth of flesh and bone and blood. For pale girls, for thin and sickly boys Scott's Emulsion is a great help.

Adrian Times: Suit has been commenced in the circuit court through Watts, Smith & Baldwin by Charles D. Aldrich of the livery firm of Aldrich & Warner, against the township of Madison for $3,000 on account of injuries received about three months ago on what is known as the Treat road south of the city. Mr. Aldrich was driving Dr. Treat south from the city over this road about 12 o'clock at night, and was following the beaten track, when his cutter runner struck a large stone lying in the middle of the road, and covered with snow and both were thrown out and Mr. Aldrich seriously injured his back and shoulder, from which he has not fully recovered.—Hudson Post.

TURKS APOLOGIZE.

To Bulgarian Diplomats For Raids Made by Constantinople Police.

Tangier, Morocco, May 11.—News has reached here from Tetuan that the tribesmen have suffered defeat at the hands of government troops.

Constantinople, May 11.—The Turkish government has apologized to the Bulgarian diplomatic agent for the domiciliary visits made by the police of Constantinople last week, when about sixty Bulgarians were arrested and when the papers of the secretary of the Bulgarian diplomatic agency were seized at his residence. The agent threatened to leave Constantinople unless satisfaction for this action was given.

Washington, May 11.—The Turkish minister here has received the following cablegram from his government: "On the sixth day of May the Bulgarian revolutionists attempted to commit, at Monastir, anarchistic outrages analogous to those perpetrated at Saloniki. Thanks to the efficacious measures taken by the imperial authorities, however, they have been unable to put their designs into execution. Stoutsheff, one of the ringleaders of the Bulgarian revolutionary committee, perished with five of his accomplices in the village of Fraishna (Florina)."

For Your Vacation Trip.

The Yellowstone Park, the nation's playground, is larger than the State of Delaware and nearly twice as large as Rhode Island. As in size it exceeds all other national parks of the world combined, so in grandeur and scenery it is unequaled. Here are located the eight great geysers of the world. Mount Washburne, one of the peaks in the park, has an altitude of 10,388 feet. The whole park is an area of wonders unparalleled. It is from 1,000 to 5,000 feet above the level of the sea and is therefore within the zone of two seasons.

But to really know this wonderland you should take a trip through there. You cannot spend a vacation season more profitably or more pleasantly. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway offers choice of routes to and from Yellowstone Park. If you are interested, complete information about the cost of the trip, choice of routes, train service and tickets will be furnished on request.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system.

Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs. Ida O. Brown, Rumford Falls, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

An unmarried preacher in a neighboring town, who was young and new in the business, was leading the services at a young folks prayer meeting. SUICIDE

Chester W. Brownson was found dead in bed

SUNDAY MORNING

Had Several times threatened to take his life. Large dose of Morphine, this time brought speedy death.

The community was greatly shocked Sunday morning to learn of the suicide of Chester W. Brownson, a well known person of this place. On account of domestic trouble he left home last August and went to Seattle, Wash., where he has a daughter living. He returned last Tuesday evening and went at once to his home on Maumee street, where he was at the time of his death.

He had several times threatened to take his life but was each time mearly done to scare his family. Saturday evening during the absence of his wife he informed his children that he had taken poison and asked one of his children to rinse out the glass. The children, thinking this mearly a hoax, did not think seriously of the affair. This happened about 10 o'clock. When it was time for the children to retire, he requested his youngest son, Harlon, to sleep with him. During this time his wife was absent from home not returning till Sunday morning. When she went to call the child she discovered that her husband was dead. Coroner Stevens was immediately notified and a brief inquest was held. The facts brought out were, death had issued from taking morphine, as a small envelope was found containing a small quantity of the poison.

He leaves a wife, two daughters and three sons to mourn the loss of a husband and father. The funeral was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his late residence Rev. Seeley officiated. The deceased was 55 years of age and has been a resident of this place for the past 19 years.

THREE BURGLARS

Bert Rogers, Ed Ryan and Thomas Burke, the trio of safe crackers

RECEIVED SENTENCE

Saturday. Rogers will spend five years at hard labor in Ionia and the other two ten years hard labor at same place.

Judge Chester in circuit court today, had the duty to perform of passing sentence on three of the most desperate characters that have been in Lenawee's jail for many days, and he performed the duty in a most satisfactory manner, being neither harsh nor too lenient. The cases in question were those of Bert Rogers, Ed Ryan and Thomas Burke, the trio of safe crackers who were captured at Montpelier, O., after making a desperate fight. All three of them were arraigned this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary.

Bert Rogers, the younger of the trio, was the first man up to the rack, and took his little lecture from the judge stoically. He was charged with breaking into the safe at the Lesh & Young lumber office, in this city, and was sentenced to spend five years at hard labor in the state reformatory at Ionia.

The next man up was Ed Ryan, the middle-aged burglar, and he was sentenced to spend ten years at hard labor in the Michigan state penitentiary at Jackson. Ryan made the statement that he was guilty of breaking into the safe at the Hayden mill at Tecumseh, but claimed that the money found on his person when captured was not taken from there, and belonged to him. The officers deny this.

Thomas Burke, known among the safe artists as "Old Pointer," pleaded guilty also to the charge of robbing the Hayden mill company's safe in Tecumseh. Burke is anywhere from 48 to 60 years old, nervy and cunning as a fox. He looked bad from the effects of the flesh wound in his leg, received in the fight at Montpelier, but never made a whimper. His sentence was ten years at hard labor in the reformatory at Ionia.—Adrian Telegram.

New Ideas and

OLD POETRY

Only back one Generation yet it seems queer to us all.

"Billy" Baker, called for short, plain William Baker is a brakeman on the Jackson branch of one of the passenger trains. About 15 years ago he started to run on a freight train but on the first trip out smashed his finger and as the Lake Shore always takes care of its men when injured, they gave him a passenger run and he has remained since.

Now "Billy" was formerly a farmer, he came from down somewhere in Riga and his looks and many of his characteristics still remain with him, but a better natured man never lived and he has become a great favorite with all the travelers who come over the old line. Aside from this "Billy" is sharp as a tack and has always an answer ready for any man who calls at him.

The other night I was coming up on the Lake Shore from Adrian, we had waited at the Junction about an hour longer than usual, most of us were asleep when finally the Toledo train came in. There was quite a load came off this train and when filing into the Jackson coach a cigar man from Ann Arbor who weighed at least 300 pounds, called out to "Billy," "Hello Billy, how are you coming?" Quick as a flash "Billy" answered, "Don't come at all the Lake Shore always goes." Then the train started for Tecumseh and every body smiled.

The other day when coming down town, Dr. Bunnell stopped me and said, "Here is something that should be printed in the HERALD, think everyone would like to read it. I found it in an old box up at Mrs. Fisher's house and there are a lot more, when I get time will look them up and bring them down if you can use them."

MORE ABOUT MARY'S LAMB. X

Mary had a little lamb,
'Twas very sweet and fair,
She nam'd it Jimmy Cummins for
It had such a graceful air.

Now this lamb was very sweet,
She gave it lots of names;
The nicest one among them all,
Was Master Sammy Jones.

And this lamb, ('twas very sad,)
Did like to pitch a quoit;
No one in town could beat him but Young Newbold Satterthwaite.

This lamb would climb a cherry tree,
And sit and pick the fruit,
He said he'd lick John Anderson
For calling him a brute.

At her lamb she was so mad,
She call'd him a galoot,
And said he look'd like Jim'y Jones,
And then she slap'd his snoot.

The lamb he cros'd his little feet,
And look'd, (the little scamp,)
For all the world like that young man,
Whose name is Fred Van Camp.

Now this lamb was very fat,
But wore a dainty shoe,
And just because she lov'd him so,
She call'd him Bert Tribou.

Although it must be several years since this little article was printed, all the men mentioned above are alive and three of them are well known business men in Tecumseh.

It is said, however, that the lamb is dead.

GEO. N. STACY.

The following letter from a young woman describing her visit to St. Louis would suggest that it were written by an average Michigan high school graduate were it not in fact by one of a like grade in Macon, Ill., "Oh, but I had such a perfect beautiful time. I contrived there at 9:30 and took a cabby to the hotel. It was so converted, you know. We stopped at a house where we rode to our rooms in a refrigerator, and our rooms were illustrated with election lights. There was no stove in our room, but one of them legislatures in the floor, and the heat poured right up through. I did not have any appetite and could not get a thing I could realize. Honestly, when I got home I was almost an individual."

ROUND ABOUT US.

Bernie Strunk, a member of the Fifth U. S. Infantry, who served over two years in the Philippines, arrived at his home in Hillsdale last week. He left the first of the week for Bay View where he expects to spend the summer.

An editor announced that he would write an article on "Hell, and who will be there." Since then he has received letters from one lawyer, two bankers, three newspaper men, four hotel men, one barber and four druggists threatening to stop their paper and sue him for slander if he should dare mention any names.

As a sample of the small business coming before the legislature. both house and senate have passed a resolution directing the state auditors to examine and settle the $27.90 claim of Chas. A. The Adrian small pox scare originated in Blissfield. Warner was working with a Lake Shore bridge gang here when taken sick. He started for home but was seized at Adrian and placed in the pest-house. The car here has been fumigated and the men ordered not to come down town. It is to be hoped these precautions will prove sufficient. —Blissfield Advance.

John Chapell is doing considerabl business this spring with his carpet cleaner. When John gets a carpet to wash he carries it to the mill pond, ties a rope to two corners and hooks it over the timbers of the dam and gives the carpet a fling into the river below the waste weir. The ropes hold it in place and the water does the rest. After the carpet has been tossed, rinsed and sozzled about in the mad waves for several hours, John hauls it out a clean and respectable carpet, spreads it on grassy bank to dry, delivers it and collects his pay.—Linden Leader

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright druggist. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c, $1.00.

Beautiful Thoughts

The sweet, pure breath of the babe is suggestive of innocence and health.

A mother's yearning for children is inseparable from a love of the beautiful, and it behooves every woman to bring the sweetest and best influence to bear on the subject of her maternity.

To relieve pain and make easy that period when life is born again, is popularly used. It is a liniment easily administered and for external use only.

Mother's Friend

Pregnant women should try this remedy, it being undeniably a friend to her during nature's term of suspense and anticipation. Mother's Friend, if used throughout gestation, will soften the breasts, thereby preventing cracked and sore nipples. All muscles straining with the burden will relax, become supple and elastic from its continued application.

All fibres in the abdominal region will respond readily to the expanding cover containing the embryo if Mother's Friend is applied externally during pregnancy. Of all reliable druggists $1.00 per bottle. Write for free book on "Motherhood."

HARKEN YE

To the voice of Tecumseh People.

If you will but listen to your friends and neighbors, they will tell you how the pains and aches of a bad back, the annoyance of urinary troubles, the nervousness, the restlessness that comes from kidney ills, can be relieved and cured. Read what one Tecumseh citizen says:

Mr. George Merritt, the well known proprietor of the cigar manufactory, says: "I can testify to the honesty and worth of Doan's Kidney Pills. There is no humbug about them. I was annoyed for some time with a dull aching pain in my back at times quite severe. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I procured a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and after taking them a short time I found they were helping me. Finally the pain in my back disappeared entirely. Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid remedy for all kidney ailments."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Look at a man's mouth and eyes to tell his morals; at his voice and walk to gage his mind.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA ITS CAUSE AND CURE

Overwork any organ and it gives out—the stomach is no exception. Ask it to digest anything, everything, at any time in half the time required, and like an over driven horse, it balks. Nature intended the stomach should have regular hours. A time to work, a time to rest—and when you break up this habit, you upset the whole arrangement. The stomach nerves become exhausted, the glands refuse to act, the food does not digest—lies heavy, ferments and repeats. There is pain, gas forms, bloating occurs, the heart becomes irregular and a nervous, irritable feeling sets in. This is nervous dyspepsia and Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills its cure.

Mrs. R. VanDuzer of Tecumseh, Mich., says: "My trouble was with my stomach, the food did not digest properly and as a result I suffered from severe headaches. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Wright's drug store and as a result of their use my stomach is again strong, the digestion is perfect and my headaches cured. I think the medicine for nervous troubles cannot be approached." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase M. D. are on every package.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by all druggists.

CURTIS JETT CAPTURED.

Alleged Assassin of J. B. Marcum Taken Without Bloodshed.

Lexington, Ky., May 11.—The capture of Curtis Jett, charged with the assassination of J. B. Marcum in Jackson last Monday, was accomplished without bloodshed. He is now in the Clark county jail at Winchester.

Bearing a warrant which had been sworn out by Sam Jett, uncle of the accused, Sheriff McChord and a posse of seven men left Winchester at midnight Saturday. Reaching the home of Mrs. A. Haggin, Jett's mother, two miles from Jackson's Ferry, early Sunday morning. Six of the posse were stationed around the dwelling and Sheriff McChord and Deputy Stokeley approached the front door and knocked.

Jett's mother answered, and after parley admitted that Curtis was within. They were admitted and found Jett awake but in bed. He shook hands with the sheriff and said that he would give no trouble. Reaching under his pillow he drew out his pistol and turned it over to his mother to keep. He made no show of resistance and was landed in jail at Winchester by daylight.

Jett's stepfather, A. Haggin, charges that when Jett reached his house Saturday night from Jackson, he proceeded to draw his pistol on him and ordered him to get out of the neighborhood. Haggin went to Richmond and swore out a warrant charging Jett with breach of the peace by assault with a pistol. At the jail today Jett was communicative on all matters save the killing of Marcum. When asked about the statement that five men would testify that he killed Marcum, he sneered and replied: "What's that to you."

Seriously Injured by a Horse.

Lansing, Mich., May 11.—A 12-year-old son of George Mack of Delhi was kicked by a horse and knocked down. While the boy lay on the floor of the stable the horse stepped on his head. His injuries are serious and may result fatally.

Boy Killed by the Cars.

Houghton, Mich., May 11.—While playing about some cars on Copper Range road Clyde, the 5-year-old son of R. H. McDonald, was so badly mangled by being run over by the train that he died from his injuries.

Morning Fire at Chilson.

Brighton, Mich., May 11.—Fire destroyed the blacksmith and machine shops belonging to John Drew at Chilson at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

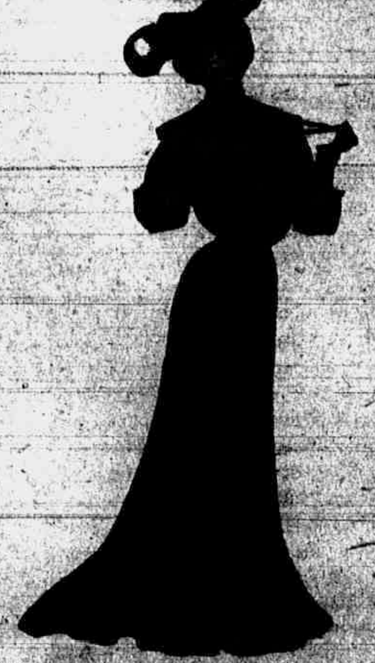
Home of Swamp-Root.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

LATEST FASHION NOTES.

An Attractive Black Cheviot Gown.

The gown here depicted is of black cheviot, flecked with scarlet, the blouse waist having a wide box plait in front, and, just above the belt, a cluster of corded horizontal tucks. The cape-like garniture, with its extension point in front, as well as the old cuffs, are of white broadcloth, ornamented with black and scarlet disks and small embroidered dots. The gored skirt has a corded yoke, panel front and inverted plaits at the bottom. The stitching, which is done with Corticelli stitching silk, adds to the further decoration.



As far as the shape of the skirt is concerned the clinging effect at the hips is still adhered to, also the becoming and generous flare toward the bottom and good models seem to be preferred. Panel fronts are also liked, as they give height to the figure, and at the sides and back one or two narrow shaped flounces are seen, which not only add very much to the appearance of the skirt but serve to emphasize the panel front. All the new skirts, in what ever manner they are cut or trimmed have one tendency: to make the figure as sylph-like as possible above the knees and full as possible below.

Uncle Sam's Mail Service

requires physical and mental ability of a high degree to withstand its hard labors. The high tension to which the nervous system is constantly subjected, has a depressing effect, and soon headache, backache, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, etc., develop in severe form. Such was the case of Mail Carrier S. F. Sweinhart, of Huntsville, Ala., he says:

"An attack of pneumonia left me with muscular rheumatism, headache, and pains that seemed to be all over me. I was scarcely able to move for about a month when I decided to give Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and Nerve Plasters a trial. In three days I was again on my route and in two weeks I was free from pain and gaining in flesh and strength."

Dumont's Airship on Trial.

Paris, May 9.—Friday was a record day in the annals of French ballooning. Dumont made his first free ascent of the season in his new airship from the balloon park at Neuilly, where the aeronaut has constructed a vast shed, in which are several of his airships. Upon leaving the park the airship was conducted by a guide rope to the Bagatelle drill ground in the Bois de Boulogne; here a series of maneuvers at the height of thirty yards and lasting half an hour were made. During the evolutions the guide rope rested free on the ground. Dumont is satisfied with this ascent, which shortly will be repeated.

School Children Striking.

Omaha, May 9.—Not only is Omaha's business almost paralyzed by union troubles, but now the public schools are threatened, for the school children are striking. About fifty took the initial step at the Holy Family parochial school yesterday noon to secure shorter hours. They immediately sent out pickets and induced about the same number to join them from the St. Philomenas school at the afternoon recess. There is also a union being formed of the children in the public schools, and at Kellom, a graded school, a walkout is threatened if one of the teachers is not removed.

MAYOR INJURED IN THE RIOTS

Fifteen Men Hurt—Sheriff and [illegible] Each Trying to Su[illegible] in Authori[illegible] Against Labor Ri[illegible] Their Members.

Omaha, Neb., May 13.—Judge Dickinson, in the district court, has on application of John O. Yeiser, an attorney, representing the labor unions whose members are on strike, issued an injunction against the business men and proprietors even more sweeping than that issued by the federal court against the unions last week. The order restrains the business men from refusing to sell goods to dealers who employ union labor, prevents them from boycotting union labor, requires the Business Men's association to cease holding meetings or conspiring against the unions or in any way interfering with the unions in the management of their affairs. The order of the court restrains the Business Men's association, and others named as defendants, as follows:

"1. From in any manner threatening to injure the business or person of any employer of members of complainant's union or member of labor union, or any person who may employ or desire to employ such union men, or from refusing to sell commodities and supplies of merchandise to employers of such union labor and from discriminating against such persons in the purchase of any such commodities.

"2. From threatening or intimidating in any manner any person into joining the said Business Men's association or any organizations to join labor unions.

"3. From threatening or intimidating any person who may have become a member of said association or organization if he employs organized labor or recognized labor unions, into discontinuing such employment.

"4. From imposing any fines upon its members, or any person, for violating any agreement not to employ organized labor or not to recognize a labor union.

"5. From receiving or paying out any money whatever in pursuance of any agreement to break up labor unions, except attorney in this action.

"6. From paying or offering any money to officers or members of unions, directly or indirectly, as a bribe to do or not to do any act in pursuance of any agreement or any of said defendants against such unions.

"7. From importing, or engaging agents or servants to import any laborers into the city of Omaha, or state of Nebraska, in pursuance of any existing plan to destroy labor organizations or under any similar or new arrangement or plan.

"8. From bringing any other injunction suits or actions, in pursuance of any general plan of prosecution, to break up labor unions, or of any new or similar plans connected directly or indirectly with any existing plans."

A GIGANTIC FAKE.

The Terrible Infernal Machine Was Made of Maple Sugar.

New York, May 13.—The mystery of the dynamite outrage of the Cunard pier has been solved, and Brian G. Hughes has leaped into international fame as the alleged perpetrator of the most stupendous josh of modern times.

The dynamite bombs found in the infernal machine on the Cunard pier three days ago, just in time to keep them off the liner Umbria, were composed of maple sugar. They were wrapped in dynamite covers. The guncotton in the machine was nothing more dangerous than hospital absorbent cotton. The thing was not as dangerous as a 10-cent mouse trap.

Hughes is a business man with a bump of humor. Once he took a prize in a horse show with an old crowbait plug worth about 30 cents, doctored up and provided with a pedigree for the occasion. On another occasion he carried off a prize at a cat show with a cat caught in an alley and cleaned up for the purpose. The genealogy he provided was almost preadamite in its antiquity and did the business with the solemn judges.

Hughes has temporarily vanished. Last night he was accused of being the author of the "outrage," and declared it cruel to suspect him—insinuating that the police were attempting to blackmail him or tamper with his reputation in some way. His disappearance is said to be a practical confession that he originated the whole plan, rigged up the box, sent it to the pier, notified the police with an anonymous letter by special delivery and then laid back to laugh at the excitement.

Officials of the Cunard line and the police are reticent as to whether they will attempt any legal proceedings against Hughes or drop the matter with a smile at their own credulity.

Check on Free Rural Delivery.

Washington, May 13.—Postmaster-General Payne has announced that there would be no more establishments of rural free delivery postal service until July 10th, beginning of the next fiscal year. This is one result of the investigation of postoffice affairs and of the discovery that at the present rate of increase in the number of routes there would be a deficit of $20,000 in the rural free delivery service by the end of this fiscal year. Instructions have been given to Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow to curtail expenses by discontinuing the daily establishments of routes, and it is expected that the threatened deficit will be averted. Mr. Payne estimated that the total number of routes fairly entitled to be established in the entire country would be 35,000, and at the present rate of increase this would be reached two years hence.

[illegible]h House Appoints Strong Committee to Compromise—Colby Doesn't Want a "Mongrel" Proposition—No Oratory in House Over Substitute.

Lansing, Mich., May 14.—The joint conference committee on the primary bills talked behind closed doors for an hour and a half last night without approaching any conclusion. The discussion was quite informal and of a preliminary character. The next sitting of the committee will be on Tuesday, May 19, when the conferees hope to reach some decision.

Events have moved fast in the primary reform movement in the legislature in the last twenty-four hours. Two stonewall committees have been appointed by each house to confer on differences and try to reach a compromise. Senators Baird, Smith and Jones are just as obdurate in their opposition to the wishes of the primary reformers as Representatives Colby, Wade and H. E. Powell are zealous and determined to secure a genuine primary reform bill. The house committee will undoubtedly be prepared to make concessions. It is doubtful if they will concede enough to suit the senate committee without a protracted wrangle.

Colby's Opinion.

"If the house has the backbone to stick for anywhere from thirty to sixty days we will get some kind of a good bill," says Colby, "but we won't stand for a mongrel proposition such as they have in Minnesota, which does not mean anything, and which would bring primary election reform into disrepute."

The present tone of the house was unmistakable Wednesday morning when the Baird substitute for the Colby-Powell-Stone bill, passed by the senate Tuesday, came over from the upper house. Just three representatives voted to concur in the substitute—Galbraith, Herkimer and Higgins—with eighty-two representatives voting "nay."

There was no oratory and the formality of giving the senate a chance to recede from its position was dispensed with as a useless waste of time.

Some senators still vow that the next Republican candidate for governor will not be nominated by direct vote. It is possible that an attempt may be made in the house later on to do something with a bill introduced last week by Representative Haliday of Osceola, under an old title. This bill reforms the convention system by the election of delegates direct to state conventions, one delegate to be elected from each [illegible] district—the [illegible] by the county officers under direction of the secretary of state, each district in a county to contain 500 Republican voters. This bill also provides for party registration.

Senator Baird's friends felt indignant to think that, though chairman of the senate elections committee, he was to be left off the conference committee, as was the original intention. It was fixed up by Baird being appointed one of the conferees.

Pythian Grand Lodge Officers.

Saginaw, Mich., May 14.—The following officers were elected last evening by the Pythian grand lodge, now in session here: Grand chancellor, Robert G. Steele, St. Johns; grand vice-chancellor, W. E. Hampton, Charlevoix; grand prelate, C. A. Palmer, Manistee; grand keeper of records and seals, Miles S. Curtis, Battle Creek; grand master of exchequer, Sylvester Greusel, Hastings; grand master at arms, P. L. Abbey, Kalamazoo; grand inner guard, Sam G. Carleton, Sault Ste. Marie; grand outer guard, A. G. Currie, Owosso; supreme representatives, A. W. Bennett, George M. Lusk and Leo A. Caro.

Wanted $7 Ton For Ice.

Lansing, Mich., May 14.—The Lansing Ice & Coal Co., which may be designated as the ice trust, for it is the only concern handling ice here, submitted a bid to the state board of auditors asking $7 a ton for ice that the state has formerly had for $1. The bid was rejected.

Floater Picked Up at Algonac.

Algonac, Mich., May 14.—The body of an unknown man, perhaps 40 years old and weighing 170 pounds, was picked up off Algonac. It was clad in a dark serge coat and vest, corduroy trousers, black and white shirt, cotton drawers, and No. 8 shoes with rubber heels. A miniature propeller screw, evidently a watch charm, was found in a vest pocket.

Drank Wood Alcohol.

Kalamazoo, Mich., May 14.—Fred Ticker, city health inspector for many years, committed suicide last night by taking wood alcohol. He had been taking the poison for two days past and last night, after swallowing nearly a pint, died.

[illegible]E CHRISTIANS.

[illegible]urkey Will Permit It in the Balkans.

Vienna, May 14.—The Austro-Hungaria squadron has been ordered to leave Salonica. The turretship Wien, however, will remain there.

The request of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria for an audience with Emperor Francis Joseph has apparently been refused. Prince Ferdinand has passed through Vienna and Budapest, returning to Sofia, where he arrived Wednesday. While here he had no communication with foreign office. Recent happenings in Macedonia have by no means strengthened the prince's position, and it is a question in official circles here whether the real authority at Sofia is not now lodged in the Macedonian committees.

The chief danger in the Balkans is now thought to lie in the turbulence of the Turkish population, whose fury against the Christians threatens to start a conflagration. The attitude of the Turkish government is viewed with much distrust by diplomats here. It is feared Turkey will permit the massacre of Christians, thereby enabling the Moslems to expend their wrath. Immediate developments are awaited with the greatest anxiety.

Sofia, May 14.—An anonymous appeal to Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria is being circulated clandestinely. It charges the prince with leading Bulgaria to the loss of its autonomy by becoming the tool of the Austro-Russian alliance and warns him to embrace the national cause and drive the traitors from power before cries against the crown are heard.

No Settlement of Chicago's Strike.

Chicago, May 14.—The offer of the Laundry Owners' association to arbitrate the laundry strike was refused last night by President Wilson of the Laundryworkers' union. President Wilson, in a letter to the Chicago board of arbitration, which had been asked by the owners' association to try to effect a settlement of the difficulty, stated that the strikers would never consent to arbitration until the employers should agree to discharge all non-union employes. The owners positively refuse to do this, claiming that such a step on their part would be unconstitutional. This part of the demands of the strikers has been a stumbling block to a settlement of the strike for the past week.

Submarine Boat is O. K.

Newport, R. I., May 14.—The final acceptance trial of the submarine torpedo boat Adder was held Wednesday, and at the end Lieutenant Frank L. Pinney, who was in command, said the Adder met all requirements. The Moccasin, the Adder's sister ship, will be given a similar trial today. The test began with a surface run, then three hours at a seven knots speed with only the conning tower and military mast showing above the water; a submerged run of five minutes and two dives. A torpedo was thrown at a shore mark.

Freight and Passenger Collided.

Lincoln, Neb., May 14.—A passenger train on the Burlington, bound for this city, collided with a freight train about four miles from Lincoln last night. William Batten, the passenger conductor, was killed; Charles F. Brundage, the passenger engineer, was seriously, possibly fatally, injured, and a brakeman was also hurt. The passengers were shaken up, but none was injured. The passenger train, an hour behind time, was running rapidly and overtook the freight on a sharp curve.

Farmer Took His Own Life.

Union City, Mich., May 13.—Albert Underwood, one of the leading farmers of Newton township, committed suicide at his home, a few miles north of this city. His mind had been unbalanced for several months and despondency led him to the act.

Made Young Again

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again" writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for liver, stomach and bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at C. A. Wright's drug store.

EMPLOYERS COMBINE.

In Kansas City to Fight Members of Labor Unions.

Kansas City, Mo., May 14.—The six thousand employers of labor in this city have banded together to fight the members of labor unions who use the boycott to gain their ends, and have organized the Employers' association.

The association has decided to refuse to deliver goods to those places where non-union men or non-union goods are discriminated against. This action has resulted from a brewing company employing union men, refusing to deliver beer to a hotel bar until the union was recognized. A member of the association retaliated by refusing to deliver ice to the saloons handling this particular brewing company's beer. Several persistent boycotts have been laid against several restaurants and various branches of trade in Kansas City within the past year because of the refusal of employers to recognize unions.

Must Pay Duty on Autos.

Buffalo, May 14.—As a result of an order just issued by the Canadian customs officials, no more American automobilists will be permitted to go into Canada with their automobiles without paying full duty on the machines. The duty is 25 per cent of the assessed valuation of the machine, and the duty will be collected each time a machine is taken into Canada. The duty is placed not only on machines of American make, but on all makes that are in use in this country and that may be taken into Canada by their owners for any purpose whatsoever.

Girl Jumped From Window.

Chicago, May 14.—Miss Laura Stickler, a stenographer, was found unconscious upon the stone pavement of an alley in the rear of the Hotel Newport, on Monroe street. She was taken to the county hospital and her condition is serious. According to her story to the police, she was taken to the hotel by a broker, who threatened her with a revolver. Whereupon she jumped out of a third-story window. The broker has been arrested and claims he does not know why the young woman made the leap.

Enmity Is Increasing.

Rome, May 14.—Various documents received by the Vatican, as well as the cardinals personally by every mail from the Philippine islands, tend to prove that the enmity between the secular clergy and the friars in the archipelago is far from abating. The general feeling in the Vatican is unfavorable to the friars. They have, however, some very strong supporters led by Cardinal Vives y Tuto, who is indefatigable in helping the members of the religious congregations in the islands.

Woman to Hold High Position.

Washington, May 14.—The war department has received mail advices from Manila that Miss Floy Gilmore has been appointed assistant attorney-general for the government in the Philippines. She is the first woman appointed to such an important legal position. She went to the Philippines as a stenographer and gained her present position by good work in the offices of the attorney-general.

Tragedy in New York.

New York, May 14.—A woman about 40, believed to be Mrs. Claude Guernsey of Philadelphia, is dead from the effects of carbolic acid taken with suicidal intent at the Hotel Navarre. John B. Walker of this city, who was at the hotel with her, was held by the police. Walker would make no statement other than he had met the woman a year ago and knew her as a widow. Bruises were found on her arm.

Wants Negro P. M. Fired.

Baltimore, May 14.—William H. Jackson, Republican member of congress from the First Maryland district, announces that he will ask for the discontinuance of the postoffice at Quindocquia, in Somerset county, to which Andrew J. Day, a negro, was recently appointed. This is said to be the first colored postmaster appointed in this state.

Pretty Girl Missing.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 14.—Sophia Kahnhooper, a pretty 17-year-old German girl, is mysteriously missing. She came to this country ten months ago and went to Ravenna. Two weeks ago she came here to work as a domestic. Sunday morning she started for the Catholic church, leaving her clothes and trinkets in her room and her week's wages uncollected, and has not since been seen.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Eight Fires at One Time.—Eight buildings on fire at one time gave the people of Leominster, Mass., such a scare as they never had before. Property valued at $60,000 was destroyed, one life was lost and many firemen sustained injuries.

Put Bullet in His Temple.—William E. Congdon, a wealthy lumber dealer, committed suicide at his home in Chicago. His body was found by his wife with a bullet hole in the temple and a revolver clutched in his hand. Despondency on account of poor health is the supposed cause.

Assumes Old Command.—By direction of the president, Gen. Theodore J. Wint has been placed in command of the department of Visayas, in the Philippines, relieving Gen. Lee. Gen. Wint formerly was in command of this department and has just returned from a visit to British India.

Parents Victims of the Russians.—From a letter written by his father, in a hospital at Kishinev, Russia, W. King of Denver learns that his mother, sister and brother may have been victims of the recent massacre, in which hundreds of women and little children were slaughtered by the Russians.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near her came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me." For sale by all druggists.

Commissioners' Notice.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, county of Lenawee ss.

In the matter of the estate of LAFAYETTE W. RAPPLEYE, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said county, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the residence of Benjamin F. DePuy, in the township of Macon, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 15th day of May, 1903, and on the 7th of October, 1903 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 7th day of April, 1903, are allowed by said probate court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated April 7th, 1903.

ALBERT WARING.
BENJAMIN F. DEPUY.
Commissioners.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee ss. Probate Court for said County.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate Office, in the city of Adrian, on the 11th day of May in the year one thousand, nine hundred and three.

Present, Harry L. Larwill, judge of probate.

In the matter of the estate of ANNE HENDERSHOTT, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Charlotte E. Oven, executrix of the last will and upon the estate of said deceased, alleging that the funeral expenses and debts of said deceased, and the expenses of administration thus far incurred have been fully paid, and praying that her final administration account may be allowed the inheritance tax upon said estate determined and for such other order and decree as to this court shall seem proper.

It is ordered, that Monday, the 8th day of June next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition.

And it is further ordered, that a copy of this order be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Situation Is Critical.—The situation at Tetuan, Morocco, is critical. The sultan is sending 3,000 reinforcements to that port. They are expected to reach there May 22.

Lived 110 Years.—Peter Stansley is dead in Upper Sandusky, O., aged 110 years, after an illness of seven weeks' duration. He is survived by a widow of 106 years, to whom he had been married eighty-five years. He was the oldest man in Ohio.

More Minneapolis Scandal.—Wm. H. Johnson of Minneapolis, superintendent of the poor during the Ames administration, was found guilty by a jury of the misappropriation of $150 of city funds. The maximum sentence is five years in the penitentiary.

Terrible Strike Riots.—Owing to a great strike of dock laborers at Valparaiso, Chile, all business has been sus there. Riotous strikers have destroyed street cars and have committed other excesses, several persons have been killed and great excitement prevails.

King Leopold Sued.—The report that the Countess Lonyay has brought suit against her father, King Leopold, has been confirmed. The countess claims that her share of the estate of her mother, the late Queen Marie Henriette, should be $3,400,000 instead of the $120,000 offered by King Leopold.

Wireless System For British Ships.—It is announced that the British admiralty has decided to immediately install the wireless system of telegraphy on all the vessels of the North American and West Indian squadron. The apparatus for the cruiser Tribune has arrived at Kingston, Jamaica.

Murphy Weakened.

Philadelphia, May 13.—William Murphy, for many years a messenger in the employ of the United States Express company, who was arrested on Saturday last charged with the larceny of $20,000, which had been entrusted to his care to convey from Pottsville, Pa., to this city, was given a hearing and held in $2,500 bail for trial. Detectives, upon information furnished by Murphy, recovered $19,955 of the stolen money.

Death Resulted From Quarrel.

Coleman, Mich., May 14.—Three farmers, Matt Zents and son and H. Moore got into a dispute north of Coleman over starting some bush fires. What followed is only known to the Zentzes. The elder Zentz claims Moore threw him into a ditch and Zentz's son hit Moore on the head with a club. Zentz and his son were frightened at what they had done and came to Coleman and got Deputy Sheriff Swigart, who went to the scene with Dr. High. They found Moore lying in the road unconscious. He was brought here, but never recovered consciousness, dying shortly after. Zentz and Moore were considered good farmers, and neither of a quarrelsome nature. The Zentzes will no doubt be charged with murder.

Weds For Charity's Sake.

Bay City, Mich., May 14.—Mrs. Mary Francis of Tobico, a full-blooded Indian of 68 years, giving her tribal name as Sah-zah-ne-no-qua, called at the county clerk's office and said she desired to take out a license to marry James George, also of Tobico. She represented him to be 71 years of age, and said he is so old and sick that she desires to take care of him in his old age. George, she said, had never known what marital happiness was, always having been a bachelor. He owns a small farm, and they think they can get along all right.

Whitecaps In Sanilac County.

Sanilac Center, Mich., May 14.—Because Mrs. Hake's husband believer the relationship of his wife and an alleged uncle who has been visiting her were improper, and because the people believed him, a posse of fifty of his neighbors visited the house and escorted the man into the country, where they left him with an injunction not to return. The irate husband would not forgive the woman, and she was given twenty-four hours to follow him.

Plymouth Lady Minstrels.

Plymouth, Mich., May 13.—Anyone who thinks society ladies can't "act" should see the Plymouth minstrels. The company is made up of fifty-three of the society ladies of the town, and they do the real blackface act. They gave two performances here which brought in $222, and on Friday night they will hold the boards at Northville. Their drill is exceptionally good.

Was It Suicide or Accident?

Petoskey, Mich., May 13.—Robert F. Kerr of Grand Rapids was killed by a Pere Marquette train, some of the crew maintaining that he threw himself on the track. The widow, who with her four children resides in Grand Rapids, knows of no reason for self-destruction and inclines to the belief that his death was by accident.

He Got His Price.

Robbie, the beadle of Kilwinning, once had to dig a grave for the wife of a well to do but niggardly farmer. When all was over, the farmer assured Robbie that he was obliged to him for the trouble he had taken.

"Oh," said Robbie, "there's nae sense in that, ye ken. It's just four and saxpence."

"Four and saxpence! I thought you beadles did this for nothing."

"Oh, faith, no. I just ay get four and saxpence."

"I'll not give you four and saxpence. I'll give you half a crown."

"Faith, I'll no tak it."

"Well, if you'll not take half a crown you'll get nothing."

"Very weel," said Robbie, digging his spade into the grave. "Dod, up she comes!" Robbie got his four and saxpence.

A Costly Precedent.

One of Philadelphia's rich young bachelors returned from a trip to the Pacific coast with a Chinaman as valet, having been induced to engage him by San Francisco friends, who said that orientals make admirable servants. One morning the Chinaman found a half dollar on the floor and was told by his employer to keep it for his honesty. Some days later the bachelor missed a scarfpin and inquired of the valet as to its whereabouts. "Me flound it on le floor, an' me kept it for my honesty," was the explanation.—Philadelphia Times.

The Careful Grocer.

"John," said a butter dealer, "always put in a couple of sheets of paper when you weigh. Customers will think you neat and cleanly in your business. They don't like to have their butter slopped on to a scale that, for all they know, has never been washed. And, besides, there's a good profit in buying paper at a halfpenny per pound and selling it for 18 pence."—London Standard.

Not So Disinterested as Appeared.

Biggs—I had no idea old Graspit was a philanthropist until I saw him circulating a petition yesterday for the purpose of raising money to enable a poor widow to pay her rent.

Diggs—Oh, Graspit's all right. He owns the house the poor widow lives in.—Chicago News.

TO THE EDITOR OF

As I am intense, this matter and consequen desirous that all Christian should realize the importance doctrine of the Kingdom of God, wit your permission I also should like to preach a short sermon on the text which, by a mere slip doubtless, seems to have been slightly misquoted by "D. W. L." viz., Zech. 14:9.

The Lord (i. e. Jehovah) shall be King over all the Earth.

The reference is strictly to the Kingdom to be set up by Jesus the Christ, which was to be the Kingdom of GOD, (Matt. 4:17, etc., Compare Matt 12:28.) For (1). Jesus is the Lord i. e. Jehovah. (Cf. Jer. 23:5, 6); and (2). His Kingdom is to be over all the earth (Matt. 28:19, 20.) In fact the very name Jesus means "Jehovah (is) Salvation"; or, in Jeremiah's phrase, "Jehovah (is) our righteousness."

But the Kingdom which Jesus set up has been spoken of more generally since the Day of Pentecost, when its actual active administration began (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:8), as the Church, i. e. The Holy Catholic Church (not the Roman Catholic Church) in which we all profess our belief when we recite the Creed. This change of name was most natural and can be easily explained, and had the Lord's own sanction. (Matt. 16:18, 19—where, observe, the keys of the Kingdom are evidently the keys of the "building" the Church.

It follows therefore that when Jesus went about always and "everywhere" preaching the Kingdom of Son as at hand, He went about always and everywhere preaching the Holy Catholic Church as at hand; and when He sent His disciples to preach the Gospel (viz. of the Kingdom of God) to all the world He sent them to preach the "good news" of the Holy Catholic Church to all the world (not the Roman Catholic Church). But that is just exactly what we have not been doing. Hence, I say, all the confusion of Protestantism.

We have failed to appreciate the true teaching of Jesus because we have failed to go back to the beginning of the Gospel (Mark 1:1, 14, 15). And so I maintain that as soon as we go back to the beginning and learn the true doctrine of the Kingdom of God, and apply it, these results will surely follow:

(1). Our commentaries will have to be largely rewritten; for that commentators have forgotten to refer our Lord's teaching to the Kingdom of God.

(2). A new life will come to the Church; because of the new and true grasp of the truth as it is in Jesus.

(3). Teaching and preaching only the Gospel of the Kingdom of God we shall be educated straight toward reunion—and that will be like the coming of the Millennium.

(4). Unbelievers will be to a large extent non-suited: for that it will be apparent at once that they have never really understood the Gospel to which they object (Christians themselves having so largely misunderstood it.)

(5) We shall see our way clearly through all the unrest and distress of Higher Criticism; for that has never touched in any way the doctrine of the Kingdom of God, but tends only to bring it out into high relief.

I might add other blessed results to follow, but have I not said enough to prove that the doctrine of the Kingdom of God is a thousand, yes, and ten thousand fold more important to the Church and the World than any other subject now before us. For what shall it profit a man if he shall learn a whole world full of truth but lose the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which is the Kingdom of God?

Thanking you etc.,

C. C. KEMP.

DETROIT'S HONORED GUEST.

Lord and Lady Minto Given a Hearty Reception.

Detroit, Mich., May 14.—The strongest trait in human nature knit in bonds of brotherhood the municipalities of Detroit and Windsor Wednesday afternoon, when those who love to do fealty to those in high places united in making a success of the dual reception to Lord and Lady Minto, the popular vice-regal of Canada and wife. Thousands of citizens of both countries basked in the gracious smiles of reflected royalty and in the rivalry to do the vice-regal party homage the mayor and aldermen and social agents of Detroit fairly outdid the efforts of the Windsor ones.

The vice-regal party landed on Uncle Sam's territory shortly after 6 o'clock, when the crowds of people were just leaving work. An unexpectedly large concourse of citizens lined the streets and waited eagerly for the distinguished visitors. Colonel Hecker's handsome and roomy yacht Vita brought them across the river.

Mayor Maybury, with the members of the committees representing the common council, the legislature and local society, were on board to receive the guests and welcome them to Detroit. Mayor Drake, Colonel Bartlet, Dr. Reaume and R. F. Sutherland of the Windsor party accompanied the visitors.

A reception followed at the Russell house, whither the party was conducted, escorted by Fort Wayne soldiers.

The distinguished party included Lord and Lady Minto, earl and countess, respectively, in the British peerage; their daughter, Lady Aileen Elliott; Major Maude and Captain Graham, aides-de-camp, and a number of secret service men. Lord Minto is a tame though handsome Englishman, with iron gray mustache. Lady Minto is fairly handsome, vivacious and self-contained.

Beat the World's Record.

Petoskey, Mich., May 13.—Petoskey Maccabees have beaten the world's record. Last night at the opera house they initiated a class of more than 200 candidates, far the largest ever initiated by a single tent of this or any other order. Great Camp Officers C. H. Thomas of Hastings and Perry F. Powers of Cadillac and Deputies Husted and O'Connor assisted in the work.

"My hair came out by the handfuls and the gray hairs began to I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, eff ed the hair from com stored the color."— No. Salem, Mass.

Chwang, ted as indi violating all preparing to esta asure in ty over the provin para- More recent information or. fact that the first report was erroneous and that Russia has not re pied Manchuria. Just what has taken place cannot be ascertained as yet, but it is regarded as most doubtful if there is any occasion for the alleged anxiety and apprehension regarding Russia's intentions. Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador in Washington, assures Secretary Hay that his country has no intention of violating the open door policy or obstructing the freedom of trade in China.

Russia has extensive interests in Manchuria, has expended hundreds of thousands of dollars in railroads and improvements in the province and is regarded by conservative statesmen as warranted in taking such measures as may prove necessary to protect her interests. These very interests have, however, excited the envy of other European powers and out of that and a wealth of prevarication grows the sensational aspect put upon the situation by the first reports received in this country. The State Department is prepared to view the whole matter in the most conservative light and will calmly await trustworthy information before taking any action whatever. The joint protest, which it is alleged was to be made by the United States, Great Britain and Japan has not even been contemplated by the Secretary of State.

It is impossible to predict with any certainty the outcome of the present situation. In some quarters it is believed that the time has come for the virtual, if not nominal partition of China and that Russia's action will be met by the other powers with a demand that they be permitted to establish over other sections of China the same sort of suzerainty that Russia insists on in Manchuria. Japan is the country most affected as it controlled 90 per cent of the trade of Manchuria, and reports from Tokio are to the effect that the most active preparations for war are being made. That Japan should attempt to drive Russia out of Manchuria by force of arms and unaided is incredible but it is believed in some quarters that the little nation will receive the assistance of Great Britain and it is alleged that the latter is actively engaged in trying to secure a pledge from the United States that this country will join in the attempt to force Russia to remain with in her borders.

The most important development in the Postoffice situation has just occurred. It consists of the indefinite suspension of A. W. Machen, general superintendent of the division of free delivery and the appointment, as his temporary successor, of Mr. M. O. Fosnes, the expert inspector who took charge in Cuba when the fraudulent practices of Rathbone and others were discovered. Machen has from the first been the official against whom were brought the gravest charges and who was most feared because of his powerful political backing. His removal comes as a result of an urgent request of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow who asserts that the inspection of the department will be carried on with greater facility and more satisfactorily in Machen's absence. If the report of Mr. Bristow is ever made public it will reveal the most appalling condition of affairs to have existed for many years in the Post-office Department, but so many prominent and respected men are involved in Mr. Bristow's discoveries that it is a matter of the gravest doubt if any report other than an expurgated edition will be given to the public.

The officials of the Treasury department have just rendered a decision which is received with the greatest interest. It is to the effect that "Dr. Crum, appointed by President Roosevelt collector of the port of Charleston, S. C., cannot draw any remuneration for his services under the law. This is due to the fact that Crum's nomination was sent to the Senate and that body failed to confirm it, in fact, practically voted on one occasion to report unfavorably on it. It will be remembered that there was a manifest desire on the part of the Senate to avoid meeting the issue squarely, although the President sent in the nomination during the regular and the special sessions. Having been virtually rejected by the Senate, the Treasury Department has decided that it cannot regard the Crum nomination as a recess appointment and only a special act of Congress will secure for him the fees for the time he has served, while he will be entitled to so emolument until he has been confirmed by the Senate, a most unlikely prospect.

Considerable apprehension has been caused to the officials of the Post office Department by the holding up of a negro carrier on a rural mail delivery route in Tennessee, the men being warned that the people would not permit any negro to carry the mail in that section. This man was appointed because he stood highest in a civil service examination and the Post office Department had no option in the matter. The route has been discontinued pending an investigation and it is alleged that if the facts are found to be as stated it will not be reestablished. It is reported that the people of the South have determined that no negro shall carry mail in that section and their determination is a source of anxiety to the administration. Under the law there is no provision by which the officials could prevent educated negroes from securing these positions, provided the negroes pass highest in the examinations.

Mortgage Sale.

Whereas, default has been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage (whereby the power of sale therein contained has become operative) made, executed and delivered by Benjamin F. Reynolds and Clarissa C. Reynolds, his wife, to John S. Strong, dated the 8th day of May A. D. 1895, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds, in and for the County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, on 15th day of May A. D. 1895, in Liber 139 of Mortgages on page 120; and which mortgage was duly assigned by said John S. Strong to Charles E. Williamson by instrument in writing dated the 19th day of June A D 1896, and recorded in said Register's Office on the 22nd day of June A D 1896 in Liber 143 of Mortgages on page 29, and which mortgage was further duly assigned by said Charles E. Williamson to Lorenzo D. Dewey by instrument in writing dated the 1st day of April A D 1898, and recorded in said Register's office on the 1st day of April A D 1898 in Liber 143 of Mortgages on page 391; upon which mortgage indebtedness there is claimed to be due at the date hereof the sum of fifteen hundred twenty-seven and 48-100 dollars (including the amount paid for insurance of the buildings on the premises described in said mortgage, with interest thereon, under authority given by the terms of said mortgage); and no suit or proceedings at law, or in equity, having been instituted for the recovery of the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that, for the purpose of satisfying and paying said claim, and the interest thereon, with costs of this proceeding (including a lawful attorney fee), I will, by virtue of said power of sale, on the 29th day of June A D 1903, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the east front door of the Court House in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee (that being the place where the Circuit Court for said County is holden), sell, at public vendue to the highest bidder, the following lands, in said mortgage described and conveyed, viz:—All that tract or parcel of land situate and being in the Village of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, to-wit:—Commencing in the south line of Kilbuck Street twelve rods east from the east line of Evans Street, such point of beginning also the north-west corner of the L. Good Thing for Tecumseh to do.

The school board of Tecumseh has purchased as a site for the Carnegie library about to be established in that village the residence property owned by the late Hon. B. L. Baxter, a former regent of the university and well known in all good works of charity, liberality and human sympathy. The situation is of the finest in the handsome village and its purchase for library purposes was not only wise in a business light, but a fitting tribute to the worth and memory of one of Tecumseh's most illustrious citizens.

The cause of education was especially dear to the old man's heart. Perhaps the dead do not come back to express their approval or censure of those things which, when they are gone, the living do. Perhaps they may. But if they do Tecumseh should not be startled except agreeably if on the breeze of fancy there comes again to its ears the cheery voice and the hearty hand clap of the departed ex-regent.—Detroit Tribune.

Dumont's Airship on Trial.

Paris, May 9.—Friday was a record day in the annals of French ballooning. Dumont made his first free ascent of the season in his new airship from the balloon park at Neuilly, where the aeronaut has constructed a vast shed, in which are several of his airships. Upon leaving the park the airship was conducted by a guide rope to the Bagatelle drill ground in the Bois de Boulogne; here a series of maneuvers at the height of thirty yards and lasting half an hour were made. During the evolutions the guide rope rested free on the ground. Dumont is satisfied with this ascent, which shortly will be repeated.

School Children Striking.

Omaha, May 9.—Not only is Omaha's business almost paralyzed by union troubles, but now the public schools are threatened, for the school children are striking. About fifty took the initial step at the Holy Family parochial school yesterday noon to secure shorter hours. They immediately sent out pickets and induced about the same number to join them from the St. Philomenas school at the afternoon recess. MALONEY & ROCKWELL.

George W. Frasier.

George W. Frasier was born at Dingman's Ferry, Pa. January 19, 1820 and died at Tecumseh, Mich. Tuesday, May 5, 1903. He was educated at Delaware Academy and became a teacher, which occupation he followed a number of years. At the age of twenty-five he left home going to Canandaigua, N. Y. and from there to Buffalo.

On his twenty-eighth birthday he was married to Eleanor Evans Mettler at Williamsville, a suburb of Buffalo. In 1852 they moved to Flat Rock, Michigan, where they lived seven years. During this time the cholera scourge visited the little village and Mr. Frasier nursed the sick and buried the dead, exhibiting a more heroic spirit than is required in the charge of battle. In 1859 they moved to Palmyra, Michigan, where he purchased the flouring mill then in that place.

He was elected supervisor of the township and was active in trying to bill the quota of volunteers required of the township. In 1864 he moved to his last place of residence in Tecumseh, Mich. Here he was elected a Justice of the Peace in 1893 and has been twice reelected to the same office, by a constituency of opposite political views, the people thus showing their confidence in him.

He has left the wife with whom he had journeyed 55 years, and four children, Mrs. Margaret Bailey, of New York City; Mrs. Mary Wright and Mrs. Jennie Bawden, of Tecumseh; and Mrs. Eliza Bell, of Bonne Terre, Missouri.

We have briefly sketched what would be generally considered the principal events in the life of our friend, but they do not reveal the man or his life any more than the mile stones along the highway indicate the verdure and flower and fruit that grow between.

He was interested in all public affairs which caused him to read much, and having a remarkable memory, to converse intelligently upon the various problems, political and religious, that agitate the public. Having a kindly charity for all he expressed his views with deliberation and with freedom from all passion, bigotry and intolerance and with well chosen words that impressed his hearers with the conviction that it was his earnest desire to express the truth.

He was a man of great self control. The writer has never known him to act or speak passionately or use a profane word. His was a reverent spirit.

We love to think of him as a friend. Whenever sickness has entered our house he has called to offer assistance when it was possible for him to do so. Nor do we believe he was partial to us in this respect. A man of kindly sympathies and generous acts he was the friend of all who were suffering.

But it was in the more sacred relatives of the family that the beauty and strength of his character was more fully revealed. We cannot speak of these things. We believe that He, who knoweth the heart has said, "Thou hast been faithful over a few things I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright druggist. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c, $1.00.

...says, ...o peaches in ...me. The trees are ...e cold weather last winter ...a single tree have we seen alive. ...ing opens with business active on that April of forty years ago despite the loss of the peach crop, and the high price of butter mentioned in our last article."

"Our efficient street marshal, Mr. Hyde, is doing a good job by cleaning Chicago street of all its rubbish and by fixing up the side and cross walks." Dr. Patterson is about to erect a new brick block on the corner of Chicago and Railroad streets and the editor says "More buildings are wanted. There have been many calls within the last few days for places of business of various kinds, but we are sorry to say that those who have been looking for a place to settle in business have been compelled to leave our village for want of business room they could occupy. This ought not to be the case. Those who have got capital and property here should see to it, that business that is naturally seeking the place is not drawn away for want of places. Half a dozen more stores would be filled at once if they were to be had. We hope that a number will be built this season, so that the growth and business of our village may not be retarded for want of buildings to do business in."

Ward & Strickland offer some remnant prints at 18¾ cts a yard. White wheat is quoted at $1.40, clover seed $6, dressed hogs $7, butter 28, eggs 14. "Services in the Baptist church of this place will hereafter be at 10:30 a. m. and 1 p. m." "There is to be a grand May party at Bidwell's Hall on the 18th All are invited. The supper will be served at the Exchange. Be sure and come. Bill $2.50." We understand that the new bell for the Methodist church will be here in a couple of weeks It is a cast steel bell of first quality and and weighs 1057 pounds, costing about $325.

James Kimball and John W. Keeney advertise for bids for building a school house in district No. 5, Franklin, said house to be 24 by 30 feet, the walls to be 10 feet high and built of stone.

The HERALD enters upon its 15th volume May 26, 1864 and its editor gives a brief resume of its history and a prophesy of its future in the following: "When the first number of the Tecumseh HERALD was issued in 1850 it was hardly among the probabilities of the case that it should continue, as it has almost uninterruptedly until it has now come to enter upon its 15th volume. Two other papers had then been commenced and discontinued in the village, and for the most part its citizens had come to feel that however desirable it might be for village interests or gratifying to village pride Tecumseh could not or at least would not sustain a village paper. But notwithstanding its varied changes and fluctuating success, we have come to feel that this little village advocate and village organ is at least a fixed fact among us.

It is true that the present extravagant cost of paper and all printing material has for the present compelled its publisher to increase the price of the paper but in doing so he has not by any means made himself good, on the basis of former prices, as two dollars a year would not more than do so, (the price is $1.50) but taking half of that loss upon himself he does not believe that any of his subscribers will object to sharing the loss with him and as soon as prices of material will warrant it, he will most cheerfully return to the former standard.

The present growth of our village is of the most permanent character, and justly proud of its excellent schools and its enterprise in the building of beautiful church edifices, it is fast becoming a desirable location for retired business men to spend their days in quiet, devoting themselves to agricultural or other rural pursuits, and the education of their children. (Did his prophetic vision behold the influx of tired farmers among us who resting from "agricultural pursuits" have become "thicker than butter on country bread" as Whitcomb Riley puts it?) He continues his eulogy with "It is said we have better graded streets, more plank walks (those plank walks were his admiration) and more forest shade in our village, than is to be found in any village of its size in this part of the country. We also have around us a large amount of hydrantic, as yet unemployed which will doubtless in many years be turned to mechanical account.

With such a flattering prospect for a continuous growth of our village and with the agricultural garden of southern Michigan lying around us, and the cordial support of the entire business community in our enterprise as publisher of their village paper and conductor of a job printing office it is not strange that we should enter upon the prestige and hope of a continued success."

The ladies of the M. E. church gave a fair at Bidwell's Hall June 15, the proceeds to go toward furnishing their new church. The weather was excessively warm and the hall well filled early in the evening. Ice cream and lemonade stands received liberal patronage Uncle Sim Davidson officiated as auctioneer and the proceeds were $900

Alvah Waring was not there evidently for he met with a serious accident on Saturday last. He was returning home from town with a mowing machine his horses became unmanageable, he was thrown from the seat and dragged some distance under the machine. No bones were broken and he is so far recovered as to be able to be around with the assistance of a cane." The Baptists also are in the procession on the march to improvement.

Messrs McKinney and Cole have commenced laying the walls of the new Baptist church. Judging from the appearance of the work already completed we should say it will not only be a substantial but also a fine appearing structure. Mr. McKinney has long been a resident of our village and as his work heretofore will testify is a perfect master of his trade. We learned that it would take three months to complete the masonry, could be done sooner, but for lack of brick.

Perhaps some of our readers are not aware that we have a soldiers aid society in this place which meets once a week on Monday evening. We understand that these meetings are not as fully attended as they should be. Now this is not right, for if any one deserves our aid it certainly is the sick or wounded soldier and every one knows that the hospitals have to depend on these aid societies throughout the country. for many of the real necessities of life, consequently their supplies must be kept up, but they can not be unless the people will take hold and work together, a few cannot do the work of many. The next meeting of the society takes place at the residence of Mrs. Wm. McNair. Let there be a full attendance.

In a previous article on Old Tecumseh we were made to say that Henry Stearns of Clinton, was home for a furlough. It should have been Henry Stevens, who is still with us and a pillar of the G. A. R.

THE CHURCHES.

At the M. E. church Sunday the 14th anniversary of the organization of the Epworth League will be observed. In the morning the pastor will preach to the young people on the subject "Remodled." In the evening an appropriate program will be given.

At the Presbyterian church Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the theme "A wonderful picture of Christ." Evening subject, "To thine own self be true."

Keep the Balaece Up.

It has been truthfully said that any disturbance of the even balance of health causes serious trouble. Nobody can be too careful to keep this balance up. When people begin to lose appetite, or to get tired easily, the least imprudence brings on sickness, weakness, or debility. The system needs a tonic, craves it, and should not be denied it; and the best tonic of which we have any knowledge is Hood's Sarsaparilla. What this medicine has done in keeping healthy people healthy, in keeping up the even balance of health, gives it the same distinction as a preventive that it enjoys as a cure. Its early use has illustrated the wisdom of the old saying that a stitch in time saves nine. Take Hood's for appetite, strength and endurance.

You Will Be Happy if W[illegible]

Paine's Celery Compound

Bestows that Health and Vigor that Makes Living a Pleasure.

If you are sick and out-of-sorts, it is in your power to make yourself healthy, strong, and happy.

There is not the slightest reason why you should go through life feeling sickly, miserable, languid, and melancholic. To be well and strong, means happiness and true joy.

If you are sleepless, rheumatic, neuralgic, dyspeptic, or have the shadows of disease hovering over you; if you are not as bright, energetic, and strong as you were some weeks ago, the use of Paine's Celery Compound will tone up and fortify your whole system, cleanse the blood, correct digestion, sharpen the appetite, and conduce to restful sleep. Thousands once in a half-dead condition owe their present good health to the use of Paine's Celery Compound. Mr. Wm. S. Gibson, of Pleasureville, Ky., who, through sickness and suffering, was brought near the dark grave, writes as follows, regarding his marvelous cure:—

"I have been broken down in health and strength, nervous system shattered, kidneys out of order, had nervous and trembling spells off and on for the last ten years. I have taken three bottles of your Paine's Celery Compound and all of the above-mentioned troubles have left me, and I can now do a good day's work, I go about my business all day long and it don't worry me, and I now feel better than I have in ten years. I have a good appetite, and can eat and get around on foot as active as when I was a boy. My age is 65 years."

HARKEN YE

To the voice of Tecumseh People.

If you will but listen to your friends and neighbors, they will tell you how the pains and aches of a bad back, the annoyance of urinary troubles, the nervousness, the restlessness that comes from kidney ills, can be relieved and cured. Read what one Tecumseh citizen says:

Mr. George Merritt, the well known proprietor of the cigar manufactory, says: "I can testify to the honesty and worth of Doan's Kidney Pills. There is no humbug about them. I was annoyed for some time with a dull aching pain in my back at times quite severe. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I procured a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and after taking them a short time I found they were helping me. Finally the pain in my back disappeared entirely. Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid remedy for all kidney ailments."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA ITS CAUSE AND CURE

Overwork any organ and it gives out—the stomach is no exception. Ask it to digest anything, everything, at any time in half the time required, and like an over driven horse, it balks. Nature intended the stomach should have regular hours. A time to work, a time to rest—and when you break up this habit, you upset the whole arrangement. The stomach nerves become exhausted, the glands refuse to act, the food does not digest—lies heavy, ferments and repeats. There is pain, gas forms, bloating occurs, the heart becomes irregular and a nervous, irritable feeling sets in. This is nervous dyspepsia and Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills its cure.

Mrs. R. VanDuzer of Tecumseh, Mich., says: "My trouble was with my stomach, the food did not digest properly and as a result I suffered from severe headaches. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Wright's drug store and as a result of their use my stomach is again strong, the digestion is perfect and my headaches cured. I think the medicine for nervous troubles cannot be approached." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase M. D. are on every package.
